

the Town Clerk of the borough of Kingston-upon-Hull; and do prescribe as follows:—

1. All foreign cattle landed within the said defined part of the port shall be slaughtered within four days after the landing thereof, exclusive of the day of landing, unless they are taken to a licensed market or sale within that defined part within such four days, and they shall be so taken if a market or sale is held there within the said period of four days, but if there is no such licensed market or sale within that defined part, or if no such market or sale is held there within the said period of four days, then all such foreign cattle shall be slaughtered within that defined part within the said period of four days.

2. Cattle other than foreign cattle within the said defined part shall not be removed therefrom alive.

Arthur Helps.

AT the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 11th day of October, 1867.

By the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

THE Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in them vested under The Contagious Diseases (Animals) Acts, and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, and under and in pursuance of The Consolidated Cattle Plague Order of August, 1867, do hereby define the part of the Port of Harwich, in the county of Essex, within which foreign cattle may be landed, as follows:—

All that space in the borough of Harwich which lies within the area commencing with a line drawn in a south-easterly direction from a point on the bank of the River Stour two hundred and fifteen yards south-west of the west corner of the Cement Works adjoining the Old Battery, to the semaphore signals of the Great Eastern Railway Company at Harwich, thence eastward along the boundary fence of the Railway Company's station yard to its junction with George-street, thence northward along the west side of George-street to the east side of Trinity Store House wall, thence to the north-west corner of the Great Eastern Railway Company's Bonding Warehouse, thence in an easterly direction to the north-east corner of the Custom House in West-street, thence along the west side of West-street as far as Custom House-lane, and along the south side of Custom House-lane to Church-street, and across Church-street to Hopkins-lane, and along the south side of Hopkins-lane to King's Head-street, and across King's Head-street to Saint Austin's-lane, and along the south side of Saint Austin's-lane to King's Quay-street, and thence along the east side of King's Quay-street, to its junction with the north-east corner of the public quay, and from thence along the water frontage of the said borough to the part of the River Stour before-mentioned, which space is coloured green on the plan of part of the port of Harwich deposited at the Privy Council Office, a copy of which is deposited at the office of the Town Clerk of the borough of Harwich; and do prescribe as follows:—

1. All foreign cattle landed within the said defined part of the port shall be slaughtered within four days after the landing thereof, exclusive of the day of landing, unless they are taken to a licensed market or sale within that defined part within such four days, and they shall be so taken if a market or sale is held there within the said period of four days, but if there is no such licensed market or sale within that defined part, or if no such market or sale is held there within the said period of four days, then all such foreign cattle shall be slaughtered within that defined part within the said period of four days.

2. Cattle other than foreign cattle within the said defined part shall not be removed therefrom alive.

Arthur Helps.

AT the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 11th day of October, 1867.

By the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

THE Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in them vested under The Contagious Diseases (Animals) Acts, and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, and under and in pursuance of The Consolidated Cattle Plague Order of August, 1867, do hereby define the part of the Port of North Shields, in the county of Northumberland, within which foreign cattle may be landed, as follows:—

All that space in the town of Tynemouth lying between the sea or the River Tyne and a line commencing at the water at the eastern end of the bridge adjoining and on the south side of the borough of Tynemouth Gas Works, and running northward along the eastern boundary of the borough of Tynemouth Gas Works and the eastern wall of the North Shields Baths to the north-eastern corner of the said baths, thence continuing northward along the western boundary of the Iron Foundry and Flour Mills, and the eastern side of the street or road called Tanner's Bank to the southern boundary of the property of the North Eastern Railway Company, thence eastward for a distance of sixty yards along the southern boundary of the property of the North Eastern Railway Company, thence in a southerly direction along the eastern boundary of garden ground belonging to His Grace the Duke of Northumberland to a point on the sea bank forty yards north-east of the northern end of the Cholera Hospital, all which space is coloured pink on the plan of part of the town of Tynemouth deposited at the Privy Council Office, a copy of which is deposited at the Office of the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Northumberland; and do prescribe as follows:—

1. All foreign cattle landed within the said defined part of the port shall be slaughtered within four days after the landing thereof, exclusive of the day of landing, unless they are taken to a licensed market or sale within that defined part within such four days, and they shall be so taken if a market or sale is held there within the said period of four days, but if there is no such licensed market or sale within that defined part, or if no such market or sale is held there within the said period of four days, then all such foreign cattle shall be slaughtered within that defined part within the said period of four days.

2. Cattle other than foreign cattle within the said defined part shall not be removed therefrom alive.

Arthur Helps.