TUESDAY, JUNE 25, 1867.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace,
May 27, 1867.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Her Royal Highness The Princess Louis of Hesse, Princess Alice of Great Britain and Ireland, will, by command of The Queen, hold a Drawing Room at St. James's Palace, on behalf of Her Majesty, on Thursday, the 27th of June next, at two o'clock.

It is The Queen's pleasure that Presentations to Her Royal Highness at the Drawing Room shall be considered as equivalent to Presentations to Her Majesty.

THE QUEEN'S DRAWING ROOM.

REGULATIONS

TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S DRAWING ROOM TO BE HELD, ON BEHALF OF HER MAJESTY, BY HER ROYAL HIGHNESS THE PRINCESS LOUIS OF HESSE, PRINCESS ALICE OF GREAT BRITAIN AND IRELAND, AT ST. JAMES'S PALACE.

By Her Majesty's Command.

The Ladies, who propose to attend Her Majesty's Drawing Room, at St. James's Palace, are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with the Queen's Page in Attendance in the Corridor, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to The Princess.

PRESENTATIONS.

Any Lady who proposes to be presented must leave at the Lord Chamberlain's Office, before twelve o'clock, two clear days before the Drawing Room, a card with her name written thereon, and with the name of the Lady by whom she is to be presented. In order to carry out the existing regulation, that no presentation can be made at a Drawing Room excepting by a Lady actually attending that Court, it is also necessary that a letter from the Lady who is to make the presentation, stating it to be her intention to be present, should accompany the presentation card above referred to, which will be submitted to the Queen for Her Majesty's approbation. It is Her Majesty's Command, that no presentations shall be made at the Drawing Room, except in accordance with the above regulations.

It is particularly requested that in every case the names be very distinctly written upon the cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to The Princess.

It is not expected that Gentlemen will present themselves at the Drawing Room, except in attendance upon the Ladies of their families.

The State apartments will be open for the reception of Company coming to Court at one o'clock.

TREASURY WARRANT.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her Majesty, chapter 96, for the regulation of the duties of postage, certain scales of weight and rates of postage were fixed and made chargeable and payable upon, for, or in respect of letters, newspapers, parliamentary proceedings and printed papers transmitted and forwarded by the post, and various regulations were made for facilitating the transmission of such letters and papers by the post, and by the same Act powers were given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury from time to time, and at any time thereafter by Warrant under their hands to alter and fix any of the rates of postage therein mentioned.

And whereas further powers are given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury by another Act of Parliament passed in the eleventh year of the reign of Her Majesty, chapter 85, for giving further facilities for the transmission of letters by post, and for the regulating the duties of postage thereon, and for other purposes relating to the Post Office.

And whereas certain powers are also given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury by another Act of Parliament, passed in the eighteenth year of the reign of Her Majesty, chapter 27, for amending the laws relating to the stamp duties on newspapers, and for providing for the transmission by post of printed periodical publications.

And whereas it is expedient to alter the rates of postage now chargeable upon certain newspaper and other packets transmitted by the post, via Panama, from the United Kingdom and certain other places, to the several countries and places hereinafter mentioned, and to fix certain other rates in lieu thereof in the manner hereinafter set forth.

Now we, the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, in exercise of the powers reserved to us in and by the said hereinbefore recited Acts of Parliament, or some or one of them, and of all other powers enabling us in this behalf, do, by this Warrant, under the hands of two of us the said Commissioners (by the authority of the statute in that case made and provided), order, direct, and declare as follows:—

1. On every packet consisting of a printed British newspaper not exceeding four ounces in weight, posted in the United Kingdom, addressed to New Zealand or Australia, and transmitted by the post from any place in the United Kingdom to New Zealand or Australia via Panama (the sea conveyance being partly by British and partly by colonial packet boat), there shall be charged and taken an uniform rate of postage (British and colonial combined) of two pence, and on every packet consisting of a printed colonial or foreign newspaper, not exceeding four ounces in weight, transmitted by the post from any of Her Majesty's colonies, or any foreign country, through the United Kingdom to New Zealand or Australia via Panama (the sea conveyance from the United Kingdom to New Zealand or Australia being partly by British and partly by colonial packet boat), there shall be charged and taken an uniform rate of postage (British and colonial combined) of two pence for the conveyance of every such packet from any port in the United Kingdom to New Zealand or Australia.

2. On every packet consisting of a printed British newspaper not exceeding four ounces in weight, posted in the United Kingdom, addressed to any place in either of the Republics of Bolivia, Ecuador, Peru, or Chili, and transmitted by the post from any place in the United Kingdom to any place in either of the said Republics via Panama (the sea conveyance being by British packet boat, or partly by British and partly by French packet boat), there shall be charged and taken an uniform British rate of postage of two pence, and on every packet consisting of a printed colonial or foreign newspaper not exceeding four ounces in weight, transmitted by the post from any of Her Majesty's colonies, or any foreign country, through the United Kingdom to any place in either of the said Republics via Panama (the sea conveyance from the United Kingdom to the said Republics being by British packet boat), there shall be charged and taken an uniform British rate of postage of two pence for the conveyance of every such packet from any port in the United Kingdom to either of the said Republics.

3. On every packet consisting of a printed British newspaper not exceeding four ounces in weight, posted in the United Kingdom addressed to any place in the Republics of Guatemala, Nicaragua, or San Salvador, or on the Western Coast of Mexico, and transmitted by the post from any place in the United Kingdom, to any place in either of the said Republics, or on the Western Coast of Mexico, via Panama (the sea conveyance being partly by British and partly by foreign packet boat), there shall be charged and taken an uniform British rate of postage of two pence; and on every packet consisting of a printed colonial or foreign newspaper, not exceeding four ounces in weight, transmitted by the post from any of Her Majesty's Colonies or any foreign country through the United Kingdom, to any place in either of the said Republics of Guatemala, Nicaragua, or San Salvador, or on the Western Coast of Mexico, via Panama (the sea conveyance from the United Kingdom to the said Republics, or the Western Coast of Mexico, being partly by British and partly by foreign packet boat), there shall be charged and taken an uniform British rate of postage of two pence for the conveyance of every such packet from any port in the United Kingdom to either of the said Republics, or the Western Coast of Mexico.

4. On every packet consisting of a printed British newspaper, not exceeding four ounces in weight, posted in the United Kingdom, addressed to British Columbia, California, Oregon, the Sandwich Islands, Tahiti, or Vancouver's Island, and transmitted by the post from any place in the United Kingdom to British Columbia, California, Oregon, the Sandwich Islands, Tahiti, or Vancouver's Island, via Panama (the sea conveyance being partly by British and partly by United States' packet boat), there shall be charged and taken an uniform rate of postage (British and foreign combined) of three pence; and on every packet consisting of a printed colonial or foreign newspaper, not exceeding four ounces in weight, transmitted by the post from any of Her Majesty's Colonies, or any foreign country, through the United Kingdom, to British Columbia, California, Oregon, the Sandwich Islands, Tahiti, or Vancouver's Island, via Panama (the sea conveyance from the United Kingdom to such last mentioned places being partly by British and partly by United States packet boat), there shall be charged and taken an uniform rate of postage (British and foreign combined) of three pence for the conveyance of every such packet from any port in the United Kingdom to British Columbia, California, Oregon, the Sandwich Islands, Tahiti, or Vancouver's Island.

5. All such respective packets so transmitted respectively as hereinbefore in this Warrant mentioned, if exceeding four ounces in weight, shall be subject for such transmission thereof respectively from the United Kingdom to New Zealand, Australia, Bolivia, Ecuador, Peru, Chili, Guatemala, Nicaragua, San Salvador, the Western Coast of Mexico, British Columbia, California, Oregon, the Sandwich Islands, Tahiti, or Vancouver's Island, to the several progressive and additional rates of postage hereinafter mentioned (that is to say):

On every packet, if exceeding four ounces, and not exceeding eight ounces in weight, there shall be charged and taken two rates of postage;

And on every such packet, if exceeding eight ounces, and not exceeding twelve ounces in weight, three rates of postage;

And on every such packet, if exceeding twelve ounces, and not exceeding sixteen ounces in weight, four rates of postage;

And for every additional four ounces in weight of any such packet above the weight of sixteen ounces, there shall be charged and taken one additional rate of postage; and in charging any additional rate of postage every fractional part of such additional four ounces in weight shall be charged as an additional four ounces in weight, and each progressive and additional rate chargeable under this clause shall be estimated and charged at the sum which any such packet would be charged with under this Warrant, if not exceeding four ounces in weight.

6. On every packet consisting of a printed colonial or foreign newspaper so transmitted respectively as hereinbefore in this Warrant mentioned, from any of Her Majesty's colonies or any foreign country, through the United Kingdom, to any of the several countries and places hereinbefore in the first, second, third, and fourth clauses of this Warrant respectively mentioned and specified, there shall be charged and taken over and above the several uniform rates of postage payable thereupon respectively under the provisions of this Warrant hereinbefore contained for the transmission thereof from the United Kingdom to such several countries and places, such further or additional rates of postage for the conveyance of every such packet from the British colony or foreign country from which the same shall be forwarded to the port in the United Kingdom of the arrival of the packet-boat or vessel (not being a packet-boat) conveying the same, as shall from time to time be charged and payable for British postage on such packets posted in any such British colony or foreign country, and transmitted direct from such colony or foreign country to the port in the United Kingdom of the arrival of the packet-boat or vessel (not being a packet-boat) conveying the same.

7. On every packet consisting of a printed newspaper, not exceeding four ounces in weight, transmitted by British packet boat, or partly by British and partly by foreign packet-boat, via Panama, from any British or foreign port in the West Indies, to California, Oregon, the West Coast of Mexico, or any port in Central America, Bolivia, Ecuador, Peru, or Chili, or, via Panama, from any port in Bolivia, Ecuador, Peru, or Chili, to any British or foreign port in the West Indies, there shall be charged and taken an uniform rate of postage of two pence, which shall include any foreign postage chargeable thereon.

8. On every packet consisting of a printed newspaper, not exceeding four ounces in weight, transmitted by British packet-boat, or partly by British and partly by foreign packet-boat via Panama, from any British or foreign port in the West Indies, to British Columbia, Vancouver's Island, Tahiti, or the Sandwich Islands, there shall be charged and taken an uniform rate of postage (British and foreign combined) of three pence.

9. All such respective packets so transmitted, as hereinbefore in the 7th and 8th clauses of this Warrant respectively mentioned, if exceeding four ounces in weight, shall be subject to the several further and additional rates of postage hereinafter mentioned (that is to say):—

On every such packet, if exceeding four ounces in weight, and not exceeding eight ounces in weight, there shall be charged and taken two rates of postage.

And on every such packet, if exceeding eight ounces and not exceeding twelve ounces in weight, three rates of postage.

And on every such packet, if exceeding twelve ounces and not exceeding sixteen ounces in weight, four rates of postage.

And for every additional four ounces in weight of any such packet above the weight of sixteen ounces, there shall be charged and taken one additional rate of postage, and in charging any additional rate of postage, every fractional part of such additional four ounces in weight shall be charged as an additional four ounces in weight, and each progressive and additional rate chargeable under this clause, shall be estimated and charged at the sum which any such packet would be charged with under this Warrant, if not exceeding four ounces in weight.

10. For the purposes of this Warrant, every printed newspaper transmitted by the post under the authority of this Warrant, shall be deemed and considered a packet, and shall be charged and chargeable with a separate and distinct single rate, or separate and distinct progressive and additional rates of postage according to the weight thereof, as hereinbefore mentioned, notwithstanding two or more newspapers shall be enclosed and transmitted in one and the same cover, wrapper, envelope, or bundle, and form only one parcel or bundle of newspapers, and every printed supplement or additional sheet to any newspaper shall, for the purpose of charging the postage, under this Warrant, be deemed a distinct newspaper; unless sent in the same cover, or together with the newspaper to which it is a supplement or addition.

11. Every British newspaper which shall be posted in the United Kingdom for transmission by the post under the authority of this Warrant, shall be printed and published at intervals, not exceeding thirty-one days between any two consecutive numbers or parts of such publication, and the same shall be registered by the proprietor or printer thereof at the General Post Office, in London, and shall be posted within fifteen days from the date of its publication, and the title and the date of the newspaper shall be printed at the top of every page thereof.

12. All packets consisting of printed papers (other than newspapers) or consisting of patterns or samples of merchandise of no intrinsic value respectively, posted in the United Kingdom, addressed to any place in either of the said Republics of Bolivia, Ecuador, Peru, or Chili, or posted in any place in either of the said Republics addressed to the United Kingdom, may be transmitted by the post between the United Kingdom and either of the said Republics via Panama (the sea conveyance being by British packet boat) subject to the several rates of British postage hereinafter mentioned, that is to say:—

On every such packet, if not exceeding four ounces in weight there shall be charged and taken an uniform British rate of postage of four pence.

And on every such packet if exceeding four ounces in weight there shall be charged and taken for such transmission thereof respectively as aforesaid the several further and additional rates of postage hereinafter mentioned.

13. All packets consisting of printed papers (other than newspapers) or consisting of patterns or samples of merchandise of no intrinsic value respectively, posted in the United Kingdom addressed to any place in Guatemala, Nicaragua, San Salvador, or on the Western Coast of Mexico, or posted in any place in either of such countries addressed to the United Kingdom, may be transmitted by the post between the United Kingdom and any place in Guatemala, Nicaragua, San Salvador, or on the Western Coast of Mexico, respectively via Panama (the sea conveyance being partly by British and partly by Foreign packet boat) subject to the several rates of British postage hereinafter mentioned, that is to say:—

On every such packet, if not exceeding four ounces in weight, there shall be charged and taken an uniform British rate of postage of four pence,

And on every such packet, if exceeding four ounces in weight, there shall be charged and taken for such transmission thereof respectively as aforesaid, the several further and additional rates of postage hereinafter mentioned.

14. All such respective packets so transmitted as hereinbefore in the 12th and 13th clauses of this Warrant respectively mentioned if exceeding four ounces in weight shall be subject to the several further and additional rates of postage hereinafter mentioned, that is to say:—

On every such packet if exceeding four ounces and not exceeding eight ounces in weight, there shall be charged and taken two rates of postage.

And on every such packet if exceeding eight ounces and not exceeding twelve ounces in weight, three rates of postage.

And on every such packet if exceeding twelve ounces and not exceeding sixteen ounces in weight, four rates of postage.

And for every additional four ounces in weight of any such packet above the weight of sixteen ounces, there shall be charged and taken one additional rate of postage, and in charging any additional rate of postage, every fractional part of such additional four ounces in weight shall be charged as an additional four ounces in weight, and each progressive and additional rate chargeable under this clause shall be estimated and charged at the sum which any such packet would be charged with under this Warrant if not exceeding four ounces in weight.

15. Every packet transmitted by the post under the authority of this Warrant (except packets consisting of patterns or samples of merchandise transmitted by the post under the authority of the 12th, 13th, and 14th clauses of this Warrant) shall be sent open at the ends or sides, and either without a cover or in a cover or envelope open at the ends or sides, and there shall be no written letter either closed or open, nor any written communication in the nature of a letter, either closed or open (whether such letter or communication be addressed to or intended for the person to whom the packet shall be directed, or any other person), nor any enclosure sealed or otherwise closed against inspection, nor any other enclosure not authorized by this Warrant sent in or with any such packet, nor shall there be any word or communication printed on the contents of any newspaper packet after the publication thereof, nor any writing, figures, or manual marks whatsoever of any description upon any such packet, or on the cover or envelope thereof, not authorized by this Warrant, except the name and address of the person to whom the same is sent; but the name or title of any newspaper, and the name and address of the publisher, newsvendor, or agent by whom the same is sent, may be printed on the cover thereof, but any other packet not being a newspaper may have any matter or thing printed on the cover thereof.

16. Upon every packet posted for transmission under the authority of this Warrant (except any packet consisting of printed papers or of patterns or samples of merchandise respectively posted in either of the republics or places mentioned and specified in the 12th and 13th clauses of this Warrant and by such clause authorized to be transmitted to the United Kingdom, and except any packet which shall be transmitted through the United Kingdom under the provisions of this Warrant), the postage thereof shall be paid at the time of the same being posted, and in the case of packets posted in the United Kingdom, such postage shall be so paid, not in money, but by being duly stamped with the proper postage stamp or stamps affixed thereto, which stamp or stamps shall in every case be affixed or appear on the outside of every such packet near the address or direction, and shall be of the value or amount of the postage duty payable thereon under or by virtue of this Warrant, unless any such packet be sent from any department or office in or connected with the public service of Her Majesty, which shall keep a postage account with the General Post Office in London, in which case the same shall be forwarded post paid, and the postage thereof shall be charged in such postage account.

17. Every packet consisting of printed papers (other than newspapers) which shall be transmitted by the post under the authority of this Warrant, may contain any number of separate books or other publications, prints, or maps, and any quantity of paper, parchment, or vellum, and the books or other publications, prints, or maps, may be either printed, written, or plain, or any mixture of the three, and all legitimate binding, mounting, or covering of a book, publication, print, or map, or of a portion thereof, shall be allowed to pass by the post, whether such binding, mounting, or covering be loose or attached, as also rollers in the case of prints or maps, markers (whether of paper or otherwise), in the case of books, and whatsoever is necessary for the safe transmission of literary or artistic matter, or usually appertains thereto, but no packet shall consist of or contain any photographs, drawings, prints, or other contents which may be obviously of an obscene character.

18. Every packet consisting of patterns or samples of merchandise which shall be transmitted by the post under the provisions of this Warrant, shall be so transmitted in conformity with and under and subject to the several orders, directions, regulations, and conditions following, that is to say:—

There shall be no enclosure, sealed, or otherwise closed against inspection and examination, nor any other enclosure not authorized by this Warrant sent in or with any such packet.

No pattern or sample being of any intrinsic value, or being an article or thing of a saleable nature, or having a value of its own apart from its mere use as a pattern or sample, shall be transmitted by the post under the provisions of this Warrant.

There shall be no writing or printing in or upon any such packet, or on the cover thereof, except the address of the person for whom it is intended, the address of the sender thereof, a trade mark, and numbers and prices.

All such packets shall be sent in covers, open at the ends, so as to be easy of examination. Nevertheless, samples of seeds, drugs, and such other articles and things as cannot be sent in open covers, may be enclosed in bags of linen paper or other material tied at the neck, but bags so closed that they cannot be readily opened, even although they be transparent, shall not be used for this purpose.

19. No packet addressed to New South Wales or Queensland shall be transmitted by the post under the provisions of this Warrant which shall exceed the weight of three pounds, nor shall any packet be transmitted by the post under the provisions of this Warrant which shall exceed two feet in length, or one foot in breadth or depth, unless under the special authority of the Postmaster-General.

20. Every packet transmitted by the post under this Warrant shall be put into the Post Office at such hours in the day, and under all such regulations as the Postmaster-General may appoint.

21. If any packet sent, or tendered, or delivered in order to be sent, under the provisions of this Warrant, shall be sent otherwise than in conformity with the several regulations, orders, directions, and conditions hereinbefore contained, every such packet shall and may (except in the cases provided for by the clause next hereinafter contained, numbered 22) be detained and opened, and at the option of the Postmaster-General be either returned or given up to the sender thereof, or be given up to the person to whom it shall be addressed, or be forwarded to the place of its destination; and every such packet on being so returned, given up, or forwarded, shall be chargeable with any rate or amount of postage which the Postmaster-General shall think proper, not exceeding the rate or amount of postage to which such packet would have been liable as a letter, nor less than the rate of postage which such packet would have been chargeable with if the postage thereof had been properly paid when posted.

22. If any packet, sent, or tendered, or delivered, in order to be sent under the provisions of this Warrant, shall contain any written letter or any written communication in the nature of a letter, whether closed or open, or any enclosure, sealed or otherwise closed against inspection, or any other enclosure not authorized by this Warrant, every such letter, or communication, or enclosure may be taken out by any officer of the Post Office, and at the option of the Postmaster-General, shall be either returned or given up to the sender thereof, or be forwarded to the address on the packet, charged in either case, not only with the full rates of postage, as an unpaid letter, but also with a further and additional rate of postage, equal in amount to the single rate of postage payable on such respective packets; and the remainder of the packet, if the postage be duly paid when posted, may be forwarded to the place of its address without any extra charge.

23. In order to prevent any obstacle to the due and regular transmission of letters by the post, any officer of the Post Office may delay the transmission of any packet, posted or forwarded by the post under the provisions of this Warrant, either for the space of twenty-four hours after the time at which the same ought to be despatched in due course of the post, or (at his option) until the despatch of the mail next after that by which the same ought, in due course of the post, to be forwarded by him.

24. The term "Australia," used in this Warrant, shall be construed to mean and include the following colonies (that is to say):—New South Wales, Tasmania, Western Australia, Victoria, South Australia, and Queensland. The term "British newspaper," used in this Warrant, shall be construed to mean a newspaper printed in the United Kingdom, whether it bear a newspaper stamp or not, and the several other terms and expressions, used in this Warrant, shall be construed to have the like meaning in all respects as they would have had if inserted in the said Act passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her present Majesty.

25. In all cases in which any question shall hereafter, arise whether any packet, or anything contained therein, transmitted under the provisions of this Warrant, is entitled to the privileges of this Warrant, and to be so transmitted within the intent and meaning thereof, such question shall be referred to the determination of the Postmaster-General, whose decision thereupon shall be final and conclusive on all parties.

26. The rates of postage hereby made chargeable on the several packets transmitted by the post under the provisions of this Warrant, and also the several regulations, orders, directions, and conditions hereby made applicable to such packets shall be in lieu of those now chargeable thereon or applicable thereto.

27. The Commissioners for the time being of Her Majesty's Treasury may by Warrant under their hands, or the hands of any two of them, at any time hereafter alter, repeal, or revoke any of the rates of postage hereby fixed or altered, or any of the orders, directions, regulations, and conditions hereby made, and may make and establish any new or other rates, orders, directions, regulations, and conditions in lieu thereof, and from time to time appoint at what time the rates which may be payable are to be paid.

28. This warrant shall come into operation on the first day of July, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven.

LOCAL GOVERNMENT ACT, 1858.

NOTICE OF ADOPTION OF ACT BY TEDDINGTON, IN THE COUNTY OF MIDDLESEX.

WHEREAS the Local Government Act, 1858, was duly adopted on the 9th day of May, 1867, by the parish of Teddington, in the county of Middlesex; and notice of such adoption has been duly given, in writing, to me, as one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, as required by such Act: and whereas it has now been certified to me that a copy of such notice has been duly advertised and published, as required by the said Act, and the period fixed for appeal against the resolution for the adoption of the said Act by such parish has now expired, and no such appeal has been made:

No. 23267.

Now, therefore, I, as one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State as aforesaid, do hereby give notice that the said Local Government Act, 1858, has been adopted within the said parish of Teddington, in the county of Middlesex, and that although such parish is a place with a population of less than 3,000 by the last census, it has appeared to me that by reason of the special circumstances of the case it is expedient that the said parish should be allowed to adopt the said Act, and I do therefore hereby approve of such adoption by the parish of Teddington aforesaid, and do order that the said Act come into operation within such parish from and after the 1st day of July, 1867.

Given under my hand this 24th day of June, 1867.

(Signed) Gathorne Hardy.
Home Office, Whitehall.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, having received a benefaction of one thousand pounds sterling, in favour of the perpetual curacy of Bayford, in the county of Hertford, and in the diocese of Rochester, in consideration whereof we have agreed to pay to the incumbent of the same benefice, and to his successors, a yearly sum of thirty-three pounds six shillings and eight pence, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, grant to the Incumbent of the said perpetual curacy of Bayford, and to his successors, to meet such benefaction, one other yearly sum or stipend of thirty-three pounds six shillings and eight pence, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the day of the publication of these presents in the London Gazette, and to be receivable half-yearly on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient to produce the yearly sum or stipend so payable out of our common fund as lastly herein mentioned, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said benefice in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this twentieth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, having received a benefaction of eight hundred pounds sterling, in favour of the perpetual curacy of Burton-in-Lonsdale, in the county of York, and in the diocese of Ripon, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, sections five and eleven, grant to the Incumbent of the said benefice of Burton-in-Lonsdale, and to his successors Incumbents of the same benefice, to meet such benefaction, one yearly sum or stipend of six pounds thirteen shillings and four pence, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control. and to be calculated as from the day of the publication of these presents in the London Gazette, and to be receivable half-yearly on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year. And we do also hereby grant and appropriate out of our said common fund to the said benefice of Burton-in-Lonsdale, one capital sum of six hundred pounds sterling, such capital sum to be applicable towards defraying the cost of providing a parsonage or house of residence for the said benefice, according to plans and a specification to be approved by us, either by discharge of the sum or sums of money which may be or become payable under any mortgage of the said benefice effected with our consent, or in such other manner as we may deem fit, such capital sum of six hundred pounds, or the balance thereof unapplied to such purpose, to remain in the meantime in our hands, at interest after the rate of three pounds per centum per annum, and such interest to be paid to the Incumbent for the time being of the said benefice of Burton-in-Lonsdale: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient to produce the said yearly sum or stipend of six pounds thirteen shillings and four pence, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said benefice in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this twentieth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven.

(L.S.)

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby, subject as hereinafter mentioned, grant and convey to the Incumbent of the perpetual curacy of Boughton, in the county of Nottingham, and in the diocese of Lincoln, and to his successors, Incumbents of the same benefice, all those tithes, or rent-charges in lieu of tithes, with their appurtenances, which are particularly described in the schedule hereunto annexed, and are now vested in us, to have and to hold the said tithes, or rent-charges in lieu of tithes, with their appurtenances, to the use of the said Incumbent and his successors for ever: Provided always, that the tithes, or rent-charges in lieu of tithes, with their appurtenances, so granted and conveyed by us as aforesaid, shall be, and be held to be, in lieu of, and substitution for, the yearly sum or stipend of twenty pounds, heretofore payable by us to the Incumbent for the time being of the said perpetual curacy in respect of the property situate within the parish which formerly belonged to the chapter of the Collegiate Church of Southwell; and provided also that the Incumbent for the time being of the same benefice shall be entitled to receive from us, or on our account, the net amount of the rents, profits, and proceeds of the said tithes, or rent-charges in lieu of tithes, with their appurtenances, as from the tenth day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this twentieth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby grant to the Incumbent of the perpetual curacy of Yealand Conyers, in the county of Lancaster, and in the diocese of Manchester, and to his successors, Incumbents of the same benefice, one yearly sum or stipend of one hundred and ninety pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the first day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, and to be receivable half-yearly on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient to produce the said yearly sum or stipend, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said benefice in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this twentieth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a separate building, named Philip-street Chapel, situate at Philip-street, in the parish of Bedminster, in the county of Bristol, in the district of Bedminster, being a building certified according to law as a place of religious worship, was, on the 6th day of June, 1867, duly registered for solemnizing marriages therein, pursuant to the Act of 6th and 7th Wm. IV., cap. 85.
