Published by Authority.

TUESDAY, MARCH 31, 1868.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, March 6, 1868.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Her Majesty's Birthday will be kept on Saturday, the 23rd of May next.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace, February 3, 1868.

NOTICE is hereby given, that The Queen will hold Drawing Rooms at Buckingham Palace, on Wednesday, the 1st April, and on Tuesday, the 12th May next, at three o'clock.

REGULATIONS

TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S DRAWING ROOMS AT BUCKINGHAM PALACE.

By Her Majesty's Command.

The Ladies, who propose to attend Her Majesty's Drawing Rooms, at Buckingham Palace, are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with the Queen's Page in Attendance, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to The Queen.

PRESENTATIONS.

Any Lady who proposes to be presented to The Queen must leave at the Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace, before twelve o'clock, two clear days before the Drawing Room, a card with her name written thereon, and with the name of the Lady by whom she is to be presented. In order to carry out the existing regulation, that no presentation can be made at a Drawing Room excepting by a Lady actually attending that Court, it is also necessary that a letter from the Lady who is to make the presentation, stating it to be her intention to be present, should accompany the presentation card above referred to, which will be submitted to The Queen for Her Majesty's approbation. It is Her Majesty's Command, that no presentations shall be made at the Drawing Rooms, except in accordance with the above regulations.

It is particularly requested that in every case the names be very distinctly written upon the cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to The Queen.

It is not expected that Gentlemen will present themselves at the Drawing Rooms, except in attendance on the Ladies of their families.

The State apartments will be open for the reception of Company coming to Court at two o'clock.

BRADFORD,
Lord Chamberlain.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace, March 23, 1868.

NOTICE is hereby given, that His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales will, by command of The Queen, hold a Levee at St. James's Palace, on behalf of Her Majesty, on Monday, the 4th of May next, at two o'clock.

It is the Queen's pleasure that Presentations to His Royal Highness at this Levee shall be considered as equivalent to Presentations to Her Majesty.

REGULATIONS

TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S LEVEE TO BE HELD BY HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS THE PRINCE OF WALES, ON BEHALF OF HER MAJESTY, AT ST. JAMES'S PALACE.

By Her Majesty's Command.

The Noblemen and Gentlemen, who propose to attend Her Majesty's Levee, at St. James's Palace, are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with The Queen's Page in Attendance in the Corridor, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to His Royal Highness.

PRESENTATIONS.

Any Nobleman or Gentleman who proposes to be presented, must leave at the Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace, before twelve o'clock, two clear days before the Levee, a card with his name written thereon, and with the name of the Nobleman or Gentleman by whom he is to be presented. In order to carry out the existing regulation that no presentation can be made at a Levee excepting by a person actually attending that Levee, it is also necessary that a letter from the Nobleman or Gentleman who is to make the presentation, stating it to be his intention to be present, should accompany the presentation card above referred to, which will be submitted to The Queen for Her Majesty's approbation. It is Her Majesty's command that no presentations shall be made at Levees, except in accordance with the above regulations.

It is particularly requested, that in every case the names be very distinctly written upon the cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to His Royal Highness.

The State apartments will be open for the reception of Company coming to Court at one o'clock.

BRADFORD,
Lord Chamberlain.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

THIS day, the Lord Justice Sir William Page Wood and the Lord Justice Sir Charles Jasper Selwyn were, by Her Majesty's command, sworn of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, and took their places at the Board accordingly.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the 11th March, 1868, in the words following; viz. :—

"Whereas your Majesty was graciously pleased by two Orders in Council, dated the 5th day of December, 1865, to establish certain regulations for carrying out the purposes of the Naval and Marine Pay and Pensions Act, 1865, and the Naval Agency and Distribution Act, 1864; and whereas by the first and second paragraphs of the sixth clause of the said Orders in Council, it is provided, that 'for the purposes of the provisions of this Order respecting allotments and remittances of pay by seamen and marines, and other remittances, the proper certifying authority, where the Allottee, or Payee resides in England,

'Wales, Scotland, the Isle of Man, or the Channel Islands,' shall be 'the Minister and Churchwardens, or Elders of the Parish, or District Parish wherein the Allottee or Payee resides.' And 'where the Allottee or Payee resides in Ireland, the Inspector or Sub-Inspector of Constabulary for the County, and a Churchwarden for the Parish wherein the Allottee or Payee resides,' shall be the proper certifying authority. And whereas we are of opinion that it would be expedient to cancel the said clauses, and to make all Ministers of Religion and Magistrates the proper certifying authority. We do, therefore, beg leave to recommend that your Majesty will be graciously pleased by your Order in Council to cancel the said clauses, and to direct that the signatures of all Ministers of Religion and Magistrates may be admitted in Great Britain and Ireland as the proper certifying authority, in such cases in future."

Her Majesty having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed. And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine; of the Act of the eleventh and twelfth years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the thirteenth day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of your Majesty, chapter forty-nine; of the Act of the eleventh and twelfth years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five; have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Saviour, situate in Herne-hill-road, in the particular district of Saint Matthew, Denmark-hill, in the county of Surrey, and in the diocese of Winchester.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint Saviour, situate in Herne-hill-road as aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Charles Richard, Bishop of the said diocese of Winchester (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said particular district of Saint Matthew, Denmark-hill, which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Saint Saviour, situate in Herne-hill-road as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Saviour, Herne-hill-road.'

"And, with the like consent of the said Charles Richard, Bishop of the said diocese of Winchester, (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, and churchings should be solemnized or performed at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us the said Commissioners to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism or for the registration thereof.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to your Majesty, in your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"All that part of the particular district of Saint Matthew, Denmark-hill, in the county of Surrey, and in the diocese of Winchester, which is situate to the west of an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the district parish of Emmanuel, Camberwell, in the said county and diocese from the particular district of Saint Matthew, Denmark-hill aforesaid, at a point in the middle of the north-western end of Lilford-road; and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of the said road to its junction with Cold Harbour-lane; and extending thence south-westward for a distance of three and a half chains, or thereabouts, along the middle of the said lane, to a point opposite to the middle of the north-western end of the fence on the eastern side of Vaughan-road; and extending thence south-eastward for a distance of six chains, or thereabouts, to and along the middle of the said fence to a boundary stone, inscribed 'H. H. R. St. S. D. C., 1868, No. 1,' and placed in the angle formed by the said Vaughan-road bending south-westward; and continuing thence, still south-eastward and in a straight line for a distance of twenty chains, or thereabouts, to another boundary stone, inscribed 'H. H. R. St. S. D. C., 1868, No. 2,' and placed upon the boundary dividing the said particular district of Saint Matthew, Denmark-hill, from the consolidated chapelry of Saint Paul, Herne-hill, in the county and diocese aforesaid, at a distance of twenty-nine chains and seventy-five links, or thereabouts, from the point where such boundary meets the north-eastern side of Poplar-walk."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of

Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Winchester.

Arthur Helps.

At the Court at Windsor, the 28th day of March, 1868.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a representation, bearing date the twentieth day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of your Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Clement, situate at Urmston, in the parish of Flixton, in the county of Lancaster, and in the diocese of Manchester.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint Clement, situate at Urmston aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend James Prince, Bishop of the said diocese of Manchester (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Flixton which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Saint Clement, situate at Urmston as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Clement, Urmston.'

"And, with the like consent of the said James Prince, Bishop of the said diocese of Manchester (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us the said Commissioners to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism or for the registration thereof.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to your Majesty, in your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Saint Clement, Urmston, being:—

"All that part of the parish of Flixton, in the county of Lancaster, and in the diocese of Manchester, which is comprised within and is co-extensive with the limits of the township of Urmston."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Manchester.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 28th day of March, 1868.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter sixty; of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the twentieth day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter sixty; of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of your Majesty, chapter seventy; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five; have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation for altering the boundaries of the new parish of Christ Church, Warminster, in the county of Wilts, and in the diocese of Salisbury.

"Whereas by the authority of an Order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the sixth day of October, in the year one thousand eight hundred and thirty-eight, and duly published in the London Gazette upon the twenty-first day of December in the same year, a portion of the parish of Warminster, in the said county and diocese, was assigned as a particular district to the consecrated church called Christ Church, situate within the limits of the said parish, and such district was named 'The Christ Church District.'

"And whereas the said Christ Church district has, under the provisions of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, since become a new parish of the character contemplated by that Act and by the Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven.

"And whereas it has been proposed to us, and it appears to us to be expedient, that the boundaries of the said new parish of Christ Church, Warminster, should be altered as hereinafter mentioned.

Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Walter Kerr, Bishop of the said diocese of Salisbury, as such Bishop, and also as the patron in right of his see of the vicarage of the said parish of Warminster, with the consent of the Reverend James Erasmus Philipps, the vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the said parish of Warminster, as such vicar or incumbent, and also as the patron in right thereof of the perpetual curacy of the said new parish of Christ Church, Warminster, and with the consent of the Reverend William Hickman, the incumbent of the said perpetual curacy of the new parish of Christ Church, Warminster (in testimony whereof they have respectively signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent that in our opinion it would be expedient that the boundaries of the said new parish of Christ Church, Warminster, should be altered so as to annex to such new parish all that portion of the said parish of Warminster which is described in the First Schedule hereunder written, and is delineated and set forth upon the map or plan hereunto appended, and is thereon coloured green; and that from and after the day of the date of the publication of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this representation, the said portion of the parish of Warminster should be annexed to and should be included within and form part of the said new parish of Christ Church, Warminster.

"And we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, with the like consents of the said Walter Kerr, Bishop of the said diocese of Salisbury, of the said James Erasmus Philipps, and of the said William Hickman (testified as aforesaid), also represent that in our opinion it would be expedient that the boundaries of the said new parish of Christ Church, Warminster, should be further altered so as to dis sever therefrom all that portion thereof, which is described in the second schedule hereunder written, and is delineated and set forth upon the said map or plan hereunto appended and is thereon coloured pink, and that from and after the above-mentioned date of the publication of any Order of your Majesty in Council, ratifying this representation as aforesaid all such lastly-mentioned portion of the new parish of Christ Church, Warminster, should be dis severed from such new parish and should be restored to and should again form part of the parish of Warminster aforesaid.

"And we humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration and to make such Order in respect thereto as to your Majesty, in your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

The First SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The territory proposed to be annexed to the new parish of Christ Church, Warminster, some time part of the parish of Warminster, in the county of Wilts, and in the diocese of Salisbury, being :—

“All that portion of the said parish of Warminster, which is comprised within and is bounded by an imaginary line commencing at a boundary stone inscribed ‘W. Ch. Ch., 1868, No. 1,’ and placed on the western side of the Sambourn-road, at the eastern extremity of the fence dividing the close numbered 979 upon the tithe commutation map of the said parish of Warminster, and upon the map hereunto annexed, from the closes numbered respectively 980, 990, 994, 999, 2383B, and 2393 upon the same maps ; and extending thence, in a direction generally south-westward, along the middle of the said fence, to its junction with the fence dividing the close numbered 976 upon the said maps from the closes numbered respectively 2393 as aforesaid, 2396, 2418, and 2431 upon the same maps ; and extending thence, first westward, and then generally southward, along the middle of the last described fence, to its junction with the fence dividing the close numbered 975 upon the said maps from a certain occupation road leading from the close numbered 976 as aforesaid to Pound-street, and from the closes numbered respectively 2434, 2446, and 1304 upon the same maps ; and continuing thence, first southward, and then eastward, along the middle of the last described fence, to a point upon the boundary which divides the said parish of Warminster from the new parish of Christ Church, Warminster aforesaid opposite to a boundary stone inscribed ‘W. Ch. Ch., 1868, No. 2,’ and placed at or near the eastern extremity of the fence dividing the close numbered 975 from the close numbered 1304 as aforesaid, on the southern side of a certain footpath leading from Pound-street aforesaid, into the said Sambourn-road ; and extending thence, generally eastward, for a distance of twenty-five chains, or thereabouts, along the last described boundary (following thereby in part the said footpath and crossing the said Sambourn-road), to a boundary stone inscribed ‘W. Ch. Ch., 1868, No. 3,’ and placed on the south-western side of a certain other footpath which leads from Weymouth-street along the south western side of the close numbered 811 upon the said maps, into the Sambourn-road before mentioned ; and extending thence, north-westward, for a distance of thirteen chains, or thereabouts, along the middle of the last described footpath to its junction with the said Sambourn-road ; and extending thence, southward, for a distance of two chains, or thereabouts, along the middle of the said road to a point opposite to the first described boundary stone ; and extending thence westward to such boundary stone where the said imaginary line commenced.

The Second SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

“The territory proposed to be dissevered from the new parish of Christ Church, Warminster, sometime part of the parish of Warminster, in the county of Wilts and in the diocese of Salisbury, and to be restored to the said parish of Warminster, being :—

“All that portion of the said new parish of Christ Church, Warminster, which comprises the territory commonly known as Boreham, and which is situate to the east and north of an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said parish from the said new parish, at the junction of the Boreham-road with Smallbrook-road ; and extending thence, first south-westward, and then south-eastward, along the middle of the last-described road, to the boundary at Smallbrook Mill, which divides the said new parish of Christ Church, Warminster, from a certain detached portion of the parish of Upton Scudamore, in the county and diocese aforesaid, in the middle of the River Wily ; and continuing thence, still south-eastward, along the last-described boundary, so far as it follows the said river, and then in the same direction along the middle of the same river to the boundary which divides the said new parish of Christ Church, Warminster, from the parish of Bishopstrow, in the county and diocese aforesaid.”

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council ; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts : and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Salisbury.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 28th day of March, 1868.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, and of the Act of the thirtieth year of Her Majesty, chapter twenty-six, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twentieth day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight, in the words following ; that is to say :

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen ; of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven ; of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and four ; and of the Act of the thirtieth year of your Majesty, chapter twenty-six, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes out of that portion of the parish of Bishopwearmouth, in the county of Durham, and in the diocese of Durham, wherein the present incumbent of such parish now possesses the exclusive cure of souls ; also for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes partly out of the lastly mentioned portion of the said parish of Bishopwearmouth and partly out of the new parish of Saint Andrew, Deptford, some time part of the said parish of Bishopwearmouth ; also for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes partly out of the firstly mentioned portion of the said parish of Bishopwearmouth, and partly out of the new parish of South Hylton, and the new parish of Saint Paul, Ryhope, both some time part of the said parish of Bishopwearmouth; and also for constituting another separate district for spiritual purposes out of the said new parish of Saint Andrew, Deptford.

"Whereas it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that the particular parts of the above-mentioned cures, which are herein-after mentioned and described (such parts not at present containing within their respective limits any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of divine worship) should be constituted into four separate districts, in the manner herein-after set forth.

"And whereas certain glebe lands, tithes, or rent-charges in lieu of tithes, messuages, tenements, and hereditaments, formerly belonging to the rectory of the said parish of Bishopwearmouth, have become vested in us, under the provisions of and for the purposes of the fourthly hereinbefore-mentioned Act.

"And whereas, of the four districts hereinafter recommended to be constituted, two, that is to say, the two which are firstly and secondly hereinbefore referred to and hereinafter named and described, will, under the provisions of the tenth section of the said fourthly hereinbefore mentioned Act, be permanently endowed, each of them, with an annual sum of three hundred pounds, to be increased ultimately to four hundred pounds, and the remaining two of the four districts hereinbefore referred to, that is to say, the districts which are thirdly and fourthly hereinbefore referred to and hereinafter named and described, will, under the provisions of the same section, be permanently endowed, each of them, with an annual sum of two hundred and fifty pounds, to be increased ultimately to three hundred pounds, all which endowments respectively will be made by instruments under our common seal, in accordance with the provisions of the said last-mentioned Act and of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Charles, Bishop of the said diocese of Durham (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme), we humbly recommend and propose, that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, all that part of the said parish of Bishopwearmouth which is described in the first schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth upon the map or plan numbered I., and hereunto annexed, shall become and be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes, and that the same shall be named 'The District of Saint Peter, Bishopwearmouth;' that all those parts of the said parish of Bishopwearmouth and of the said new parish of Saint Andrew, Deptford, which are described in the second schedule hereunder written, all which lastly-mentioned parts, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth upon the map or plan numbered

III., and hereunto annexed, shall become and be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes and that the same shall be named 'The District of Saint Matthew, Silksworth;' and that all that part of the said new parish of Saint Andrew, Deptford, which is described in the fourth schedule hereunder written, all which lastly mentioned part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth upon the map or plan numbered IV., and hereunto annexed, shall become and be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes, and that the same shall be named 'The District of Saint Luke, Pallion.'

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act or Acts of Parliament.

The First SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference.

"All that part of the parish of Bishopwearmouth, in the county of Durham, and in the diocese of Durham, wherein the present incumbent of such parish now possesses the exclusive cure of souls, which is bounded on the north by the parish of Monkwearmouth, in the said county and diocese, on the east by the new parish of Saint Thomas, Bishopwearmouth, in the same county and diocese, and on all other sides, that is to say, on the south and on the west, by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary dividing the said new parish of Saint Thomas, Bishopwearmouth, from the parish of Bishopwearmouth aforesaid, at a point in the middle of Borough-road, opposite to the middle of the southern end of Back Fawcett-street; and extending thence, westward, for a distance of seventeen chains, or thereabouts, along the middle of Borough-road aforesaid, to its junction with Crowtree-road; and extending thence, northward, along the middle of the last-named road, to its junction with High-street; and extending thence, north-eastward, along the middle of the last-named street, to its junction with Castle-street; and extending thence, northward, along the middle of the last-named street, to its junction with Chapple-street; and extending thence, eastward, along the middle of the last-named street, to its junction with North-street; and extending thence, northward, along the middle of the last-named street, to its junction with Dock-street; and continuing thence, still northward, and in a straight line, across the last-named street, passing to the east of the Lambton Offices, and also crossing the premises known as the 'Lambton Drops,' to the boundary in the middle of the River Wear, which divides the said parish of Bishopwearmouth from the parish of Monkwearmouth aforesaid.

The Second SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference.

"The District of Saint Mark, Millfield, being:—

"All that part of the parish of Bishopwearmouth, in the county of Durham, and in the diocese of Durham, wherein the present incumbent of such parish now possesses the exclusive cure of souls; and also all that part of the new parish of Saint Andrew, Deptford, in the same county and diocese, which are comprised within and are bounded by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said parish from the said new parish at the point where the street or road called or known as Silksworth-row joins Hylton-road; and extending thence westward for a distance of one mile or thereabouts along the middle of the last named road (thereby passing to the north of the Millfield Station of the Painshaw branch line of the North-Eastern Railway, and following in the latter part the boundary which divides the parish of Bishopwearmouth from the new parish of Saint Andrew, Deptford as aforesaid) to a point opposite to the middle of the northern end of the wall or fence forming the eastern boundary of the Bishopwearmouth Cemetery; and extending thence south-eastward to and along the middle of the said wall or fence to its south-eastern extremity; and continuing thence still south-eastward and in a straight line to a point in the middle of the Chester-road; and extending thence north-eastward for a distance of sixty-one chains or thereabouts along the middle of the same road to the point near the bridge over the Painshaw branch line of the North-Eastern Railway aforesaid, where the said Chester-road is joined by the cross road leading into the Durham-road; and extending thence south-westward along the middle of the said cross road to its junction with the Durham-road aforesaid; and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the last-named road (that is, following the road commonly known as the Old Durham-road) to its junction with Hind-street; and extending thence northward along the middle of the said street to its junction with the street or road called or known as Silksworth-row aforesaid; and extending thence north-westward along the middle of the last-mentioned street or road to the first described point at the junction of Silksworth-row with Hylton-road as aforesaid, upon the boundary which divides the parish of Bishopwearmouth from the new parish of Saint Andrew, Deptford as aforesaid, where the said imaginary line commenced.

The Third SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference.

"The District of Saint Matthew, Silksworth, being:—

"All that part of the parish of Bishopwearmouth, in the county of Durham, and in the diocese of Durham, which is comprised within and is co-extensive with that portion of the township of Silksworth, wherein the present incumbent of such parish now possesses the exclusive cure of souls. And also all that part of the new parish of South Hylton, in the same county and diocese, which consists of that portion of the township of Silksworth aforesaid, which is bounded on the west by the parish of Painshaw, in the said county and diocese, on the south by the above described portion of the parish of Bishopwearmouth, on the east by the township of Bishopwearmouth, and on the north by an imaginary line extending along the middle of the Chester-road. And also all that part of the new parish of Saint Paul, Ryhope, in the county and diocese aforesaid, which is comprised within and is co-extensive with the limits of the township of Tunstall.

The Fourth SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference.

"The District of Saint Luke, Pallion, being:—

"All that part of the new parish of Saint Andrew, Deptford, in the county of Durham, and in the diocese of Durham, which is bounded on the north by the parish of Southwick, in the said county and diocese, on the west by the new parish of South Hylton, in the same county and diocese, and on all other sides, that is to say, on the south and on the east, by an imaginary line commencing at the point where the boundary dividing the said new parish of Saint Andrew, Deptford, from the said new parish of South Hylton meets the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint Andrew, Deptford, from the parish of Bishopwearmouth, in the county and diocese aforesaid, at a point in the middle of Hylton-road near to the north-western corner of the Bishopwearmouth Cemetery; and extending thence north-eastward for a distance of fifty-seven chains, or thereabouts, along the middle of Hylton-road aforesaid (following thereby in part the last-described boundary) to the junction of the said road with Cromwell-street; and extending thence northward for a distance of thirteen chains, or thereabouts, along the middle of the said street and along the middle of Diamond Hall-lane to the bend in the said lane where it abuts upon the southern bank of the Painshaw branch line of the North-Eastern Railway; and continuing thence northward and in a straight line to a point in the middle of the said line of railway; and extending thence north-westward for a distance of six chains, or thereabouts, along the middle of the same line of railway to a point under the centre of the bridge which carries the same line of railway over Diamond Hall-lane aforesaid; and extending thence north-eastward to and along the middle of the same lane to its junction at or near Diamond Hall with the road called or known as the Coach-road; and extending thence in a direction generally northward along the middle of the last-named road to its junction with the road called or known as Copperas House Bank; and extending thence westward along the middle of the last-named road to its junction with a certain footpath leading to the river bank; and extending thence northward along the middle of the said footpath to its northern end upon the southern bank of the River Wear; and continuing thence still in the same direction and in a straight line to the boundary in the middle of the same river which divides the said new parish of Saint Andrew, Deptford, from the parish of Southwick aforesaid."

And whereas a draft of the said scheme has, in accordance with the provisions of the hereinbefore secondly mentioned Act, been transmitted to the patrons and to the Incumbents of the parish and new parishes (out of which it is intended that the several districts therein recommended to be constituted shall be taken), and the said patrons and Incumbents have severally signified their assent to such scheme.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Durham.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the twenty-seventh day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of your Majesty, chapter seventy, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church situate at Raughton Head, in the parish of Castle Sowerby, in the county of Cumberland, and in the diocese of Carlisle.

"Whereas at certain extremities of the said parish of Castle Sowerby, and of the parish of Dalston, in the county of Cumberland, and diocese of Carlisle aforesaid (which said extremities lie contiguous one to another, and are described in the schedule hereunder written), there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such respective parishes.

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that such contiguous portions of the said parish of Castle Sowerby and of the said parish of Dalston, should be formed into a consolidated chapelry, for all ecclesiastical purposes, and that the same should be assigned to the said church situate at Raughton Head aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Honourable and Right Reverend Samuel, Bishop of the said diocese of Carlisle, as such bishop, and also as the patron in right of his see of the vicarage of the said parish of Dalston (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this representation), and with the consent of the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of the Holy and Undivided Trinity of Carlisle, the patrons of the vicarage of the said parish of Castle Sowerby (in testimony whereof they have set their common or corporate seal to this representation), we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners humbly represent that it would in our opinion be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said parish of Castle Sowerby, and of the said parish of Dalston, which are described in the schedule hereunder written, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church situate at Raughton Head as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Raughton Head with Gatesgill.'

"And, with the like consents (testified as aforesaid), we further represent that it would in our opinion be expedient that upon and from the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this representation the right of presentation and appointment to the church of the said consolidated chapelry of Raughton Head with Gatesgill, should belong to and be exercised by the bishop for the time being of the said diocese of Carlisle, by the vicar or incumbent for the time being of the vicarage of the said parish of Dalston, by George Head Head, of Rickerby House, in the said county of Cumberland, Esquire, by Thomas George Wilson, of Thistlewood, near Carlisle, Esquire, and by Thomas Salkeld, of Holme Hill, Dalston, Esquire, in whom as trustees it is provided that such right of presentation and appointment, as last aforesaid, should be vested under and according to the provisions of a certain deed or articles of agreement bearing date the ninth day of January, in the present year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight, made in pursuance of the Act of the third year of King George the Fourth, chapter seventy-two, and of the Act of the first and second years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and seven, and deposited in the registry of the said diocese of Carlisle, in which said deed or articles of agreement are contained provisions for appointing as occasion may from time to time require trustees in the room of the said George Head Head, Thomas George Wilson, and Thomas Salkeld, or of any or either of them.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to your Majesty, in your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The Consolidated Chapelry of Raughton Head with Gatesgill, being:—

"All that portion of the parish of Castle Sowerby, in the county of Cumberland, and in the diocese of Carlisle, which is comprised within and is co-extensive with the limits of the parochial chapelry of Raughton Head.

"And also all that portion of the parish of Dalston, in the county and diocese aforesaid, wherein the present Incumbent of such parish now possesses the exclusive cure of souls which is comprised within and is co-extensive with the limits of the township of Raughton and Gatesgill."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Carlisle.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of

Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the twenty-seventh day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of your Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Luke, South Lyncombe, situate in the distinct and separate parish of Lyncombe (sometime part of the parish of Lyncombe and Widcombe), in the county of Somerset, and in the diocese of Bath and Wells.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient, that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint Luke, South Lyncombe aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Honourable and Right Reverend Robert John, Baron Auckland, Bishop of the said diocese of Bath and Wells (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Lyncombe, which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Saint Luke, South Lyncombe aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Luke, South Lyncombe.'

"And, with the like consent of the said Robert John, Baron Auckland, Bishop of the said diocese of Bath and Wells (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, and churchings, should be solemnized or performed at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns, and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us, the said Commissioners, to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism or for the registration thereof.

"We, therefore, humbly pray, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to your Majesty, in your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

Somerset, and in the diocese of Bath and Wells, which is bounded, on the west, partly by the parish of Twerton, in the said county and diocese, and partly by the parish of Englishcombe, in the same county and diocese; on the south, partly by the parish of Combe Hay, in the same county and diocese, and partly by the parish of South Stoke, in the same county and diocese; on the greater part of the east and on the south-east, by the distinct and separate parish of Widcombe (sometime forming the other part of the parish of Lyncombe and Widcombe aforesaid); and on all other sides, that is to say, on the remaining part of the east and on the north, by an imaginary line, commencing upon the boundary which divides the said distinct and separate parish of Lyncombe from the said distinct and separate parish of Widcombe at a point in the middle of Greenway-lane, at or near Greenway Lodge, and opposite to the southern end of the footpath which leads from the said Greenway-lane past the western side of Greenway Lodge aforesaid to Beechen Cliff; and extending thence northward for a distance of fourteen chains and thirty links, or thereabouts, to and along the middle of the said footpath to a point opposite to a boundary stone, inscribed 'S. L. St. L. D. C. 1868, No. 1,' and placed on the western side of the same footpath at the eastern end of the fence dividing the close numbered 252 upon the 'Tithe Commutation Map of the parish of Lyncombe and Widcombe aforesaid, and upon the map hereunto annexed from the close numbered 271 upon the same maps; and extending thence, first westward to such boundary stone, and along the middle of the said fence, and then southward and again westward along the middle of the fence dividing the said close numbered 252 and the close numbered 227 upon the said maps, from the close numbered 253 upon the same maps to the junction of the last described fence with the wall forming the eastern and northern boundary of the farm buildings, known as Holloway Farm; and extending thence first westward then northward and then again westward, along the said wall to a boundary stone, described 'S. L. St. L. D. C. 1868, No. 2,' and placed at the western end of the same wall on the eastern side of the Wells Road, opposite to the eastern end of the wall which divides Elm House from the house known as No. 1, Bloomfield-terrace; and extending thence westward and in a straight line across the said Wells Road, to and along the middle of the last-described wall to its junction with the wall or fence dividing the close numbered 61 upon the said maps, from Elm House aforesaid, from the garden in rear of the house known as No. 1, Elm Place, and from the close numbered 60 upon the same maps; and extending thence, first southward and then westward, along the middle of the last described wall or fence, to its junction with the fence dividing the said close numbered 60, from the close numbered 38, upon the same maps; and extending thence generally westward along the middle of the last described fence, and along the middle of the fences dividing the closes numbered respectively 58, 57, 56, 55, 49, and 51, upon the said maps, from the closes numbered respectively 38 as aforesaid and 39 upon the same maps, from a certain occupation road leading from Oldfield Road into the said close numbered 55, and from the closes numbered respectively 48, 46, and 50 upon the same maps, to a boundary-stone inscribed 'S. L. St. L. D. C. 1868, No. 3,' and placed at the western end of the fence dividing the said close numbered 51, from the close numbered 50, as aforesaid, upon the boundary which divides the said distinct and separate parish of Lyncombe from the parish of Twerton aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Bath and Wells.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 28th day of March, 1868.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen; of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven; of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and four; and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the nineteenth day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes out of the parish of Heigham, in the city and county of the city of Norwich, and in the diocese of Norwich.

"Whereas it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that the particular part of the said parish of Heigham which is hereinafter mentioned and described (such part not at present containing within its limits any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of divine worship) should be constituted a separate district in the manner hereinafter set forth.

"And whereas certain hereditaments and premises, situate within the said parish of Heigham, have become vested in us under the provisions of, and for the purposes of, the herein mentioned Acts, or of some of them, and we have in respect of such hereditaments and premises agreed to make and pay out of the common fund created by the firstly herein mentioned Act to the minister of the district hereinafter recommended to be constituted, when he shall have been duly licensed in accordance with the provisions of the secondly herein mentioned Act, and to his successors, a grant of one hundred and forty-four pounds per annum, and also a further grant of one hundred pounds per annum so soon as a church shall have been erected within and for such district, and shall have been approved by us, and shall have been consecrated as the church of such district, and such grants as aforesaid will be made by an instrument or instruments to be executed by us under our common seal in accordance with the provisions of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven.

"And whereas by a certain deed, bearing date on or about the fifth day of October, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, being under the hand and seal of the Reverend Cyprian Thomas Rust, the rector or incumbent of the rectory of the parish of Heigham aforesaid, and being also under the hand and episcopal seal of the Honourable and Right Reverend John Thomas, bishop of the said diocese of Norwich, and also the patron in right of his see of the rectory of the parish of Heigham aforesaid, and being likewise under the common seal of us the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England (which deed is intended to be enrolled in your Majesty's High Court of Chancery at Westminster), the said Cyprian Thomas Rust did (with the consent of the said bishop), give, grant, and appropriate unto us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, and to our successors, in aid of the endowment of the district hereinafter recommended to be constituted, and of the maintenance of the minister thereof, certain rent charges in lieu of tithes, amounting to the annual sum of seventy pounds four shillings and seven pence, arising and issuing out of or from certain lands in the parish of Heigham aforesaid, and which lands are more particularly described in the schedule forming part of such deed.

"And whereas upon and from the time when a church shall have been approved by us, and consecrated as the church of the said intended district, after that the same district shall have been constituted as is hereinafter recommended and proposed, the said rent charges in lieu of tithes will, by operation of the hereinbefore thirdly mentioned Act, become and be absolutely vested in the incumbent of such church and his successors for ever, and be held and enjoyed by him and them in right of such incumbency.

"And whereas the said rent charges in lieu of tithes have been so given, granted, and appropriated as aforesaid, upon the understanding that (such arrangement appearing to us to be expedient) the whole right of patronage of the said district, and of the nomination of the minister thereof, should be assigned in the manner herein-after mentioned.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the said John Thomas, bishop of the said diocese of Norwich (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme), we humbly recommend and propose that all that part of the said parish of Heigham which is mentioned and described in the schedule hereunder written, and which is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, shall, upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, become and be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes, and that the same shall be named 'The District of Saint Philip, Heigham.'

"And we further recommend and propose, that the whole right of patronage of the said district so recommended to be constituted, and of the nomination of the minister thereto, shall, without any assurance in the law other than this scheme, and any duly gazetted Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, and upon and from the day of the date of the publication of such Order in the London Gazette as aforesaid, be assigned to, and be absolutely vested in, and shall and may from time to time be exercised by, the said John Thomas, Bishop of the said diocese of Norwich, and by his successors, bishops of the same diocese for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference.

"The District of Saint Philip, Heigham, being :

"All that part of the parish of Heigham, in the city and county of the city of Norwich, and in the diocese of Norwich, wherein the present incumbent of such parish now possesses the exclusive cure of souls, which is bounded on the west by the parish of Earham, in the same county and diocese, on the south by the new parish of the Most Holy Trinity, Heigham (lately part of the said parish of Heigham), on the east partly by the parish of Saint Giles, Norwich, in the said county and diocese, and partly by the parish of Saint Benedict, Norwich, in the same county and diocese, and on the north by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the last-named parish from the parish of Heigham aforesaid, at a point near Saint Benedict's-gates, at the eastern end of the Dereham-road; and extending thence westward, for a distance of one mile and a quarter, or thereabouts, along the middle of the same road, to a point upon the boundary which divides the said parish of Heigham from the parish of Earham aforesaid."

And whereas a draft of the said scheme has been, in accordance with the provisions of the hereinbefore secondly mentioned Act, transmitted to the patron, and to the rector or incumbent of the rectory of the parish out of which it is intended that the district therein recommended to be constituted shall be taken, and such patron and such rector or incumbent have respectively signified their assent to the said scheme.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Norwich.

Arthur Helps.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 28th day of March, 1868.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the eighteenth and nineteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act further to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England," it is, amongst other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time, to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, shall or shall not have arrived), as to Her Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, may seem fit;

And whereas Orders in Council have been made, directing the discontinuance of burials in the churchyard hereinafter mentioned, from the time specified in such Orders; and whereas it seems fit to Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, that the time for discontinuing burials in the said churchyard be postponed;

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the time for the discontinuance of burials in such churchyard be postponed as follows, viz.:

In the churchyard of Wath-upon-Dearne, to the first day of September, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight, on condition that no earthen grave be opened for burial within three yards of Wath Hall Garden, and that no soil which is offensive be disturbed.

Arthur Helps.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 28th day of March, 1868.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Right Honourable Gathorne Hardy, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after giving to the Incumbents and the Churchwardens of the parishes hereinafter mentioned, ten days previous notice of his intention to make such representation has, under the provisions of an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England beyond the limits of the Metropolis, and to amend the Act concerning the burial of the dead in the Metropolis," made a representation stating that, for the protection of the public health, no new burial ground should be opened in the undermentioned parishes, without the previous consent of the Secretary of State, and that burials should be discontinued in them, with the following modifications, viz. :—

MANCHESTER.—Forthwith wholly in St. Mary's church and churchyard, in the city of Manchester.

ALVESTON.—Forthwith wholly in the parish church of Alveston, in the county of Gloucester.

STOCKTON-ON-TEES.—Forthwith wholly in the old parish churchyard of St. Thomas, Stockton-on-Tees, except in existing vaults and walled graves, in which each coffin shall be embedded in charcoal, and separately entombed in an air-tight manner.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty in Council is pleased hereby to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council on the eighteenth day of May next.

And Her Majesty is further pleased to direct, that this Order be forthwith published in the London Gazette; and that copies thereof be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such representation, one month before the said eighteenth day of May.

Arthur Helps.

THE Queen has been pleased to issue a Supplementary Commission under Her Royal Sign Manual, of which the following is a copy:—

VICTORIA, R.

VICTORIA, by the Grace of God, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, Queen, Defender of the Faith, to Our trusty and well-beloved John Cranch Walker Vivian, Esquire (commonly called the Honourable John Cranch Walker Vivian);

LOCAL GOVERNMENT ACT, 1858.

ORDER SETTLING THE BOUNDARIES OF A NEW-QUAY DISTRICT, IN THE COUNTY OF CORNWALL, FOR THE PURPOSES OF THE LOCAL GOVERNMENT ACT, 1858.

WHEREAS a Petition has been duly presented to me, as one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, from ratepayers resident within the boundaries of a proposed district of Newquay, in the parish of St. Columb Minor, in the county of Cornwall, as set forth in such petition, praying me to settle and fix the boundaries of a district to be styled the "Newquay District," for the purposes of the Local Government Act, 1858.

And whereas the said petition was duly signed, as required by the said Act, and set forth, likewise, the proposed boundaries of the district sought to be formed under its provisions; and inquiry has now been duly made by Robert Morgan, Esquire, the Inspector appointed by me for such purpose, and he has reported to me thereon.

Now, therefore, I, as one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State as aforesaid, having taken the said petition and report into consideration, do hereby, in pursuance of the powers vested in me by the Local Government Act, 1858, make order as follows:—

1. That from and after the date of this present order, the boundaries hereinafter set forth and described and delineated on the plan referred to in and accompanying the Inspector's report, bearing date the 24th day of March, 1868, form and constitute the boundaries of the district to be called the Newquay District, for the purposes of the Local Government Act, 1858, and that the parts included in such boundaries so described and delineated shall, for the purposes of such Act, be deemed to be a place having a known and defined boundary, and may adopt the said Act accordingly.

The aforesaid boundaries commence at the point A, on the aforesaid plan, on Newquay beach, at low-water mark of ordinary spring tides; thence across the said beach in a southerly direction to B, on the north side of the road leading from Newquay to St. Columb; thence crossing the said road and along the east and south sides of fields numbered 452 to C, at Tolcarne-lane; thence southerly along the east side of the said lane, and including it, to D; thence along the south side of field numbered 449, to the Newquay Railway; thence crossing the said railway and along the south side of field numbered 449b to E; thence along the east and south sides of field numbered 449a to F, on the road leading to Trenance; thence along the east side of the said road, and including it, to G; thence crossing the said road and along the south side of fields numbered 107 and 108 to H; thence southerly along the east side of field numbered 85 to I, on the boundary between the parishes of St. Columb Minor and Crantock; thence westerly along the said parish boundary to K, on the south side of L'Henver-lane; thence crossing the said lane and westerly along its north side to L; thence northerly along the east side of Sandy Close lane to M; thence crossing Sandy Close lane and along the west side of field numbered 18 to N; thence westerly along the boundary between the parishes of St. Columb Minor and Crantock to O; thence across Fistral Beach to P, at the low-water mark of ordinary spring tides; thence northerly and easterly along the line of low-water mark and round Towan Head to the starting point at A, thus completing the boundaries of the aforesaid district of Newquay.

2. That Henry Francis Whitefield, Esq., of St. Columb aforesaid, Solicitor, be Summoning Officer, and take forthwith all such steps as may be necessary under the hereinbefore recited Act, for convening a meeting of the ratepayers of the said district of Newquay, to decide as to the adoption of the Local Government Act, 1858, within the boundaries of such district as fixed and settled by this present Order.

Given under my hand this 28th day of March, 1868.

(Signed) Gathorne Hardy.

chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby grant to the Incumbent of the vicarage of Easington, with the vicarage of Kilnsea and the vicarage of Skeffling annexed, in the county of York, and in the diocese of York, and to his successors, Incumbents of the same benefice, one yearly sum or stipend of thirty-nine pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the first day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, and to be receivable half-yearly on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient to produce the said yearly sum or stipend, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said benefice in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this twenty-sixth day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight.

Gun Barrel Proof.

(Additional Proof Houses in and near London; Further Alteration in Constitution of Birmingham Guardians; Further Amendment of Act.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that the promoters of two Bills now pending before the Honourable the House of Commons, one called "Gun Barrel Proof Bill," and the other called "Birmingham Proof House (No. 1) Bill," intend to propose the following (amongst other) alterations in the Gun Barrel Proof Bill, or in any Bill into which the said two Bills may, with the sanction of the House, be consolidated, viz.:—

- (A.) To empower the Master, Wardens, and Society of the Mystery of Gun Makers of the city of London, to provide, maintain, and use Branch Proof Houses in or within ten miles of the city of London, with all proper works and conveniences, and to apply to such Branch Proof Houses all or some of the provisions of the said Bills.
- (B.) To exclude Justices of the Peace residing in or within seven miles of the borough of Birmingham, and not being Justices for the said borough from being ex-officio Guardians of the Birmingham Proof House.
- (C.) To amend "The Gun Barrel Proof Act, 1855," in these and other particulars, and as regards both the said Master, Wardens, and Society, and the said Guardians.

Copies of the alterations will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons two clear days before the meeting of the Committee on the Bills.—Dated this 26th day of March, 1868.
