(C) A piece or parcel of land situate in the parish of Llangunnor, belonging to John Thomas, occupied by John Phillips, bounded on the north, by land belonging to John Thomas, on the south, by the Carmarthen and Cardigan Railway, on the east, by land belonging to John Davies, and on the west, by an occupation road leading from the turnpike road at Pensarn across the Carmarthen and Cardigan Railway, to a field belonging to John Thomas.

To enable the Company to purchase and to take and hold on lease or otherwise as well compulsorily as by agreement, lands and easements in and over lands situate in the said parish of Llangunnor, and in the parish of St. Peter, in the county of the borough of Carmarthen.

To authorise the Company to manufacture and sell gas, and the residual products of such manufacture, and to manufacture and sell the several things producible from the residual products, and things arising or resulting from the manufacture and production of gas, or used in connection therewith, and to acquire, hold, and use patent rights and licences, to use patent rights for the manufacture and distribution of gas, or the utilization of the residual products obtainable therefrom, and generally to carry on the business usually carried on by gas companies, or which is, or may become incident thereto, and to light and supply gas for public and private lighting, and for other purposes within the limits following (that is to say), the parish of St. Peter, in the county of the borough of Carmarthen, and the several parishes of Llangunnor, Newchurch, and Abergwilly, all in the county of Carmarthen, or any part of the district within such limits, and to lay down, alter, renew, maintain, repair, and use mains and pipes, and other works, in, through, across, and along streets, roads, rivers, bridges, lanes, and other public ways, passages, and places, within the said limits, and to break up and interfere with, so far as may be necessary for the purposes of the said Bill, such streets, roads, rivers, navigations, bridges, lanes, and other public ways, passages, and places, and sewers, drains, water-pipes, and gas-pipes, within the said limits, and to manufacture, purchase, hire, and to sell, or let gas-meters, fittings, and other gas apparatus, and to levy, take, and recover rates, rents, and charges for the sale and supply of gas for public and private lighting, and for other purposes, and of gas meters, pipes, apparatus, and fittings, and to exercise all such powers, rights, and privileges as are usually conferred on gas companies, or which may be necessary or expedient in carrying into execution any of the objects of the intended Act.

To vest the undertaking, lands, and property of the Limited Company, or held by any person on their behalf, in the Company, and to enable the Company to raise further monies for all or any of the objects of the intended Act, by means of shares and by loan, and to divide the shares in the capital of the Company into one or more classes or denominations of shares, and to attach thereto the privileges, rights, and preferences to be specified in the said Bill.

To authorise the Company and all corporations, commissioners, local boards, or other parochial or legal authorities within the said limits to make and carry into effect contracts and agreements for lighting and for supplying all things and performing all acts and services incidental to lighting any public street, highway, place, or building within such limits, and under their jurisdiction, upon such terms and conditions as they shall respectively agree upon, and if necessary, to enable such corporations, commissioners, local boards, or other parochial or legal authorities, to appropriate and apply funds, and to raise additional funds by rates or otherwise, for such purposes.

The Bill will incorporate with itself the necessary provisions of "The Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845," "The Lands Clauses Consolidation Acts Amendment Act, 1860," "The Companies Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845," "The Companies Clauses Act, 1863," and "The Gasworks Clauses Act, 1847," or some of them.

To confer, vary, and extinguish exemptions from payment of rates, rents, duties, and charges, and to vary and extinguish all existing rights and privileges which may interfere with the attainment of any of the objects of the Bill, and to confer all powers, rights, and privileges necessary or expedient for effecting the said objects, or in relation thereto.

Duplicate plans of the lands intended to be taken compulsorily, or in or over which easements are intended to be taken, with a book of reference to such plans, containing the names of the owners or reputed owners, lessees or reputed lessees, and occupiers of such lands, and a copy of this Notice, as published in the London Gazette, will, on or before the 30th day of November instant, be deposited with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Carmarthen, at his office at Llandovery, in the said county, and with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of the borough of Carmarthen, at his office at Carmarthen, and on or before the same day a copy of so much of the said plan and book of reference as relates to the parish in which the lands and easements intended to be so taken are situate, with a copy of this Notice, as published in the London Gazette, will be deposited with the parish clerk of such parish at his residence.

Printed copies of the intended Bill will, on or before the 23rd day of December next, be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons.

Dated this 12th day of November, 1868.

George Thomas, Carmarthen, Solicitor for the Bill.
