

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

TUESDAY, JULY 28, 1868.

AT the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 24th day of July, 1868.

By the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

THE Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in them vested under The Contagious Diseases (Animals) Acts, and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, do order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

1. This Order shall take effect from and immediately after the twenty-sixth day of July, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight.

2. Article twenty-six of The Consolidated Cattle Plague Order of August, 1867, shall, with respect to the Metropolis, be read and have effect as if the words ten days were therein substituted for the words six days.

3. The schedule to The Metropolitan Cattle Plague Order of August, 1867, shall be read and have effect as if the words eleven days were therein substituted for the words seven days; and the forms of Metropolitan Cattle Market passes shall be altered accordingly.

4. The Metropolitan Board of Works shall cause this Order to be published in a newspaper circulating in the Metropolis; and the Court of Lord Mayor and Aldermen of the city of London shall cause a copy thereof to be affixed in a conspicuous place in the Metropolitan Cattle Market; and the Commissioners of Police of the Metropolis and the city of London respectively shall cause a copy thereof to be affixed in a conspicuous place at each Police Station.

Arthur Helps.

AT the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 24th day of July, 1868.

By the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

THE Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in them vested under The Contagious Diseases (Animals) Acts, and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, do order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

1. This Order shall take effect from and immediately after the twenty-sixth day of July, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight.

2. In this Order, the word "animal" means exclusively an animal comprised in the definition of cattle; and the word "calf" means exclusively a calf not more than fourteen days old; and subject thereto, words in this Order have the same meaning as in The Metropolitan Cattle Plague Order of August, 1867.

3. Notwithstanding anything in The Metropolitan Cattle Plague Order of August, 1867, cattle may be moved alive out of the Metropolis, in accordance with the provisions of this Order.

4. Where any person being the owner of any animal within the Metropolis which, except in the case of a calf, has been in his possession not less than eight weeks, or which, in the case of a calf, is born from a cow which has been in his possession not less than twenty-eight days, is desirous of moving such animal alive out of the Metropolis, he may give notice of such his desire to the Local Authority, by writing, stating the following things, that is to say:—

1. The fact of the requisite possession as aforesaid:
2. The name and residence of the owner of the animal:
3. The name of the person to whom, and the place to which, the animal is to be sent:
4. A description of the animal, stating its sex, breed, age, distinctive marks, and other particulars sufficient for identification.

5. On receipt of any such notice, the Local Authority shall, unless there appears to them good reason to the contrary, and on being satisfied of the fact of possession for the time requisite under this Order, proceed, as soon as may be, to cause an Inspector appointed by them under The Contagious Diseases (Animals) Acts, to visit the cow-shed or place from which the animal is desired to be moved, at the times following, that is to say:—

1. In all cases within three days after the receipt by the Local Authority of the owner's notice: and again
2. In the case of any animal other than a calf, at the expiration of twenty-eight days from the day of the first visit (both days inclusive): but