[This Order in Council is substituted for that published in the London Gazette of 11th December instant.]

AT the Court at Windsor, the 9th day of December, 1868.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Assizes and Sessions under the Commissions of Gaol Delivery and other Commissions for the dispatch of Criminal and Civil Business, holden in and for the County of Suffolk, have hitherto, for many years past, been holden in the Spring at Bury St. Edmunds, and in the summer at Ipswich, both in the said county:

And whereas it is desirable and convenient that the said assizes and sessions holden in and for the said county, shall from henceforth be held at Ipswich in the Spring, and at Bury St Edmunds in the summer:

And whereas by an Act of Parliament made and passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the third and fourth years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for the appointment of convenient places for the holding of Assizes in England, and Wales," it was declared and enacted, that His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Most Honourable Privy Council, should have power, from time to time, to order and direct at what place or places in any county in England or Wales the assizes and sessions for the dispatch of civil and criminal business should be holden, and to order and direct such assizes and sessions for the
