

"Ross Improvement Act, 1865." (Amendment.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next Session, by the Commissioners acting under the "Ross Improvement Act, 1865," for a Bill to amend and enlarge the provisions of that Act, by incorporating therewith, the "Towns' Police Clauses Act, 1847," or some part or parts thereof, and also for power to make bye-laws for preventing obstructions and annoyances in the town; and the Bill will also empower and direct police constables, acting in and for the county of Hereford, to exercise within the limits of the "Ross Improvement Act, 1865," all the powers conferred on them by the Act 19 and 20 Vict., cap. 69, and any other Act relating to the establishment and appointment of county and district constables, and all such other powers as the Bill may define.

Printed copies of the Bill will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons on before the 23rd day of December next.

Dated this 9th day of November, 1868.

In Parliament—Session 1869.

Imperial (Fire) Insurance Company.
(Amendment of Deed of Settlement and of Acts; Subdivision of Shares; Appropriation of Sums added to Capital Stock Account to Credit of Shares; Election of Directors, Trustees, and Auditors, and other powers.)

THE Imperial Insurance Company intend to apply to Parliament in the next Session thereof, for leave to introduce a Bill for the following, or some of the following, among other purposes:—

1. To subdivide each original share of 500*l.* into five shares of 100*l.* each, and to credit each share of 100*l.* with a proportionate part of the payment already made, on account of the original share, and also with a proportionate part of the sums transferred to capital stock account from profit and loss or rest account.

2. To prescribe that transfers of money or securities already made, or which may hereafter be made from profit and loss or rest account to capital stock account, shall be deemed to be payments made by the subscribers, on account of their respective shares, and shall, to the extent of the sums so transferred or to be transferred, exonerate the subscribers from liability to payments in respect of their shares.

3. To increase or reduce the number of Directors of the Company, and to alter their qualification, their rotation, and their duration in office, and to provide that Directors going out of office by rotation, shall be immediately re-eligible, and that the Chairman and Deputy Chairman of the Company going out of those offices respectively, shall be immediately re-eligible to the same offices.

4. To reduce the number of Auditors of the Company, and to alter the qualification of trustees and auditors, their rotation and their duration in office, and to provide that trustees and auditors going out of office by rotation, shall be immediately re-eligible.

5. To provide for the periodical enrolment of the names of new proprietors of the Company, in lieu of the enrolment of transfers of shares; to enforce the transfer of shares standing in the names of deceased proprietors; to facilitate legal proceedings by the Company against Proprietors; to introduce the word "Fire," into the title of the Company; to provide for the execution of Policies of Insurance, either in the United Kingdom or abroad, by such means as the Directors shall from time to time prescribe, or as the Bill shall direct; and in other respects to amend the constitution of the Company, and to provide for the more easy transaction of its business.

6. For the foregoing and for other purposes, to amend, repeal, rescind, vary, or suspend the provisions of the Deed of Settlement of the Company, bearing date the 12th day of February, 1803; and also the provisions of the Acts (Local and Personal), 54 Geo. III., cap. 12, intituled "An Act to enable the Imperial Insurance Company to sue and be sued in the name of the Chairman for the time being, or of any other member of the Company;" and 5 Vict., sess. 2, cap. 66, intituled "An Act to enable the Imperial Insurance Company to alter some of the provisions of their Deed of Settlement, and better regulate their proceedings, and the investment of their funds."

7. Printed copies of the proposed Bill will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons, on or before the 23rd day of December next.

Dated this 6th day of November, 1868.
