Ships of from 60 to 100 tons, 200 sacks, of 1 hectolitre.

Ships of from 101 to 300 tons, 400 sacks, of 1 hectolitre.

Ships of more than 300 tons, 600 sacks, of 1 hectolitre.

STIPULATED TIME FOR DISCHARGE OF CARGO.

Sec. 3. The time stipulated for the discharge of cargo, on arrival, will commence from the day after that on which the masters of vessels shall apprise the consignees, by means of their broker, that they are ready to discharge it.

If the bill of lading is to order, the consignee must be informed by means of a notice inserted in the papers appointed for the publication of legal announcements; the time stipulated for the discharge of cargo to commence, in this case, from the day after the publication.

Sec. 4. Days during which the discharge of cargo cannot be carried on in consequence of bad weather, duly verified, are not to be comprised in the stipulated time. This verification will be made, at the request of the parties interested, by the Director of the Port.

DEMURRAGE.

Sec. 5. The demurrage, or days of delay in the shipping or discharge of the cargo caused by the act of one of the parties, to be compensated for, in favour of the other party, by a payment of 0 fr. 50 cent. per day and per ton burthen of the ship employed. This payment will commence from the day after that on which the simple stipulated time, as determined by paragraph two of the present regulations, shall have expired.

Sec. 6. If the demurrage is prolonged beyond a period equal in duration to the original stipulated time, the rate of compensation will be increased from 50 cent. to 75 cent. for all the prolonged time.

Sec. 7. The indemnities provided above are payable daily and in advance.

Sec. 8. The delay cannot give rise to an action for damages on either side, unless demanded in due form of law.

SHIPPING CARGO.

Sec. 9. Embarcations are subject to all the regulations above enumerated. The merchandize to be shipped must be handed over to the master of the vessel upon the edge of the quay.

ARTICLE II. The conditions contained in these regulations will come into force, as "usages" adopted for the use of the Port of Algiers, on and after the 1st October next.

All local decrees and regulations concerning the police of the port and the quays, embarcation and disembarcation, are hereby annulled in all points in which they differ from the rules above-mentioned.

ARTICLE III. This Decree, inserted in the "Official Bulletin of Government Acts" and in the "Moniteur de l'Algérie," will be communicated by the Préfet of the Department to the Chamber and the Tribunal of Commerce of Algiers. It will in addition to this be addressed to all the Chambers of Commerce at the ports of the French Empire, and to the representatives of the European Maritime Powers at Algiers.
