

twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the sixteenth day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of your Majesty, chapter seventy; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of your Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five; have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Peter, situate at Devizes, in the parish of Rowde, in the county of Wilts, and in the diocese of Salisbury.

"Whereas at certain extremities of the said parish of Rowde, and of the chapelry of Saint James, Southbroom, in the parish of Cannings Episcopi, in the county and diocese aforesaid, which extremities lie contiguous one to another, and are described in the schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of the said first-named parish, and of the said chapelry respectively.

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that such contiguous portions of the said parish of Rowde, and of the said chapelry of Saint James, Southbroom, should be formed into a consolidated chapelry, for all ecclesiastical purposes, and that the same should be assigned to the said church of Saint Peter, situate at Devizes aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Walter Kerr, Bishop of the said diocese of Salisbury, with the consent of Gabriel Goldney, of Beechfield, near Chippenham, in the said county of Wilts, Esquire, the patron of the vicarage of the said parish of Rowde, and with the consent of the Reverend William Ewart, the vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the said parish of Cannings Episcopi, and as such vicar or incumbent the patron of the perpetual curacy of the said chapelry of Saint James, Southbroom (in testimony whereof they have respectively signed and sealed this representation), and with the consent of the dean and chapter of the cathedral church of the Blessed Virgin Mary of Sarum, the patrons of the vicarage of the said parish of Cannings Episcopi (in testimony whereof they have hereunto affixed their common or corporate seal), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent that it would in our opinion be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said parish of Rowde, and of the said chapelry of Saint James, Southbroom, which are described in the schedule hereunder written, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of Saint Peter, situate at Devizes aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Peter, Devizes,' and that the right of presentation and appointment to the church of such consolidated chapelry should belong to and be exercised by the said Walter Kerr, Bishop of the said diocese of Salisbury, and by his successors, bishops of the same diocese, for ever.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to your Majesty, in your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Peter, Devizes, being:—

"All that portion of the parish of Rowde, in the county of Wilts, and in the diocese of Salisbury, which is situate within the boundary of the borough of Devizes.

And also all that contiguous portion of the chapelry of Saint James, Southbroom, in the parish of Cannings Episcopi, situate within the boundary of the borough of Devizes aforesaid, which is bounded on the north by the said borough boundary, on the west by the above-described portion of the parish of Rowde aforesaid, on the south partly by the parish of Saint John the Baptist, Devizes, in the said county and diocese, and partly by the chapelry of the Blessed Virgin Mary, Devizes, in the last-named parish, and on the remaining side, that is to say, on the east by an imaginary line, commencing upon the boundary which divides the said chapelry of the Blessed Virgin Mary, Devizes, from the chapelry of Saint James, Southbroom aforesaid, at the junction of Commercial-road with the road leading from Couch-lane to the Belvidere entrance to Roundway Park, and extending thence northward along the middle of the last-described road, crossing the Kennet and Avon Canal to a point near the said Belvidere entrance to Roundway Park, upon the boundary of the borough of Devizes aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore Her Majesty by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Salisbury.
