In Parliament.—Session 1869.

Dukinfield and Denton Local Boards of Health.

(Purchase of Dukinfield Gasworks; Dissolution of Gas Company; Construction of new Gasworks; Supply of Gas by Local Boards; Levying of Rates; and Borrowing of Money.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session for leave to bring in a Bill to effect the following, or some of the following, among other objects:

To vest in the Local Board of Health for the district of Dukinfield, and the Local Board of Health for the district of Denton (herein called "the Local Boards,") or one of them, or to authorise or provide for the vesting in them, or one of them, by purchase (upon such terms and conditions, and as from such period and in such proportions as have been or may be agreed upon, or as may be fixed by or under the provisions of the Bill), of the undertaking of the Dukinfield Gas Company (herein called "the Company"), and all the lands and works, property, real or personal, and effects, powers, rights and privileges, duties and liabilities of the Company, and to enable "the local boards," jointly and severally, or one of them, to exercise and enjoy, within the limits of the bill, and within their respective limits, all needful powers, rights, and privileges for the supply of gas within those limits.

To enable "the local boards," jointly and severally, or one of them, to maintain, and from time to time to alter and enlarge all existing works of the Company now used for the manufacture or supply of gas.

To enable the Local Board of Health for the district of Denton to purchase, and if need be by compulsion, or to take on lease, certain lands in the township of Denton, in the parish of Manchester, in Lancashire, bounded on the north by land in the parish of Ashton-under-Lyne, in Lancashire, belonging to the Right Honourable the Earl of Stamford and Warrington, on the east by the turnpike road leading from Stockport to Ashton-under-Lyne, on the south in part by land in the parish of Manchester aforesaid, belonging to the Right Honourable the Earl of Wilton, and occupied by Charles Lees, and in other part by a plot of land recently sold or leased by the last-named earl to one Thomas Jenkinson, for building upon, and on the west by lands in the last-mentioned parish, belonging to the last-named earl, and occupied by the said Charles Lees, and to erect and maintain thereon gas works, with all necessary buildings, retorts, machinery, apparatus, and conveniences.

(The said intended site for the said new gas works comprises and immediately adjoins the land upon which the gas holder of the Company in the said township of Denton now stands.)

To authorise "the local boards" jointly and severally to manufacture and sell gas, and also to light the district now included within the limits of the Company's Act, and to sell and dispose of the coke and other residuum and products arising from the manufacture of gas, and to make, purchase, and hire gas meters, and gas apparatus, and to sell or let the same, and to lay down and maintain gas mains and pipes, in, through, across, and under, and for that purpose to break up and interfere with sewers, drains, streets, roads, ways, and other public passages and places.

Upon the construction of the new gasworks by the Local Board of Health for the district of Denton, to make the following division of the area of supply, namely, to give to the Local Board of Health for the district of Dukinfield the right to supply gas for public and private purposes, and to light with gas the following district, or any part thereof, that is to say: the district of the Dukinfield Local Board of Health, in the parish of Stockport, in the county of Chester; the township of Newton, in the parish of Mottram in Longdendale, in the same county; Hooley Hill and the division of Audenshaw, both in the parish of Ashton-under-Lyne, in the county of Lancaster (subject to such restrictions as are contained in the Company's Act with regard to the supply of gas by them to Hooley Hill and Audenshaw), and to give similar powers to the Local Board of Health for the district of Denton, within the following district, or any part thereof, namely, the several townships of Denton and Haughton, both in the parish of Manchester, in the county of Lancaster, but with power to the local boards to agree to an alteration of the said respective limits of supply.

To authorise the local boards jointly and severally, or one of them, to carry into effect all or any of the powers and objects of the Bill, and to appoint a joint committee for the exercise of the joint powers.

To authorise "the local boards" for the several purposes and objects of the bill to levy rates, general and special, within their respective districts; and to borrow money upon security of the
