PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the three hundred and thirty-third section of "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1854," it is enacted that it shall be lawful for every Pilotage Authority, by Bye-Law made with the consent of Her Majesty in Council, from time to time, to do the following things (that is to say):

To determine the qualifications to be required from persons applying to be licensed as Pilots, whether in respect of age, skill, time of service, character, or otherwise.

To make regulations as to the approval and licensing of Pilots, Boats, and Ships.

To make regulations for the government of the Pilots licensed by them, and for ensuring their good conduct and their constant attendance to and effectual performance of their duty, either at sea or on shore.

To fix the terms and conditions of granting licenses to Pilots and Apprentices, and of granting such pilotage certificates thereafter mentioned to Masters and Mates, and to make regulations for punishing any breach of such regulations as aforesaid, committed by such Pilots or Apprentices, or by such Masters and Mates, by the withdrawal or suspension of their licenses or certificates, as the case may be, or by the infliction of penalties, to be recoverable summarily before two Justices, so that no such penalty be made to exceed the sum of twenty pounds, and so that every such penalty be capable of reduction at the discretion of the Justices by whom the same is inflicted.

And whereas by the fifteenth section of the Order set out in the schedule to "The Tyne Pilotage Order Confirmation Act, 1865," it is provided that, subject to the approval of the Board of Trade, the Tyne Pilotage Commissioners may from time to time increase or diminish the pilotage dues by that section authorized to be taken.

And whereas the Tyne Pilotage Commissioners, being the Pilotage Authority for the River Tyne within the meaning of "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1854," have, in exercise of the powers in them vested by the aforesaid Act and the aforesaid Order, made and submitted for the consent of Her Majesty, certain Bye-Laws with respect to the pilotage of the Tyne Pilotage District (a copy of which is set forth in the schedule hereunto annexed).

And whereas it has been made to appear to Her Majesty that the said Bye-Laws are proper and reasonable.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by virtue of the power vested in Her by the said recited Act, and by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to approve of and signify Her consent to the said Bye-Laws of the said Commissioners, with respect to the pilotage of the Tyne Pilotage District.

Edmund Harrison.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the three hundred and thirty-third section of "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1854," it is enacted that it shall be lawful for every Pilotage Authority, by bye-law, made with the consent of Her Majesty in Council, from time to time, to do within its district all or any of the things specified in that behalf in the said section :

And whereas by the fifteenth section of the Order set out in the schedule to "The Hartlepool Pilotage Order Confirmation Act, 1864," it is provided that every British ship or other vessel piloted and conducted within the Hartlepool Pilotage District, shall pay the pilotage dues in that section specified, and that, subject to the approval of the Board of Trade, the Commissioners appointed under the said Order may increase or diminish the said pilotage dues :

And whereas it has been made to appear to Her Majesty that the said bye-laws and regulations so set forth as aforesaid are reasonable and proper :

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by virtue of the power vested in Her by the said "Merchant Shipping Act, 1854," and by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to approve of, and signify Her consent to, the said bye-laws and regulations of the said Commissioners, with respect to the pilotage of the Hartlepool Pilotage District in lieu of the existing bye-laws.

Edmund Harrison.

SCHEDULE referred to in the above Order.

Bye-Laws made by the Hartlepool Pilotage Commissioners.

1. Every Pilot who shall be ordered to proceed on Her Majesty's Service, by any order signed by the Clerk of the Hartlepool Pilotage Commissioners (hereinafter called "The Commissioners"), or who shall be so ordered in writing by any Officer in Her Majesty's Service, shall immediately proceed thereon, and every Pilot who shall fail so to do, or who shall evade the receipt of any such order, or who shall quit or decline such service, shall for the first offence forfeit £5, and for the second and every subsequent offence £10 each.

2. Every Pilot engaged in the charge of any ship employed by Government in the Transport Service, shall observe particularly if unnecessary delay take place on the part of any Master in proceeding towards his destination ; and in the event of such delay taking place, the Pilot shall, on his return, report the same to the Clerk of the Commissioners, and upon going on board the Pilot shall give notice to the Master that he has orders so to do.

3. In stormy weather during day time when Pilots cannot ply at Sea in their regular Pilot Cobles, they shall go off in a steamboat, licensed for that purpose by the Pilot Master of the said Commissioners, and shall carry with them a proper boat, to be provided by and at the cost of the Pilots, and approved by the Commissioners, for boarding ships or vessels at sea.

4. When any Pilots decide to go off in the licensed steamboat, a Pilot's flag shall be hoisted on the Pilots' Watch-house, and on application being made by any of the Pilots to the Master of the said steamboat to go to sea, he (the Master) shall hoist the Pilot flag at the mast head, lay at least twenty minutes, and before starting for sea take the Pilots' lifeboat on board, but the time for departure may be accelerated in cases of emergency.

5. All the Pilots shall have an equal right to go off in the licensed steamboat, and after four of the Pilots comprising the Watch for the time being have each had the offer of a ship to pilot, lots shall be drawn and distributed by the master of the steamboat to the rest of the Pilots on board. The Pilot receiving Lot 1 shall go on board and take charge of the first ship or vessel boarded, and each Pilot shall afterwards take his turn according to the number of his lot. The next four Pilots on turn shall man the boat and put the Pilot on turn on board, and the Pilots remaining on board the said steamboat (if any), when they have returned on shore, shall see that the lifeboat be put into her proper berth or some other safe place.

6. In stormy weather during day-time when the wind ranges from East Southward, and when it is not prudent or safe to go to sea with the licensed steamboat, the Pilots shall take their positions inside the Bar as ordered by the Pilot Master ; and that when the wind ranges from East Northward they shall take positions between the Beacon and the Stone Buoy by the like order, and the Pilot first in position shall take the first ship, and the others shall be entitled to take charge of the following vessels, according to their priority in taking positions ; all disputes as to position to be concluded by the Pilot Master's decision.

7. Each Pilot Coble claiming a turn shall be manned with not less than three hands, two of whom shall be full Pilots, and the other a Pilot's assistant, going regularly in Pilot Cobles, or (but this only in cases of emergency) an efficient man who may not be serving in Pilot Cobles. The Pilot first on turn shall hoist his Pilot flag and run the ship in, and if he fails to board the vessel to which he is entitled, he shall not come in turn until the rest of the cobles laying in position have each boarded one vessel, and every vessel shall count as a turn, whether the master thereof elects to employ a Pilot or refuses so to do.

8. During the Winter six months in the year a Night Watch shall be kept at Hartlepool and West Hartlepool respectively by the Pilots, when the weather is stormy, and when, in consequence, they cannot go off to sea; such Night Watch to commence on the first day of October and end on the thirty-first day of March in every year. The Pilots shall be divided into four Watches, who shall take their turn in watching, according to their numbers, and continue on watch for fourteen successive nights, each Watch to be allowed to board four ships each night, and to take precedence over the other Pilots. The Cobles manned by the watch (after they have secured four ships) shall take their regular turn with the other Pilots as though no watch had been set, each Watch to commence when the lighthouse on the Port and Harbour Commissioners' Inner Pier, or the green light on the West Hartlepool North Pier, is lighted, and end when the said lights are extinguished. The whole of the monies received by the Watch shall be equally divided amongst the members thereof, and each Watch shall sound the bar once during the Spring tides, and report the soundings to the Pilot Master in order that they may be recorded, and to the other Pilots.

9. The Pilot Master shall appoint one of the Watch Master thereof, who is hereby authorised, if necessary, during his watch, to call on other Pilots, not on the Watch for assistance.

10. When it is found necessary to man the Lifeboat in night-time, the Pilots on Watch duty shall have the preference of manning her; in day-time the first twelve Pilots at the Lifeboat Station shall have the preference of manning such lifeboat.

11. If any Pilot considers that he is able to hold his own at sea, either before or after the Watch has been set, or the positions taken inside the Bar, or Stone Buoy as aforesaid, and after acquainting the Master of the Watch of his intention, he shall be at liberty to proceed to sea, but shall not be allowed to board a ship until he is outside the Stone Buoy; but such Pilot shall, on coming on shore again, give a similar notification.

12. When any two or more Pilot Cobles are making for the same ship, the Pilot on board the first and nearest coble shall board her; and the other Pilot or Pilots in the vicinity shall not interfere, or cause him to run any risk when in the act of boarding such ship.

13. No Pilot shall be allowed to be towed by a steamboat when going off to sea in quest of ships, and shall for every such offence be subject to a penalty of ten pounds.

14. Such of the Pilots as shall be desirous of fishing to any extent may do so on their first obtaining the consent of the Commissioners, and given up their licenses.

15. Every Pilot when required to pilot any ship or vessel shall, if under engagement to any other ship, forthwith make known such engagement, and specify the particulars thereof truly and faithfully to the person calling for or requiring such Pilot's service; and in case of any concealment, misrepresentation, or falsehood, in respect of such alleged previous engagement, the Pilot offending shall be subject to a penalty of ten pounds.

16. Every Pilot shall in all cases demean himself civilly and respectfully towards all persons who may require his services, and towards all Officers in Her Majesty's Navy, and shall maintain strict temperance and sobriety in the exercise of his office, and shall use his utmost care and diligence for the safe conduct of every ship which he shall be entrusted with the charge of, and prevent her doing damage to others.

17. Every Pilot shall from time to time, and at all times, in obedience to the order or summons of the Commissioners, under the hand of the Pilot Master or Clerk of the Commissioners, duly delivered or offered to such Pilot, or left a reasonable time at the usual or last-known place of residence of such Pilot, attend the Commissioners at their Courts, Bye Boards, or Committees, or their Pilot Master, or their Clerk for the time being, to answer any charges brought against such Pilots respectively, or for the performance of any public service, or for any other purpose whatsoever, and in default of such attendance every Pilot so offending shall forfeit, for the first offence, forty shillings, and for the second and every subsequent offence, £5 each.

18. Every Pilot to be licensed by the Commissioners, upon his receiving such license shall pay the sum of Two Pounds to the said Commissioners, and shall also for the renewing or confirming such license, from time to time, pay to them the sum of One Pound.

19. In addition to the Pilotage Dues, authorised to be charged by the Commissioners under and by virtue of the Hartlepool Pilotage Order Confirmation Act, 1864, the Commissioners shall, and they are hereby authorised to charge vessels above 400 tons register one half-penny per ton on the excess of register tonnage over and above that number of tons, both inwards and outwards.

20. When any vessel requires to change harbours in the port, the Pilotage Dues payable in respect thereof shall be as follows:—From and after the first day of April to the first day of October in every year, both inclusive, out of Hartlepool Docks or Harbour, at the rate of 7½d. for every foot of water which each such vessel may draw, and into West Hartlepool Docks or Harbour at the same rate:—From and after the first day of October to the first day of April in the following year, both inclusive, out of Hartlepool Docks or Harbour, at the rate of 9d. for every foot of water which each such vessel may draw: and into West Hartlepool Docks or Harbour at the same rate. And the above Pilotage Dues shall be payable by vessels changing from the Docks or Harbour of West Hartlepool to the Docks or Harbour of Hartlepool.

21. That no Pilot shall, by reason only of his having conducted any vessel from one harbour to another within the jurisdiction of the Commissioners, be entitled to Pilot any such vessel out of the harbour to which she has been transferred, and the Pilot who originally brought the ship into the port shall have the right to take her out again.

22. In case any Pilot in charge should, by the law of Quarantine, or at the request of the master or owner of the vessel, be detained at sea or in dock on board thereof, beyond the time necessary for safely berthing such vessel, he shall be paid by the said master or owner for such detention, over and above his Pilotage, at the rate of 7s. 6d. per day, and also have his provisions supplied to him.

37. In all cases where pecuniary penalties and forfeitures are annexed to the breach of the foregoing Bye-Laws, Rules, Orders, Regulations, and Ordinances, the Commissioners may mitigate and reduce the same to one-fourth part at their discretion, and appropriate the same to such pilotage purposes as to them may seem best.

38. Every Pilot who shall offend against any of the foregoing Bye-Laws, Rules, Orders, Regulations, and Ordinances, shall, for every such offence (whether the same shall subject him to any pecuniary penalty or not, and in addition to such penalty, if any), be liable to have his Licence annulled and forfeited or suspended, at the discretion of the Commissioners.

39. If any dispute shall arise between any of the Pilots in carrying out the above Rules and Regulations, the same shall be referred in the first instance to the Pilot Master, who is hereby fully empowered to decide the same; nevertheless, if any Pilot feels himself aggrieved by such decision, he is hereby authorised to appeal to the Commissioners through the Clerk.

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for authorizing the sale and disposal of certain property formerly belonging to the bishoprick of London, and now vested in us.

"Whereas under an Act of the sixth and seventh years of the reign of His late Majesty, chapter seventy-seven, and of another Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of another Act of the fourth and fifth years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and by virtue of an Order of your Majesty in Council, made under the provisions of the said Acts, and bearing date the twenty-sixth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, and duly published in the London Gazette on the sixth day of July then following, certain lands, tenements, and hereditaments then belonging to the said bishoprick, situate in the parishes of Finchley and Hornsey, in the county of Middlesex, and particularly described in the schedule to the said Order, became absolutely vested in us, for the purposes and subject to the provisions applicable to other hereditaments vested in us.

"And whereas, with a view to the advantageous appropriation of the said lands, tenements, and hereditaments, or of the proceeds thereof, for the ultimate improvement of our common fund, it is expedient that the said lands, tenements, and hereditaments, or such part or parts thereof as we shall at any time and from time to time think fit, should be sold or disposed of, and accordingly that we should be empowered to sell or dispose of our interest in such lands, tenements, and hereditaments, or in any part or parts thereof, in such manner as shall appear to us advisable.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose that we may be authorized and empowered, by instrument or instruments in writing, duly executed according to law, from time to time to sell or dispose of, and duly to convey, according to the provisions of the said Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty's reign, all or any of the said lands, tenements, and hereditaments so vested in us as aforesaid, with their appurtenances, and all our estate, right, title, and interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his or their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, or otherwise as he or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall, upon due calculation and inquiry, appear to us to be just and reasonable.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of London.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 30th day of January, 1868.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, and of another Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the sixteenth day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight, in the words following, that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, and of another Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, sections two, three, and twenty-four, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for authorizing the sale and disposal of certain property formerly belonging to the bishoprick of Lichfield, and now vested in us.

"Whereas on the vacancy of the said bishoprick which occurred on or about the nineteenth day of October, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, by the decease of the Right Reverend John, the late Bishop of Lichfield, all the lands, tithes, hereditaments, and endowments then belonging to the said bishoprick (except rights of patronage and the episcopal houses of residence, situate at Lichfield and at Eccleshall, in the county of Stafford), became absolutely vested in us for the purposes, and subject to the provisions applicable to other hereditaments, vested in us.

"And whereas, previously to the said see becoming vacant as aforesaid, the interest of the said see in certain lands, tithes, and hereditaments which formerly belonged thereto, situate at Eccleshall, in the said county of Stafford, and at Wyburnbury, in the county of Chester, had become vested in us by virtue of two several indentures of purchase, the one dated the twenty-eighth day of July, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine, and the other dated the twenty-fifth day of February, one thousand eight hundred and sixty, both made between the said bishop, of the first part, the Church Estates Commissioners, of the second part, and us, of the third part.

"And whereas the lands, tithes, hereditaments, and endowments aforesaid, consist to a considerable extent of reversions expectant upon grants and leases for lives and years, and produce during the subsistence of such grants and leases only small annual revenues, and on that account, and in some instances, on account of the character or situation of the property, are unsuitable or inconvenient to be assigned as an endowment for the said bishoprick, or to be held or applied for the other purposes for which estates vested in us are applicable under the Acts by which our proceedings are governed.

"And whereas by the last-mentioned Act power is given to lessees holding under us in the event of our declining to enter into a treaty for the sale of our reversions, or for the purchase of the leasehold interests, to require us to purchase such leasehold interests at a valuation.

"And whereas it is expedient that such of the aforesaid lands, tithes, hereditaments, and endowments lately belonging to the see of Lichfield (either with or without other property vested in us, as the case may require) as in the judgment of our Estates Committee, and subject to the approbation of the Bishop for the time being, shall be deemed convenient to be held as an endowment for the said see, and as will secure a net annual income of four thousand five hundred pounds, being the income named for the Bishop of Lichfield and his successors by the Order made by your Majesty in Council on the twenty-fifth day of August, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-one, which Order was duly published in the London Gazette on the nineteenth day of September following, should be assigned as the endowment of the said see, and that for that purpose, as well as with a view to the more advantageous appropriation of the remainder of the said lands, tithes, hereditaments, and endowments, or of the proceeds thereof, for the ultimate improvement of our common fund, we should be empowered to dispose of our interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, and in such manner as shall appear to us advisable.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, that we may be authorized and empowered, by instrument or instruments in writing duly executed according to law, from time to time to sell or dispose of, and duly to convey, according to the provisions of the said Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty's reign, with the consent of the respective holders (if any), to be testified by their being made parties to such instruments, all or any of the said lands, tithes, hereditaments, and endowments heretofore belonging to the said bishoprick of Lichfield, and so vested in us by the vacation of the said bishoprick, or previously to such vacation as aforesaid, with their appurtenances, and all our estate, right, title, and interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his, her, or their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, or otherwise as he, she, or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall upon due calculation and inquiry appear to us to be just and reasonable.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Lichfield.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-third day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight, in the words following, that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme for authorizing the sale and disposal of certain property formerly belonging to the Prebend of Bishops Norton, in the Cathedral Church of Lincoln.

"Whereas under an Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of another Act of the fourth and fifth years of your Majesty, chapter thirty nine, and by virtue of an Order of your Majesty in Council made under the provisions of the same Acts, and bearing date the seventh day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-one, and duly published in the London Gazette on the twenty-first day of the same month, all the lands, tithes, and other hereditaments then belonging to the said prebend, became absolutely vested in us for the purposes, and subject to the provisions applicable to other hereditaments vested in us.

"And whereas the lands, tithes, and hereditaments aforesaid are now subject to a lease for lives and produce during the subsistence of such lease, only a small annual revenue, and on that account and partly on account of the character or situation of the property, are unsuitable or inconvenient to be held or applied for the purposes for which estates vested in us are applicable under the Acts by which our proceedings are governed.

"And whereas by an Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, power is given to lessees holding under us, in the event of our declining to enter into a treaty for the sale of our reversions, or the purchase of the leasehold interests, to require us to purchase such leasehold interests at a valuation.

"And whereas with a view to the advantageous appropriation of the said lands, tithes, and hereditaments, or of the proceeds thereof, for the ultimate improvement of our common fund, it is expedient that the said lands, tithes, and hereditaments, or such parts thereof as we shall at any time and from time to time think fit, should be sold or disposed of, and accordingly that we should be empowered to dispose of our interest in such lands, tithes, and hereditaments, or in any part or parts thereof, in such manner as shall appear to us advisable.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose that we may be authorised and empowered, by instrument or instruments, in writing, duly executed according to law, from time to time to sell or dispose of and duly to convey according to the provisions of the said Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty's reign, with the consent of the respective holders (if any), to be testified by their being made parties to such instruments, all or any of the said lands, tithes, and hereditaments formerly belonging to the said prebend and so vested in us as aforesaid, with their appurtenances, and all our estate, right, title, and interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his or their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, or otherwise, as he or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall upon due calculation and inquiry appear to us to be just and reasonable.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Lincoln.

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the eighteenth and nineteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act further to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England," it is, amongst other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time, to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, shall or shall not have arrived), as to Her Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, may seem fit ;

Foreign Office, January 31, 1868.

(Quarantine, No. 66.)

THE Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs has received, from Her Majesty's Minister at Madrid two Decrees, issued by the Spanish Government, of which the following are translations :—

MINISTRY OF THE INTERIOR.

ROYAL ORDER.

THE Queen (whom God preserve), desiring to protect as much as possible the interests of commerce and navigation, and having observed, from the official data communicated to Her Majesty's Government by our Spanish Representatives abroad, that the sanitary condition of Europe has considerably ameliorated, has been pleased to order :—

1. That, from the date of the publication of this Royal Order in the Gazette, arrivals from the Empire of Morocco, Melilla, Peñon de la Gomera, Altimemas, Ceuta, Gibraltar, the Hanse Towns, the Canaries, Denmark, and the Pontifical States, be considered clean.

2. Arrivals from France (except Algeria), England, Smyrna, Salonica, Sweden, Norway, Austria, the Adriatic, Russia, Belgium, the Netherlands and Italy (except Sicily and Calabria), shall for the present be subject to three days' observation.

3. Arrivals from Sicily and Calabria, Greece, Algeria, Tunis, the Ottoman Empire, Fernando Po, Prussia, and America in general, will continue to be considered foul, so long as the present sanitary condition of those places remains unchanged.

4. Ships coming from the European ports included in Rules 1 and 2, shall be treated according to the dispositions of the said rules, always however with the proviso that no accident shall have occurred on board during the voyage, that there be nothing irregular in the ship's papers, bill of health, or roll, and that no symptom be observed which may excite suspicion in the Port Directors and Health Doctors : in the contrary case, those functionaries shall at once consult the General Direction of the Branch, giving as much detail as it is possible to give in a Telegram.

By Royal Order I communicate this to you for your information, &c.

God guard you, &c.

*To the Governor of the

MINISTRY OF THE INTERIOR.

ROYAL ORDER.

A ROYAL Order, dated the 1st instant, and published in the Gazette of the 11th, settled the course to be for the present observed with regard to arrivals from the ports and places mentioned in the same, but maintaining the measures previously imposed on arrivals from America, with reference to which country the news received had not been sufficiently satisfactory to warrant any modification which might be compatible with the care necessary for the preservation of public health in our territory.

According to new and recent data received we learn that the sickness which prevailed has disappeared from some of the ports of Europe and America, and is declining in others, and it is therefore indispensable to diminish prudently and cautiously the preventive measures to which arrivals from those places are subjected, thus helping to render less onerous to commerce and industry the involuntary but inevitable delays consequent upon those measures of severity which are based upon the duty incumbent on the Government to preserve the country from the invasion of epidemic disease.

In consequence of the above, the Queen (whom God preserve) has been pleased to order the following :—

1. Besides the arrivals declared to be clean by the aforesaid Royal Order of 1st instant, arrivals from Russia, France (except Algeria and possessions in Asia and America), all the European ports of Great Britain (except Malta), Smyrna, Salonica, Sweden, Norway, Austria, the Adriatic, Belgium, the Netherlands, Bolivia, Chile, Costa Rica, Nicaragua, Peru, Venezuela, and Ecuador shall also be considered clean, and shall be admitted to free pratique in our ports.

2. Arrivals from Italy (except Sicily and Calabria), Algeria, Prussia, Greece, the Ottoman Empire, and Tunis shall be subjected to three days of rigorous observation at the lazarets established for the purpose, if they have a clean bill of health and no accident has occurred on board during the voyage. The same observation shall be undergone by arrivals from the Argentine Republic, Philadelphia, New York, Charleston, Baltimore, Boston, Newfoundland, and Labrador ; but they shall at a proper place fumigate and ventilate ship, cargo, luggage, crew, and passengers, in accordance with that which is ordered in respect to arrivals from Newfoundland by Royal Order of 11th instant, communicated to you by telegram.

3. Arrivals from Sicily and Calabria, the French Possessions in Asia and America, Malta, Fernando Po, Cuba, P. Rico, New Orleans, Galveston, St. Thomas, Mexico, Uruguay, Paraguay, Brazil, and Hayti shall be considered foul, and be treated accordingly.

4. Should any arrivals, although declared clean, arouse suspicion in the Port Directors on account of accidents on board, the special conditions of the cargo, or any other justifiable motive, before admitting them to free pratique, they shall consult the General Direction of the branch by telegram, in order that a decision may be arrived at as to the treatment to which they are to be subjected.

5. Arrivals, subject to three days observation, which during the voyage may have had any accident on board, arising from epidemic disease, or under suspicious circumstances, shall be dismissed to a foul lazaret.

By Royal Order I communicate this to you for your information, &c.

God guard, &c.
