AT the Court at Windsor, the 9th day of December, 1868.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the fourth section of "The Medical Act," one of the persons to constitute "the General Council of Medical Education and Registration of the United Kingdom" to be established under or by virtue of the provisions of that Act, was to be a person chosen from time to time by the University of Edinburgh and the two Universities of Aberdeen collectively, and by the fifth section of the said Act, it was provided that if the said Universities of Edinburgh and Aberdeen should not be able to agree upon some one person to represent them in the Council, it should be lawful for each one of the said Universities to select one person, and thereupon it should be lawful for Her Majesty, with the advice of Her Privy Council, to appoint one of the persons so selected to be a member of the said Council for the said Universities.

And whereas in the year 1858 the said University of Edinburgh and the said two Universities of Aberdeen collectively chose James Syme, Esquire, Professor of Clinical Surgery in the University of Edinburgh, to be their representative in the said General Council for the term of five years; and again, in the year 1863, collectively chose the said James Syme to be their representative in the said General Council for the further term of five years:

And whereas the said two Universities of Aberdeen, in the said Medical Act mentioned, have since the passing thereof been consolidated and united into one University; that is to say, the University of Aberdeen:

And whereas under or by virtue of the provisions of the said Act, the said James Syme, on the 19th October, 1868, ceased by lapse of time to be a member of the said General Council:

And whereas the said Universities of Edinburgh and Aberdeen have not been able to agree upon some one person to represent them in the said General Council, and in pursuance of the said fifth section of the said Act, the said University of Edinburgh hath selected the said James Syme, and the said University of Aberdeen hath selected John Macrobin, M.D., Professor of the Practice of Medicine in the University of Aberdeen and Dean of the Medical Faculty, and have submitted the names of the said two persons to Her Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, doth, under and by virtue of the provisions in that behalf contained in the said Medical Act, appoint the said John Macrobin, M.D., to be a member of the said General Council for the said Universities of Edinburgh and Aberdeen for the term of five years from the date hereof.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Assizes and Sessions under the Commissions of Gaol Delivery and other Commissions for the dispatch of Criminal and Civil Business, holden in and for the County of Suffolk, have hitherto, for many years past, been holden in the spring at Bury St. Edmunds, and in the summer at Ipswich, both in the said county:

And whereas it is desirable and convenient that the said assizes and sessions holden in and for the said county, shall from henceforth be held at Ipswich in the spring, and at Bury St Edmunds in the summer:

And whereas by an Act of Parliament made and passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the third and fourth years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for the appointment of convenient places for the holding of Assizes in England, and Wales," it was declared and enacted, that His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Most Honourable Privy Council, should have power, from time to time, to order and direct at what place or places in any county in England or Wales the assizes and sessions for the dispatch of civil and criminal business should be holden, and to order and direct such assizes and sessions for the dispatch of criminal and civil business to be holden at more than one place in the same county on the same circuit:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, in exercise of the power vested in her under or by virtue of the said Act, and of every other power in that behalf, doth hereby order and direct that from henceforth the assizes and sessions under the commissions of gaol delivery and other commissions for the dispatch of civil and criminal business which shall be held in and for the county of Suffolk, in the spring of each year, shall be held at Ipswich aforesaid; and that the said assizes and sessions which shall be held in and for the said county in the summer of each year, shall be held at Bury St. Edmunds aforesaid:

And the Right Honourable Gathorne Hardy, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 9th day of December, 1868.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen; of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven; of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and four; and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the sixth day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes out of the new parish of Saint Paul, High Elswick, within the original limits of the parish of Saint Nicholas, Newcastle-upon-Tyne, in the county of the town of Newcastle-upon-Tyne, and in the diocese of Durham."

"Whereas it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that the particular part of the said new parish of Saint Paul, High Elswick, hereinafter mentioned and described (such part not at present containing within its limits any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of Divine worship), should be constituted a separate district in manner hereinafter set forth.

"And whereas certain tithe rent-charges arising within the said parish of Saint Nicholas, Newcastle-upon-Tyne, have become vested in us, under the provisions of and for the purposes of the herein mentioned Acts, or of some of them, and we have in respect of such tithe rent-charges agreed to make and pay out of the common fund created by the firstly herein mentioned Act, to the incumbent of the district herein-after recommended to be constituted, so soon as one shall have been appointed and licensed in accordance with the provisions of the secondly herein mentioned Act, and to his successors, a grant of two hundred pounds per annum, and also a further grant of one hundred pounds per annum as soon as a church shall have been erected within and for such district, and shall have been approved by us, and shall have been consecrated as the church of such district.

"And whereas such grants as aforesaid will be made by an instrument or instruments, to be executed by us under our common seal, in accordance with the provisions of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Charles, Bishop of the said diocese of Durham (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme), we humbly recommend and propose, that all that part of the said new parish of Saint Paul, High Elswick, which is described in the schedule hereunder written, and which is delineated and set forth upon the map or plan hereunto annexed, shall, upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, become and be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes, and that the same shall be named 'The District of Saint Philip, High Elswick.'

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference.

"The District of Saint Philip, High Elswick, being:—

"All that part of the new parish of Saint Paul, High Elswick, within the original limits of the parish of Saint Nicholas, Newcastle-upon-Tyne, in the county of the town of Newcastle-upon-Tyne, and in the diocese of Durham, which is situate to the north of an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said new parish from the parish of Saint John, Newcastle-upon-Tyne, in the county and diocese aforesaid, at a point in the middle of the street or road called or known as Arthur's-hill, opposite to the south-western end of Tindal-street; and extending thence, north-westward, along the middle of the said Arthur's-hill, and along the middle of the Carlisle-road, to a point opposite to the northern end of Mill-lane, upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint Paul, High Elswick, from the district chapelry of Saint James, Benwell, situate partly in the said county of the town of Newcastle-upon-Tyne, and partly in the county of Northumberland, and wholly in the diocese of Durham aforesaid."

And whereas a draft of the said scheme has, in accordance with the provisions of the herein-before secondly mentioned Act, been transmitted to the patrons and to the incumbent of the new parish out of which it is intended that the district therein recommended to be constituted shall be taken, and such patrons and incumbents have respectively signified their assent to the said scheme.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Durham.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 9th day of December, 1868.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the County Courts Admiralty Jurisdiction Act, 1868, it is, among other things, enacted, that if at any time after the passing of that Act it appears to Her Majesty in Council, on the representation of the Lord Chancellor, expedient that any County Court should have Admiralty Jurisdiction, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by Order in Council, to appoint that Court to have admiralty Jurisdiction accordingly, and to assign to that Court as its District for Admiralty purposes any part or parts of any one or more District or Districts of County Courts.

And whereas a representation has been made by the Lord Chancellor, stating that the County Courts mentioned in the first column of the schedule hereto annexed, marked A, should have Admiralty Jurisdiction; and that such Courts should have assigned to them as their respective Districts for Admiralty purposes the Districts of the County Courts, the names of which are printed in the second column of the said schedule, opposite to the names of the said Courts respectively.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty having taken the said representation into consideration, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order and appoint, and it is hereby ordered and appointed, that from and after the thirty-first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-nine, the County Courts mentioned in the first column of the Schedule hereto annexed, marked A, shall have Admiralty Jurisdiction. And Her Majesty is further pleased, by and with the advice aforesaid, to assign to the Courts hereby appointed to have Admiralty Jurisdiction, as their respective Districts for Admiralty purposes, the Districts of the County Courts, the names of which are printed in the second column of the said Schedule, opposite to the names of the said Courts respectively,

AT the Court at Windsor, the 9th day of December, 1868.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a representation bearing date the twelfth day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of your Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint George, situate at Worthing, within the limits of the parish of Broadwater, in the county of Sussex, and in the diocese of Chichester.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint George, situate at Worthing as aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Ashhurst Turner, Bishop of the said diocese of Chichester (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Broadwater, which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Saint George, situate at Worthing as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint George, Worthing.'

"And with the like consent of the said Ashhurst Turner, Bishop of the said diocese of Chichester (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials, should be solemnised or performed at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns, and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always, that so long as the Reverend Edward King Elliott, the present rector or incumbent of the rectory of the said parish of Broadwater, shall continue to be such rector or incumbent, all the fees which may be received in respect of such publication, solemnization, or performance at the said church of Saint George, situate at Worthing as aforesaid, shall be paid by the minister thereof to the said Edward King Elliott: and provided also, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us the said Commissioners to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism or for the registration thereof.

"We, therefore, humbly pray, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to your Majesty, in your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Saint George, Worthing, being:

"All that part of the parish of Broadwater, in the county of Sussex, and in the diocese of Chichester, which is bounded on the south, by the sea; on the east, by the parish of Lancing, in the said county and diocese; on the north-east, by the parish of Sompting, in the same county and diocese; and on the remaining sides, that is to say, on the north and on the west, by an imaginary line, commencing upon the boundary which divides the last-named parish from the parish of Broadwater aforesaid, at a point in the middle of the line of the London, Brighton, and South Coast Railway; and extending thence westward for a distance of one mile and a quarter, or thereabouts, along the middle of the said line of railway, to a point near the Worthing Railway Station, in the centre of the bridge which carries Broadwater road over the same line of railway; and extending thence southward along the middle of the said road to its junction with Newland road; and extending thence eastward for a distance of fourteen chains, or thereabouts, along the middle of the last-named road to its junction at the southern end of Dagmar-street, with the footpath leading from Broadwater to the High-street, Worthing; and extending thence, first south-westward, and then southward along the middle of the said footpath to its junction with High-street, Worthing aforesaid; and continuing thence still southward along the middle of the last-named street, and along the middle of the road which passes along the eastern front of the houses called or known as 'The Stayne,' to the southern end of such road; and continuing thence, still southward, and in a direct line to the sea, which forms the southern boundary of the parish of Broadwater as aforesaid."

And whereas the said Representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Chichester.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such order with respect thereto as to your Majesty, in your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Saint Godwald, Finstall, being:—

"All that part of the parish of Stoke Prior, in the county of Worcester, and in the diocese of Worcester, which is situate to the north-east of an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said parish from the parish of Bromsgrove, in the county and diocese aforesaid, at a point in the centre of the bridge which carries Tan House-lane over Salwarpe Brook; and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of the said lane to its junction with Sugar's Brook-lane; and extending thence first south-eastward and then southward along the middle of the last named lane (thereby passing under the line of the Midland Railway), to a point in the centre of the bridge which carries the same lane over the stream called or known as Sugar's Brook; and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of the last named stream (thereby passing under the Worcester and Birmingham Canal), to a point near Beasley's Farm, on the south-eastern side of the bridge which carries Patchett's-lane, over the same stream upon the boundary dividing the said parish of Stoke Prior from the parish of Tardebigg, situate partly in the said county of Worcester and partly in the county of Warwick, and wholly in the diocese of Worcester aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Worcester.

At the Court at Windsor, the 9th day of December, 1868.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the twelfth day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of your Majesty, chapter forty-nine; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of your Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Peter, situate at Hunslet Moor, in the new parish of Saint Mary, Hunslet, within the original limits of the parish of Leeds, in the county of York, and in the diocese of Ripon.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint Peter, situate at Hunslet Moor aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Robert, Bishop of the said diocese of Ripon (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said new parish of Saint Mary, Hunslet, which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Saint Peter, situate at Hunslet Moor as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Peter, Hunslet Moor.'

"And with the like consent of the said Robert, Bishop of the said diocese of Ripon (testified as aforesaid) we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns, and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices, should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always, that so long as the Reverend Edward Wilson, the present vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the said new parish of Saint Mary, Hunslet, shall continue to be such vicar or incumbent, all the fees which may be received in respect of such publication, solemnization, or performance at the said church of Saint Peter, situate at Hunslet Moor as aforesaid, shall be paid by the minister thereof to the said Edward Wilson; and provided also, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us, the said Commissioners, to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism, or for the registration thereof.

"We, therefore, humbly pray, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such order with respect thereto as to your Majesty, in your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Saint Peter, Hunslet Moor; being:—

"All that part of the new parish of Saint Mary, Hunslet, within the original limits of the parish of Leeds, in the county of York and in the diocese of Ripon, which is bounded on the west by the chapelry of Holbeck, also within the original limits of the said parish of Leeds, upon the north partly by the new parish of Brewery Field, and partly by the new parish of Pottery Field, both within the original limits of the parish of Leeds aforesaid, and upon the remaining sides, that is to say, upon the east, south, and south-west, by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint Mary, Hunslet, from the said new parish of Pottery Field, at the point where Jack-lane is intersected by the Middleton Colliery Company's tramway; and extending thence, southward, for a distance of half-a-mile or thereabouts, along the middle of the said tramway, to a point opposite to the north-eastern end of the fence which forms the south-eastern boundary of the detached portion of the township of Holbeck which is included within the said new parish of Saint Mary, Hunslet; and extending thence, south-westward, for a distance of fourteen chains or thereabouts, along the last-described fence and township boundary, to a point near Child's Farm where the said boundary joins the south-western boundary of the same detached portion of the township of Holbeck aforesaid, on the northern side of the footpath leading from Hunslet Carr towards Green-terrace; and extending thence, north-westward, for a distance of one chain and a-half, or thereabouts, along the last-mentioned township boundary, following thereby the north-eastern side of the said footpath to its junction with the footpath leading to the New Inn; and extending thence, south-westward, along the middle of the last described footpath, to the point on the southern side of the New Inn aforesaid, where the said footpath joins the turnpike road leading from Leeds to Dewsbury, at or near to the milestone indicating one mile from Leeds, at which same point the footpath leading direct from Lady Pit-lane also falls in; and extending thence, north-westward, across the said turnpike road, to and along the middle of the last described footpath (leaving Green Farm on the left), to the junction of the same footpath with Lady Pit-lane aforesaid; and continuing thence, still north-westward, along the middle of the said lane, to the point on Holbeck Moor, where the same lane is intersected by the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint Mary, Hunslet, from the chapelry of Holbeck aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Ripon.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the twelfth day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of your Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following representation, as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church, known as Saint Stephen-in-the-Banks, situate in the parish of North Meols, in the county of Lancaster, and in the diocese of Chester.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint Stephen-in-the-Banks.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend William, Bishop of the said diocese of Chester (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish of North Meols which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Saint Stephen-in-the-Banks, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Stephen-in-the-Banks.'

"And with the like consent of the said William, Bishop of the said diocese of Chester (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns, and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us, the said Commissioners, to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism, or for the registration thereof.

"We, therefore, humbly pray, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to your Majesty in your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Saint Stephen-in-the-Banks, being:—

"All that part of the parish of North Meols, in the county of Lancaster, and in the diocese of Chester, wherein the present incumbent of such parish now possesses the exclusive cure of souls which consists for the most part of the territory known as 'The Banks,' all which said part is bounded on the north by the estuary of the River Ribble, upon the east partly by the parish of Hesketh with Beconsall, in the said county of Lancaster, and in the diocese of Manchester, and partly by the parish of Tarleton, in the said last-mentioned county and diocese and upon the remaining side, that is to say, upon the south west partly by the new parish of Saint John, Crossens, in the county of Lancaster, and diocese of Chester aforesaid, and partly by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides such new parish from the said parish of North Meols at the point where the watercourse called 'The Long Ditch,' joins the stream called 'The Sluice;' and extending thence, south-eastward; along the middle of the said stream called 'The Sluice,' for a distance of six furlongs, or thereabouts to the boundary which divides the said parish of North Meols, from the parish of Tarleton aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Chester.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 9th day of December, 1868.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-sixth day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme for authorizing the sale and disposal of certain property formerly belonging to the deanery of the cathedral church of Exeter, and now vested in us.

"Whereas under an Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and another Act of the fourth and fifth years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and by virtue of an Order of your Majesty in Council, made under the provisions of the same Acts, and bearing date the fifteenth day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-eight, and duly published in the London Gazette on the twelfth day of May following, certain lands, tithes, and other hereditaments then belonging to the said deanery, became absolutely vested in us for the purposes, and subject to the provisions applicable to other hereditaments vested in us.

"And whereas on the vacancy of the said deanery, which occurred on or about the seventeenth day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, by the death of the Very Reverend Thomas Hill Lowe, the then dean, all the lands, tithes, and other hereditaments then belonging to the said deanery, except the residence house, situate in the city of Exeter, became by virtue of the Act first hereinbefore mentioned, absolutely vested in us for the purposes, and subject to the provisions aforesaid.

"And whereas the greater part of the lands, tithes, and hereditaments severally hereinbefore referred to are subject to beneficial leases or grants for lives and years and produce during the subsistence of such leases or grants only a small annual revenue, and on that account and partly on account of the character or situation of the property are unsuitable or inconvenient to be held or applied for the purposes for which estates vested in us are applicable under the acts by which our proceedings are governed.

"And whereas by an Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, power is given to lessees holden under us in the event of our declining to enter into a treaty for the sale of our reversions or the purchase of the leasehold interests, to require us to purchase such leasehold interests at a valuation.

"And whereas with a view to the advantageous appropriation of the said lands, tithes, and hereditaments, or of the proceeds thereof, for the ultimate improvement of our common fund, it is expedient that the said lands, tithes, and hereditaments, or such part or parts thereof, as we shall at any time and from time to time think fit, should be sold or disposed of, and accordingly that we should be empowered to dispose of our interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, in such manner as shall appear to us advisable.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose that we may be authorized and empowered, by instrument or instruments in writing, duly executed according to law, from time to time to sell or dispose of, and duly to convey, according to the provisions of the said Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty's reign, with the consent of the respective holders (if any), to be testified by their being made parties to such instruments, all or any of the said lands, tithes, and hereditaments formerly belonging to the said deanery, and so vested in us as aforesaid, with their appurtenances, and all our estate, right title, and interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his, her, or their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, or otherwise as he, she, or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall upon due calculation and inquiry appear to us to be just and reasonable.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Exeter.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 9th day of December, 1868.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Local Board of Health for the district of Tunbridge Wells, in the counties of Kent and Sussex, have, under the provisions of an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the twentieth and twenty-first years of Her Majesty's reign, intitled "An Act to amend the Burial Acts," presented a petition to Her Majesty in Council stating to the effect that the district of the said Local Board is co-extensive with the district for which it is proposed to provide a burial ground or public cemetery; that no burial board has been appointed for the said district, though a small portion of such district (inconsiderable, however, both in extent and in population), being part of the northern extremity thereof, is at present included in the district of the Burial Board of Tunbridge, and that an Order in Council has been made for closing a burial ground within the said district, and praying that Her Majesty would be pleased to appoint the said Local Board of Health to be the Burial Board of the district over which they have jurisdiction as aforesaid:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty in Council is pleased hereby to give notice of such petition, and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, on the twenty-fifth day of January, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-nine:

And Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be published in the London Gazette, and in one of the newspapers usually circulating in the district of the Local Board aforesaid, one month at least before the said twenty-fifth day of January one thousand eight hundred and sixty-nine.

Arthur Helps.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 9th day of December, 1868.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the eighteenth and nineteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act further to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England," it is, amongst other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time, to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, shall or shall not have arrived), as to Her Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, may seem fit;

And whereas by an Order in Council of the twenty-seventh day of June, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, it was directed that burials be discontinued, with certain exceptions, in the churchyard hereinafter mentioned, from the time specified in such Order, which time has since been postponed:

And whereas it seems fit that the said Order be varied:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the said Order be read and construed as if the following words had been originally inserted after the word "children" in the fifth line, and in the fifteenth line of that part of the said Order relating to the churchyard of the parish of Witton-cum-Twambrooks:—"Husbands and wives of children, grandchildren, and brothers and sisters."

TREASURY WARRANT.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament made and passed in the session of Parliament, holden in the third and fourth years of the reign of Her Majesty, chapter 96, for the regulation of the duties of postage, power is given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury from time to time, by Warrant under their hands, to alter and fix any of the rates of British postage or inland postage, payable by law on the transmission by the post of foreign or colonial letters or newspapers, or of any other printed papers, and to subject the same to rates of postage according to the weight thereof, and a scale of weight to be contained in such Warrant, and from time to time, by Warrant as aforesaid, to alter or repeal any such altered rates, and make and establish any new or other rates in lieu thereof, and from time to time, by Warrant as aforesaid, to appoint at what time the rates which may be payable are to be paid.

And whereas further powers are given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury by another Act made and passed in the session of Parliament holden in the tenth and eleventh years of the reign of Her Majesty, chapter 85, for giving further facilities for the transmission of letters by post, and for the regulating the duties of postage thereon, and for other purposes relating to the Post Office.

And whereas certain powers are also given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury by another Act of Parliament made and passed in the eighteenth year of the reign of Her Majesty, chapter 27, for amending the laws relating to the stamp duties on newspapers, and for providing for the transmission by post of printed periodical publications.

And whereas a convention hath been lately made and concluded between the General Post Office of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland and the General Post Office of the United States of America, for the purpose of regulating the communications by post between the two countries, and it is expedient, for the better carrying out of the same, that certain regulations should be made in the manner hereinafter mentioned and contained.

Now, we, the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, in exercise of the powers reserved to us in and by the said hereinbefore recited Acts of Parliament respectively, and all and every or some or one of them, and of all other powers enabling us in this behalf, do, by this Warrant, under the hands of two of us the said Commissioners (by the authority of the statute in that case made and provided), order, declare, and direct as follows; that is to say:—

1. On every letter not exceeding one half of an ounce in weight, posted in the United Kingdom, addressed to the United States of America, or posted in the United States of America, addressed to the United Kingdom, and transmitted by the post between any part of the United Kingdom and any part of the said United States, by packet boat or private ship direct, there shall be charged, taken, and paid an uniform rate of postage of sixpence.

2. On every letter not exceeding one half of an ounce in weight, posted in the United Kingdom, addressed to Hong Kong, or any place in China or Japan, or posted in Hong Kong, or any place in China or Japan, addressed to the United Kingdom, and transmitted by the post between the United Kingdom and Hong Kong, or any place in China or Japan, via the United States of America (the sea conveyance being by British or United States packet boat, or partly by British and partly by United States packet boats), there shall be charged, taken, and paid an uniform rate of postage (British and foreign combined) of one shilling.

3. On every letter not exceeding one half of an ounce in weight, posted in the United Kingdom, addressed to any foreign country, except China and Japan, or posted in any foreign country, except China and Japan, addressed to the United Kingdom, and transmitted by the post between any part of the United Kingdom and any such foreign country through the United States of America, the said respective letters being conveyed between the United Kingdom and the said United States by packet boat or private ship direct, there shall be charged, taken, and paid in the case of such letters as are posted in the United Kingdom an uniform rate of British postage of five pence, and in the case of such letters as are posted in such foreign country an uniform rate of British postage of one penny.

4. On every letter not exceeding one half of an ounce in weight, posted in any of Her Majesty's Colonies, or in any foreign country, addressed to the United States of America, or to any foreign country beyond the said United States, and transmitted by the post from any of Her Majesty's Colonies or any foreign country to the said United States, or to any foreign country beyond the said United States through the United Kingdom, the said respective letters being conveyed from the United Kingdom to the said United States by packet boat or private ship direct, there shall be charged, taken, and paid for such transmission thereof respectively from the United Kingdom to the said United States, an uniform rate of postage of four pence.

5. On every such letter so transmitted as hereinbefore in this Warrant mentioned, exceeding one-half of an ounce in weight, there shall be charged, taken, and paid the several, further, and additional and progressive rates of postage hereinafter mentioned, that is to say:—

On every such letter exceeding one-half of an ounce, and not exceeding one ounce in weight, there shall be charged, taken, and paid two rates of postage;

And on every such letter exceeding one ounce, and not exceeding one ounce and the half of another ounce in weight, three rates of postage;

And on every such letter exceeding one ounce and the half of another ounce, and not exceeding two ounces in weight, four rates of postage;

And for every additional half of an ounce in weight of any such letter above the weight of two ounces, there shall be charged, taken, and paid one additional rate of postage; and every fractional part of such additional half of an ounce in weight, shall be charged as an additional half of an ounce in weight; and each progressive and additional rate chargeable under this clause, shall be estimated and charged at the sum which any such letter would be charged with under this Warrant, if not exceeding one-half of an ounce in weight.

6. On every letter posted in the United States of America, or forwarded otherwise than in closed mails through the United States of America, addressed to any of Her Majesty's colonies, or to any foreign country, and transmitted by the post from the said United States to any of Her Majesty's colonies, or any foreign country through the United Kingdom, the said respective letters being conveyed from the said United States to the United Kingdom by packet boat or private ship direct, there shall be charged, taken, and paid the rate or rates of British postage which from time to time shall be chargeable and payable for British postage on letters posted at the port in the United Kingdom of the arrival of the packet boat or private ship conveying the same from the United States to the United Kingdom, and transmitted to such colony or foreign country to which such letters shall be addressed.

7. On every letter posted in any of Her Majesty's colonies, or in any foreign country, addressed to the United States of America, or to any foreign country beyond the United States of America, and transmitted by the post from any of Her Majesty's colonies or any foreign country to the said United States, or to any foreign country beyond the said United States, through the United Kingdom, the said respective letters being conveyed from the United Kingdom to the said United States by packet boat or private ship direct, there shall be charged, taken, and paid over and above the uniform rates of postage payable thereupon respectively under the provisions of this Warrant hereinbefore contained, for the transmission thereof from the United Kingdom to the said United States, such further or additional rates of postage for the conveyance of every such letter from the British colony or foreign country from which the same shall be forwarded to the port in the United Kingdom of the departure of the packet boat or private ship conveying the same from the United Kingdom to the said United States, as shall from time to time be charged and payable for British postage on letters posted in such colony or foreign country, and transmitted to such port of departure in the United Kingdom.

8. The postage of every letter posted in the United States of America, addressed to the United Kingdom, shall be paid at the time of the same being posted; but if any such letter shall be posted for transmission by the post under the authority of this Warrant, without any postage having been paid thereon, or with a postage paid thereon less in amount than the rate or rates of postage to which the same would be liable under or by virtue of this Warrant, every such letter shall be charged with the deficient postage, together with a further and additional rate of postage of two pence.

9. Registered letters may be transmitted by the post under the authority of this Warrant upon the payment of such additional charges or rates of postage or otherwise as the Postmaster-General may from time to time direct or appoint in that behalf, provided that all rates of postage and additional charges or rates, from time to time payable thereupon, shall be prepaid, and that no payment shall be made thereupon on the delivery of any such registered letters.

10. Nothing herein contained shall be construed in anywise to annul, prejudice, or affect any of the exemptions or privileges granted by or under the said hereinbefore recited Acts, or either of them, or by or under any other Acts of Parliament relating to the Post Office, or to annul, prejudice, or affect any of the privileges to which officers, seamen, soldiers, and others, employed in Her Majesty's service, are by law entitled of sending and receiving letters by the post, subject to the regulations and restrictions made and in force for the time being in respect of the same.

11. On every packet consisting of a printed British newspaper, not exceeding four ounces in weight, posted in the United Kingdom, addressed to the United States of America, and transmitted by the post from any part of the United Kingdom to any part of the said United States by packet-boat or private ship direct, there shall be charged, taken, and paid an uniform rate of postage of one penny, and in respect of every additional four ounces, or fraction of four ounces of any such packet above the weight of four ounces there shall be charged, taken, and paid an additional rate of postage of one penny; and every such packet shall be transmitted in conformity with and under and subject to the several orders, directions, regulations, and conditions hereinafter mentioned and contained, relating thereto.

12. All packets consisting of printed papers other than British newspapers, or consisting of patterns or samples of merchandize not exceeding one ounce in weight, posted in the United Kingdom, addressed to the United States of America, may be transmitted by the post from any part of the United Kingdom to any part of the said United States, by packet-boat or private ship direct, in conformity with and under and subject to the several orders, directions, regulations, and conditions hereinafter mentioned and contained relating thereto, and there shall be charged, taken, and paid for the transmission of every such packet, an uniform rate of postage of one penny.

13. All packets transmitted respectively under the authority of the 12th clause of this Warrant hereinbefore contained, shall, if exceeding the weight of one ounce respectively, be subject to the several further and additional and progressive rates of postage hereinafter mentioned (that is to say):—

On every such packet exceeding one ounce and not exceeding two ounces in weight, there shall be charged, taken, and paid two rates of postage;

And on every such packet exceeding two ounces and not exceeding four ounces in weight, there shall be charged, taken, and paid three rates of postage;

And on every such packet exceeding four ounces, and not exceeding eight ounces in weight, six rates of postage;

And on every such packet exceeding eight ounces and not exceeding twelve ounces in weight, nine rates of postage;

And for every additional four ounces in weight of any such packet above the weight of twelve ounces, there shall be charged, taken, and paid three additional rates of postage; and in charging any additional rates of postage under this clause, every fractional part of every additional four ounces shall be charged as an additional four ounces in weight: and each progressive and additional rate chargeable under this clause shall be estimated and charged at the sum which any such packet would be charged with under this Warrant, if not exceeding one ounce in weight.

14. All packets consisting of printed papers other than newspapers, or consisting of patterns or samples of merchandize, not exceeding four ounces in weight, posted in the United Kingdom, addressed to Hong Kong or any place in China or Japan, or posted in Hong Kong or any place in China or Japan, addressed to the United Kingdom, may be transmitted by the post between any part of the United Kingdom and Hong Kong or any place in China or Japan, via the United States of America (the sea conveyance being by British or United States' packet boat, or partly by British and partly by United States' packet boats), in conformity with and under and subject to the several orders, directions, regulations and conditions hereinafter mentioned and contained relating thereto; and there shall be charged, taken, and paid, for the transmission of every such packet, an uniform rate of postage (British and foreign combined) of four pence.

15. All packets transmitted respectively under the authority of the 14th clause of this Warrant hereinbefore contained, shall, if exceeding the weight of four ounces respectively, be subject to the several further and additional and progressive rates of postage hereinafter mentioned; that is to say:—

On every such packet exceeding four ounces and not exceeding eight ounces in weight, there shall be charged, taken, and paid two rates of postage:

And on every such packet exceeding eight ounces and not exceeding twelve ounces in weight, three rates of postage;

And on every such packet exceeding twelve ounces and not exceeding sixteen ounces in weight, four rates of postage;

And for every additional four ounces in weight of any such packet above the weight of sixteen ounces, there shall be charged, taken, and paid one additional rate of postage; and in charging any additional rate of postage under this clause, every fractional part of every additional four ounces shall be charged as an additional four ounces in weight; and each progressive and additional rate chargeable under this clause shall be estimated and charged at the sum which any such packet would be charged with under this Warrant, if not exceeding four ounces in weight.

16. The postage of all packets posted in the United Kingdom under the authority of the 11th, 12th, 13th, 14th and 15th clauses of this Warrant, shall in every case be paid at the time of the same being posted, by being duly stamped with the proper postage stamp or stamps affixed thereto, which stamp or stamps shall in every case be affixed or appear on the outside of every such packet, near the address or direction, and shall be of the value or amount of the postage duty payable thereon under or by virtue of this Warrant (unless any such packet be sent from any department or office in or connected with the public service of Her Majesty which shall have a postage account with the General Post Office in London, in which case the same shall be forwarded post-paid, and the postage thereof shall be charged in such postage account).

17. For the purposes of this Warrant, every printed British newspaper transmitted by the post under the provisions of this Warrant shall be deemed and considered a packet, and shall be charged and chargeable with a separate and dis-distinct single rate or separate and distinct progressive and additional rates of postage, according to the weight thereof, as hereinbefore respectively mentioned, notwithstanding two or more newspapers shall be enclosed and transmitted in one and the same cover, wrapper, envelope, or bundle, and form only one parcel or bundle of newspapers; and every printed supplement or additional sheet to any such newspaper shall, for the purpose of charging the postage under this Warrant, be deemed a distinct newspaper, unless sent in the same cover or together with the newspaper to which it is a supplement or addition.

18. Every packet consisting of a printed British newspaper, or of printed papers other than newspapers, which shall be respectively transmitted by the post under the provisions of this Warrant, shall be so transmitted in conformity with and under and subject to the several orders, directions, regulations, and conditions following (that is to say)—

Every British newspaper shall be printed and published at intervals not exceeding thirty-one days between any two consecutive numbers or parts of such publication, and the same shall be registered at the General Post Office in London, and shall be posted within fifteen days from the date of its publication, and the title and date of the newspaper shall be printed at the top of every page thereof;

Every packet shall be sent open at the ends or sides, and either without a cover or envelope, or in a cover or envelope open at the ends or sides; and there shall be no written letter, either closed or open, nor any written communication in the nature of a letter, either closed or open (whether such letter or communication be addressed to or intended for the person to whom the packet shall be directed or any other person), nor any enclosure sealed or otherwise closed against inspection, nor any other enclosure not authorized by this Warrant, sent in or with any such packet; nor shall there be any word or communication printed on the contents of any such packet after the publication thereof, nor any writing, figures, or marks upon any such contents, or the cover thereof, not authorized by this Warrant, except the name and address of the person to whom the same is sent; but the name or title of any newspaper, and the name and address of the person by whom the same is sent, may be printed on the cover thereof; and any packet of printed papers other than a printed newspaper may have any matter or thing printed on the cover thereof.

19. Every packet consisting of patterns or samples of merchandize which shall be transmitted by the post under the provisions of this Warrant, shall be so transmitted in conformity with and under and subject to the several orders, directions, regulations, and conditions following (that is to say)—

There shall be no enclosure sealed or otherwise closed against inspection and examination, nor any other enclosure not authorized by this Warrant, sent in or with any such packet;

There shall be no writing or printing upon any such packet or the cover thereof, or contained therein, except the address of the person for whom it is intended, the address of the sender thereof, and a manufacturer's or trade mark, and number and price of the pattern or sample, and every such manufacturer's or trade mark, number, and price shall be written or printed on labels attached to such patterns or samples, or to the bags or boxes containing the same, and not on loose pieces of paper or other material;

All such packets shall be sent in covers open at the ends, so as to be easy of examination, nevertheless, samples of seeds, drugs, and such other articles and things as cannot be sent in open covers, may be enclosed in boxes or in bags of linen, paper, or other material which shall be tied with a string, or otherwise fastened in such a manner that they may be readily opened, and closed bags, if transparent, may be used for this purpose;

No article which might injure the contents of the mail bags, or the persons of the officers of the Post Office, shall be transmitted by the post under the authority of this Warrant, nevertheless, any packet containing any razor, scissors, knife, fork, or other sharp or pointed instrument, keys, watch machinery, metal, metal tubing, or ore, or such like, shall and may (notwithstanding anything in a certain Warrant of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, bearing date the 28th day of November, 1844, contained to the contrary) be transmitted by the post under the authority of this Warrant, subject to the several orders, directions, regulations, and restrictions herein mentioned and contained relating thereto; Provided that every such article or instrument so contained in any such packet shall be securely packed and guarded, and every such packet shall not only conform in every respect to the several orders, directions, regulations, and restrictions herein contained, but the same shall also furnish sufficient protection against injury to the officers of the Post Office, and to the contents of the mail bags, while at the same time the patterns or samples may be easily examined. Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall extend to authorise the transmission by the post of any packet containing any explosive or other dangerous material or substance.

20. No packet exceeding in length two feet or in breadth or depth one foot shall be forwarded by the post under the provisions of this Warrant, unless under the special authority of the Postmaster-General.

21. Every packet transmitted by the post under the provisions of this Warrant shall be put into the Post Office at such hours in the day and under all such regulations as the Postmaster-General may appoint.

22. If any packet sent or tendered, or delivered in order to be sent by the post under the provisions of this Warrant, shall be otherwise than in conformity with the provisions and regulations applicable thereto, established by or under the 16th, 17th, 18th, 19th, 20th, and 21st Clauses of this Warrant the same shall and may be detained and opened at any place in the United Kingdom, and at the option of the Postmaster-General shall be returned or given up to the sender thereof.

23. In order to prevent any obstacle to the due and regular transmission of letters by the post, any officer of the Post Office, may delay the transmission of any packet posted or forwarded by the post under the provisions of this Warrant, either for the space of twenty four hours after the time at which the same ought to be despatched in due course of the post, or at his option until the despatch of the mail next after that by which the same ought in due course of the post to be forwarded by him.

24. In all cases in which any question shall hereafter arise, whether any packet, or anything contained therein, transmitted under or by virtue of this Warrant, is entitled to the privileges of this Warrant, and to be so transmitted within the intent and meaning thereof, such question shall be referred to the determination of the Postmaster-General, whose decision thereupon shall be final and conclusive on all parties.

25. The term "printed papers" when used in this Warrant shall mean, comprise, and include, periodical works, other than newspapers, books, stitched or bound, prices current, sheets of music, maps, plans, catalogues, prospectuses, announcements, and any other kind of printed papers, as also prints, engravings, drawings, lithographs, and photographs, on paper, parchment, or vellum, and also when contained in any packet consisting of unbound proof sheets only, any ordinary corrections, in writing, of such unbound proof sheets, but shall not mean, comprise, or include any photographs, drawings, prints, or other articles which may be obviously of an obscene character, and the several other terms and expressions used in this Warrant shall be construed to have the like meaning in all respects as they would have had if inserted in the said recited Act passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her Majesty, chapter 96.

26. The rates of postage fixed by this present Warrant on the letters and packets transmitted as herein respectively mentioned, shall be in lieu of any rates now chargeable by law thereon, and the Warrant under the hands of two of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, bearing date the twelfth day of September, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, shall be and the same is hereby repealed, revoked, and annulled on the coming into operation hereof.

27. The Commissioners for the time being of Her Majesty's Treasury may, by Warrant under their hands, duly made at any time hereafter, alter, repeal, or revoke any of the rates of postage hereby fixed, or any of the orders, directions, regulations, and conditions hereby made, and may make and establish any new or other rates, orders, directions, regulations, or conditions in lieu thereof, and may from time to time appoint at what time the rates which may be payable are to be paid.

28. This Warrant shall come into operation on the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-nine.

In Parliament—Session 1868-9.

The East India Irrigation and Canal Company. (Sale and transfer of the whole or any part of the undertakings of the Company to the Secretary of State in Council; Confirmation of Agreements; Amendment of Acts; and other purposes.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament, in the session of 1868-9, for leave to introduce a Bill and to pass an Act for the following, amongst other purposes; viz:—

To enable the East India Irrigation and Canal Company (hereinafter called "the Company"), to sell, transfer, and convey the whole or any part of their undertaking or undertakings to the Right Honourable the Secretary of State in Council (hereinafter called "the Secretary of State"), and to enable the Secretary of State to purchase and take a transfer of the whole or any part of the undertaking or undertakings of the Company.

To enable the Secretary of State and the Company to enter into all necessary contracts and agreements, and to confirm any deeds, contracts, and agreements already entered into between them, with reference to the objects and purposes of the said Bill.

To provide for the payment over to the parties entitled thereto of any moneys to be received from the Secretary of State, under the provisions of the intended Act, or of any existing Act, or under any contract or agreement; and to enable the Company and directors to obtain proper discharges for the same.

Sofar as may be necessary for the objects and purposes of the said Bill, it is intended to repeal, alter, or amend the whole or any part of the Acts following, namely, "The East India Irrigation and Canal Company's Act, 1861," and "The East India Irrigation and Canal Company's Act, 1866," and all other Acts, charters, grants, and contracts which may interfere with the objects and purposes of the said Bill.

Dated this 8th day of December, 1868.

By order of the Secretary of State in Council,
R. H. Wyatt, 28, Parliament-street, Westminster.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a separate building, named Cockfield Congregational Chapel, situated at Cockfield, in the county of Suffolk, in the district of Cosford, being a building certified according to law as a place of religious worship, was, on the 7th day of December, 1868, duly registered for solemnizing marriages therein, pursuant to the Act of 6th and 7th Wm. IV., cap. 85.

Witness my hand this 8th of December, 1868.

Rich. Newman, Superintendent Registrar.

In Chancery.

In the Matter of the Joint Stock Companies Winding-up Acts, 1848 and 1849; and the Joint Stock Companies Winding-up Amendment Acts, 1857; and in the Matter of the Agriculturist Cattle Insurance Company.

BY direction of his Lordship the Master of the Rolls, the Judge to whose Court the winding-up of the above-named Company is attached, notice is hereby given, that the said Judge purposes, on Friday, the 18th day of December, 1868, at half-past one o'clock in the afternoon, at his chambers, in Rolls-yard, Chancery-lane, Middlesex, to proceed to make a call on all the contributories of the Company whose names are included in the list of contributories of the said Company, so far as the same has been settled by the said Judge; and that the said Judge purposes that such call shall be for £250 per share of £20, and for £62 10s. per share of £5. All persons interested are entitled to attend at such day, hour, and place to offer objections to such call.—Dated this 5th day of December, 1868.

CONTRACTS FOR FRESH OX BEEF AND VEGETABLES FOR GRAVESEND.

Contract Department, Admiralty,
Somerset House, December 4, 1868.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that on Monday, the 14th instant, at twelve o'clock at noon, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying (under separate contracts) all such quantities of

as may be demanded for the use of Her Majesty's ships and vessels at Gravesend from the 1st January to the 30th June, 1869, both days included; and for all such quantities of as may be demanded for the use of Her Majesty's ships and vessels from the 1st April, 1869, to the 31st March, 1872, both days included.

N.B. The contractor for beef is to supply good, fat, well-fed Ox Beef, as no HEIFER MEAT will be admitted.

The Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty reserve to themselves an unlimited power of selection in accepting the tenders.

Separate tenders must be made for beef and vegetables, and at a rate per 100 lbs. for each, and no attention will be paid to any offers not so made. Contractors in claiming payment for the supplies of beef or vegetables are to make out their invoices in pounds at per 100 lbs.

The contractor in each case is to be resident at Gravesend.

Conditions of the contracts may be seen in the Lobby of the Department of the Comptroller of Victualling, Admiralty, Somerset House, W.C.

Forms of the tender may also be obtained on application at the Lobby of the Department above-mentioned, or to the Postmaster at Gravesend.

No tender will be received after twelve o'clock at noon on the day of treaty, nor any noticed unless made on the printed form provided for the purpose; but it will not be necessary that the party tendering or an agent appointed by him should attend at this office, as the result of the offer received from each person will be communicated to him and to his proposed sureties in writing.

Every tender must be delivered to the Department of the Comptroller of Victualling, Admiralty, Somerset House, and signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering in the sum of £300 for beef and £100 for vegetables, for the due performance of each of the contracts.

The contractors to pay half the amount of the stamps on their contracts and bonds.

1. "That the Liquidator already appointed by the special resolution passed and adopted at the Extraordinary General Meetings of this Company, held on the 15th and 29th days of August, A.D. 1868, respectively be and he is hereby authorised to wind up the affairs of this Company voluntarily.

2. "That the said Liquidator be and he is hereby fully authorised and empowered to negotiate any arrangements he may in his discretion deem expedient for the sale and transfer to any other Company, or to the promoters of any other Company, to be established, or to any other persons or person of the whole, or any portion of this Company's property, business, and assets, or any part thereof, upon such terms and conditions, and generally in such manner as the said Liquidator may in his absolute discretion deem advisable, and to receive and accept, or agree to receive and accept, as and by way of consideration or compensation, or part consideration or compensation, for all or any part of such transfer or sale, any fully or partly paid up shares or other like interest, or any preferment security of what kind soever or charge upon, and in any other Joint Stock Company, or upon any persons or person on all or any part of such property, business, and assets so transferred, or to allow all or any part of the consideration for such transfer from this Company to such other Company, persons, or person to remain on mortgage or otherwise upon sufficient security as a charge or debt due from such Company, persons, or person to this Company for such times and upon such interest as shall in his discretion be determined by the said Liquidator in payment or part payment, and in satisfaction or consideration, or part satisfaction or part consideration, of the property, business, or assets of this Company so transferred to such other Company, persons, or person as aforesaid, the same to form part of the assets of this Company, and to be distributed amongst the Shareholders thereof after the payment of its just debts and liabilities, and also to enter into any arrangements whereby the members of this Company may in lieu of cash, shares, or debentures, or other like interest in any such Company or Companies, or with any persons or person as aforesaid, or in addition thereto participate in the profits of or derive any other benefit from such Company, persons, or person as he, the said Liquidator, shall in his absolute discretion deem advisable; and the said Liquidator is hereby invested with the fullest powers and authorities to make, do, and execute all and every such acts, deeds, matters, and things as may be necessary to effectuate all or any of the purposes aforesaid; and particularly to raise money that may become necessary to pay creditors or such other arrangements as are in these resolutions, numbered 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, respectively authorised to be made or may be necessary for the completion of the same.

3. "That the said Liquidator be and he is hereby authorised to employ, for the valuation of the Company's said property, business, and assets, or all or any of them (or as Arbitrator on behalf of the Company, when arbitration is necessary for the purposes of fulfilling the powers conferred on the Liquidator by these Special Resolutions), Mr. Joseph Vaughan, of Bishop Auckland, or such other persons or person as the Liquidator may in his discretion deem best capable of determining the true value of the same, when and so often as the Liquidator may, in fulfilment of these Special Resolutions, deem it necessary to proceed to such valuation or arbitration.

4. "That the Liquidator is hereby invested with all powers capable of being conferred on Liquidators in the voluntary winding up of a Company, set out respectively in sections 159 and 160 of the Joint Stock Companies Act, 1862, and in the said Act and that of 1867 generally and therein respectively more particularly defined; provided always, that the exercise from time to time of all or any of the same shall be subject to his absolute discretion as being for the beneficial interests of this Company.

5. "That so much of the Special Resolutions passed and adopted by this Company on the 4th and 18th days of July, A.D. 1868, respectively, as conflict with the substance or spirit of these resolutions, or in any way fetters the Liquidator in winding up the affairs of this Company, as directed by these Special Resolutions, shall be and the same is and are hereby rescinded."

And notice is hereby further given, that at another Extraordinary General Meeting of the Shareholders of the said Drinkfield Iron Company (Limited), held at the Offices of the Company, No. 87, Northgate, in the borough of Darlington, in the county of Durham, on Saturday, the 14th day of November, 1868, the above resolutions were unanimously confirmed.
