NOTICE TO MARINERS.

(No. 42.)—UNITED STATES.

Shoal Westward of George's Bank.

THE United States Government has given notice, that a dangerous shoal has been discovered lying to the westward of George's Bank, in the track of vessels bound from Europe to the United States.

This shoal—named the Cultivator Shoal—extends in a S.E. and N.W. direction, and is upwards of five miles in length, with broken spots of eight and nine fathoms' water, and three fathoms on the shoalest part, with hard sand bottom.

The shoalest part is in lat. 41° 38' N., and long. 68° 11' West of Greenwich.

On approaching the shoal, the water suddenly decreases from 50 to 14, 9, and 10 fathoms, and then to 6; but in nearly all weather, during daylight, the ripple or breakers on the shoal can be seen in time to avoid them.

A buoy has been placed on the shoal in nine fathoms' water.

Nantucket Shoals.

Also, that on a part of the Nantucket Shoals, north of Phelp's Bank, is a shoal, named Lott's Breakers, in lat. 40° 56' N., long. 69° 20' 7" West of Greenwich, on which there is 6½ fathoms' water.

This shoal can be seen from a distance of two miles in the daytime; and when the tide runs at its full strength, small breakers show themselves.

WEST INDIES.

Lighthouse on Castle Island—Crooked Island Passage.

Notice is hereby given, that the lighthouse which has been in the course of erection on Castle Island, at the southern entrance of the Crooked Island Passage, is now completed and ready for the reception of the lantern, which will shortly be sent out from England; previous to the exhibition of the light, mariners are informed of the completion of the building, as it forms an excellent day-mark for the Crooked Island Passage.

By command of their Lordships,
Geo. Henry Richards, Hydrographer.
Hydrographic Office, Admiralty London,
13th August, 1867.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the War Department holds in his hands for distribution amongst the next of kin of each of the deceased soldiers named in the list hereunder written, the sum of money set opposite to each name.

Applications from persons supposing themselves entitled as next of kin should be addressed by letter to "The Under-Secretary of State, War Office, London, S.W.," and marked outside "Soldier's Effects."

No application can be attended to which does not state the dates and places of the soldier's birth, enlistment, and death, and the name of his regiment; his regimental number should also be stated if known.

Should not these particulars furnished by the applicant agree with the facts recorded on the War Office documents relating to the deceased soldier, the applicant will be so informed; but should they agree therewith, then within three calendar months the Secretary of State will furnish the applicant with the usual requirements needed for the proof of the alleged relationship.

The application must be authenticated by the signature of the applicant, and his name should be affixed in the presence of the clergyman, or one of the churchwardens of the parish, or a Justice of the Peace; the applicant's address, with the name of the post town, must also be clearly stated.
