By Her Majesty's Command.

The Noblemen and Gentlemen, who propose to attend Her Majesty's Levee, at St. James's Palace, are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with The Queen's Page in attendance in the Corridor, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to His Royal Highness.

PRESENTATIONS.

Any Nobleman or Gentleman who proposes to be presented, must leave at the Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace, before twelve o'clock, two clear days before the Levee, a card with his name written thereon, and with the name of the Nobleman or Gentleman by whom he is to be presented. The State apartments will be open for the reception of Company coming to Court at one o'clock.

WE, the Bishop, Dean and Canons, Archdeacon, and Clergy of the diocese of Manchester, desire to approach your Majesty with the heartfelt expression of our condolence and congratulations; our condolence on the alarm and anxiety which your Majesty must have suffered through the murderous attempt on the life of your beloved Son; our congratulations that it hath pleased Almighty God in a wonderful manner to frustrate the assassin's purpose, and to preserve one so justly dear to your Majesty and the whole Empire.

We, who, in common with all your Majesty's loyal subjects, rejoice in your Majesty's joy, and sorrow with your sorrow, shall not cease to thank the Giver of all good things, through our Lord Jesus Christ, for these His late mercies vouchsafed to your Majesty and the whole Realm; and to pray that the same Gracious Providence may
