REGULATIONS

TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S LEVEE TO BE HELD BY HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS THE PRINCE OF WALES, ON BEHALF OF HER MAJESTY, AT ST. JAMES'S PALACE.

By Her Majesty's Command.

The Noblemen and Gentlemen, who propose to attend Her Majesty's Levee, at St. James's Palace, are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with The Queen's Page in attendance in the Corridor, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to His Royal Highness.

PRESENTATIONS.

Any Nobleman or Gentleman who proposes to be presented, must leave at the Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace, before twelve o'clock, two clear days before the Levee, a card with his name written thereon, and with the name of the Nobleman or Gentleman by whom he is to be presented. It is

Her Majesty's command that no presentations shall be made at Levees, except in accordance with the above regulations.

It is particularly requested, that in every case the names be very distinctly written upon the cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to His Royal Highness.

The State apartments will be open for the reception of Company coming to Court at one o'clock.

BRADFORD,

Whitehall, June 11, 1868.

THE following Addresses of congratulation to the Queen, in reference to the atrocious attempt upon the life of His Royal Highness the Duke of Edinburgh, having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Gathorne Hardy, Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, for presentation, have accordingly been presented by him to Her Majesty, who has been pleased to receive the same very graciously:—

To the QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

THE States of the Island of Jersey moved to just indignation and horror at the recent atrocious attempt on the life of your Majesty's beloved son, His Royal Highness Alfred, Duke of Edinburgh, and prompted by their feelings of devoted loyalty and profound attachment to your Majesty's person and family, desire, with all respect, to approach your Majesty, to present in their name and on behalf of the inhabitants of this Island, their dutiful and heartfelt congratulations that it has pleased Divine Providence to guard and protect the Prince in the hour of sudden danger, by averting the wicked machinations by which his life was threatened.

That His Royal Highness thus mercifully spared from intended destruction may long live to be the joy and happiness of his august and venerated mother, and continue a well-begun and auspicious career, with wisdom and energy that will shed lustre on the Nation's annals, is the devout prayer of your Majesty's faithful States of Jersey.
