NOTICE is hereby given, that His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales will, by command of The Queen, hold a Levee at St. James's Palace, on behalf of Her Majesty, on Saturday, the 30th instant, at two o'clock.

It is the Queen's pleasure that Presentations to His Royal Highness at this Levee shall be considered as equivalent to Presentations to Her Majesty.

REGULATIONS

TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S LEVEE TO BE HELD BY HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS THE PRINCE OF WALES, ON BEHALF OF HER MAJESTY, AT ST. JAMES'S PALACE.

By Her Majesty's Command.

The Noblemen and Gentlemen, who propose to attend Her Majesty's Levee, at St. James's Palace, are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with The Queen's Page in attendance in the Corridor, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to His Royal Highness.

It is Her Majesty's command that no presentations shall be made at Levees, except in accordance with the above regulations.

It is particularly requested, that in every case the names be very distinctly written upon the cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to His Royal Highness.

The State apartments will be open for the reception of Company coming to Court at one o'clock.

BRADFORD,
Lord Chamberlain.

Whitehall, May 11, 1868.

THE following Addresses of congratulation to the Queen, in reference to the atrocious attempt upon the life of His Royal Highness the Duke of Edinburgh, having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Gathorne Hardy, Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, for presentation, have accordingly been presented by him to Her Majesty, who has been pleased to receive the same very graciously:—

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful subjects, the Chancellor, Masters, and Scholars of the University of Oxford, beg leave to approach your Majesty with renewed assurances of loyalty and attachment.

We desire to express to your Majesty our heartfelt sorrow and indignation at the cruel and dastardly attempt recently made upon the life of His Royal Highness the Duke of Edinburgh, and our thankfulness to Almighty God that the more serious consequences which might have ensued have been by His blessing mercifully averted.

Under every affliction and trial your Majesty has been wont to derive consolation and support from the sympathy of your faithful people; and hence we are encouraged to hope that on this painful occasion also, some alleviation of your Majesty's anxiety may be afforded by those extraordinary and signal manifestations of loyalty to the Crown, and affection towards your Majesty's Royal person and Family, which have been of late exhibited by all ranks and conditions of your Majesty's subjects.

We trust that His Royal Highness may be speedily restored to perfect health, and that the same Divine Power which interposed to defeat the purpose of an assassin may continue to protect a life naturally most precious to your Majesty, and endeared also to the country by the fair promise it has already given of future usefulness and distinction.

And whereas further powers are given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, by another Act of Parliament passed in the eleventh year of the reign of Her present Majesty, for giving further facilities for the transmission of letters by post, and for the regulating the duties of postage thereon, and for other purposes relating to the Post Office.

And whereas it is expedient to alter the rates of British postage now payable upon certain letters in the manner hereinafter mentioned.

Now we, the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, in exercise of the powers vested in us in and by the said recited Acts, and each of them, and of all other powers enabling us in this behalf, do, by this Warrant under the hands of two of us the said Commissioners, by the authority of the statute in that case made and provided, order, direct, and declare as follows:—

1. On every letter not exceeding one half of an ounce in weight, posted in the East Indies, China, Australia, or New Zealand, addressed to Egypt, or posted in Egypt, addressed to the East Indies, China, Australia, or New Zealand, and transmitted by British packet boat between any port in the East Indies, China, Australia, or New Zealand, and Egypt, without passing through the United Kingdom, there shall be charged, taken, and paid an uniform rate of British postage of sixpence.

2. On every letter so transmitted as hereinbefore mentioned, exceeding one half of an ounce in weight, there shall be charged, taken, and paid the several further and additional and progressive rates of British postage, according to the scale of weight and number of rates hereinafter mentioned; that is to say:—

On every such letter exceeding one half of an ounce in weight, and not exceeding one ounce in weight, there shall be charged, taken, and paid two rates of postage;

And on every such letter, if exceeding one ounce, and not exceeding one ounce and the half of another ounce in weight, three rates of postage;

And on every such letter, if exceeding one ounce and the half of another ounce, and not exceeding two ounces in weight, four rates of postage;

And for every additional half of an ounce in weight of any such letter above the weight of two ounces, there shall be charged, taken, and paid one additional rate of postage; and every fractional part of such additional half of an ounce in weight shall be charged as an additional half of an ounce in weight; and each progressive and additional rate chargeable under this Warrant shall be estimated and charged at the sum which any such letter would be charged with under this Warrant if not exceeding one half of an ounce in weight.

3. Nothing herein contained shall be construed in anywise to annul prejudice or affect any of the exemptions or privileges granted by the said first hereinbefore recited Act, or to annul, prejudice, or affect any of the privileges to which officers, seamen, and soldiers employed in Her Majesty's service are now by law entitled of sending and receiving letters by the post, subject to the regulations and restrictions made and in force for the time being in respect of the same.

4. The term "East Indies" used in this Warrant shall be construed to mean every port or place in Her Majesty's dominions in Asia (except Australia and New Zealand), and the several other terms and expressions used in this Warrant shall be construed to have the like meaning in all respects as they would have had if inserted in the said first hereinbefore recited Act.

5. The rates of British postage fixed by this present Warrant on the letters transmitted as herein mentioned, shall be in lieu of those now chargeable thereon.

6. The Commissioners for the time being of Her Majesty's Treasury may, by Warrant under their hands, duly made at any time hereafter, alter, repeal, or revoke any of the rates of postage hereby fixed or altered, or the regulations hereby made, and may make and establish any new or other rates or regulations in lieu thereof, and from time
