THE FAIRS ACT, 1868.

TIVERTON FAIRS.

WHEREAS a representation has been duly made to me, as the Secretary of State for the Home Department, by the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the borough of Tiverton, in the county of Devon, as the owners of two yearly Fairs held in that borough, one on the second Tuesday next after Trinity Sunday, and the other on Michaelmas Day, in each year, that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that those Fairs should be held on other days than the days aforesaid, that is to say, on the first Thursday in June, and the first Thursday in October in each year:

And whereas notice of such representation, and of the time when I should take the same into consideration, has been duly published in pursuance of the Fairs Act, 1868:

And whereas, on such representation and consideration, it appears to me that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that such alteration of days, as aforesaid, should be made:

Now, therefore, I, as the Secretary of State for the Home Department, by virtue and in exercise of the powers vested in me by the Fairs Act, 1868, and of every other power enabling me in this behalf, do hereby order as follows:—

The two yearly Fairs which the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the borough of Tiverton, in the county of Devon, and their successors, are authorized and empowered to hold in that borough shall, from and after the year 1868, be held respectively on the first Thursday in June, and the first Thursday in October in each year.

Given under my hand the 18th day of November, 1868.

(Signed) Gathorne Hardy.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby grant to the Incumbent of the benefice of All Saints, Newington, in the county of Surrey, and in the diocese of London, and to his successors Incumbents of the same benefice, one yearly sum or stipend of one hundred pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the first day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight, and to be receivable half-yearly on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that the said yearly sum or stipend hereby made payable by us to the said benefice shall cease and determine immediately upon and from the avoidance of the rectory of Saint Mary, Newington, in the aforesaid county and diocese, happening next after the date from which the said yearly sum or stipend is herein expressed to be calculated.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this twelfth day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby, subject as hereinafter mentioned, grant to the Incumbent for the time being of the vicarage of Penrith, in the county of Cumberland, and in the diocese of Carlisle, one yearly sum or stipend of one hundred and twenty pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the twenty-fifth day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight, and to be receivable half-yearly on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that the annual sum or stipend so granted by us to the Incumbent of the said vicarage of Penrith, shall be paid only upon the production to us, on or after the first day of May and the first
