AT the Court at Windsor, the 4th day of November, 1867.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

THIS day, George Patton, Esquire, Lord Justice Clerk, was, by Her Majesty's command, sworn of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, and took his place at the Board accordingly.

ERRATUM in Gazette of 5th November, 1867, page 5874, column 2, line 40. For "Ponteg," read "Panteg."

AT the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 7th day of November, 1867.

By the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

PRESENT,

Lord President.

Lord Robert Montagu.

THE Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in them vested under The Contagious Diseases (Animals) Acts, and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, and under and in pursuance of The Consolidated Cattle Plague Order of August, 1867, and The Metropolitan Cattle Plague Order of August, 1867, do hereby define the following part of the Port of London as a part thereof within which foreign cattle may be landed, (that is to say):—

All that space in the parish of Poplar, in the county of Middlesex, lying between the River Thames and a line commencing at the said River, at the eastern point of the Pier head, on the north side of the Blackwall entrance of the East and West India Docks, and passing in a north-westerly direction to the eastern side of Preston's-road, at a point fifty-five yards to the south of the south-western corner of Russell-street, thence continuing westward, across Preston's-road, to the south-eastern corner of the Railway Dock belonging to the North London Railway Company, thence continuing westward along the southern end of the said Railway Dock to the south-western corner thereof, thence passing straight in a north-westerly direction for a distance of two hundred and thirty-five yards, to a point fifty yards due east of the northern end of the open ditch lying between the import dock of the East and West India Dock Company, and the Railway Dock the property of the North London Railway Company; thence westward to the northern end of the said open ditch, thence southward along the western side of the said ditch for a distance of one hundred and forty-one yards, thence due east for a distance of nineteen yards to the south-western corner of the North London Railway Company's boundary fence, thence eastward along the said railway company's boundary fence to a point thirteen yards to the westward of the western side of the lock between the railway company's dock and the Blackwall Basin, thence straight in a south-easterly direction to the north-eastern corner of the premises known as Lloyd's Proving House, thence southward along the eastern side of Lloyd's Proving House to the south-eastern corner thereof, thence in a south-easterly direction to the water of the lock of the eastern entrance of the East and West India Dock Company's South Dock, at the north-eastern end of the bridge which crosses the said lock; thence eastward along the northern side of the water of the lock and of the eastern entrance of the South Dock to the River Thames, all which space is coloured green on the plan of the East and West India Docks and Poplar Goods

Station deposited at the Privy Council Office, copies whereof are deposited at the offices of the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Middlesex and of the Metropolitan Board of Works:

And do hereby prescribe as follows:—

1. The cattle landed within the said defined part, when removed therefrom, shall be removed therefrom by railway only, and by the following route, namely:—along a siding of the North London Railway to the main line thereof, and thence along the North London Railway, by way of Bow and Hackney.

2. All foreign cattle so conveyed by railway, shall be brought along the said railway without stopping, and shall be discharged from the trucks in which they have been conveyed at the Maiden-lane Cattle Station, near to the Metropolitan Cattle Market, at Islington, and shall be driven immediately, upon being so discharged, to such market, or to the lairs belonging thereto, or to such other lairs as may be licensed by the Privy Council for the reception of such cattle.

3. All cattle within the limits of the said defined part shall be deemed to be foreign cattle, and shall be in all respects subject to the provisions of this Order in relation thereto.

Arthur Helps.

AT the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 7th day of November, 1867.

By the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

WHEREAS a part of the Port of Hartlepool, in the county of Durham, has been defined by an Order of the Privy Council, bearing date the eleventh day of October, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, as a part of that port within which foreign cattle may be landed, and in such order it is provided that all such foreign cattle shall be slaughtered within that defined part, and it is advisable to make provision for the re-shipment of such cattle for the purpose of their being conveyed to certain other ports and places in England:

Now, therefore, the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in them vested under The Contagious Diseases (Animals) Acts, and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, do hereby order as follows:—

1. From and after the ninth day of this present month of November, notwithstanding anything in the said Order, foreign cattle landed within the said defined part of the Port of Hartlepool may, under such regulations as the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Customs from time to time prescribe, be re-shipped therefrom and conveyed by sea direct to the Port of Newcastle-upon-Tyne, North Shields, Sunderland, or Middlesborough.

2. Provided that all cattle so re-shipped shall continue to be deemed foreign cattle.

Arthur Helps.

(General, No. 21.)

THE Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs has received, from Her Majesty's Ambassador at Constantinople, a Notice issued by the Turkish Government, of which the following is a translation :—

INTERNATIONAL COMMISSION on the Measures to be taken for rendering the Entrance of the Bosphorus safe to Mariners.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

MARINERS are warned that, in order to enable captains easily to distinguish between the Asiatic and European coasts, when sailing in the Black Sea, near the entrance of the Bosphorus, the Commission has thought it useful to have the lighthouse of Chilé, on the Asiatic coast, painted red, and that of Karabournou, on the European coast, painted green. This painting has been ordered to be done, and will be completed in about two weeks.

*Board of Trade, Whitehall,
November 6, 1867.*

THE Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade have received, from the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, a copy of a Despatch from Her Majesty's Minister at Rio de Janeiro, inclosing copy and translation of a decree of the Brazilian Government, dated 4th September, 1867, the articles of which are subjoined:—

ART. I. The Revenue Departments of Estancia and Christovao, in the Province of Sergipe, in addition to the despatching of articles, both of national and foreign growth, produce, and manufacture, which may have already paid duty for consumption in the country, shall also be qualified to export national produce either to the interior or out of the empire.

ART. II. The same stations may admit the despatch of either national or foreign vessels, which may arrive exclusively loaded with foreign goods free of duty.

(C. 1586.)

*Board of Trade, Whitehall,
November 6, 1867.*

THE Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade have received, from the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, a copy of a Despatch from Her Majesty's Consul at Trebizond, containing the following detailed list of the "Monopoly Transport Tariff," of the new "Competition Tariff," and of the prices of inland transport:—

Goods to be embarked from Trebizond for Constantinople, or vice versa, by the Russian, French, Austrian, Turkish, or Italian steamer, are divided into six classes, each class bearing a separate rate.

CLASS I.

Paying forty piastres the kintal. This weight equals one hundred and thirty pounds English; forty piastres, at the present currency, equal six shillings and eight pence. But as payment can only be made in gold or silver, the real value is about seven shillings.

Articles.

Silk cocoons.
Down feathers.
Opium.
Leeches.
Scammony.

CLASS II.

Paying thirty piastres the kintal, or about five shillings and sixpence the weight above stated, avoirdupois.

Cocoons, half pressed.
Cotton, not pressed.
Furs.
Floss-silk, not pressed.
Wool, not pressed.
Living plants.
Reeds (used for pens).
Silk, not worked.
Carpets.
Wool and cotton stuffs.
Rizah cloth (flax).
Silk, worked.

CLASS III.

Paying twenty piastres the kintal, or about three shillings and eight pence the weight above stated.

Almonds.
Wax, yellow.
Copper, in mass.
Cumin seed.
Deers' horns.
Baskets.
Thread, white and black.
Nets.
Rough silk, half pressed.
Gum.
Wool, pressed and not pressed.
Hides (tanned) and prepared leather.
Goat-skins.
Sheep-skins.
Hare-skins.
Embroidery, various.
Insect-powder.

CLASS IV.

Paying fifteen piastres the kintal, or about two shillings and nine pence English the weight above stated.

Tinder.
Madder.
Anise.
Dried Bamias (a vegetable).
Butter.
Caviare.
Flax, not pressed.
Eatables.
Canvas.
Silk worms' eggs.
Fruit, fresh.
Tobacco.
Cotton, pressed and not pressed.
Hemp and tow.

CLASS V.

Paying twelve piastres the kintal, or about two shillings and four pence English, the weight above stated.

Almonds.
Dried meat.
Chesnuts.
Glue.
Ropes.
Sheep-horns.
Dried fruits.
Gall-nuts.
Pitch.
Henna.
Pipe-sticks.
Buffalo hides.
Fish oil (porpoise).
Linseed oil.
Nuts and walnuts.
Hams.
Raisins.
Sacking.
Salt.
Grease.
Logwood.
Smoked meat.
Tow, pressed and half pressed.

CLASS VI.

Paying eight piastres the kintal, or about one shilling and five pence English, the weight above stated.

Boxwood.
Timber.

Bruised grain (article of food).
 Hemp, half pressed.
 Copper, not worked.
 Staves.
 Emery powder.
 Flour, all sorts.
 Seeds.
 Beans.
 Pig metal, all sorts.
 Ores.
 Potatoes.
 Rice.
 Corn, and the like.

All the above prices were at twenty per cent. higher two months ago.

Follows in a class by itself :

Persian tobacco, or tambak, which pays twenty piastres the kintal and half, or about three shillings and eight pence English per one hundred and ninety-five pounds avoirdupois, being about one penny for four pounds and a half weight.

The former tariff was one-half heavier for this article, being five shillings and sixpence for the same quantity, giving one penny for somewhat less than three pounds weight.

Shawls and specie paying one-half per cent. on their value.

Carriages, indiscriminately, have to pay four hundred piastres, or about seventy shillings English, for their transport.

Follows the tariff of articles having to pay per head or individual :

Passengers, first class, food included, six hundred and thirty-five piastres, being about five pounds eleven shillings English.

Passengers, second class, four hundred and fifty-eight piastres, or about four pounds English.

Passengers, third class, two hundred and fifty piastres, or about two pounds three shillings and sixpence English.

Passengers, fourth class, and food not included, one hundred and fifty piastres, or about one pound six shillings English.

Horses, three hundred and fifty piastres, or about three pounds one shilling English.

Mules, the same.

Asses, two hundred piastres, or about one pound fifteen shillings English.

Goats, thirty-five piastres, or about six shillings and five pence English.

Sheep, the same.

For dogs, birds, and the like, there is, I understand, no absolute tariff.

As regards the land transport to Erzeroum, the prices can hardly be characterised as the result of monopoly, but rather of custom and want of better conveyance. They are as follows :

A laden camel, carrying, that is, about two hundred and sixty okes, or about seven hundred weight avoirdupois. Hire, two hundred piastres, or about one pound fifteen shillings English.

A laden horse, carrying, that is, about one hundred and thirty okes, or about three hundred weight and a half avoirdupois. Hire, one hundred and forty-five piastres, or about one pound five shillings and six pence English.

A rider, with his baggage, provided that their joint weight do not exceed that just stated, pays the same fare.

A laden ox, carrying, that is, about ninety okes, or about two hundred weight and one third avoirdupois. Hire, about fifty-six piastres, or ten shillings and sixpence English.

Mules are little used on this line. When so, their hire is the same as that of a horse.

The prices or fares just given are solely and absolutely dependent on the weight, and quite independent of the quality of the goods so conveyed.

The time taken by a loaded beast, or caravan, from Trebizond to Erzeroum varies from twelve to fifteen days ; the distance is about one hundred and eighty miles. This should be had account of in estimating the prices just given.

Lastly, the prices of land transport are liable to a slight, but equable rise in bad weather and winter.

(C. 1588.)

Board of Trade, Whitehall,
 November 6, 1867.

THE Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade have received from the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, from Her Majesty's Chargé d'Affaires at Madrid, copy and translation of a decree, bearing date 29th October, which has been issued by the Spanish Government, modifying the duties on foreign wheat and flour imported into Puerto Rico and Cuba, of which the following are the Articles :—

ART. I. Flour made from Spanish corn, coming from Spanish ports in Spanish bottoms, shall continue free of duty on importation into the Island of Puerto Rico ; and after 1st January, 1868, corn-flour, the importation of which is not exempted from the payment of duty, shall be charged in the said island at the following rates :—

Flour made from Spanish corn, coming from Spanish ports in foreign bottoms, shall pay for every 100 kilogrammes, including weight of bags, 1 escudo 630 milesimas.

Flour coming from foreign countries in Spanish bottoms shall pay for every 100 kilogrammes, including the weight of bags, 4 escudos 891 milesimas.

The same, in foreign bottoms, for every 100 kilogrammes, including the weight of bags, 6 escudos 522 milesimas.

ART. 2. For the charging of duty on corn-flour coming from the United States, shall be observed that which was ordered, as a general rule, in Art. 5 of the Decree of 12th March, of the current year, which approved the Customs' Tariff now in force in the Island of Cuba.

ART. 3. I hereby abrogate the orders contained in my decree of 27th June, 1865, respecting the importation of flour into the Island of Puerto Rico.

Light Vessels in the Kattegat.

THE Danish Government has given notice, that from the 1st day of January, 1868, the following signals will be hoisted on a mast with a yard, on the top of the old lighthouse on the Scaw, distant about 1700 yards W. by S. (by compass) from the new lighthouse, to denote that one or more of the light vessels in the Kattegat have been compelled to leave their station on account of ice or other causes, and the signals will be continued until the vessel or vessels are replaced.

The Old Lighthouse on the Scaw, seen from the North.

No. 1. One ball on the masthead signifies that the Trindelen light vessel has left her station.

No. 2. Two balls below the eastern yard-arm signify that the Kobberground light vessel has left her station.

No. 3. One ball below the quarter of the yard on the east side of the mast signifies that the Anholt light vessel has left her station.

No. 4. Two balls below the western yard-arm signify that the Læsø Channel light vessel has left her station.

The balls will be painted red.

The signals hitherto shown from the old light-house on the Scau, as well as from the lighthouse on the Hirtsholm when the Læsø Channel light vessel has left her station, will, from the same date, be discontinued.

By command of their Lordships,

Geo. Henry Richards, Hydrographer.
Hydrographic Office, Admiralty London,
21st October, 1867.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

(No. 74.)—FRANCE—NORTH COAST.

Lights at the entrance of Trieux River.

THE French Government has given notice, that from the 15th day of October, 1867, the following lights would be established at the entrance of the Trieux River as a guide, or leading mark in.

Flashing Light on La Croix Rock.

A flashing white light, showing an eclipse and a flash of 4 seconds each alternately, elevated 45 feet above the level of the sea, and in clear weather should be seen from a distance of 10 miles. It is visible through an arc of 24 degrees, or to 12 degrees on each side of the centre of the channel.

The tower is 52 feet high, and is built on the rock of La Croix, on the east side of the entrance of the channel, in front of the three isles, and the position is in lat. $48^{\circ} 50\frac{1}{4}' N.$, long. $3^{\circ} 3\frac{1}{4}' W$ of Greenwich.

Flashing Light on the Bodic.

This light is of the same description as that on the La Croix, elevated 176 feet above the level of the sea, and in clear weather should be seen from a distance of 12 miles. It is visible through an arc of 18 degrees, or 9 degrees on each side of the centre of the channel.

The tower is 58 feet high, and is placed on the heights of Bodic, and is rather more than two miles S.W. from the La Croix; the position as given is in lat. $48^{\circ} 48\frac{1}{4}' N.$, long. $3^{\circ} 5\frac{1}{4}' W$ of Greenwich.

Directions.—In entering the Trieux bring the two lights in one, and when the Bodic is hidden by the La Croix tower, to an eye 8 feet above the level of the sea, open out the Bodic to the West and pass the La Croix on that side.

It is intended to place two red lights on the left side of the river, as a guide from the La Croix to the interior anchorage. The west coast of the channel is now marked by a bell buoy on the Plateau des Sirlots and by five stone towers painted red.

By command of their Lordships,

Geo. Henry Richards, Hydrographer.
Hydrographic Office, Admiralty, London,
25th October, 1867.

This Notice affects the following Admiralty Charts:—France, North Coast, sheet IX., No. 2668; Thames to Gibraltar, No. 1, and English Channel, Nos. 1598 and 2675 b.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

(No. 75.)—CHINA—EAST COAST.

Light Vessel in Liau River.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a light is now exhibited from a light vessel moored at the entrance of the Liau river, north coast of the Yellow Sea.

The light is a fixed white light, and in clear weather should be seen from a distance of 8 miles.

The light vessel has three masts, and is moored in $5\frac{1}{2}$ fathoms, with Tower-hill bearing S. by E. $\frac{3}{4}$ E., ruined tower on Kae-chu Point S.E. $\frac{3}{4}$ E., and the mouth of the river N.E. by E. $\frac{1}{4}$ E. Baskets are placed on the top of two of the masts; the Mizzen yard is always crossed, and from this mast signals are made. From the light vessel the two buoys in the river can be seen, one with the eye, the other with a telescope.

[All bearings are magnetic. Variation $3^{\circ} 30'$ Westerly in 1867.]

By command of their Lordships,

Geo. Henry Richards, Hydrographer.
Hydrographic Office, Admiralty, London,
25th October, 1867.

This notice affects the following Admiralty Charts:—Liau river, No. 2894; Pechili and Liautung gulf, No. 1256; and Hong Kong to Liautung gulf, No. 1262. Also, China Pilot, 4th edition, page 353.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

(No. 76.)—BALTIC.

Alteration of Lights on the Coast of Schleswig-Holstein.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the following alterations have been made in the lights on the coast of Schleswig-Holstein.

Fixed Light at Bülk.

The Bülk light, situated on the N.W. point of the entrance of the port of Kiel, has been replaced by a more powerful light.

The light is a fixed white light, elevated 96 feet above the level of the sea, and in clear weather should be seen from a distance of 14 miles.

The illuminating apparatus is dioptric or by lenses of the third order.

The tower is round, 75 feet high, and attached to the keeper's dwelling; its position, as given, is in lat. $54^{\circ} 27\frac{1}{2}'$ N., long. $10^{\circ} 12'$ East of Greenwich.

In foggy weather a signal from the mail steamer will be answered by firing a gun.

Fixed Light at Friedrichsort.

The light is a fixed white light, elevated 37 feet above the level of the sea, and in clear weather should be seen from a distance of 8 miles.

The illuminating apparatus is dioptric or by lenses of the fourth order.

The tower is round, 32 feet high, and is placed on the reef running out on the west coast of Kiel fiord, S. E. 50 yards from its extreme. Its position is in lat. $54^{\circ} 23\frac{1}{2}'$ N., long. $10^{\circ} 11\frac{1}{2}'$ East of Greenwich.

In foggy weather a signal from the mail steamer will be answered by sounding a bell.

Ships entering Kiel fiord should not pass within 50 yards of the light.

When the fiord is frozen over the light will not be exhibited.

Fixed Green Light at Flensburg.

The light is a fixed green light, elevated 15 feet above the level of the sea, and in clear weather should be seen from a distance of 2 miles.

This light is exhibited from a pole, and is intended to indicate the position of the port of Flensburg, and when the mail steamer is expected, a fixed red light is exhibited in addition, which, being kept in a line with the green one, indicates the position of the channel.

Fixed Lights at Sonderburg.

These lights are fixed green lights, bearing North and South from each other; the North light is elevated 19 feet, and the South light 15 feet above the level of the sea, and in clear weather both should be visible from a distance of 3 miles. They are exhibited from poles placed in the Castle square, and when kept in line lead between the East and West points at the entrance of the port.

Fixed Light at Sli.

The light is a fixed red light, and in clear weather should be seen from a distance of 10 miles.

The illuminating apparatus is catoptric or by reflectors.

The tower is octagonal, painted white, and is placed at the end of the north point of the entrance of Sli fiord.

By command of their Lordships,

Geo. Henry Richards, Hydrographer.

Hydrographic Office, Admiralty London,

Southport Pier.

(Application for Provisional Order for powers to levy Tolls and Rates at the Pier at Southport).

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to the Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Her Majesty's Privy Council for Trade and Foreign Plantations, on or before the 22nd day of December next, by "The Southport Pier Company (Limited)," hereinafter called "The Company," to make a provisional order pursuant to the provisions of "The General Pier and Harbour Act, 1861," and "The General Pier and Harbour Act, 1861, Amendment Act," for the following or some of the following purposes:—to authorise the Company to levy and take tolls, rates, and duties upon or in respect of their pier, and the works connected therewith, from all persons, and in respect of all vessels using the same, and from and in respect of all passengers and luggage, goods, fish, cattle, and merchandise embarked or disembarked at or from the said pier and works.

To authorise the Company, from time to time, to confer, vary, or extinguish exemptions from, or to enter into, composition with any person or persons with respect to the payment of such tolls, rates, and other duties, and to confer, vary, or extinguish other rights and privileges.

To incorporate with the said Provisional Order the whole or part of the "Harbours, Docks, and Piers Clauses Act, 1847," "The Railways Clauses Act, 1863," and to take any other powers which may be deemed necessary for the purpose of the Order.

To empower the said Company to purchase, take on lease, or hold any other undertaking of a like nature, or any tolls, rates, and duties to be levied in respect thereof.

And notice is hereby further given, that on or before the 30th day of November, 1867, a copy of this notice as published in the London Gazette will be deposited with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Lancaster, at his office in Preston, in the said county, at the Custom-house, at Liverpool, in the said county, and at the office of the Board of Trade.

And notice is also hereby further given, that on and after the 22nd day of December next, printed copies of the proposed Provisional Order will be furnished to all parties applying for the same at the price of one shilling each, at the offices of the Solicitors and Parliamentary Agents for the Promoters, as undermentioned.

Dated this 24th day of October, 1867.

London and North-Western, and Knighton, Central Wales, and Central Wales Extension Railway Companies.

(Amalgamation; Purchase or Lease of Undertakings of Knighton, Central Wales, and Central Wales Extension Railway Companies; Increase of Capital; Amendment of Acts.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session for an Act to effect the purposes following, or some or one of them (that is to say):

To authorise the amalgamation, from and after such period and upon such terms as have been or may be agreed upon, or as may be fixed and determined in and by the said Act, of the Knighton Railway Company, the Central Wales Railway

Company, and the Central Wales Extension Railway Company (hereinafter called "The Central Wales Companies"), with the London and North-Western Railway Company, and to vest in the last-named Company the undertaking, railways, stations, works, buildings, lands, plant, property, and effects of every description of the Central Wales Companies, and all the rights, powers, and privileges of or belonging to or enjoyed by those Companies respectively at the date of such amalgamation, of what nature or kind soever, and whether with reference to their own undertakings respectively or to the undertaking of any other Company, including the fixing and levying of tolls, rates, and charges, and to enable the London and North-Western Railway Company to use, exercise, and enjoy all or any of those rights, powers, and privileges, and to provide for the dissolution of the Central Wales Companies, and for the incorporation of the shareholders in those Companies with the London and North-Western Railway Company, and to enable that Company to create and issue for the purposes of the intended Act additional shares or stock in their undertaking, with or without a preferential dividend attached thereto :

Or otherwise to authorise the Central Wales Companies respectively to sell or to lease in perpetuity and transfer to the London and North-Western Railway Company, and to authorise that Company to purchase, acquire, or accept a lease in perpetuity of the several undertakings of the Central Wales Companies, and all the railways, stations, works, buildings, lands, plant, property, and effects of every description, rights, powers, and privileges, of or belonging to or enjoyed by those Companies respectively, of what nature or kind soever, and whether with reference to their own undertakings respectively or to the undertaking of any other Company ; and to enable the London and North-Western Railway Company to exercise and enjoy all such rights, powers, and privileges as aforesaid, whether with reference to the fixing and levying of tolls, rates, and charges, or otherwise :

To confirm any agreement or agreements which have been or may be made between the Central Wales Companies and the London and North-Western Railway Company in relation to the matters aforesaid, or any of them :

And, so far as may be necessary or expedient for the purposes of the said Act, to alter, amend, extend, and enlarge or repeal all or some of the powers and provisions of the several local and personal Acts following, or some of them (that is to say): "The Knighton Railway Act, 1858;" "The Central Wales Railway Act, 1859;" "The Central Wales Extension Railway Act, 1860;" "The Central Wales Railway Act, 1863;" "The Central Wales Extension Railway Act, 1863;" and also the Act 9 and 10 Vict., cap. 204, and all other Acts relating to the London and North-Western Railway Company :

On or before the 23rd day of December next printed copies of the said intended Act will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons.

Dated this 6th day of November, 1867.

Newquay and Cornwall Junction Railway.

(Extension of Time for completion of Railway ; Additional Lands and further Powers with reference to Railway of Treffry's Trustees, and Arrangements with them ; Alteration of Tolls ; Additional Capital ; and further Provisions as to authorised Capital ; Amendment of Acts ; and other Purposes.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session by the Newquay and Cornwall Junction Railway Company, hereinafter called "the Company," for an Act for the purposes, or some of the purposes, following (that is to say) :

To extend the period limited by "The Newquay and Cornwall Junction Railway Act, 1864," for the completion of the railway and works thereby authorised.

To empower the Company and the owners of the railway authorised by the "Treffry's Estate (Newquay Railway) Act, 1857," jointly, or either of them, separately to purchase, by compulsion or agreement, certain lands and buildings in the parish of St. Dennis, in the county of Cornwall, and certain other lands and buildings in the parish of St. Columb Major, in the same county respectively, lying on each side of and adjoining the said railway (which is hereinafter referred to as the Newquay Railway), and between the junction of that railway with the authorised line of the Newquay and Cornwall Junction Railway and the crossing by the Newquay Railway of the turnpike road leading from Truro to Bodmin ; and to vary or extinguish all existing rights and privileges connected with such lands and buildings ; and to confer other rights and privileges.

To empower the Company and the said owners of the Newquay Railway (who are hereinafter referred to as Treffry's Trustees), to enter into arrangements or agreements with respect to the acquisition, use, and ownership of the lands and buildings so to be purchased, and with respect to the laying down of one or more additional rail or rails on the before mentioned portion of the Newquay Railway, so as to adapt the same to the gauge of the Company's Railway, as well as to the gauge of the Newquay Railway ; and with respect to the use of such additional rail or rails by the Company and Treffry's Trustees respectively, and with respect to the apportionment of and contribution towards the cost incurred in reference to the matters aforesaid, and to confirm and give effect to any arrangement or agreement entered into with reference to any of the matters aforesaid.

To empower the Company to alter, vary, and increase the tolls, rates, and duties authorized to be taken by "The Newquay and Cornwall Junction Railway Act, 1864," or some of them, and to confer, vary, or extinguish exemptions from payment thereof.

To authorize the Company to increase their capital, and to raise a further sum of money for all or any of the purposes of the intended Act, and for the general purposes of the Company, by the creation of new shares, with or without a guaranteed or preference dividend, or other rights or privileges attached thereto, and by borrowing on mortgage or bond, or by any of such means, and also to apply to all or any of such purposes, any capital or funds now belonging to the Company, or hereinafter to belong to them, or under the control of their Directors.

To alter, vary, regulate, and define the powers of the Company for raising money, whether by shares or by borrowing, and, if need be, to confer additional powers upon the Company with reference thereto, and with reference to the creation of preference shares, and debenture stock, and the cancelling of shares not issued, and the forfeiture and cancellation of shares, and the creation and issue of new shares in lieu thereof, with or without a preferential dividend or other rights or privileges, and to alter, amend, or repeal, either wholly or in part, any restrictions imposed upon the Company, either with reference to their borrowing on mortgage for the purposes of their undertaking, or with reference to any other matter or thing, and to enable the Company to divide the shares, or some of the shares, in their capital into half shares, and to issue in half shares any portion of their capital already created, and to attach to such half shares a preference or priority of dividend or interest, or any other special privilege.

To alter, amend, vary, or repeal some or any of the provisions of the following Acts (that is to say): "The Newquay and Cornwall Junction Railway Act, 1864," and "The Treffry's Estate (Newquay Railway) Act, 1857."

And notice is hereby given, that, on or before the 30th of November in the present year, a plan, describing the lands to be taken for the purposes of the intended Act, with a book of reference to such plan, and a copy of this notice, as published in the London Gazette, will be deposited with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Cornwall, at his office at Bodmin, in that county, and with the parish clerk of each parish in which any of those lands are situate, at his residence; and that printed copies of the intended Act will, on or before the 23rd day of December next, be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons.

Dated this fourth day of November, 1867.

Newquay and Cornwall Junction Railway.

(Deviation and Abandonment; Extension of Time for Completion of Part of Authorized Line; Additional Lands and Further Powers with reference to Railway of Treffry's Trustees, and Arrangements with them; Alteration of Tolls; Additional Capital and Further Provisions as to Authorized Capital; Amendments of Acts; and other Purposes.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, by the Newquay and Cornwall Junction Railway Company (hereinafter called "the Company"), for an Act for the purposes, or some of the purposes, following; that is to say:—

To enable the Company to make and maintain the following new or substituted line of railway, with all proper works and conveniences connected therewith, in lieu of a portion of the authorized line of railway shewn on the plans referred to in "The Newquay and Cornwall Junction Railway Act, 1864," which plans are herein called "the plans of 1864," that is to say:—

A deviation commencing by a junction with the said authorized line, at or near the point denoting two miles two furlongs on the plans of 1864, and terminating by a junction with the said authorized line at or near the point denoted three miles one furlong on the said plans of 1864, such deviation being wholly in the parish of St. Stephen's, in the county of Cornwall.

To enable the Company to abandon the formation of so much of the said authorized line as will be rendered unnecessary in consequence of the construction of the said new or substituted portion of railway, and to confer upon the Company, with respect to such new or substituted railway, all the powers, rights, and privileges belonging to the Company with respect to the said authorized railway.

To purchase, by compulsion or otherwise, lands, houses, and other property, for the purposes of the said new or substituted line of railway and the works connected therewith, and to vary or extinguish all existing rights and privileges in any manner connected with such lands, houses, and property, which would in any manner impede or interfere with the construction, maintenance, or use of the said new or substituted line of railway and the works connected therewith, and to confer other rights and privileges, and also to cross, alter, divert, and stop up the highways, turnpike and other roads, railways, tramways, aqueducts, bridges, canals, streams, and rivers, with which it may be necessary to interfere for the purpose of making and maintaining, or for more conveniently making, maintaining, or using the said new or substituted line of railway and the works connected therewith.

To extend the period limited by "The Newquay and Cornwall Junction Railway Act, 1864," for the completion of so much of the railway authorized by that Act as extends from the commencement of the authorized railway to the point on the plans of 1864 denoting two miles two furlongs, and also so much thereof as extends from the point on the said plans denoting three miles one furlong to the authorized termination thereof.

To empower the Company and the owners of the railway authorized by "The Treffry's Estate (Newquay Railway) Act, 1857," jointly, or either of them separately, to purchase by compulsion or agreement certain lands and buildings in the parish of St. Dennis, in the county of Cornwall, and certain other lands and buildings in the parish of St. Columb Major, in the same county, respectively lying on each side of and adjoining the said railway which is hereinafter referred to as "The Newquay Railway," between the junction of that railway with the authorized line of the Newquay and Cornwall Junction Railway, and the crossing by the Newquay Railway of the turnpike-road leading from Truro to Bodmin, and to vary or extinguish all existing rights and privileges connected with such lands and buildings, and to confer other rights and privileges.

To empower the Company and the said owners of the Newquay Railway (who are hereinafter, referred to as Treffry's trustees), to enter into arrangements or agreements with respect to the acquisition, use, and ownership of the lands and buildings so to be purchased, and with respect to the laying down of one or more additional line or additional lines of rails on the before mentioned portion of the Newquay Railway, so as to adapt the same to the gauge of the Company's Railway as well as to the gauge of the Newquay Railway, and with respect to the use of such additional rail or rails by the Company and Treffry's trustees respectively, and with respect to the apportionment of and contribution towards the cost incurred in reference to the matters aforesaid, and to confirm and give effect to any arrangement or agreement entered into with reference to any of the matters aforesaid.

To empower the Company to alter vary and increase the tolls, rates, and duties authorised to be taken by "The Newquay and Cornwall Railway Act, 1864," or some of them, and to confer, vary, or extinguish, exemptions from payment thereof.

To authorise the Company to increase their capital and to raise a further sum of money for all or any of the purposes of the intended Act, and for the general purposes of the Company by the creation of new shares with or without a guaranteed or preference dividend or other rights or privileges attached thereto by borrowing on mortgage or bond or by any of such means and also to apply to all or any of such purposes any capital or funds now belonging to the Company or hereafter to belong to them or under the control of their directors.

To alter, vary, regulate, and define the powers of the Company for raising money, whether by shares or by borrowing, and, if need be, to confer additional powers upon the Company, with reference thereto, and with reference to the creation of preference shares and debenture stock, and the cancelling of shares not issued, and the forfeiture and cancellation of shares, and the creation and issue of new shares in lieu thereof, with or without preferential dividend or other rights or priorities, and to alter, amend, or repeal, either wholly or in part, any restrictions imposed upon the Company, either with reference to their borrowing on mortgage for the purposes of their undertaking, or with reference to any other matter or thing, and to enable the Company to divide the shares, or some of the shares in their capital, into half shares, and to issue in half shares any portion of their capital already created, and to attach to such half shares a preference or priority of dividend or interest, or any other special privilege.

To alter, amend, vary, or repeal some or any of the provisions of the following Acts (that is to say) "The Newquay and Cornwall Junction Railway Act, 1864," and "The Treffry's Estate (Newquay Railway) Act, 1857."

And notice is hereby given that, on or before the 30th day of November in the present year, a published map and plans and sections describing the line and levels of the proposed new or substituted line of railway and works, and the lands to be taken for the purposes thereof, and also plans describing the other lands to be taken under the powers of the intended Act, with a book of reference to such plans respectively, and a copy of this notice, as published in the London Gazette, will be deposited with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Cornwall, at his office, at Bodmin, in that county, and that, on or before the same day, a copy of so much of the said plans, sections, and book of reference as relates to each of the several parishes in or through which the said railway and works are intended to be made, or within which the said lands are situate, together with a copy of this notice will be deposited with the parish clerk of each such parish, at his residence, and that printed copies of the intended Act will, on or before the 23rd day of December next, be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons.

Dated this 4th day of November, 1867.

Vale of Towy Railway.

(Power to Knighton, Central Wales, and Central Wales Extension Railway Companies, or some of those Companies, to take a Lease of the Undertaking of the Vale of Towy Railway jointly with the Llanelly Railway and Dock Company; Amendment of Acts).

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session thereof for an Act to authorise and empower the Knighton Railway Company and the Central Wales Railway Company, or any Company which may be formed by the amalgamation of those Companies, and the Central Wales Extension Railway Company (hereinafter called "the United Companies"), to take and accept, jointly with the Llanelly Railway and Dock Company, a lease of the undertaking, works, property, rights, powers, and privileges of the Vale of Towy Railway Company; and to authorise and empower the Vale of Towy Railway Company to grant such lease on such terms and conditions as have been or may be agreed upon, or as may be prescribed by the said intended Act; or otherwise to enable the United Companies to take and hold, jointly with the Llanelly Railway and Dock Company, any lease of the undertaking of the Vale of Towy Railway Company made and granted in favour of the Llanelly Railway and Dock Company under the powers to that effect contained in "The Llanelly Railway and Dock Act, 1860," and to exercise, jointly with the Llanelly Railway and Dock Company, all the rights, powers, and privileges vested in that Company by such lease, on such terms and conditions as have been or may be agreed upon, or as may be prescribed by the said intended Act:

Also to authorise and empower the United Companies and the Llanelly Railway and Dock Company to enter and carry into effect contracts or agreements for or with reference to the fixing, levying, collection, payment, application, appropriation, division, and apportionment of the tolls, receipts, and revenues arising from the said Vale of Towy Railway; and the payments to be made or secured by any or either of the said Companies to the other or others of them in respect of the use of the said undertaking; and to authorise the said Companies, or any of them, to apply their corporate funds to all or any of the purposes of the said intended Act:

To enable the United Companies, or any or either of them, for all or any of the purposes aforesaid, to raise further sums of money by the creation and issue of new shares or stock in their respective undertakings either with or without a preferential dividend attached thereto, or by borrowing, or by all or any of such means, or by such other means as shall be provided by the intended Act:

To vary or extinguish all rights and privileges inconsistent with the objects of the said intended Act, and to confer other rights and privileges:

And to alter, amend, extend, enlarge, or repeal, so far as may be necessary, the following Acts, or some of them, viz.: "The Vale of Towy Railway Act, 1854," "The Vale of Towy Railway (Leasing) Act, 1858," "The Llanelly Railway and Dock Act, 1860," "The Llanelly Railway and Dock Company's Amendment Act, 1867," "The Knighton Railway Act, 1858," "The Central Wales Railway Act, 1859," "The Central Wales Extension Railway Act, 1860," "The Central Wales Railway Act, 1863," "The Central Wales Extension Railway Act, 1863," and any other Act relating to any of the several Companies hereinbefore named:

On or before the 23rd day of December next printed copies of the proposed Bill will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons.

Dated this 6th day of November, 1867.

CONTRACT FOR FISHING GEAR AND TWINE.

Contract Department, Admiralty, Somerset House, October 24, 1867.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that on Tuesday, the 19th November next, at two o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into Store at Her Majesty's Dock Yards at Deptford, Woolwich, Chatham, Sheerness, Portsmouth, and Devonport, all such as may from time to time be ordered under a contract for twelve months certain, and further, until the expiration of three months warning.

FISHING GEAR AND TWINE,

The average annual expenditure of the last three years may be ascertained, patterns of the articles may be seen, and a form of the tender and conditions of contract may be obtained on application at this Department.

No tender will be received after two o'clock on the day of treaty, nor will any be noticed unless the party attends, or an agent for him duly authorized in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words "Tender for Fishing Gear and Twine," and must also be delivered at the Department of the Storekeeper-General, Admiralty, Somerset House, accompanied by a letter, signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering in the sum of £500 for the due performance of the contract.

CONTRACTS FOR GROCERIES FOR ARMY SERVICE. (DUTY PAID.)

Contract Department, Admiralty,
Somerset House, November 1, 1867.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that on Monday, the 11th instant, at twelve o'clock at noon, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into Her Majesty's Victualling Stores at Deptford, the undermentioned articles; viz.:—

Coffee (Roasted), 6,000 lbs.; half to be delivered in three weeks from date of contract, and the remainder in three weeks afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Coffee (Green or Raw), 10,000 lbs.; half to be delivered in three weeks from date of contract, and the remainder in three weeks afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Tea (Congou), in half chests, 5,000 lbs.; half to be delivered in three weeks from date of contract, and the remainder in three weeks afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Tenders may be made for the whole or any portion of the articles.

Their Lordships reserve to themselves the power, when the tenders are opened, of contracting either for the whole or for such part thereof only as they may deem fit, or for a greater quantity, or of not contracting for any, and also an unlimited power of selection in accepting the tenders.

Samples of the articles (not less than 2 lbs. of each), must be produced by the parties tendering.

The samples produced by persons whose tenders are not accepted are to be taken away by them immediately after the contracts have been decided.

No tender will be received unless made on the printed form provided for the purpose, which may be obtained in the Lobby of the Department of the Comptroller of Victualling, Admiralty, Somerset House, where the conditions of the contracts may also be seen.

All the articles are to be delivered duty paid, and the tenders are to be made at a rate per lb. for the tea, and at rates per 100 lbs. for the other articles, all the prices inclusive of duty.

No tender will be received after twelve o'clock at noon on the day of treaty; and it will not be required that the party tendering, or an agent on his behalf, should attend at the office on the day of contract, as the result of the offer received from each person will be communicated to him and to his proposed sureties in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words "Tender for _____," and must also be delivered at the Department of the Comptroller of Victualling, Admiralty, Somerset House.
