THE Right Honourable the Lords of the Com-

from the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, a copy of a Despatch from Her Majesty's Minister at Madrid, enclosing copy and translation of a Decree issued by the Provisional Government of Spain, on the 22nd ultimo, re-establishing in the ports of that country the Customs' duties which were levied prior to the Revolution.

The following are the Articles of this Decree:—

ART. 1. The term granted to commerce by some of the revolutionary Juntas for the introduction of goods through the Custom-houses, with the reduction of some part of the tariff dues, or the entire abrogation thereof, shall be considered as ended on the 16th of October last, which was the day fixed by the Juntas themselves.

ART. 2. Where such reductions may have continued in any shape subsequently to the said date, merchants who have been in the enjoyment thereof shall repay to the public treasury the sum of such reductions.

ART. 3. In places where a reduction shall have been made, with reference to all or some articles, greater than one third part of the dues, merchants, who may have imported the said articles even although they may have done so within the specified term, shall repay to the revenue the difference between the exceptional reductions and the reduction of one third, which shall be considered as general.

ART. 4. If in any part of Spain no reduction has been granted even previously to the 16th of October, merchants who may have imported goods before that date, paying the entire dues, shall be allowed discount on future payments of the third part which they paid extra. For the enjoyment of this discount merchants shall be allowed three months, counted from the date of this decree.

This duty shall be at the rate of ten reals the ton of 1000 kilograms of goods unloaded in regard to ships which navigate the high seas, and at the rate of three reals on those which do the coasting trade. ART. 10. Anchorage, light, and health dues, and dues for loading and unloading, are abolished, as also those levied in certain places under the names of "Derechos de Castillo de San Anton," "Cofradio de San Telmo," and any others which at present are exacted from ships entering, stopping in, or leaving port, with the exception of the lazaret and quarantine dues mentioned in Art. 6, and those which have to be paid for private services freely asked for and freely given. The pilot service is regulated by the rules which the Minister of Marine prescribes or may prescribe.

ART. 11. The single tax on discharging cargo shall be collected by the Custom-house, and the products paid into the public treasury like those of the other general duties.

ART. 12. The whole of the charges and special taxes which, in accordance with the existing laws, are at present levied in some ports for the carrying out of works, shall be transformed into a proportional part of the new tax, and, added to the same, the Ministries of Finance and Public Works coming to the necessary agreement on the subject.

ART. 14. For the return of the dues, the weight or bulk of the materials or articles shall be valued, according to how they are marked in the Custom-house Regulations, by the weight or bulk used in the work done; so that the dues which belong to the waste or residue resulting from the construction or transformation when the aid materials are applied to the above mentioned works, remain to the credit of the Finance Department.

ART. 15. An order issued for the purpose shall establish the rules which are to be followed for the return of the dues mentioned in the preceding Article.

Treasury Chambers, Whitehall, 4th December, 1868.

SOLDIERS' BALANCES UNCLAIMED.

IN pursuance of the "Regimental Debts Act, 1863," notice is hereby given, that Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the War Department has available, for distribution amongst the next of kin, the sum of money set opposite to the name of each of the deceased soldiers named in the list which is published with this notice in the "London Gazette," and the "Army List," and is also to be seen at the Quarters of the several Staff Officers for the Recruiting and Pension Service throughout the United Kingdom.

Applications from persons supposing themselves entitled as next of kin should be addressed by letter to "The Under-Secretary of State, War Office, London, S.W.," and marked outside "Soldier's Effects."

No application can be attended to which does not state the dates and places of the soldier's birth, enlistment, and death, and the name of his regiment; his regimental number should also be stated if known.

Should these particulars furnished by the applicant not agree with the facts recorded on the War Office documents relating to the deceased soldier, the applicant will be so informed; but should they agree therewith, then within three calendar months the Secretary of State will furnish the applicant with the usual requirements needed for the proof of the alleged relationship.

The application must be authenticated by the signature of the applicant, and his name should be affixed in the presence of the clergyman, or one of the churchwardens of the parish, or a Justice of the Peace; the applicant's address, with the name of the post town, must also be clearly stated. No personal application can receive attention.

Further lists will from time to time be published, and therefore, it will facilitate the applicants' inquiries to give the number and date of the notice in which the deceased soldier's name appeared.—Dated this 30th day of November, 1868.

By order of the said Principal Secretary,
EDWARD LUGARD.

NOTE.—A copy of this Notice is to be seen at the Quarters of the several Staff Officers for the Recruiting and Pension Service throughout the United Kingdom.
