The Speech of the Lords Commissioners to both Houses of Parliament, on Wednesday, August 21, 1867.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

I AM happy to be enabled to release you from the labours of a long and more than usually eventful session, and to offer you my acknowledgments for the successful diligence with which you have applied yourselves to your parliamentary duties.

My relations with foreign countries continue on a friendly footing.

At the commencement of the present year great fears were entertained that the differences which had arisen between France and Prussia might have led to a war of which it was impossible to foresee the ultimate result. Happily the advice tendered by my Government, and by those of the other neutral States, aided by the moderation of the two Powers chiefly interested, sufficed to avert the threatened calamity; and I trust that no ground at present exists for apprehending any disturbance of the general peace.

The communications which I have made to the reigning monarch of Abyssinia, with a view to obtain the release of the British subjects whom he detains in his dominions, have, I regret to say, thus far proved ineffectual. I have, therefore, found it necessary to address to him a peremptory demand for their immediate liberation, and to take measures for supporting that demand, should it ultimately be found necessary to resort to force.

The treasonable conspiracy in Ireland, to which I have before called your attention, broke out in the early part of the present year in a futile attempt at insurrection. That it was suppressed, almost without bloodshed, is due not more to the disciplined valour of my troops, and to the admirable conduct of the police, than to the general loyalty of the population and the absence of any token of sympathy with the insurgents on the part of any considerable portion of my subjects. I rejoice that the supremacy of the law was vindicated without imposing on me the painful necessity of sacrificing a single life.

The bill for the abolition of certain local exemptions from taxation enabled me to avail myself of a liberal concession made, in anticipation, by the Emperor of the French, whereby several taxes were removed which pressed heavily upon British shipping.

I have concluded a postal convention with the United States of America, whereby the rate of postage between the two countries will be diminished by one-half, and further arrangements are in progress for increasing the intercourse between this country and the continent of North America.

The Act for the union of the British North American provinces is the final accomplishment of a scheme long contemplated, whereby those colonies, now combined in one dominion, may be expected not only to gain additional strength for the purposes of defence against external aggression, but may be united among themselves by fresh ties of mutual interest, and attached to the mother country by the only bonds which can effectually secure such important dependencies—those of loyalty to the Crown and attachment to British connection.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

I thank you for the liberal supplies which you have voted for the public service.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

I have had great satisfaction in giving my assent to a Bill for amending the representation of the people in Parliament. I earnestly trust that the extensive and liberal measure which you have passed may effect a durable settlement of a question which has long engaged public attention; and that the large number of my subjects who will be for the first time admitted to the exercise of the elective franchise may, in the discharge of the duties thereby devolved upon them, prove themselves worthy of the confidence which Parliament has reposed in them.

It is gratifying to me to find that the lengthened consideration which you have necessarily given to this important question has not prevented your entering on many subjects to which your attention was directed at the commencement of the Session, and particularly to such as have immediate reference to the well-being of the industrial classes.

I have had especial pleasure in giving my assent to Bills for extending to various trades, with such modifications as have been found necessary, the provisions of the Factory Acts, the success of which has proved the possibility of combining effectual protection to the labour of women and children with a due consideration for the interests of the trades immediately concerned.

I confidently anticipate from the operation of the present Acts the same improvement in the physical, social, and moral condition of the working classes, which has been found to accompany the application of the Acts to those trades to which they have been hitherto confined.

The restraints alleged to be imposed on workmen and their employers by trade unions and other associations appeared to me to call for inquiry; and the revelations derived from the examinations before the Commission, to which you gave your legislative sanction, have disclosed a state of things which will demand your most earnest attention.

The administration of the poor laws, which generally has conferred great benefit on the community, and especially on the poor themselves, requires constant supervision; and I have readily assented to a Bill which, applied to the metropolis alone, will tend to equalise the pressure of taxation, and improve the treatment of the sick poor, whose condition will be greatly benefited by your well-considered legislation.

The Bill for the regulation of the merchant shipping contains important provisions calculated to add to the health and comfort of those engaged in the mercantile marine.

These and other valuable amendments of the law have been the result of your labours during the present session; and in returning to your homes you will carry with you the gratifying consciousness that your time and pains have not been misapplied, and that they have resulted in a series of measures which I hope, and earnestly pray, may contribute to the welfare of the country, and the contentment and happiness of my people.

Then a Commission for proroguing the Parliament was read; after which the Lord Chancellor said:

My Lords and Gentlemen,

By virtue of Her Majesty's Commission, under the Great Seal, to us and other Lords directed, and now read, we do, in Her Majesty's name, and in obedience to Her Commands, prorogue this Parliament to Wednesday, the sixth day of November next, to be then here holden; and this Parliament is accordingly prorogued to Wednesday, the sixth day of November next.

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her Majesty chapter ninety-seven; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the sixteenth day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of your Majesty, chapter seventy; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of your Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five; have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Peter, situate at Devizes, in the parish of Rowde, in the county of Wilts, and in the diocese of Salisbury.

"Whereas at certain extremities of the said parish of Rowde, and of the chapelry of Saint James, Southbroom, in the parish of Cannings Episcopi, in the county and diocese aforesaid, which extremities lie contiguous one to another, and are described in the schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of the said first-named parish, and of the said chapelry respectively.

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that such contiguous portions of the said parish of Rowde, and of the said chapelry of Saint James, Southbroom, should be formed into a consolidated chapelry, for all ecclesiastical purposes, and that the same should be assigned to the said church of Saint Peter, situate at Devizes aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Walter Kerr, Bishop of the said diocese of Salisbury, with the consent of Gabriel Goldney, of Beechfield, near Chippenham, in the said county of Wilts, Esquire, the patron of the vicarage of the said parish of Rowde, and with the consent of the Reverend William Ewart, the vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the said parish of Cannings Episcopi, and as such vicar or incumbent the patron of the perpetual curacy of the said chapelry of Saint James, Southbroom (in testimony whereof they have respectively signed and sealed this representation), and with the consent of the dean and chapter of the cathedral church of the Blessed Virgin Mary of Sarum, the patrons of the vicarage of the said parish of Cannings Episcopi (in testimony whereof they have hereunto affixed their common or corporate seal), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent that it would in our opinion be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said parish of Rowde, and of the said chapelry of Saint James, Southbroom, which are described in the schedule hereunder written, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of Saint Peter, situate at Devizes aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Peter, Devizes,' and that the right of presentation and appointment to the church of such consolidated chapelry should belong to and be exercised by the said Walter Kerr, Bishop of the said diocese of Salisbury, and by his successors, bishops of the same diocese, for ever.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such

Order in respect thereto as to your Majesty, in your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Peter, Devizes, being:—

"All that portion of the parish of Rowde, in the county of Wilts, and in the diocese of Salisbury, which is situate within the boundary of the borough of Devizes.

And also all that contiguous portion of the chapelry of Saint James, Southbroom, in the parish of Cannings Episcopi, situate within the boundary of the borough of Devizes aforesaid, which is bounded on the north by the said borough boundary, on the west by the above-described portion of the parish of Rowde aforesaid, on the south partly by the parish of Saint John the Baptist, Devizes, in the said county and diocese, and partly by the chapelry of the Blessed Virgin Mary, Devizes, in the last-named parish, and on the remaining side, that is to say, on the east by an imaginary line, commencing upon the boundary which divides the said chapelry of the Blessed Virgin Mary, Devizes, from the chapelry of Saint James, Southbroom aforesaid, at the junction of Commercial-road with the road leading from Couch-lane to the Belvidere entrance to Roundway Park, and extending thence northward along the middle of the last-described road, crossing the Kennet and Avon Canal to a point near the said Belvidere entrance to Roundway Park, upon the boundary of the borough of Devizes aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore Her Majesty by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Salisbury.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 20th day of August, 1867.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the eighteenth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of your Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Peter, situate within the limits of the new parish of Saint Paul, Greenwich, in the county of Kent, and in the diocese of Rochester.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint Peter, situate within the limits of the new parish of Saint Paul, Greenwich, as aforesaid.

"And whereas we did lately, that is to say, on the fourteenth day of March of this present year, represent to your Majesty in Council the expediency of such assignment in terms identical (except as hereinafter mentioned,) with those of this present representation.

"And whereas between the said fourteenth day of March and the twenty-first day of May now last past, on which last-named day a copy of an Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying our said former representation was published in the London Gazette, the said See of Rochester became vacant by the demise of the late bishop thereof, and in consequence of such vacancy and thereupon the said new parish of Saint Paul, Greenwich, was by the operation of the Act of the twenty-sixth and twenty-seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-six, ipse facto, transferred from the diocese of London (to which until then it belonged, and the bishop of which was consenting to our said former representation,) to the said diocese of Rochester, and now and henceforth belongs thereto.

"And whereas it has thus become necessary, or for avoidance of doubts desirable, that a new representation having the consent of the present bishop of the said diocese of Rochester, should be made to your Majesty in Council by us relative to the said assignment.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Thomas Legh, Bishop of the said diocese of Rochester (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said new parish of Saint Paul, Greenwich, which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Saint Peter, situate within the limits of such new parish as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Peter, Greenwich.'

"And, with the like consent of the said Thomas Legh, Bishop of the said diocese of Rochester (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns, and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us, the said Commissioners, to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism, or for the registration thereof.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to your Majesty, in your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Saint Peter, Greenwich, being:—

"All that part of the new parish of Saint Paul, Greenwich, in the county of Kent and in the diocese of Rochester, which is situate to the north of an imaginary line, commencing upon the boundary which divides the said new parish from the parish of Saint Alphage, Greenwich, in the county and diocese aforesaid, at a point in the middle of the wall or fence which bounds the western side of the burial ground belonging to the parish church of Saint Alphage, at the north-eastern end of Bell-street, and extending thence south-westward along the middle of such street to its junction with Union-street, and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of the last-named street to its junction with Roam-street, and extending thence south-westward along the middle of the said street to the wall or fence at the south-western extremity of the same street which forms the north-eastern boundary of the premises occupied by the new works of the Phoenix Gas Company, and extending thence generally north-westward along the middle of the said wall or fence as far as the point where it strikes the eastern side of Ravensbourne-street, and extending thence first westward to, and then south-westward along the middle of the last-named street for a distance of one hundred and seven yards, or thereabouts, to a point opposite to the middle of the south-eastern end of the fence which divides the wharf and premises in the occupation of Messrs. Hobbs, Wharfingers and Masons, from the land and premises in the occupation of Messrs. Rennie, Engineers, and extending thence north-westward to and along the middle of the last-described fence to its north-western extremity on the eastern bank of the River Ravensbourne, otherwise called Deptford Creek, and continuing thence still north-westward and in a straight line to the boundary in the middle of the same river or creek which divides the said new parish of Saint Paul, Greenwich, from the parish of Saint Paul, Deptford, in the county and diocese aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Rochester.

At the Court at Windsor, the 20th day of August, 1867.

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen; and of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and four; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-fifth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven; in the words following that is to say:—
 We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen; and of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and four; have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes out of the parish of Gainford, situate in the county of Durham, and in the diocese of Durham:

Whereas it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that the particular part of the said parish of Gainford, which is hereinafter mentioned and described (such part not at present containing within its limits any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of divine worship), should be constituted a separate district, in manner hereinafter set forth.

And whereas by an indenture bearing date on or about the ninth day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, and made or expressed to be made between the Master, Fellows, and Scholars of the College of the Holy and Undivided Trinity, within the town and University of Cambridge, of King Henry the Eighth's foundation, of the one part, and us, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, of the other part (which indenture is intended to be enrolled in your Majesty's High Court of Chancery), the said Master, Fellows, and Scholars have granted and executed to the minister or incumbent of the separate district hereinafter proposed to be constituted certain rectorial tithes rent-charges, amounting in all to one hundred and nineteen pounds six shillings eight pence and one farthing per annum, or thereabouts, arising partly within the township of Morton Tinnmouth, in the said parish of Gainford, and partly within the township of Bolam, in the same parish.

And whereas the said tithes rent-charges have been so granted and secured as aforesaid upon the understanding that we should make and pay out of the common fund created by the firstly herein named Act, to the minister or incumbent for the time being of the said district, when duly licensed in accordance with the provisions of the hereinbefore secondly-mentioned Act, a grant of fifty pounds per annum, and upon the further understanding that (such arrangement appearing to us to be expedient) the whole right of patronage of the said district, and of the nomination of the minister or incumbent thereof, should be assigned in the manner hereinafter mentioned.

And whereas we have undertaken and agreed to make the said grant of fifty pounds per annum as aforesaid, by an instrument to be executed by us under our common seal, in accordance with the provisions of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven.

Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Charles, Bishop of the said diocese of Durham (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme), we humbly recommend and propose, that all that part of the said parish of Gainford which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, shall, upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, become and be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes, and that the same shall be named "The District of Bolam."

And we further recommend and propose, that the whole right of patronage of the said district so recommended to be constituted, and of the nomination of the minister or incumbent thereof, shall, without any assurance in the law other than this scheme, and any duly gazetted Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, and upon and from the day of the date of the publication of such Order in the London Gazette as aforesaid, be assigned to, and be absolutely vested in, and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the Master, Fellows, and Scholars of the said College of the Holy and Undivided Trinity, within the town and University of Cambridge for ever.

And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference.

The District of Bolam, being:—

All that part of the parish of Gainford, in the county of Durham, and in the diocese of Durham, which is comprised within and is co-extensive with the limits of the two contiguous townships of Bolam and Morton Tinnmouth.

And whereas a draft of the said scheme has in accordance with the provisions of the hereinbefore secondly and thirdly mentioned Acts been transmitted to the patrons and to the incumbent of the vicarage of the parish out of which it is intended that the district recommended in such scheme to be constituted shall be taken, and such patrons and incumbent have respectively signified their assent thereto.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Durham.

“ We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of your Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five; have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint John, situate at Yealand Conyers, in the parish of Warton, in the county of Lancaster, and in the diocese of Manchester.

“ Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint John, situate at Yealand Conyers aforesaid.

“ Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend James Prince, Bishop of the said diocese of Manchester (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Warton, which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Saint John, situate at Yealand Conyers as aforesaid, and that the same should be named ‘The District Chapelry of Saint John, Yealand Conyers.’

“ And, with the like consent of the said James Prince, Bishop of the said diocese of Manchester (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials, should be solemnized or performed at the said church of Saint John, situate at Yealand Conyers as aforesaid, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns, and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices, should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always, that so long as the Reverend Thomas Dean, the present vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the said parish of Warton, shall continue to be such vicar or incumbent all the fees which shall be received in respect of the publication of banns and the performance of the said offices in such church as aforesaid, shall be paid by the said minister thereof to the said Thomas Dean: and provided also that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us the said Commissioners to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism, or for the registration thereof.

“ We, therefore, humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to your Majesty, in your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Saint John, Yealand Conyers, being :—

"All that part of the parish of Warton, in the county of Lancaster, and in the diocese of Manchester, which is comprised within and is co-extensive with the limits of the two contiguous townships of Yealand Conyers and Yealand Redmayne."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council ; now, therefore Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts ; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Manchester.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 20th day of August, 1867.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a scheme, bearing date the first day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, in the words and figures following ; that is to say :

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme for assigning certain lands and hereditaments as an endowment for the Dean and Chapter of the cathedral church of Winchester.

"Whereas under the provisions of the above-mentioned Act, and of an Act of the fourth and fifth years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and of an Act of the fifth year of your Majesty, chapter twenty-six ; and by virtue of an Order of your Majesty in Council, made under the authority of such provisions, bearing date the sixteenth day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, and duly published on the same day in the London Gazette, in consideration of an annual money payment of three thousand and six hundred pounds, and for divers other good causes and considerations in the said Order particularly set forth, all the manors, lands, tithes, tenements, and hereditaments theretofore belonging, either in possession or reversion, to the said dean and chapter (except certain portions thereof in the same Order particularly excepted), and all the estate and interest therein of the said dean and chapter became vested in us.

"And whereas it was by the above-mentioned Order of your Majesty in Council provided that none of the monies or estates to be received or acquired under the provisions thereof (excepting such of the same lands, tenements, and hereditaments as are situate or arise within the counties of Denbigh, Flint, and Somerset), should be applicable to the purposes of our common fund, except only so far as it might be necessary to reimburse such fund any advances made thereout under the provisions of such Order, until or unless by and under the like authority the said dean and chapter should have been put into possession in fee simple of real estates sufficient to secure to them a clear annual income therefrom (after deducting rates, taxes, and other outgoings, including cost of management) of three thousand and six hundred pounds.

"And whereas the said dean and chapter have signified their willingness to accept, as their permanent endowment, the lands, rent charges, tenements, and hereditaments particularly described in the schedule hereunto annexed, which are now vested in us in fee simple in possession, and which in our opinion are convenient to be held as the permanent endowment of the said dean and chapter, and sufficient to produce, as nearly as may be, a clear net annual income of three thousand and six hundred pounds.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the said Dean and Chapter of the cathedral church of Winchester, testified by their having hereunto affixed their corporate seal, we humbly recommend and propose, that upon the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly published Order, the lands, rent charges, tenements, and hereditaments particularly described in the schedule hereunto annexed, with their appurtenances, and all our right, title, estate, and interest therein, and in the benefit of the perpetual land tax, if any, charged upon the same premises which has been redeemed, shall be assigned as the endowment of the Dean and Chapter of Winchester, and shall, subject always and nevertheless to the liabilities and charges to which the said lands, rent-charges, tenements, and hereditaments are now specifically liable, become and be absolutely vested in the said dean and chapter, in as full and ample a manner as if the same had formed part of the ancient possessions of the said dean and chapter, and that the said dean and chapter shall be entitled to the rents, profits, and proceeds of the same lands, rent-charges, tenements and hereditaments, as from the twenty-fifth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, and that the annual money payment of three thousand and six hundred pounds heretofore payable by us under the provisions of the hereinbefore-recited Order of your Majesty in Council of the sixteenth day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, shall, as from the same twenty-fifth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, cease and determine.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in conformity with the provisions of the said recited Acts, or of any other Act of Parliament.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Winchester.

At the Court at Windsor, the 20th day of August, 1867.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty seven, of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the eighth day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes out of the parish of Saint Andrew, Holborn, in the county of Middlesex, and in the diocese of London, out of the parish of Saint George the Martyr, in the same county and diocese, and out of the parish of Saint George, Bloomsbury, also in the same county and diocese.

"Whereas it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that the particular portions of the said parish of Saint Andrew, Holborn, of the said parish of Saint George the Martyr, and of the said parish of Saint George, Bloomsbury, which are hereinafter mentioned and described (such portions not at present containing within their limits any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of Divine worship) should be constituted a separate district in the manner hereinafter set forth.

"And whereas certain hereditaments and premises situate within the said parish of Saint Andrew, Holborn, have become vested in us under the provisions of, and for the purposes of, the herein-mentioned Acts, and we have in respect of such hereditaments and premises agreed to make and pay out of the common fund created by the firstly herein-mentioned Act, to the minister of the district hereinafter recommended to be constituted, when he shall have been duly licensed in accordance with the provisions of the secondly herein-mentioned Act, and to his successors, a grant of two hundred pounds per annum, and also a further grant of one hundred pounds per annum so soon as a church shall have been erected within and for such district, and shall have been approved by us, and shall have been consecrated as the church of such district, and such grants as aforesaid will be made by an instrument or instruments to be executed by us under our Common Seal, in accordance with the provisions of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Honourable and Right Reverend Archibald Campbell, Bishop of the said diocese of London (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme), we humbly recommend and propose, that all those portions of the said parish of Saint Andrew, Holborn, of the said parish of Saint George the Martyr, and of the said parish of Saint George, Bloomsbury, which are respectively mentioned and described in the schedule hereunder written, and which are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, shall, upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, become and be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes, and that the same shall be named 'The District of Saint John the Evangelist, Holborn.'

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference.

"The District of Saint John the Evangelist, Holborn, being:—

"All those portions of the parish of Saint Andrew, Holborn, in the county of Middlesex, and in the diocese of London, of the parish of Saint George the Martyr, in the same county and diocese, and of the parish of Saint George, Bloomsbury, also in the same county and diocese, which are comprised within and are bounded by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said parish of Saint Andrew, Holborn, from the parish of Saint Giles in the Fields, in the county and diocese aforesaid, at a point in the middle of High Holborn near to the northern end of the passage leading to Lincoln's Inn Fields called 'The Great Turnstile,' and extending thence eastward along the middle of High Holborn aforesaid as far as a point opposite to the middle of the south-eastern end of Brownlow-street, and extending thence north-westward to and along the middle of the last-named street to the boundary at the junction of such street with Warwick-place, which divides the said parish of Saint Andrew, Holborn, from the new parish of the Holy Trinity, Gray's-inn-road, in the county and diocese aforesaid, and extending thence south-westward along the said boundary to its junction with the boundary in the middle of Red-Lion-street, which divides the said new parish of the Holy Trinity, Gray's-inn-road, from the parish of Saint George the Martyr, aforesaid, and extending thence north-westward along the last-mentioned boundary as far as the junction of Red Lion-street aforesaid with Theobald's-road, and extending thence south-westward along the middle of the last-named road to the boundary at the junction of such road with Kingsgate-street, which divides the last-named parish from the parish of Saint George, Bloomsbury aforesaid, and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of Kingsgate-street aforesaid (following thereby in part the last-described boundary) to the boundary at the junction of such street with High Holborn aforesaid, which divides the said parish of Saint George, Bloomsbury, from the parish of Saint Giles in the Fields aforesaid, and extending thence eastward along the last described boundary, following thereby the middle of High Holborn, to the junction of such boundary with the boundary dividing the said parish of Saint Andrew, Holborn, from the parish of Saint Giles in the Fields aforesaid, and continuing thence still eastward along the last-described boundary, still following the middle of High Holborn, as far as the first-described point near 'The Great Turnstile' aforesaid, where the said imaginary line commenced."

And whereas a draft of the said scheme has, in accordance with the provisions of the said secondly-mentioned Act, been transmitted to the Patrons and to the Incumbents of the Rectories of the three parishes, out of which it is intended that the district therein recommended to be constituted shall be taken, and the said Patrons and Incumbents have respectively signified their assent to such scheme.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of London.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 20th day of August, 1867.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the eighth day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of your Majesty's reign, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for assigning certain lands and hereditaments as the permanent endowment of the see of Gloucester and Bristol.

"Whereas the Right Reverend Charles John, Bishop of Gloucester and Bristol, succeeded to the said see on an avoidance which happened after the passing of the hereinbefore mentioned Act, and all the lands, hereditaments, and emoluments belonging to the said see of Gloucester and Bristol (except all rights of presentation, and the residence of the bishop) are vested absolutely in us for the purposes, and subject to the provisions applicable to other hereditaments vested in us.

"And whereas the lands and hereditaments particularly described in the schedule hereto annexed, which are now vested in us, are, in the judgment of our Estates Committee, convenient to be held as the endowment for the said see, and are approved by the said bishop as suitable for that purpose, and will secure to the holder of the said see, as nearly as may be, after deducting costs of management, a net annual income of five thousand pounds, and no more, being the amount named for the bishop of the said see, by the Order of your Majesty in Council of the twenty-fifth day of August, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-one, which Order is now in force.

"Now, therefore, with the consent and approbation of the said Charles John, Lord Bishop of Gloucester and Bristol, testified by his having signed this scheme and sealed the same with his episcopal seal, we humbly recommend and propose, that upon the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly published Order, the lands and hereditaments particularly described in the schedule hereto annexed, with their appurtenances, and all our right, title, and interest therein, save only as is hereinafter saved and excepted, together with the benefit of the perpetual land tax, if any, charged upon the same premises, which has been redeemed, shall be assigned as the endowment of the said bishoprick of Gloucester and Bristol, and shall, subject always and nevertheless to the liabilities and charges to which the said lands and hereditaments are now specifically liable, become and be absolutely vested in the said bishop, in as full and ample a manner as if the same had formed part of the ancient possessions of the said see; save and except, and always reserved unto us, our successors, and our and their lessees, tenants, and assigns, all and singular the mines, quarries, and beds of coal, stone, clay, sand, minerals, and metalliferous substances of all descriptions, therein or thereunder; with full and exclusive authority to sink, win, work, get up, and carry away the same, in, under, out of, and from the said lands and hereditaments, or any other lands and hereditaments, according to the course and practice at present or hereafter to be used or adopted in the counties wherein the said lands and hereditaments are situate, or according to the most approved mode which may from time to time be used or invented, and to enter upon, take, use, and occupy from time to time, and for such time and in such manner as we, our successors, and our and their lessees, tenants, and assigns shall think fit, so much of the said lands and hereditaments as we or they shall deem necessary, proper, or convenient for all or any of the aforesaid purposes, making full compensation for any injury thereby occasioned; and save and except, and always reserved, full and exclusive authority for us, our successors, and our and their lessees, tenants, and assigns, or persons acting under our or their authority, and whether in reference or respect to lands held by or under us, or any other property, to make, grant, and use any way or ways upon, across, under, or through the said lands and hereditaments, for the purposes aforesaid; provided always, and we hereby further recommend and propose, that nothing in the foregoing exception and reservation shall operate in any manner to prevent the said Charles John, Bishop of Gloucester and Bristol, and his successors, from taking and using from, off, or under the said lands and hereditaments, all such stone, clay, sand, and gravel, as may be required hereafter for repairing and amending the buildings, fences, roads, or ways, now being in, upon, or about the said lands and hereditaments, or any part thereof, and also for erecting, making, and repairing any buildings, fences, roads, or ways, which may require hereafter to be erected or made in, upon, or about the said lands and hereditaments.

"And we further recommend and propose that the said bishop shall become entitled to the rents, profits, and proceeds of the lands and hereditaments, hereby proposed to be assigned as the endowment of the said see as from the twenty-fifth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, and that the money payment payable by us under the provisions of the Order of your Majesty in Council of the twenty-eighth day of November, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six; shall as from the said twenty-fifth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, cease and determine.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in conformity with the provisions of the said hereinbefore mentioned Act, or of any other Act of Parliament.

Arthur Helps.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 20th day of August, 1867.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the twenty-fifth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of your Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of district chapelries to the consecrated church of Saint George, situate in the parish of Kidderminster, in the county of Worcester, and in the diocese of Worcester, and to the consecrated church of Saint John the Baptist, situate in the same parish.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to each of the said churches of Saint George and Saint John the Baptist, situate in the parish of Kidderminster, as aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Henry, Bishop of the said diocese of Worcester (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient, firstly, that all that part of the said parish of Kidderminster, which is described in the first schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed and numbered 1, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Saint George, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint George, Kidderminster;' and secondly, that all that other part of the same parish of Kidderminster, which is described in the second schedule hereunder written, all which lastly-mentioned part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth upon the other map or plan hereunto annexed and numbered 2, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Saint John the Baptist, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint John the Baptist, Kidderminster.'

"And, with the like consent of the said Henry, Bishop of the said diocese of Worcester (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials, should be solemnized or performed at each of the churches aforesaid, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns, and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices in each such church, should be paid and belong to the ministers thereof for the time being respectively: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us, the said Commissioners, to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism or for the registration thereof, in either of the churches aforesaid.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to your Majesty, in your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

The First SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Saint George, Kidderminster, being:—

"All that part of the parish of Kidderminster, in the county of Worcester, and in the diocese of Worcester, wherein the present Incumbent of such parish now possesses the exclusive cure of souls, which is situate to the south-east of an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said parish of Kidderminster from the parish of Hagley, in the same county and diocese, at a point near Blake-down, in the middle of the Birmingham turnpike-road; and extending thence, south-westward, for a distance of two miles and a-half, or thereabouts, along the middle of the said road, to a point opposite to a boundary stone inscribed 'K. St. G. D. C. 1867, No. 1,' and placed on the northern side of the said road, at the south-eastern extremity of the fence dividing the close numbered 170 upon the Tithe Commutation Map of the said parish of Kidderminster, and upon the map hereunto annexed, from the close numbered 245 upon the same maps; and extending thence, north-westward, to such boundary stone; and continuing thence, first north-westward and then south-westward, along the middle of the said fence, to its junction with the fence dividing the close numbered 171 as aforesaid, from the close numbered 171 upon the said maps; and continuing thence, still south-westward, along the middle of the last described fence, and along the middle of the fence dividing Saint George's-churchyard from the closes numbered respectively 164, 165, and 167 upon the said maps, to the north-western corner of the said churchyard; and continuing thence, in exactly the same direction, and in a straight line, for a distance of one hundred and thirty-five yards, or thereabouts across the road called or known as Crabtree Closes, and partly across the close numbered 168 upon the said maps, to a boundary stone inscribed 'K. St. G. D. C. 1867, No. 2;' and extending thence south-eastward for a distance of ninety-nine yards or thereabouts, to and along the middle of the fence forming the south-western boundary of the close numbered 168 as aforesaid, to a boundary stone inscribed 'K. St. G. D. C. 1867, No. 3,' and placed at the south-eastern extremity of the last described fence on the northern-side of Coventry-street; and extending thence, first south-eastward to, and then south-westward along the middle of the last-named street and along the middle of Swan-street, to the junction of the last-named street with the street called or known as 'Bull Ring;' and extending thence first north-westward and then westward along the middle of the last named street, to its junction near Town Bridge with Pitts-lane; and extending thence, south-eastward along the middle of the said lane, to its junction with the street or road called or known as 'The Sling;' and extending thence, south-westward along the middle of the last-named street or road to its junction with the towing path, on the eastern bank of the Staffordshire and Worcestershire Canal; and extending thence southward along the middle of the said towing path for a distance of nearly one mile, passing to the west of the buildings and premises known as 'The Falling Sands Rolling Mill,' to a point at or close to the southern extremity of the said mill, upon the western bank of the River Stour; and extending thence, eastward and in a direct line to the boundary in the middle of the same river, which divides the said parish of Kidderminster, from the parish of Stone, in the county and diocese aforesaid.

The Second SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Saint John the Baptist, Kidderminster, being:—

"All that part of the parish of Kidderminster, in the county of Worcester, and in the diocese of Worcester, wherein the present Incumbent of such parish now possesses the exclusive cure of souls, which is situate to the south-west of an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said parish of Kidderminster from the new parish of Wribbenhall, sometime part of the said parish of Kidderminster, at a point near the southern extremity of Trimpley Green, where the road leading from Wribbenhall through Trimpley Green aforesaid to Bridgnorth is intersected by the road leading from Hall's Farm across the said Trimpley Green to Trimpley-lane; and extending thence, generally eastward, along the middle of the last described road, and along the middle of the said Trimpley-lane, and along the middle of Wolf's-lane, to the junction of the last-named lane at Honey Brook with the turnpike-road leading from Bridgnorth aforesaid to Kidderminster; and extending thence, south-eastward, along the middle of the said turnpike-road as far as its junction at Proud Cross with Mill-street; and continuing thence, still south-eastward, along the middle of the last-named street to its junction near the Town Bridge with Pitt's-lane; and continuing thence, still in the same direction, along the middle of the said lane to its junction with the street or road called or known as 'The Sling;' and extending thence, south-westward, along the middle of the last-named street or road, to its junction with the towing path on the eastern bank of the Staffordshire and Worcestershire Canal; and extending thence, southward, along the middle of the said towing path, for a distance of nearly one mile, passing to the west of the buildings known as 'The Falling Sands Rolling Mill,' to a point at or close to the southern extremity of the said mill, upon the western bank of the River Stour; and extending thence, eastward, and in a direct line, to the boundary in the middle of the same river, which divides the said parish of Kidderminster from the parish of Stone, in the county and diocese aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Worcester.

Arthur Helps.

At the Court at Windsor, the 20th day of August, 1867.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty, and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-fifth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the sixteenth and seventeenth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty, and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for effecting an exchange of the patronage of a certain living belonging to the Crown, the patronage whereof is exercised by the Lord High Chancellor of England, for the time being, in virtue of his office, for the patronage of a certain living belonging to the See of Gloucester and Bristol.

"Whereas the Right Honourable Frederic, Baron Chelmsford, now Lord High Chancellor of England, is, in virtue of his office as aforesaid, patron of the advowson or perpetual patronage of, and right of nomination to, the living of which the particulars are set forth in the first schedule hereunto annexed (that is to say), the vicarage of Coaley, in the county of Gloucester, and in the diocese of Gloucester and Bristol.

"And whereas the Right Reverend Charles John, now Bishop of Gloucester and Bristol, is, in right of his See, patron of the advowson or perpetual patronage of, and right of nomination to, the living of which the particulars are set forth in the second schedule hereunto annexed (that is to say), the vicarage of Cilcain, otherwise Kilken, in the county of Flint, and in the diocese of Saint Asaph.

"And whereas the said Frederic, Baron Chelmsford, acting as such Lord High Chancellor as aforesaid, has signified to us his desire, and the said Charles John, Bishop of Gloucester and Bristol, has also signified to us his desire that the patronage of the said two several benefices mentioned in the said first and second schedules respectively may be exchanged as hereinafter recommended and proposed.

"And whereas we have made due inquiry and calculation as to the circumstances of the proposed exchange, and the relative values of the said benefices and patronage, and we do hereby certify to your Majesty that the values of the said benefices respectively are as set forth in the said first and second schedules hereunto annexed.

Now, therefore, with the consent of the said Frederic, Baron Chelmsford, acting as such Lord High Chancellor as aforesaid (in testimony whereof he has hereunto set his hand and seal), and with the consent of the said Charles John, Bishop of Gloucester and Bristol, as such bishop (in testimony whereof he has hereunto set his hand and affixed his seal), we humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, the advowson or perpetual patronage of, and right of nomination to, the living hereinbefore and in the said first schedule hereunto-mentioned (that is to say), the vicarage of Coaley aforesaid, shall be transferred from the said Frederic, Baron Chelmsford, and from his successors, Lords High Chancellors of England, and shall become and be absolutely vested in, and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Charles John, Bishop of Gloucester and Bristol, and his successors, Bishops of Gloucester and Bristol, for ever; and that in exchange for the same the advowson or perpetual patronage of, and right of nomination to, the living hereinbefore, and in the said second schedule hereunto-mentioned (that is to say), the vicarage of Cilcain, otherwise Kilken aforesaid, shall upon and from the said lastly-mentioned day be transferred from the said Charles John, Bishop of Gloucester and Bristol, and from his successors, and shall, in like manner, become and be absolutely vested in, and shall and may, from time to time, be exercised by the said Frederic, Baron Chelmsford, and his successors, Lords High Chancellors of England, acting on behalf of your Majesty in right of the Crown.

“And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of any other Act of Parliament.

“The FIRST SCHEDULE referred to in the foregoing Scheme.

“BENEFICE, of which the Patronage is to be surrendered by the Lord High Chancellor of England to the Bishop of Gloucester and Bristol.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the respective Registrars of the several dioceses of Gloucester and Bristol and Saint Asaph.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, chapter seventy-seven, and of the Act of the fifth and sixth years of Her Majesty, chapter twenty-six, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the first day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, in the words following; that is to say:

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, chapter seventy-seven, and of the Act of the fifth and sixth years of your Majesty, chapter twenty-six, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following further scheme for providing the Bishop for the time being of the diocese of Chester with a more convenient house of residence.

“Whereas by a scheme prepared in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the secondly hereinbefore mentioned Act, and duly ratified by an Order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the twenty-sixth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, which Order was published in the London Gazette on the twenty-seventh day of the same month, certain arrangements therein specified for providing the Bishop of the said diocese with a more convenient house of residence as aforesaid, were sanctioned, and the Right Reverend William, now Bishop of the same diocese, was authorized to borrow from the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne, and the said Governors were empowered to lend by way of mortgage any sum not exceeding the sum of four thousand pounds towards defraying the cost of such arrangements or some of them.

And whereas it has been represented to us by the said William, Bishop of Chester, that in order fully to complete the arrangements sanctioned as aforesaid for providing a more convenient house of residence for the Bishop of that diocese, and particularly in order to secure the due repair and the permanent stability of the messuage or dwelling-house described in the second schedule to our said former scheme, and to provide for certain additions thereto, it is requisite and the said Bishop has accordingly proposed to us, and it appears to us to be expedient, that a further sum not exceeding the sum of two thousand pounds, being, together with the sum of four thousand pounds by our said former scheme authorized to be raised as aforesaid, a sum not exceeding two years' income of the see, should be provided by borrowing the same by way of mortgage as hereinafter mentioned, upon the security of all or any part of the endowments of or belonging to the Bishoprick.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the said William, Bishop of Chester, testified by his having signed this scheme, and affixed to it his episcopal seal, we humbly recommend and propose that he, the said William, or other the Bishop for the time being of the said diocese of Chester, be authorized to borrow from the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne, and that the said Governors be empowered to lend under the provisions of the above mentioned Acts, any sum not exceeding the sum of two thousand pounds upon the security of the revenues of the see, and that such sum shall be paid to us by the said Governors, and that the same or such portion or portions thereof as may in our opinion be necessary shall be applied by us at such times and in such manner as may appear to us to be expedient in defraying the costs of all repairs, alterations (constructive or destructive), additions, and improvements, which in our opinion are or may be necessary for effecting the provision of a fit and sufficient house of residence for the Bishop of the said see of Chester for the time being, as was contemplated in our said former scheme and sanctioned as aforesaid. And accordingly we further recommend and propose that the said Bishop be authorized to mortgage all or any part of the endowments now belonging or which hereafter may belong to his said see to the said Governors by deed for the term of thirty-five years, or until the said sum not exceeding the sum of two thousand pounds aforesaid, with the interest for the same, and all costs and charges which may attend the recovery thereof, shall be fully paid and satisfied, and that such principal sum shall be repaid with interest in manner following, that is to say, from and after the expiration of the first year of the said term, computed from the day of the date of the mortgage (in which year no part of the said principal sum shall be repayable), the said William, Bishop of Chester, or his successors shall yearly and every year pay to the said Governors, their successors or assigns, one thirtieth part of the said principal sum until the whole thereof shall be repaid, and shall at the end of the first and each succeeding year pay interest at the rate of four pounds per centum per annum on the said principal sum, or on so much thereof as shall from time to time remain unpaid, and if and when it shall happen that the principal and interest directed to be paid as here-inbefore mentioned, shall be in arrear and unpaid, for the space of forty days after the same shall become due, it shall and may be lawful for the said Governors, their successors and assigns, to recover the same and the costs and charges attending the recovery thereof, by distress and sale, in the like manner as rents may be recovered by landlords or lessors from their tenants by the laws in force at the time of such distress and sale, and that such mortgage deed shall be in the form and to the effect to be approved by us, and shall bind as well the said William, Bishop of Chester, as every succeeding bishop of the said see, until the principal money and interest, costs, and charges, shall have been paid off and discharged.

"And we further recommend and propose that for the said sum not exceeding the sum of two thousand pounds so to be paid to us as aforesaid the receipt of our joint treasurers for the time being endorsed on the said mortgage deed shall be a good and sufficient discharge to the said Governors and their successors, who shall not be bound or required to see to the application thereof.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in conformity with the provisions of the herein-named Acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Chester.

At the Court at Windsor, the 20th day of August, 1867.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, and of another Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of your Majesty, sections two, three, and twenty-four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the eighth day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, and of another Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, sections two, three, and twenty-four, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for authorizing the sale and disposal of certain property formerly belonging to the bishoprick of Rochester, and now vested in us.

"Whereas on the vacancy of the said bishoprick which occurred on or about the sixth day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, by the decease of the Right Reverend Joseph Cotton, the late Bishop of Rochester, all the lands, tithes, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments formerly belonging to the said bishoprick (except rights of patronage and the episcopal house of residence, situate at Danbury, in the county of Essex) became absolutely vested in us for the purposes and subject to the provisions applicable to other hereditaments vested in us.

"And whereas the lands, tithes, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments aforesaid consist to a considerable extent of reversions expectant upon grants and leases for lives and years, and produce during the subsistence of such grants and leases only small annual revenues, and on that account, and in some instances on account of the character or situation of the property are unsuitable or inconvenient to be assigned as an endowment for the said bishoprick, or to be held or applied for the other purposes for which estates vested in us are applicable under the Acts by which our proceedings are governed.

"And whereas by the last-mentioned Act power is given to lessees holding under us in the event of our declining to enter into a treaty for the sale of our reversions, or for the purchase of the leasehold interests, to require us to purchase such leasehold interests at a valuation.

"And whereas it is expedient that such of the aforesaid lands, tithes, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments lately belonging to the See of Rochester (either with or without other property vested in us, as the case may require) as in the judgment of our Estates Committee, and subject to the approbation of the Bishop for the time being, shall be deemed convenient to be held as an endowment for the said See, and as will secure a net annual income of five thousand pounds, being the income named for the Bishop of Rochester, and his successors, by the Order made by your Majesty in Council, on the twenty-fifth day of August, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-one, which Order was duly published in the London Gazette, on the nineteenth day of September following, should be assigned as the endowment of the said See, and that for that purpose, as well as with a view to the more advantageous appropriation of the remainder of the said lands, tithes, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments, or of the proceeds thereof, for the ultimate improvement of our common fund, we should be empowered to dispose of our interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, and in such manner as shall appear to us advisable.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose that we may be authorized and empowered, by instrument or instruments in writing, duly executed according to law, from time to time to sell or dispose of and duly to convey, according to the provisions of the said Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty's reign, with the consent of the respective holders (if any) to be testified by their being made parties to such instruments all or any of the said lands, tithes, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments heretofore belonging to the said bishoprick of Rochester, and so vested in us as aforesaid, with their appurtenances, and all our estate, right, title, and interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his, her, or their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, or otherwise as he, she, or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall upon due calculation and enquiry appear to us to be just and reasonable.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Rochester.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 20th day of August, 1867.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the eighth day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for authorizing the sale and disposal of certain property, formerly belonging to the Dean and Canons of your Majesty's free chapel of Saint George, within your Majesty's Castle of Windsor, and now vested in us.

"Whereas under an Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and another Act of the fourth and fifth years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and another Act of the fifth year of your Majesty, chapter twenty-six, and by virtue of an Order of your Majesty in Council, made under the provisions of the said Acts, bearing date the twenty-sixth day of June last past, and duly published in the London Gazette, on the twenty-eighth of the same month, all the manors, lands, tithes, tenements, and hereditaments then belonging to the said dean and canons of Windsor (excepting certain portions thereof in such Order particularly excepted, and excepting also any rights of ecclesiastical patronage), became absolutely vested in us for the purposes and subject to the provisions applicable to other hereditaments vested in us.

"And whereas the manors, lands, tithes, tenements, and hereditaments aforesaid, consist to a considerable extent of reversions expectant upon grants and leases for lives and years, and produce during the subsistence of such grants and leases only small annual revenues, and on that account and in some instances on account of the character or situation of the property are unsuitable or inconvenient to be assigned as an endowment for the said dean and canons or to be held or applied for the other purposes for which estates vested in us are applicable under the Acts by which our proceedings are governed.

"And whereas by an Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, power is given to lessees holding under us, in the event of our declining to enter into a treaty for the sale of our reversions or the purchase of the leasehold interests to require us to purchase such leasehold interests at a valuation.

And whereas, with a view to the appropriation of such portions of the aforesaid manors, lands, tithes, tenements, and hereditaments, lately belonging to the said dean and canons (either with or without other property vested in us, as the case may require) as in the judgment of our Estates Committee, and subject to the approbation of the said dean and canons shall be deemed convenient to be held as an endowment for the said dean and canons, and as will secure a net annual income of fourteen thousand and four hundred pounds (being the income contemplated by the above mentioned Order of your Majesty in Council of the twenty-sixth day of June last), and for that purpose as well as with a view to the more advantageous appropriation of the remainder of the said manors, lands, tithes, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments, or of the proceeds thereof, for the ultimate improvement of our common fund, it is expedient that the said manors, lands, tithes, tenements, and hereditaments, or such part or parts thereof as we shall at any time, and from time to time think fit, should be sold or disposed of, and accordingly that we should be empowered to dispose of our interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof in such manner as shall appear to us advisable.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, that we may be authorized and empowered by instrument or instruments, in writing, duly executed according to law, from time to time to sell or dispose of, and duly to convey according to the provisions of the said Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty's reign, with the consent of the respective holders (if any), to be testified by their being made parties to such instruments, all or any of the said manors, lands, tithes, tenements, and hereditaments heretofore belonging to the said dean and canons of Windsor, and so vested in us as aforesaid, with their appurtenances, and all our estate, right, title, and interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his, her, or their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, or otherwise, as he, she, or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall upon due calculation and inquiry appear to us to be just and reasonable.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Oxford.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 20th day of August, 1867.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, sections two, three, and seven, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the eighth day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of your Majesty's reign, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, sections two, three, and seven, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for assigning certain lands and hereditaments as the permanent endowment of the see of Canterbury.

"Whereas the Most Reverend Charles Thomas, Archbishop of Canterbury, succeeded to the said see upon the first avoidance thereof which happened after the passing of the hereinbefore mentioned Act.

"And whereas the lands and hereditaments particularly described in the schedule hereto annexed, which are now vested in us, are, in the judgment of our Estates Committee, convenient to be held as the endowment for the said see, and are approved by the said archbishop as suitable for that purpose, and will secure to the holder of the said see, as nearly as may be, after deducting costs of management, a net annual income of fifteen thousand pounds, and no more, being the annual amount named by Act of Parliament as the income of the Archbishop of Canterbury.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the said Charles Thomas, Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, testified by his having signed this scheme and sealed the same with his archiepiscopal seal, we humbly recommend and propose, that upon the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly published Order, the lands and hereditaments particularly described in the schedule hereto annexed, with their appurtenances, and all our right, title, and interest therein, save only as is hereinafter saved and excepted, together with the benefit of the perpetual land tax, if any, charged upon the same premises, which has been redeemed, shall be assigned as the endowment of the archbishoprick of Canterbury, and shall become and be absolutely vested in the said archbishop in as full and ample a manner as if the same had formed part of the ancient possessions of the said see, save and except and always reserved unto us, our successors, and our and their lessees, tenants, and assigns, all and singular the mines, quarries, and beds of coal, stone, clay, sand, minerals, and metalliferous substances of all descriptions, in or under the said lands and hereditaments, with full and exclusive authority to sink, win, work, get up, and carry away the same, in, under, out of, and from the said lands and hereditaments, or any other lands and hereditaments, according to the course and practice at present or hereafter to be used or adopted in the counties wherein the said lands and hereditaments are situate, or according to the most approved mode which may from time to time be used or invented, and to enter upon, take, use, and occupy from time to time, and for such time, and in such manner, as we, our successors, and our and their lessees, tenants, and assigns shall think fit, so much of the said lands and hereditaments as we or they shall deem necessary, proper or convenient, for all or any of the aforesaid purposes making full compensation for any injury thereby occasioned, and save and except and always reserved full and exclusive authority for us, our successors, and our and their lessees, tenants, and assigns, or persons acting under our or their authority and whether in reference or respect to lands held by or under us or any other property to make, grant, and use, any way or ways upon, across, under, or through the said lands and hereditaments, for the purposes aforesaid, provided always and we hereby further recommend and propose that nothing in the foregoing exception and reservation shall operate in any manner to prevent the said Charles Thomas, Archbishop of Canterbury, and his successors, from taking and using from off or under the said lands and hereditaments, all such stone, clay, sand, and gravel, as may be required hereafter, for repairing and amending the buildings, fences, roads, or ways, now being in, upon, or about, the said lands and hereditaments, or any part thereof, and also for erecting, making, and repairing any buildings, fences, roads, or ways, which it may hereafter be deemed necessary to erect or make, in, upon, or about the said lands and hereditaments.

"And we further recommend and propose that the said archbishop shall become entitled to the rents, profits, and proceeds of the lands and hereditaments hereby proposed, to be assigned as the endowment for the said see as from the twenty-fifth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in conformity with the provisions of the said hereinbefore mentioned Act, or of any other Act of Parliament.

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of your Majesty, chapter forty-nine; of the Act of the eleventh and twelfth years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Matthew, situate within the limits of the particular district of Christ Church, Leicester, sometime part of the parish of Saint Margaret, Leicester, in the county of Leicester, and in the diocese of Peterborough.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint Matthew, situate within the limits of the particular district of Christ Church, Leicester, as aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Francis, Bishop of the said diocese of Peterborough (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent; that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said particular district of Christ Church, Leicester, which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part together with the boundaries thereof is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Saint Matthew, situate within the limits of such particular district as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Matthew, Leicester.'

for the time being of the perpetual curacy of the said particular district of Christ Church, Leicester, so long as the vicar of the parish of Saint Margaret, Leicester, shall, under the provisions of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, be entitled to a reservation for his own benefit of the fees payable in respect of the performance of the same offices at the church of the said particular district of Christ Church, Leicester: And provided also, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us the said Commissioners to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism, or for the registration thereof.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to your Majesty, in your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Saint Matthew, Leicester, being:—

"All that part of the particular district of Christ Church, Leicester, sometime part of the parish of Saint Margaret, Leicester, in the county of Leicester, and in the diocese of Peterborough, which is situate to the south of an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said particular district from the district parish of Saint George, Leicester, in the same county and diocese, at the junction of Wheat-street with Wharf-street; and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the last-named street to its junction with Russell-square; and continuing thence in the same direction along the middle of the street, forming the eastern side of the said square to a point in the middle of the south-western end of Bridge-street; and continuing thence still north-eastward along the middle of the same street, as far as the bridge over the Willow Brook; and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of the said brook, for a distance of half a mile, or thereabouts, to a point upon the boundary which divides the said particular district of Christ Church, Leicester, from the parish of Belgrave, in the county and diocese aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Peterborough.

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of your Majesty, chapter forty-nine; of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter sixty; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation, as to the assignment of district chapelries to the consecrated church of the Holy Trinity, situate within the district chapelry of Saint James, Croydon Common (sometime part of the parish of Croydon), in the county of Surrey, and in the diocese of Canterbury; and also to the consecrated church of Saint Saviour, situate within the same district chapelry.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to each of the said churches of the Holy Trinity and Saint Saviour, situate within the district chapelry of Saint James, Croydon Common, as aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Charles Thomas, Archbishop of Canterbury (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient, firstly, that all that part of the said district chapelry of Saint James, Croydon Common, which is described in the first schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, and numbered 1, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of the Holy Trinity, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of the Holy Trinity, Croydon;' and secondly, that all that other part of the said district chapelry of Saint James, Croydon Common, which is described in the second schedule hereunder written, all which lastly-mentioned part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth upon the other map or plan hereunto annexed, and numbered 2, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Saint Saviour, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Saviour, Croydon.'

vicar or incumbent, all the fees which may be received in respect of the publication of such banns, and of the performance of the said offices in the said churches of the Holy Trinity and Saint Saviour as aforesaid, shall be paid by the respective ministers of the said churches to the said John George Hodgson; and also that if the Reverend Henry Campbell Watson, the present Incumbent of the perpetual curacy of the said district chapelry of Saint James, Croydon Common, should continue to be such Incumbent at the date of the next avoidance of the vicarage of the said parish of Croydon, then and thereafter so long as he shall remain Incumbent of the said perpetual curacy of Saint James, Croydon, all the said fees to be received in respect of the publication of banns, and of the performance of offices in the said churches of the Holy Trinity and Saint Saviour as aforesaid, shall be paid by the said ministers thereof to the said Henry Campbell Watson: And provided further, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us, the said Commissioners, to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism, or for the registration thereof in either of the churches aforesaid.

"Whereas it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that the part of the said new parish of Saint George, Barrow, which is hereinafter mentioned and described (such part not at present containing within its limits any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of Divine worship) should be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes in manner hereinafter set forth.

"And whereas a sum of three thousand three hundred and thirty-three pounds six shillings and eight pence Three Pounds per centum Consolidated Bank Annuities has been contributed and transferred into our name in the books of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England by the Barrow Hæmatite Steel Company (Limited) in aid of the endowment of the district hereinafter recommended to be constituted, and of the maintenance of the minister thereof for the time being, and we have in respect thereof agreed with the said Barrow Hæmatite Steel Company (Limited), and have undertaken to provide and pay, by equal half-yearly payments, on the first day of May and the first day of November in each and every year, to such minister as aforesaid, when he shall have been duly licensed in accordance with the provisions of the herein secondly-mentioned Act, and to his successors, the yearly sum of one hundred pounds.

"And whereas we have agreed and undertaken to make such grant of fifty pounds per annum as aforesaid, by an instrument to be executed by us under our common seal, in accordance with the provisions of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Honourable and Right Reverend Samuel, Bishop of the said diocese of Carlisle (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme), we humbly recommend and propose, that all that part of the said new parish of Saint George, Barrow, which is described in the schedule hereunder written, and which is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, shall, upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, become and be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes, and that the same shall be named 'The District of Saint James, Barrow-in-Furness.'

"And we further recommend and propose, that the whole right of patronage of the said district so recommended to be constituted, and of the nomination of the minister thereof, shall, without any assurance in the law other than this scheme, and any duly gazetted Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, and upon and from the day of the date of the publication of such Order in the London Gazette as aforesaid, be assigned to and be absolutely vested in, and shall and may from time to time be exercised jointly by the Most Noble William, Duke of Devonshire, the Most Noble Walter Francis, Duke of Buc-

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the eighth day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme for authorising the sale and disposal of certain property formerly belonging to the precentorship of the cathedral church of Lincoln, and now vested in us.

"Whereas by the decease of the Reverend Richard Pretzman, precentor of the said cathedral church, which occurred on or about the twenty-fifth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, all the lands, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments theretofore belonging to the said precentorship, or to the Prebend of Kilsby, in the said cathedral church, which prebend was annexed to the said precentorship (except any rights of patronage), became, by virtue of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, absolutely vested in us for the purposes, and subject to the provisions, applicable to other hereditaments vested in us.

"And whereas the lands, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments aforesaid consist, to a considerable extent, of reversions expectant upon leases for lives and years, and the same produce to us during the subsistence of such leases only small annual revenues, and partly on that account, and in some instances on account of the character or situation of the property, are unsuitable or inconvenient to be held or applied for the purposes for which estates vested in us are applicable under the Acts by which our proceedings are governed.

"And whereas by an Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, power is given to lessees holding under us, in the event of our declining to enter into a treaty for the sale of our reversions, or the purchase of the leasehold interests, to require us to purchase such leasehold interests at a valuation.

"And whereas with a view to the advantageous appropriation of the said lands, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments, or of the proceeds thereof, for the ultimate improvement of our common fund, it is expedient that the said lands, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments or such parts thereof as we shall at any time, and from time to time, think fit, should be sold or disposed of, and accordingly that we should be empowered to dispose of our interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, in such manner as shall appear to us advisable.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose that we may be authorised and empowered, by instrument or instruments in writing, duly executed according to law, from time to time to sell or dispose of, and duly to convey according to the provisions of the said Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty's reign, with the consent of the holder or holders thereof (if any), to be testified by his, her, or their being made parties to such instruments, all or any of the said lands, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments formerly belonging to the said precentorship, or to the said Prebend of Kilsby, and so vested in us as aforesaid, with their appurtenances, and all our estate, right, title, and interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his, her, or their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns or otherwise, as he, she, or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall upon due calculation and inquiry, appear to us to be just and reasonable.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matter aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the eighth day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following Scheme for assigning the right of patronage of the new parish of Saint James, Plymouth, in the county of Devon, and in the diocese of Exeter.

"Whereas by an Order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the twenty-seventh day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-seven, and published in the London Gazette on the fifth day of March, in the same year, the district of Saint James, Plymouth, was constituted out of the parish of Saint Andrew, Plymouth, in the county and diocese aforesaid, and such district has since become and now as aforesaid is a new parish under the provisions of the hereinbefore mentioned Act.

"And whereas no specific assignment of the whole or any part of the right of patronage and nomination of the minister or (as the case might be) of the perpetual curate of the said district, now a new parish as aforesaid, was made by the said Order, and such right of patronage and nomination has hitherto continued to be exercised in accordance with the directions in that behalf contained in the said Act.

"And whereas a sum of one thousand pounds sterling has been contributed and paid to the credit of our account at the Bank of England, by James Blackmore Wilcocks, of Stoke, near Devonport, in the said county of Devon, solicitor, one of Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the borough of Plymouth, towards the augmentation of the endowment of the said new parish and for the benefit of the Incumbent thereof, and we have in respect of the said sum agreed with the said James Blackmore Wilcocks, and have undertaken to provide and pay by equal half-yearly payments, on the first day of May and the first day of November in each and every year, to the Incumbent of the said new parish (being duly licensed thereto) the yearly sum of thirty-three pounds six shillings and eightpence.

"And whereas the said sum of one thousand pounds sterling was so contributed and paid by the said James Blackmore Wilcocks as aforesaid, upon the understanding that (such arrangement appearing to us to be expedient) the whole right of patronage of the said new parish and of the nomination of the incumbent thereto, should be assigned to the said James Blackmore Wilcocks, his heirs and assigns in the manner hereinafter recommended and proposed.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose that the whole right of patronage of the said new parish of Saint James, Plymouth, and of the nomination of the Incumbent thereto shall, without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than this scheme and any duly gazetted Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, and upon and from the day of the date of the publication of such Order in the London Gazette as aforesaid, be assigned to, and be absolutely vested in, and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said James Blackmore Wilcocks, his heirs and assigns for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Exeter.

that notice of such representation, and of the time when it shall please Her Majesty to order that the same be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, shall be published in the London Gazette, and shall be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some other conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such representation, one month before such representation is so considered; provided also, that no such representation shall be made in relation to the burial-ground of any parish until ten days' previous notice of the intention to make such representation shall have been given to the Incumbent and Vestry Clerk or Churchwardens of such parish:

And whereas the Right Honourable Gathorne Hardy, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after giving to the Incumbents and the Churchwardens of the parishes hereinafter mentioned, ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representation, has made a representation stating that, for the protection of the public health, no new burial-ground should be opened in the undermentioned parishes without the previous approval of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and that interments in the same should be discontinued with the modifications hereinafter specified:

And whereas Her Majesty was pleased, by Her Order in Council of the twenty-sixth day of June last, to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same should be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, on the eighth day of August, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, and such Order has been published in the London Gazette, and copies thereof have been affixed, as required by the said Act;

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order and it is hereby ordered, that burials in the undermentioned parishes shall be discontinued (except as is herein otherwise directed), as follows: viz:

COTTINGHAM, YORKSHIRE.—Forthwith wholly in the parish church, and in that part of the churchyard which lies to the south and west of the church, except in now existing vaults and walled graves, and in the rest of the churchyard, except in graves not less than five feet deep, and which can be opened without the exposure of coffins or the disturbance of bones.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the eighteenth and nineteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act further to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England," it is, amongst other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time, to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, shall or shall not have arrived), as to Her Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, may seem fit;

And whereas an Order in Council, bearing date the seventh day of April, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, has been made, directing the discontinuance of burials in, among other places, the churchyard of Chiswick, from the time specified in such Order; and whereas it seems fit that the said Order be varied:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the said Order be varied so as to allow of burials in graves in the churchyard of Chiswick, which are not less than five feet deep, and which can be opened without exposure of coffins or remains; every coffin buried in which shall be entombed, that is, enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented, or by concrete not less than six inches thick.

STOKE-UNDER-HAMDEN.—Forthwith wholly in the parish church.

NEWCHURCH, ISLE OF WIGHT.—Forthwith wholly in Ventnor Church, and in the churchyard, on the first of July, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-nine, except in vaults and walled graves now existing, or which may be constructed in ground not previously buried in; and in graves the coffins buried in which have been entombed, that is, enclosed in stonework or brickwork, properly cemented, or in concrete not less than six inches thick; and no graves to be re-opened except those the coffins in which have been so entombed.

RADCLIFFE - UPON - TRENT, NOTTINGHAM. — Forthwith wholly in the church, and, from and after the thirty-first of December, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-nine, in the churchyard.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty in Council is pleased hereby to give notice of such representations, and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council on the second day of October next :

And Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith published in the London Gazette; and that copies thereof be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such representations, one month before the said second day of October.

TREASURY WARRANT.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament, passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her Majesty, chapter 96, for the regulation of the duties of postage certain scales of weight and rates of postage were fixed and made chargeable and payable upon, for, or in respect of letters, newspapers, Parliamentary proceedings, and printed papers transmitted and forwarded by the post, and various regulations were made for facilitating the transmission of such letters and papers by the post, and by the same Act powers were given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury from time to time and at any time thereafter by Warrant under their hands to alter and fix any of the rates of postage therein mentioned.

And whereas further powers are given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury by another Act of Parliament passed in the eleventh year of the reign of Her Majesty, chapter 85, for giving further facilities for the transmission of letters by post, and for the regulating the duties of postage thereon, and for other purposes relating to the Post Office.

And whereas it is expedient to authorize the transmission of certain packets by the post between the United Kingdom and the several countries and places hereinafter mentioned, and for that purpose to fix certain rates of postage, and make certain regulations in the manner hereinafter set forth.

Now, we, the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, in exercise of the powers reserved to us in and by the said hereinbefore recited Acts of Parliament, or one of them, and of all other powers enabling us in this behalf, do, by this Warrant, under the hands of two of us, the said Commissioners (by the authority of the Statute in that case made and provided) order, direct, and declare as follows:—

1. All packets consisting of printed papers (other than newspapers) or consisting of patterns or samples of merchandize of no intrinsic value respectively, posted in the United Kingdom, addressed to any place in Borneo, Japan, or the Philippine Islands, or posted in any place in Borneo, Japan, or the Philippine Islands, addressed to the United Kingdom, may be transmitted by the post between the United Kingdom and any place in Borneo, Japan, or the Philippine Islands, direct or via Singapore or Hong Kong, and either via Southampton or Marseilles (the sea conveyance being by British or French packet boat) subject to the several rates of British postage hereinafter mentioned; that is to say:

On every such packet, if not exceeding four ounces in weight, there shall be charged and taken an uniform British rate of postage of fourpence, if such packet shall be transmitted via Southampton; and if such packet shall be transmitted via Marseilles, an uniform British rate of postage of sixpence.

And on every such packet, if exceeding four ounces in weight, there shall be charged and taken for such transmission thereof respectively as aforesaid, the several further and additional rates of postage hereinafter mentioned.

2. All packets consisting of printed papers (other than newspapers) or consisting of patterns or samples of merchandize of no intrinsic value respectively, posted in the United Kingdom, addressed to any place in Réunion or Madagascar or posted in any place in either of such countries addressed to the United Kingdom, may be transmitted by the post between the United Kingdom and any place in Réunion or Madagascar, respectively, direct or by way of Mauritius, and either via Southampton or Marseilles (the sea conveyance being by British packet boat) subject to the several rates of British postage hereinafter mentioned; that is to say:—

On every such packet, if not exceeding four ounces in weight, there shall be charged and taken an uniform British rate of postage of fourpence, if such packet shall be transmitted via Southampton; and if such packet shall be transmitted via Marseilles, an uniform British rate of postage of sixpence.

And on every such packet, if exceeding four ounces in weight, there shall be charged and taken for such transmission thereof respectively as aforesaid, the several further and additional rates of postage hereinafter mentioned.

3. All packets consisting of printed papers (other than newspapers) or consisting of patterns or samples of merchandize of no intrinsic value, respectively posted in the United Kingdom, addressed to any place in New Caledonia, may be transmitted by the post from the United Kingdom to any place in New Caledonia, direct or by way of Australia, and either via Southampton or Marseilles (the sea conveyance being by British packet boat) subject to the several rates of British postage hereinafter mentioned, that is to say:—

On every such packet, if not exceeding four ounces in weight, there shall be charged and taken an uniform British rate of postage of

fourpence, if such packet shall be transmitted via Southampton; and if such packet shall be transmitted via Marseilles, an uniform British rate of postage of sixpence.

And on every such packet, if exceeding four ounces in weight, there shall be charged and taken for such transmission thereof as aforesaid, the several further and additional rates of postage hereinafter mentioned.

4. All packets consisting of printed papers (other than newspapers), or consisting of patterns or samples of merchandize of no intrinsic value, respectively posted in the United Kingdom, addressed to any place in St. Domingo, Martinique, Guadeloupe, Cuba, Porto Rico, or Mexico, or posted in any place in either of such countries addressed to the United Kingdom, may be transmitted by the post between the United Kingdom and any place in St. Domingo, Martinique, Guadeloupe, Cuba, Porto Rico, or Mexico, direct (the sea conveyance being by British packet boat), subject to the several rates of British postage hereinafter mentioned, that is to say:—

On every such packet, if not exceeding four ounces in weight, there shall be charged and taken an uniform British rate of postage of threepence.

And on every such packet, if exceeding four ounces in weight, there shall be charged and taken for such transmission thereof respectively as aforesaid, the several further and additional rates of postage hereinafter mentioned.

5. All packets consisting of printed papers (other than newspapers) or consisting of patterns or samples of merchandize, of no intrinsic value, respectively posted in the United Kingdom, addressed to any place in St. Martin's or French Guiana, or posted in any place in either of such countries, addressed to the United Kingdom, may be transmitted by the post between the United Kingdom and any place in St. Martin's or French Guiana, respectively (the sea conveyance being partly by British and partly by foreign packet boat), subject to the several rates of British postage hereinafter mentioned; that is to say:—

On every such packet, if not exceeding four ounces in weight, there shall be charged and taken an uniform British rate of postage of threepence.

And on every such packet, if exceeding four ounces in weight, there shall be charged and taken for such transmission thereof respectively as aforesaid, the several further and additional rates of postage hereinafter mentioned.

6. All such respective packets so transmitted as hereinbefore, in the five preceding Clauses of this Warrant respectively mentioned, if exceeding four ounces in weight, shall be subject to the several further and additional rates of postage hereinafter mentioned; that is to say:—

On every such packet, if exceeding four ounces, and not exceeding eight ounces in weight, there shall be charged and taken two rates of postage.

And on every such packet, if exceeding eight ounces, and not exceeding twelve ounces in weight, three rates of postage.

And on every such packet, if exceeding twelve ounces, and not exceeding sixteen ounces in weight, four rates of postage.

And for every additional four ounces in weight, of any such packet, above the weight of sixteen ounces, there shall be charged and taken one additional rate of postage, and in charging any additional rate of postage, every fractional part of such additional four ounces in weight, shall be charged as an additional four ounces in weight, and each progressive and additional rate chargeable under this Clause, shall be estimated and charged at the sum which any such packet would be charged with under this Warrant if not exceeding four ounces in weight.

7. Every packet consisting of printed papers (other than newspapers) which shall be transmitted by the post under the authority of this Warrant shall be sent open at the ends or sides, and either without a cover or in a cover or envelope open at the ends or sides, and there shall be no written letter either closed or open nor any written communication in the nature of a letter either closed or open (whether such letter or communication be addressed to or intended for the person to whom the packet shall be directed or any other person) nor any enclosure sealed or otherwise closed against inspection, nor any other enclosure not authorized by this Warrant sent in or with any such packet.

8. Every packet consisting of printed papers (other than newspapers) which shall be transmitted by the post under the authority of this Warrant may contain any number of separate books or other publications, prints, or maps, and any quantity of paper, parchment, or vellum, and the books or other publications, prints, or maps may be either printed, written, or plain, or any mixture of the three, and all legitimate binding, mounting, or covering of a book, publication, print, or map, or of a portion thereof, shall be allowed to pass by the post whether such binding, mounting, or covering be loose or attached, as also rollers in the case of prints or maps, markers (whether of paper or otherwise) in the case of books and whatsoever is necessary for the safe transmission of literary or artistic matter, or usually appertains thereto, but no packet shall consist of or contain any photographs, drawings, prints, or other contents which may be obviously of an obscene character.

9. Every packet consisting of patterns or samples of merchandize which shall be transmitted by the post under the provisions of this Warrant shall be so transmitted in conformity with and under and subject to the several orders, directions, regulations, and conditions following; that is to say:—

There shall be no enclosure sealed or otherwise closed against inspection and examination, nor any other enclosure not authorized by this Warrant, sent in or with any such packet.

No pattern or sample being of any intrinsic value, or being an article or thing of a saleable nature, or having a value of its own apart from its mere use as a pattern or sample shall be transmitted by the post under the provisions of this Warrant.

There shall be no writing or printing upon any such packet or on the cover thereof, except the address of the person for whom it is intended, the address of the sender thereof, a trade mark, and numbers and prices.

All such packets shall be sent in covers, open at the ends so as to be easy of examination. Nevertheless, samples of seeds, drugs, and such other articles and things as cannot be sent in open covers, may be enclosed in bags of linen, paper, or other material, tied at the neck; but bags so closed that they cannot be readily opened, even although they be transparent, shall not be used for this purpose.

10. No packet shall be transmitted by the post under the provisions of this Warrant, which shall exceed two feet in length or one foot in breadth or depth, unless under the special authority of the Postmaster-General.

11. Every packet transmitted by the post under this Warrant, shall be put into the Post Office at such hours in the day and under all such regulations as the Postmaster-General may appoint.

12. If any packet sent or tendered or delivered in order to be sent under the provisions of this Warrant, shall be sent otherwise than in conformity with the several regulations, orders, directions, and conditions hereinbefore contained, every such packet shall and may (except in the cases provided for by the Clause next hereinafter contained, numbered 13) be detained and opened, and at the option of the Postmaster-General be either returned or given up to the sender thereof, or be given up to the person to whom it shall be addressed, or be forwarded to the place of its destination; and every such packet on being so returned, given up, or forwarded, shall be chargeable with any rate or amount of postage which the Postmaster-General shall think proper, not exceeding the rate or amount of postage to which such packet would have been liable as a letter, nor less than the rate of postage which such packet would have been chargeable with, if the postage thereof had been properly paid when posted.

13. If any packet sent or tendered or delivered in order to be sent under the provisions of this Warrant, shall contain any written letter, or any written communication in the nature of a letter, whether closed or open, or any enclosure sealed or otherwise closed against inspection, or any other enclosure not authorized by this Warrant, every such letter, or communication or enclosure, may be taken out by any officer of the Post Office, and at the option of the Postmaster-General shall be either returned or given up to the sender thereof, or be forwarded to the address on the packet, charged in either case not only with the full rates of postage as an unpaid letter, but also with a further and additional rate of postage, equal in amount to the single rate of postage payable on such respective packets; and the remainder of the packet, if the postage be duly paid when posted, may be forwarded to the place of its address without any extra charge.

14. In order to prevent any obstacle to the due and regular transmission of letters by the post, any officer of the Post Office may delay the transmission of any packet posted or forwarded by the post under the provisions of this Warrant, either for the space of twenty-four hours after the time at which the same ought to be despatched in due course of the post, or (at his option) until the despatch of the mail next after that by which the same ought, in due course of the post, to be forwarded by him.

15. The terms and expressions used in this Warrant shall be construed to have the like meaning in all respects as they would have had if inserted in the said Act, passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her present Majesty.

16. In all cases in which any question shall hereafter arise whether any packet or anything contained therein, transmitted under the provisions of this Warrant, is entitled to the privileges of this Warrant, and to be so transmitted within the intent and meaning thereof, such question shall be referred to the determination of the Postmaster-General, whose decision thereupon shall be final and conclusive on all parties.

17. The Commissioners for the time being of Her Majesty's Treasury may, by Warrant under their hands, or the hands of any two of them, at any time hereafter, alter, repeal, or revoke any of the rates of postage hereby fixed, or any of the orders, directions, regulations, and conditions hereby made, and may make and establish any new or other rates, orders, directions, regulations, and conditions in lieu thereof, and from time to time appoint at what time the rates which may be payable are to be paid.

18. This Warrant shall come into operation on the first day of September, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven.
