Spalding Waterworks.
(Extension of Works).

THE Spalding Waterworks Company (who are hereinafter referred to as the Company), intend to apply to Parliament in the next session thereof for leave to bring in a Bill for the following, or some of the following, among other purposes.

1. To construct and maintain the following new works, together with the necessary engines, sluices, works, and conveniences.

(A.) A well or shaft, in the parish of Bourn, in the parts of Kesteven, in Lincolnshire, in a field belonging to the trustees of Francis James Bellingham, Esquire, and in the occupation of Edward Briggs, bounded on the east by the Carr Dyke, and on the north by the road leading from the Spalding and Bourn road to the North Gate Bourn.

(B.) A main conduit or aqueduct from the said well, passing along the first-mentioned road, and then along the said Spalding and Bourn road to Fengate, and thence along the road from Fengate to Mill Greenway, and thence to the termination of the said main conduit, at the present suction pipe of the Company, in the culvert conveying the water of the Blue Gowt Pup under Vernatt's Drain, in the parish of Spalding, in Lincolnshire.

The said works will be situated in the parishes of Bourn, Pinchbeck, and Spalding, in the parts of Kesteven, and Holland, in Lincolnshire.

2. To authorize the Company, in the execution of the said works, to deviate vertically and horizontally from the lines shown on the plans and sections to be deposited as hereinafter mentioned, and to lay down and maintain pipes, culverts, and other works, in, under, over, or across, and to break up, divert, or stop up, either temporarily or permanently, roads, streets, bridges, railways, sewers, drains, and streams, in the parishes hereinbefore mentioned.

3. To enable the Company to raise additional capital by shares or by stock, and by borrowing, and to attach to such shares and stock any preference or priority of dividend, or any other advantage which the Bill may define; and to enable them to purchase, compulsorily or by agreement, lands, streams, waters, and other property and easements, in and over the same, for the purposes of the said Bill; and the Bill will vary or extinguish all existing rights and privileges, whether statutory or otherwise, which will interfere with any of its objects.

4. The Bill will incorporate with itself all or some of the provisions of "The Companies Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845;" "The Companies Clauses Act, 1863;" "The Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845;" and "The Lands Clauses Consolidation Acts Amendment Act, 1863;" and "The Waterworks Clauses Acts, 1847 and 1863;" and also such parts of "The Railways Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845," relating to roads, and the temporary occupation of lands; and the Bill will alter, amend, and enlarge the powers and provisions of "The Spalding Waterworks Act, 1861."

5. Duplicate plans and sections, describing the line, situation, and levels of the proposed works and the lands and other property in or through which the same will be made, together with a book of reference to such plans, containing the names of the owners and lessees or reputed owners and lessees, and of the occupiers of such lands and other property, and a copy of this notice, will, on or before the 30th day of November instant, be deposited for public inspection with the Clerk of the Peace for the parts of Kesteven, at his office at Stamford, and with the Clerk of the Peace for the parts of Holland, at his office at Boston, and on or before the same day, a copy of the said plans, sections, and a book of reference, and a copy of this notice, will be deposited with the parish clerks of Bourn, of Spalding, and of Pinchbeck, at their respective places of abode.

Printed copies of the proposed Bill will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons, on or before the 23rd day of December next.

Dated this 9th day of November, 1868.

St. Giles Cripplegate Vestry.

(Alteration of Vestry; Constitution of New Vestry; Provisions as to Qualification, &c., of Vestrymen and Parish Officers; Costs of Bill; Amendment of Acts.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament, in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill for all or some of the following purposes, that is to say:

To make the Vestry of the said parish of Saint Giles, Cripplegate, an open vestry, under the provisions of the Act of Parliament 58 George III, chapter 69, and the other Acts in force for the regulation of parish vestries, and to repeal, alter, or amend such of the provisions of those Acts as may be necessary for the purposes of the Bill, or otherwise to apply the provisions of those Acts, with such modifications and alterations as may be necessary, to the purposes of the Bill.

To alter the constitution of the vestry, and to provide for the continuance for such time as the Bill may define of the members, or some of the members of the present vestry, as members of the new vestry.

To fix and regulate the number of persons who shall constitute the vestry of the said parish.

To prescribe the qualification of vestrymen of the said parish.

To prescribe the times and mode of election of vestrymen, and the duration of their term of office.

To define the powers, rights, duties, privileges, and authorities of the vestry.

To confer all rights and privileges necessary for the purposes of the said Bill, and to vary or extinguish all rights and privileges inconsistent with the purposes thereof.

To amend, so far as may be necessary for the purposes of the bill, the provisions of the public Act 6 George II, chapter 21, and the local and personal Act 7 George IV, chapter 54, and any
