AT the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 14th day of October, 1867.

By the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

WHEREAS one of the Royal Mail Steam Packet Company's vessels, called the "Tasmanian," has lately arrived, from the West Indies, in the Southampton Water, in the county of Hants, and has been directed to proceed to, and remain under quarantine at, the Motherbank, off the Isle of Wight, and during and in the course of her voyage from the West Indies, the Yellow Fever, being a dangerous and infectious disease, appeared on board the said vessel, and attacked several persons on board thereof, and the said vessel arrived under alarming and suspicious circumstances; and whereas several persons who were on board the "Tasmanian," on her arrival, being all the persons on board the said ship who were known to be or suspected of being affected by the said disease, have since been ordered to be removed to the Quarantine Lazarette or Hulk called the "Menelaus," lying at the Motherbank, off the Isle of Wight:

And whereas it is expedient to make provision for the disposition of the other persons remaining on board the said ship:

Now, therefore, the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, in exercise of the powers vested in them, do hereby order,—

1. That the said vessel, called the "Tasmanian," shall remain and continue at the Motherbank aforesaid, until the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, or any two or more of them, shall make further order.

2. That the persons now on board the said vessel called the "Tasmanian," not ordered to be removed to the "Menelaus," shall be removed to the ship called the "Parana," or the ship called the "Æolus," unless ordered to remain on board the "Tasmanian," by the Medical Superintendent of Quarantine, at Southampton.

3. That all persons so removed on board the "Menelaus" Quarantine Hulk, or who shall hereafter be removed on board the said Hulk, or on board the "Parana," or the "Æolus," and who shall have been on board the "Tasmanian," shall be kept and detained on board the said Hulk, or the "Parana," or the "Æolus," until the said

Lords of the Council, or any two or more of them, shall make further order.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, and the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

AT the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 11th day of October, 1867.

By the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

PRESENT,

Lord President.
Lord Robert Montagu.
Mr. Corry.

THE Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in them vested under The Contagious Diseases (Animals) Acts, and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, and under and in pursuance of The Consolidated Cattle Plague Order of August, 1867, and The Metropolitan Cattle Plague Order of August, 1867, do hereby define the parts of the Port of London within which foreign cattle may be landed, as:—

- (1.) Thames Haven, which is hereinafter referred to as landing-place No. (1.) and for this purpose shall be defined to be as follows (that is to say):—

All that space in the parish of Fobbing, in the county of Essex, the property of the London, Tilbury, and Southend Railway Company, at the Thames Haven station of that Company, lying between the River Thames and a line commencing at a point on the River Thames at the south-western corner of the property of the said Railway Company, near the Thames Haven station, and running in a north-westerly direction for a distance of six hundred and ten yards along the fence or boundary between the
