FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 7, 1868.

*Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace,
February 3, 1868.*

NOTICE is hereby given, that The Queen will hold Drawing Rooms at Buckingham Palace, on Thursday, the 12th March, on Wednesday, the 1st April, and on Tuesday, the 12th May next, at three o'clock, instead of two o'clock as previously announced.

REGULATIONS

TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S DRAWING ROOMS AT BUCKINGHAM PALACE.

By Her Majesty's Command.

The Ladies, who propose to attend Her Majesty's Drawing Rooms, at Buckingham Palace, are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with the Queen's Page in Attendance, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to The Queen.

PRESENTATIONS.

Any Lady who proposes to be presented to The Queen must leave at the Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace, before twelve o'clock, two clear days before the Drawing Room, a card with her name written thereon, and with the name of the Lady by whom she is to be presented. In order to carry out the existing regulation, that no presentation can be made at a Drawing Room excepting by a Lady actually attending that Court, it is also necessary that a letter from the Lady who is to make the presentation, stating it to be her intention to be present, should accompany the presentation card above referred to, which will be submitted to The Queen for Her Majesty's approbation. It is Her Majesty's Command, that no presentations shall be made at the Drawing Rooms, except in accordance with the above regulations.

It is particularly requested that in every case the names be very distinctly written upon the cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to The Queen.

It is not expected that Gentlemen will present themselves at the Drawing Rooms, except in attendance on the Ladies of their families.

The State apartments will be open for the reception of Company coming to Court at two o'clock.

BRADFORD,
Lord Chamberlain.

Foreign Office, February 5, 1868.

THE Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs has received from the Spanish Minister at this Court a Note, of which the following is a translation, relative to the passports required for travellers proceeding to the Island of Cuba:—

*Spanish Legation in London,
February 3, 1868.*

MY LORD,

I HAVE the honour to acquaint your Excellency, by direction of my Government, that Her Majesty the Queen, my august Sovereign, taking into consideration the reasons set forth by the Captain-General of the Island of Cuba, has been pleased to order that the Royal Decree of 14th May last, relative to the abolition of passports for Spaniards and foreigners arriving at that island, shall be temporarily without effect. In consequence thereof and until otherwise determined, every person who proceeds to the aforesaid Antilla Island will have to be provided with the proper passport from his Government.

I avail myself of this opportunity, &c., &c.

(Signed) C. DE VISTAHERMOSA.
