

Whitehall, November 21, 1868.

The Purbrook Industrial School for Boys at Purbrook, near Cosham, in the county of Hants, has been certified by the Secretary of State as fit to be an Industrial School under the provisions of "The Industrial Schools' Act, 1866."

LOCAL GOVERNMENT ACT, 1858.

NOTICE OF ADOPTION OF ACT BY THE TOWNSHIP OF KIRKBY LONSDALE, IN THE COUNTY OF WESTMORELAND.

WHEREAS notice in writing was duly given to me, as one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, that the Local Government Act, 1858, had been adopted by the township of Kirkby Lonsdale, in the county of Westmoreland; now, I, as one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, do, hereby, under the provisions of the said Act, issue the following notice and Order:—

That the Local Government Act, 1858, was duly adopted by the township of Kirkby Lonsdale, in the county of Westmoreland aforesaid; and I do also order, that though such township is a place with a population of less than 3,000, by the last census, it has appeared to me that by reason of the special circumstances of the case, it is expedient that the said township should be allowed to adopt the said Act. I do hereby approve of such adoption; and do further order, that such Act shall, from and after the 30th day of November, 1868, have full force of law within the said township of Kirkby Lonsdale.

Given under my hand this 20th day of November, 1868.

(Signed) Gathorne Hardy.

Home Office, Whitehall.

LOCAL GOVERNMENT ACT, 1858.

[Correction.] Instead of the township of Ilkley (London Gazette, 17th November, 1868, p. 5927), being described as in the county of Lancaster, it should have been described as being in the county of York; and the notice of adoption of the Local Government Act, 1858, by such township of Ilkley, should be read accordingly as being in the county of York.

INCOME TAX.

WHEREAS it has become necessary to renew the list of persons to supply vacancies amongst the Commissioners appointed to act in the division of Gore, in the county of Middlesex, as Commissioners for the general purposes of the Acts of Parliament for granting to Her Majesty duties on profits arising from property, professions, trades, and offices: Now we, two of the Commissioners of Inland Revenue, in pursuance of the powers vested in us in that behalf, do hereby convene a meeting of the Land Tax Commissioners for the county aforesaid, being respectively qualified to act as such Commissioners, to be holden at the Court-house, Edgware, on Tuesday, the 1st day of December, 1868, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, for the purpose of choosing fit and

NOTICE is hereby given, that a separate building, named the Baptist Chapel, situated at Wolsingham, in the parish of Wolsingham, in the county of Durham, in the district of Weardale, being a building certified according to law as a place of religious worship, was, on the 16th day of November, 1868, duly registered for solemnizing marriages therein, pursuant to the Act of 6th and 7th Wm. IV., cap. 85.

Witness my hand this 19th of November, 1868.

Thomas H. Bates, Superintendent Registrar.

WHEREAS, in pursuance of the Metropolitan Meat and Poultry Market Act, 1860, the Mayor and commonalty and citizens of the city of London have provided a new market at Smithfield, for the sale of meat, poultry, and other provisions, and such market is now completed and ready for opening: and whereas, by the Newgate Market Abolition Act, 1861, it is enacted that as soon as the said new market shall be ready to be opened for the use of the public, the Common Council of the said city shall fix a day for the opening of the same, and by notice under the hand of the Town Clerk of the said city, to be published in the London Gazette, notify that such market has been provided, and the day and hour when the same will be opened; and from the day so mentioned Newgate Market shall be discontinued and cease to be used as a market, and no market shall thereafter be holden on the site thereof: Now I, the undersigned, Town Clerk of the city of London, do, in pursuance of the provisions of the said Act of Parliament, hereby give notice, that Tuesday, the 1st day of December next, at the hour of four o'clock in the forenoon, has been fixed by the said Common Council for the opening of the said new market, and the said new market will be opened at the day and hour aforesaid for the use of the public; and that from and after the said 1st of December Newgate Market shall be discontinued, and cease to be used as a market.

Dated at the Guildhall of the city of London, this 20th day of November, 1868.
