TUESDAY, AUGUST 6, 1867.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight,
the 3rd day of August, 1867.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

THIS day, Sir John Rolt, Knight, and Sir Robert Joseph Phillimore, Knight, were, by Her Majesty's command, sworn of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, and took their places at the Board accordingly.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight,
the 3rd day of August, 1867.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, by an Order dated the twenty-fourth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, reciting that, whereas it had been represented to Her Majesty that certain contagious or infectious disorders were then prevalent among cattle, in the dominions and territories situated in Europe, belonging to His Majesty the King of the Netherlands, and that there was danger of the said disorders being introduced into this country by means of cattle from such countries or places, did order, that on and after the twenty-eighth day of March then instant, no cattle should be imported or introduced into the United Kingdom, which should come from or should have been at any place within the aforesaid territories and dominions, situate in Europe, belonging to His Majesty the King of the Netherlands; and also that on and after the said twenty-eighth day of March then instant, no cattle should be imported or introduced into the United Kingdom which should be, or should have been, on board any vessels at the same time with any cattle which should have come from, or should have been within, the aforesaid territories and dominions:

And Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, did thereby further order that, in the event of any cattle being landed in any portion of the United Kingdom, contrary to the provisions of that Order, all such cattle, the importation or introduction whereof was thereby prohibited as aforesaid, should, upon their arrival in this country, be destroyed or otherwise disposed of, as the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Customs might direct; and that that Order should continue in force until revoked by any further Order; and that the word "cattle" should include sheep as well as bulls, cows, oxen, heifers, and calves:

And whereas Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, did by another Order dated the twenty-seventh day of June, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, revoke so much of the said recited Order as applied to cattle the produce of the provinces of Friesland and Groningen, parts of the said dominions belonging to His Majesty the King of the Netherlands, and did thereby authorize any such cattle to be imported into any port or place in Great Britain, from the ports of Harlingen, in the province of Friesland, and Delfzyl, in the province of Groningen:

And whereas it is advisable that the said Order of the twenty-fourth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, should be further revoked or altered to the extent hereinafter set forth:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, doth hereby further revoke or alter, as hereinafter mentioned, so much of the said Order of the twenty-fourth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, as would apply to cattle the produce of the provinces of Zealand, Overysse, and that part of the province of North Holland which is situate to the north of the River Y, parts of the said dominions belonging to His said Majesty the King of the Netherlands, and doth hereby authorize any such cattle to be imported into any port or place in Great Britain, from the ports of Flushing, Zierikzee, and Brouwershaven, in the province of Zealand, Zwolle, and Kampen, in the province of Overysse, and Nieuwe Diep, and Medemblick, in the province of North Holland, only, provided that no such cattle shall have been on board any vessel at the same time with other cattle which shall have come from or been within any part of the aforesaid territories or dominions belonging to His Majesty the King of the Netherlands, as to which the said Order of the twenty-fourth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, remains in force and unrevoked, or any other dominions or places from which the importation of cattle into any port or
