Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace, June 8, 1868.

NOTICE is hereby given, that His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales will, by command of The Queen, hold a Levee at St. James's Palace, on behalf of Her Majesty, on Friday, the 26th instant, at two o'clock.

It is the Queen's pleasure that Presentations to His Royal Highness at this Levee shall be considered as equivalent to Presentations to Her Majesty.

This Levee will be the last held during the present Season.

REGULATIONS

TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S LEVEE TO BE HELD BY HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS THE PRINCE OF WALES, ON BEHALF OF HER MAJESTY, AT ST. JAMES'S PALACE.

By Her Majesty's Command.

The Noblemen and Gentlemen, who propose to attend Her Majesty's Levee, at St. James's Palace, are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with The Queen's Page in attendance in the Corridor, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to His Royal Highness.

PRESENTATIONS.

Any Nobleman or Gentleman who proposes to be presented, must leave at the Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace, before twelve o'clock, two clear days before the Levee, a card with his name written thereon, and with the name of the Nobleman or Gentleman by whom he is to be presented. In order to carry out the existing regulation that no presentation can be made at a Levee excepting by a person actually attending that Levee, it is also necessary that a letter from the Nobleman or Gentleman who is to make the presentation, stating it to be his intention to be present, should accompany the presentation card above referred to, which will be submitted to The Queen for Her Majesty's approbation. It is

Her Majesty's command that no presentations shall be made at Levees, except in accordance with the above regulations.

It is particularly requested, that in every case the names be very distinctly written upon the cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to His Royal Highness.

The State apartments will be open for the reception of Company coming to Court at one o'clock.

BRADFORD,
Lord Chamberlain.

Whitehall, June 18, 1868.

THE following Addresses of congratulation to the Queen, in reference to the atrocious attempt upon the life of His Royal Highness the Duke of Edinburgh, having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Gathorne Hardy, Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, for presentation, have accordingly been presented by him to Her Majesty, who has been pleased to receive the same very graciously:—

To the QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the Bishop, Dean and Canons, Archdeacon, and Clergy of the diocese of Manchester, desire to approach your Majesty with the heartfelt expression of our condolence and congratulations; our condolence on the alarm and anxiety which your Majesty must have suffered through the murderous attempt on the life of your beloved Son; our congratulations that it hath pleased Almighty God in a wonderful manner to frustrate the assassin's purpose, and to preserve one so justly dear to your Majesty and the whole Empire.

We, who, in common with all your Majesty's loyal subjects, rejoice in your Majesty's joy, and sorrow with your sorrow, shall not cease to thank the Giver of all good things, through our Lord Jesus Christ, for these His late mercies vouchsafed to your Majesty and the whole Realm; and to pray that the same Gracious Providence may watch over your Majesty and your Royal House, and defend your Majesty and all the Royal Family from open and secret enemies.

The Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the borough of Reading.
The Galway Town Commissioners.
The Pastors and Delegates of the Congregational Churches of Cheshire.

Council Office, Whitehall, June 19, 1868.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a Petition has been presented to Her Majesty in Council from Inhabitant Householders of the town of BARNSELEY, in the West Riding of the county of York, praying, under the Act 1 Vict., cap. 78, that a CHARTER OF INCORPORATION may be granted to that town ; and notice is hereby further given, that Her Majesty has been pleased by Her Order in Council of this day's date, to order that the said Petition be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, on the first day of August next.

Council Office, Whitehall, June 19, 1868.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a Petition has been presented to Her Majesty in Council from Inhabitants, Householders, and Ratepayers of the town and township of Bootle-cum-Linacre, in the County Palatine of Lancaster, praying, under the Acts 5th and 6th William the Fourth, and 1 Vic., cap. 78, that a CHARTER OF INCORPORATION may be granted to that town and township ; and notice is hereby further given, that Her Majesty has been pleased by Her Order in Council of this day's date, to order that the said Petition be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, on the first day of August next.

Whitehall, June 17, 1868.

The Queen has been pleased to give and grant, unto James Andrew Sandilands Grant, Esq. t Doctor in Medicine, Her Royal licence and authority that he may accept and wear the insignia of the Imperial Order of the Medjidie of the Fifth Class, which His Majesty the Sultan hath been pleased to confer upon him in approbation of his services while actually and entirely employed, beyond Her Majesty's dominions, by His Highness the Viceroy of Egypt, during the recent visitation of epidemic cholera in that country.

Whitehall, June 17, 1868.

The Queen has been pleased to present the Reverend William Ferrie Stevenson, M.A., to the United Parishes of Liff, Logie, Invergowrie, and Benvie, vacant by the death of the Reverend Lachlan MacLean.

Whitehall, June 1, 1868.

The Queen has been pleased to give and grant unto the Honourable Walter Cecil Talbot (second son of the Right Honourable Henry John, Earl of Shrewsbury and Earl Talbot), Captain in Her Majesty's Fleet, Her Royal licence and authority that he may, in compliance with a clause contained in the last will and testament of Sarah, Countess of Tyrconnel, the widow and relict of the late Right Honourable John Delaval Carpenter, Earl of Tyrconnel, both deceased, take and use the surname and arms of Carpenter in lieu and instead of those of Talbot ; such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the College of Arms, otherwise the said Royal licence and permission to be void and of none effect.

And also to command that the said Royal concession and declaration be recorded in Her Majesty's College of Arms.

Whitehall, June 13, 1868.

The Queen has been pleased to grant unto Frederick William Hitchin, of Hawley-square, Margate, in the county of Kent, Gentleman, eldest son of William Hitchin, of Tyrwhitt-terrace, in the parish of St. Paul, Deptford, in the said county of Kent, Gentleman, by Charlotte his wife, daughter of George Brookes, of the parish of Saint Martin-in-the-Fields, in the county of Middlesex, and only sister of George Brookes-Kemp (formerly George Brookes), late of the parish of Hendon, in the said county of Middlesex, Gentleman, both deceased, Her Royal licence and authority that he and his issue may, in compliance with a desire contained in the last will and testament of his maternal uncle, the said George Brookes-Kemp, take and henceforth use the surname of Kemp in addition to and after that of Hitchin, and that he and they may bear and use the arms of Kemp ; such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the College of Arms, otherwise the said Royal licence and permission to be void and of none effect :

And to command that the said Royal concession and declaration be registered in Her Majesty's said College of Arms.

QUALIFICATION OF PUBLIC VACCINATORS.

WHEREAS it is required under the Regulations set forth in the Order of the Lords of the Privy Council, dated 1st December, 1859, that persons to be thereafter contracted with by the Guardians and Overseers of Unions and Parishes in England for the performance of public vaccination shall (except in certain cases) produce a certificate of proficiency in vaccination, given, after due instruction and examination, by some Public Vaccinator whom the Privy Council authorizes to act for that purpose :—

Notice is hereby given, that, subject to the same conditions as their Lordships have heretofore appointed in the like matter, and subject also to their Lordships' further orders, Mr. Patrick Foley John Kenny, of the General Dispensary, Birmingham, officiating as Public Vaccinator in the parish of Birmingham, is authorized to give certificates for the purposes of the aforesaid Order to persons whom he, at his appointed station, shall have examined or instructed in vaccination.

ANTISCORBUTICS TO BE CARRIED BY MERCHANT SHIPS.

Exemption.

WHEREAS by "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1867," it is enacted that the following rule shall be observed respecting lime or lemon juice, and other antiscorbutics to be carried by foreign-going ships navigating between the United Kingdom and any place out of the same, viz:—

"(4.) The master or owner of every such foreign-going ship (except those bound to European ports or to ports in the Mediterranean Sea, and also except such ships or classes of ships bound to ports on the Eastern Coast of America, north of the thirty-fifth degree of north latitude, and to any islands or places in the Atlantic Ocean north of the same limit, as the Board of Trade may from time to time exempt from this enactment), shall provide and cause to be kept on board such ship a sufficient quantity of lime or lemon juice from the warehouse, duly labelled as aforesaid" (that is to say, from a bonded warehouse, and labelled as required by the preceding paragraph), "such labels to remain intact until twenty-four hours at least after such ship shall have left her port of departure on her foreign voyage, or a sufficient quantity of such other antiscorbutics, if any, of such quality, and composed of such materials, and packed and kept in such manner as Her Majesty by Order in Council may from time to time direct."

Now, therefore, the Board of Trade, in exercise of the powers vested in them by the said recited Act, hereby exempt from the enactment above quoted, all ships bound from any port in the United Kingdom to ports on the Eastern Coast of America, situate between the 35th and 60th degrees of north latitude; and also all ships bound to any islands or places in the Atlantic Ocean, situate within those limits.

Provided always,—first, that this exemption shall not extend or apply to ships which, being bound to any place within the limits aforesaid, are or may by the terms of their agreements be also bound to any place out of those limits; and, secondly, that this exemption shall not extend or apply to ships bound to any part of the coast or islands of Greenland, situate within the limits aforesaid.

LOCAL GOVERNMENT ACT, 1858.

NOTICE OF ADOPTION OF ACT BY KIDSGROVE, IN THE COUNTY OF STAFFORD.

WHEREAS the Local Government Act, 1858, was duly adopted on the 30th day of April, 1868, by the ecclesiastical district or district parish of Kidsgrove, in the county of Stafford, and notice of such adoption has been duly given, in writing to me, as one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, as required by such Act. And whereas it has been duly certified to me that a copy of such notice has been duly advertised, and that copies have also been affixed to the principal doors of each church and chapel in such ecclesiastical district or district parish to which notices are usually affixed; and the period fixed by the said Act for appeal has now expired, and no such appeal has been made:

Now, therefore, I, as one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, do hereby give notice, that the Local Government Act, 1858, has been adopted within the aforesaid ecclesiastical district or district parish of Kidsgrove, in the county of Stafford, and that the Local Government Act, 1858, will come into force within the said ecclesiastical district or district parish at the expiration of two months from the date of its adoption as aforesaid.

Given under my hand this 16th day of June, 1868.

PROVISIONAL ORDER.

Hollington and Hastings Turnpike Road.

WHEREAS the Trustees of the Hollington and Hastings Turnpike Road, acting under the powers of the Local Act of the 6th of William the Fourth, cap. 46, have made application to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, pursuant to the Act of the Session holden in the 14th and 15th years of the reign of Her present Majesty, cap. 38, for a Provisional Order, to reduce the rate of interest on the mortgage debt charged or secured on the tolls or revenues of the said road, and to extinguish the whole of the arrears of interest due upon the said debt;

And whereas the said application is dated the third day of February, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight, and is signed by eight of the said trustees, who therein certify that the persons entitled to more than two-thirds of the money charged or secured on the tolls of the said road and remaining unpaid, have signified their consents in writing under their hands to the said application;

And whereas it appears desirable to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, that the aforesaid application should be granted upon the terms herein set forth;

Now, therefore, in pursuance of the power and authority of the said Act of the 14th and 15th of Victoria, cap. 38, given to me, as one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and in conformity with the said application, I do by this Provisional Order under my hand declare,—subject to the confirmation hereof by Parliament,—that from the thirty-first day of December, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, the rate of interest shall be reduced from five pounds to one pound per centum per annum upon the bonded or mortgage debt of eleven thousand three hundred and ninety pounds, charged or secured upon the tolls or revenues of the said road, and that the whole of the arrears of interest due upon the said debt at that date, and now remaining unpaid shall be extinguished.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand.

(Signed) Gathorne Hardy.

Whitehall, 25th May, 1868.

TO all to whom these presents shall come, we, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, send greeting: Whereas it has been made to appear to us that certain tithes, or rent charges in lieu thereof, arising within the new parish of Saint James, Hayton, in the county of Cumberland, and in the diocese of Carlisle, belong to the Incumbent of the church of such new parish: Now, we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of "The District Church Tithes Act, 1865," do hereby declare that from and after the time of the publication of these presents in the London Gazette, pursuant to the provisions of the same Act, the said church of the new parish of Saint James, Hayton aforesaid, shall be and be deemed to be a rectory.

In witness whereof, we, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, have hereunto affixed our common seal, this twenty-eighth day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight.

(L.S.)

TO all to whom these presents shall come, we, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, send greeting: Whereas, in consideration of certain tithes or rent charges in lieu thereof arising within the limits of the benefice of Breaston-with-Risley, in the county of Derby, and in the diocese of Lichfield, which have come into the possession of us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, an annuity has been granted by us to the Incumbent for the time being of the said benefice. And whereas the said benefice comprises and consists of two ancient or parochial chapelries, to wit, the chapelry of Breaston and the chapelry of Risley; and each of the same two chapelries has a church of its own: Now we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of "The District Church Tithes Act, 1865," do hereby declare that from and after the time of the publication of these presents in the London Gazette, pursuant to the provisions of the same Act, the church of the said chapelry of Breaston shall be and be deemed to be a rectory, and the church of the said chapelry of Risley shall in like manner be and be deemed to be a rectory.

In witness whereof we, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, have hereunto affixed our common seal, this eleventh day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby grant to the Incumbent of the perpetual curacy of Allhallows, in the county of Cumberland, and in the diocese of Carlisle, and to his successors, Incumbents of the same benefice, one yearly sum or stipend of eighty-nine pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the first day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, and to be receivable half-yearly on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient to produce the said yearly sum or stipend, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said benefice in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this eleventh day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, having received a benefaction of two hundred pounds sterling, in favour of the perpetual curacy of Saint Bridget, Beckermest, or Calder Bridge, in the county of Cumberland, and in the diocese of Carlisle, in consideration whereof we have agreed to pay to the Incumbent of the same perpetual curacy, and to his successors, a yearly sum of six pounds thirteen shillings and four pence, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, grant to the Incumbent of the said perpetual curacy of Saint Bridget, Beckermest, or Calder Bridge, and to his successors, to meet such benefaction, one other yearly sum or stipend of six pounds thirteen shillings and four pence, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the day of the publication of these presents in the London Gazette, and to be receivable half-yearly on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient to produce the yearly sum or stipend so payable out of our common fund as lastly herein mentioned, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said perpetual curacy, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this eleventh day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight.

(L.S.)

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction consisting of six hundred pounds sterling, which has been paid to us in favour of the vicarage of Saint Andrew, Bywell, in the county of Northumberland, and in the diocese of Durham, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, sections five and eleven, grant and appropriate out of our common fund to the said vicarage of Saint Andrew, Bywell, to meet such benefaction, one other capital sum of six hundred pounds sterling, to be applicable towards defraying the cost of providing a parsonage or house of residence for the said vicarage, according to plans and a specification to be approved by us, such capital sum, or the balance thereof unapplied to such purpose, to remain in the meantime in our hands at interest after the rate of three pounds per centum per annum, and such interest to be paid to the Incumbent for the time being of the said vicarage of Saint Andrew, Bywell.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this eleventh day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, sections five and eleven, do hereby grant and appropriate out of our common fund to the perpetual curacy of Byker, in the county of Northumberland, and in the diocese of Durham, one capital sum of one thousand and four hundred pounds sterling, to be applicable towards defraying the cost of providing a parsonage or house of residence for the said perpetual curacy, according to plans and a specification to be approved by us, such capital sum, or the balance thereof unapplied to such purpose, to remain in the meantime in our hands at interest after the rate of three pounds per centum per annum, and such interest to be paid to the Incumbent for the time being of the said perpetual curacy of Byker.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this eleventh day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight.

(L.S.)

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, having received a benefaction of six hundred and fifty pounds sterling, in favour of the vicarage of Darsham, in the county of Suffolk, and in the diocese of Norwich, in consideration of a portion whereof, amounting to four hundred pounds sterling, we have agreed to pay to the Incumbent of the same vicarage, and to his successors, a yearly sum of thirteen pounds six shillings and eight pence, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, grant to the Incumbent of the said vicarage of Darsham, and to his successors, to meet such benefaction, one yearly sum or stipend of twenty-one pounds thirteen shillings and four pence, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the day of the publication of these presents in the London Gazette, and to be receivable half-yearly on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient to produce the yearly sum or stipend so payable out of our common fund as lastly herein mentioned, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said vicarage, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this eleventh day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, having received a benefaction of one thousand pounds sterling, in favour of the perpetual curacy of Drayton, near Abingdon, in the county of Berks, and in the diocese of Oxford, in consideration whereof we have agreed to pay to the Incumbent of the same perpetual curacy, and to his successors, a yearly sum of thirty-three pounds six shillings and eight pence, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, grant to the Incumbent of the said perpetual curacy of Drayton, and to his successors, to meet such benefaction, one other yearly sum or stipend of thirty-three pounds six shillings and eight pence, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the day of the publication of these presents in the London Gazette, and to be receivable half-yearly on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient to produce the yearly sum or stipend, so payable out of our common fund as lastly herein mentioned, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said perpetual curacy, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this eleventh day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight.

(L.S.)

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby, subject as hereinafter mentioned, grant and convey to the Incumbent of the perpetual curacy of Boughton, in the county of Nottingham, and in the diocese of Lincoln, and to his successors, Incumbents of the same benefice, all those tithe commutation rent charges, with their appurtenances, which are particularly described in the schedule hereunto annexed, and are now vested in us, to have and to hold the said tithe commutation rent charges, with their appurtenances, to the use of the said Incumbent and his successors for ever: Provided always, that the said tithe commutation rent charges, with their appurtenances, so granted and conveyed by us as aforesaid, shall be, and be held to be, in lieu of, and substitution for, the yearly sum or stipend of ninety-seven pounds, heretofore payable by us to the Incumbent, for the time being, of the said perpetual curacy, under the authority of an instrument sealed by us, and published in the London Gazette on the twenty-fifth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven; and provided always that the Incumbent for the time being of the same benefice, shall be entitled to receive from us, or on our account, the net amount of the rents, profits, and proceeds of the said tithe commutation rent charges, with their appurtenances, as from the twenty-fifth day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this eleventh day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight.

CONTRACT FOR RUM.

Contract Department, Admiralty,
Somerset House, June 11,
1868.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that on Wednesday, the 24th instant, at twelve o'clock at noon, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into Her Majesty's Victualling Stores at Deptford, 50,000 gallons of Rum; to be delivered within three weeks from date of contract.

Tenders may be made for the whole or any portion of the rum.

All the casks, except such as may be required for Her Majesty's Service, are to be taken away from the said Stores by and at the expense of the party whose tender is accepted.

Their Lordships reserve to themselves the power, when the tenders are opened, of contracting either for the whole, or for such part thereof only as they may deem fit, or for a greater quantity, or of not contracting for any, and also an unlimited power of selection.

The rum to be exempted from the Customs' duties, and parties tendering are to state where it is lying Payment for the rum will be made for the proof gallons to one-tenth of a gallon, the liquid contents being ascertained to the half gallon.

Samples of the rum to be sent in pints for each Import Mark, and the average strength of each Mark Ex to be stated, and not an average of different marks or strengths of several imports; and any parcel of rum that is found not to be of the same quality, mark, or average strength as the sample tendered and accepted, will be rejected by the officers.

No tender will be received unless made on the printed form provided for the purpose, which may be obtained on application in the Lobby of the Department of the Comptroller of Victualling, Admiralty, Somerset House, where the conditions of the contract may be seen.

No tender will be received after twelve o'clock at noon on the day of treaty; and it will not be required that the party tendering, or an agent on his behalf, should attend at the office on the day of contract, as the result of the offer received from each person will be communicated to him and to his proposed sureties in writing, when, but not before, the rejected samples are to be removed.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left hand corner the words "Tender for Rum," and must also be delivered at the Department of the Comptroller of Victualling, Admiralty, Somerset House.

CONTRACTS FOR WHEAT, OATS, TOBACCO, AND TEA.

Contract Department, Admiralty,
Somerset House, June 11,

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that on Wednesday, the 24th instant, at twelve o'clock at noon, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into Her Majesty's Victualling Stores at Deptford, the undermentioned articles; viz.:—

Wheat, 15,000 imperial bushels (to be tendered for at a rate per 100 lbs.); half to be delivered in three weeks from date of contract, and the remainder thereof in three weeks afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Oats, 2,500 imperial bushels (to be tendered for at a rate per 100 lbs.); half to be delivered in three weeks from date of contract, and the remainder thereof in three weeks afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Tobacco, 100,000 lbs. (to be tendered for at a rate per 100 lbs.); half to be delivered in three weeks from date of contract, and the remainder thereof in three weeks afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Tea, 100,000 lbs. (to be tendered for at a rate per lb.); half to be delivered in three weeks from date of contract, and the remainder thereof in three weeks afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Tenders may be made for the whole or any portion of the articles.

Separate tenders are to be made for each article.

Their Lordships reserve to themselves the power, when the tenders are opened, of contracting either for the whole, or for such part thereof only as they may deem fit, or for a greater quantity, or of not contracting for any, and also an unlimited power of selection in accepting the tenders.

The tobacco and tea to be exempted from the Custom's duties, and parties tendering are to state where they are lying.

Samples of the wheat and oats (not less than 2 quarts) must be produced by the parties tendering.

Each tender for tobacco must specify the several trade marks and numbers, and the countries or places of its growth or produce, and a fresh drawn dock sample of each cask or package must be produced by the parties tendering, and any cask or package that is found not to be of the same mark, number, or quality as the sample tendered and accepted, will be rejected by the Officers.

Each tender for tea must specify the import mark and number of each parcel, the ship in which imported, the dock or warehouse where lying, and must be accompanied by an average sample (not less than two pounds) of each parcel. Tenders failing in any of these conditions will not be entertained.

No wheat tendered is to be of less weight than 60 lbs. per bushel, and no oats of less than 42 lbs. per bushel.

No tenders will be received unless made in accordance with the above denomination of quantities and rates; and contractors in claiming payment for articles supplied are to make out their invoices in accordance therewith, both as to quantities and rates, excepting those for wheat and oats, which are to be in pounds, at per 100 lbs.

No tender will be received unless made on the printed form provided for the purpose, which may be obtained on application in the Lobby of the Department of the Comptroller of Victualling, Admiralty, Somerset House, where the conditions of the contracts may be seen.

No tender will be received after twelve o'clock at noon on the day of treaty, and it will not be required that the party tendering, or an agent on his behalf, should attend at the Office on the day of contract, as the result of the offer received from each person will be communicated to him and to his proposed sureties in writing, when, but not before, the rejected samples are to be removed.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words "Tender for" and must also be delivered at the Department of the Comptroller of Victualling, Admiralty, Somerset House.

Richmond, Surrey, Lansdowne House.

A very comfortable, convenient, and gentlemanly Residence, with all necessary offices, well known as Lansdowne House. The property formerly belonged to the Marquis of Anglesea and the Marquis of Lansdowne, successively and was lately occupied by his Royal Highness the Prince de Joinville. It is delightfully situate on Richmond Hill, and adjoins the High-walk or Terrace, with Lawn, Pleasure Grounds, and Terrace-walk, ornamented with fine Timber, Kitchen Garden, Greenhouse, Hothouse, Gardener's Cottage, &c., extending to the Lower-road, together with Lawn and Pleasure Grounds, lying between the Lower-road and the River Thames, which are connected by means of a subway the whole forming a very complete residence.

Also the Three Pigeons Public-house and other premises adjoining containing in all about five acres. The property is freehold and immediate possession of the whole of the property except the Public-house premises can be had on completion of the purchase. The estate has long been renowned for the beauty of its situation and commands very fine and extensive views towards the West over the Thames including Windsor Castle and the surrounding high grounds of Berkshire, and the rich scenery in front, the Lawn and Grounds sloping down to the River banks. The property is so situate as to command frontages to both Richmond Hill, and the Lower-road, and to permit either its entire adaptation for the erection of some first-class residences with frontage to the road leading to Richmond Hill of nearly 350 feet, or the retention of the present Mansion with adequate pleasure ground and the conversion of the remainder to building purposes.

There is a frontage to the Thames of about 500 feet. The property is within a few minutes walk of the Station and about twenty minutes from London, by the South Western Railway and is close to Richmond Park.

The Bankruptcy Act, 1861.

In the Matter of David Thomas, of Wrexham, in the county of Denbigh, Draper.

WHEREAS a Petition for adjudication of Bankruptcy was on the 1st day of April, 1868, filed in the Court of Bankruptcy for the Liverpool District, at Liverpool, against the above-named David Thomas, under which he was duly adjudged bankrupt. And whereas at the first meeting of the creditors of the said bankrupt duly appointed and advertised, and held at the Court of Bankruptcy for the Liverpool District, at Liverpool, on the 21st day of April, 1868, the majority in value of the creditors present or represented resolved that no further proceedings should be taken in bankruptcy; and such meeting was adjourned until the 5th day of May, 1868, in order that notice of such resolution might be given to every creditor, pursuant to the said Act. And whereas at such adjourned meeting a majority, in number representing three-fourths in value of the creditors then present or represented, resolved that the proceedings in bankruptcy should be suspended, and that the estate and effects of the said bankrupt should be wound up and administered in like manner as in bankruptcy. Notice is hereby given, that the creditors' assignee of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt proposes on the 1st day of July next to declare a Dividend of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt. And all creditors whose claims have not been already admitted, are required to send in particulars of their claims to Messrs. Hunt and Son, Accountants, Faulkner-street, Manchester, on or before that date, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Dividend; and all claims not then or previously presented will be disallowed.—Dated this 18th day of June, 1868.

GRUNDY and COULSON, Solicitors to the Creditors' Assignee, No. 5, Saint James's-square, Manchester.

The Bankruptcy Act, 1861.

In the Matter of a Deed of Assignment executed by John Thompson Kitching, of the borough of Kingston-upon-Hull, Baker.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a meeting of the creditors of the above-named John Thompson Kitching, will be held on Thursday, the 2nd day of July, 1868, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon precisely, at the office of Mr. Mends, Solicitor, No. 7, Land-of-Green-Ginger, Kingston-upon-Hull; when and where the assignees will submit their accounts to the creditors and at such meeting will declare a First and Final Dividend of the estate and fix the time and place for payment of the same. All debts and claims not already admitted by the assignees must be proved at or before the meeting as in cases of bankruptcy, or the same will not rank on the estate for the purposes of Dividend.—Dated the 17th day of June, 1868.
