

isting Gas Works at Aberdare, and the lands, mains, pipes, apparatus, and buildings connected therewith, and belonging or reputed to belong to the Aberdare Gas Company, which gas works and lands are situate as follows, that is to say, land occupied by gas works and other buildings and land used in connection therewith, situate in the parish of Aberdare, in the county of Glamorgan, bounded on the north by land belonging to Griffith Davies, on the east by the Taff Vale Railway, and on the west and south in part by land belonging to David Davies, Lewis Davies, and Frederick Davies, and Richard Williams in other part, by a house and land belonging to Richard David, and in the remaining part by land belonging to Richard Thomas Roberts, and, if necessary, to confer on the said Aberdare Gas Company, or other the owner or owners thereof, power to sell or lease such gas works, lands, mains, pipes, apparatus, and buildings respectively.

To authorise the Company to manufacture and sell gas and the residual products of such manufacture, and to manufacture and sell the several things producible from the residual products resulting from the manufacture of gas, or used in connection therewith, and to acquire and hold patent rights and licences, to use patent rights for the manufacture and distribution of gas or the utilization of the residual products obtainable therefrom, and generally to carry on the business usually carried on by gas companies, or which is or may become incident thereto, and to light and supply gas for public and private lighting, and for other purposes, within the following limits or any part thereof, that is to say: the parish of Aberdare, in the county of Glamorgan, except so much and such part thereof as is situate to the south and east of the Abercwmboy Coal Pit, and so much and such part thereof as is situate to the west and north of a certain public-house, on Hirwain Common, in the said parish, called the Black Horse, and to lay down, renew, maintain, repair, and use mains, pipes, and other works, in, through, across, and under, and for that purpose to break up and interfere with streets, roads, rivers, bridges, and other public ways, passages, and places within the said limits, and to interfere with sewers, drains, water pipes, and gas pipes within the said limits; to manufacture, purchase, sell, or let gas meters, fittings, and other gas apparatus; and to levy and recover rates, rents, and charges for the sale and supply of gas for public and private lighting, and for other purposes, and of gas meters, pipes, apparatus, and fittings, and to exercise all such powers, rights, and privileges, as are usually conferred on gas companies, or which may be necessary or expedient in carrying into execution any of the objects of the intended Act; to authorise the Company, and all corporations, commissioners, local boards or other parochial or legal authorities within the said limits, to make and carry into effect contracts and agreements for lighting, and for supplying all things, and performing all acts incidental to lighting any public streets, place, or building within such limits and under their jurisdiction, upon such terms and conditions as they shall respectively agree upon, and, if necessary, to enable such corporations, commissioners, local boards, or other parochial or legal authorities, to appropriate and apply funds, and to raise additional funds, by rates or otherwise, for such purposes.

The Bill will incorporate with itself the necessary provisions of "The Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845," "The Lands Clauses Consolidation Acts Amendment Act, 1860," "The Companies Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845," "The Companies Clauses Act, 1863," and "The Gas Works Clauses Act, 1847," or some of them.

To alter, amend, repeal, and extend the powers and provisions of the Act (local and personal) 15 Victoria, c. 28.

To confer, vary, and extinguish exemptions from payment of rates, rents, and charges, and to vary and extinguish all existing rights and privileges which may interfere with, and to confer all such powers, rights, and privileges as may be usual, or expedient for the attainment of any of the objects of the Bill, or in relation thereto.

Duplicate plans of the lands intended to be taken compulsorily, or in or over which easements are intended to be taken with a book of reference to such plans, containing the names of the owners or reputed owners, lessees or reputed lessees, and occupiers of such lands, and a copy of this notice, as published in the London Gazette will, on or before the 30th day of November instant, be deposited with the Clerk of the Peace, for the county of Glamorgan, at his office at Cardiff, in the said county, and on or before the same day, a copy of so much of the said plan and book of reference as relates to the parish in which the said lands are situate, with a copy of this Notice as published in the London Gazette, will be deposited with the Parish Clerk of such parish, at his residence.

Printed copies of the intended Bill will, on or before the 23rd day of December next, be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons.

Dated this 12th day of November, 1868.
