We do therefore, by this Our Royal Proclamation, and with the advice of Our Privy Council, think proper to declare and command, and We do declare and command that no Copper Monies whatsoever (other than and except such Bronze Monies as are now current by virtue of Our Proclamation, bearing date the seventeenth day of December, one thousand eight hundred and sixty, or any Proclamation dated subsequently to the said seventeenth day of December, one thousand eight hundred and sixty,) shall be allowed to pass or be current in any payment whatsoever within the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland after the thirty-first day of December, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-nine.

Given at Our Court at Windsor, this thirteenth day of May, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-nine, and in the thirty-second year of Our reign.

GOD save the QUEEN.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 13th. day of May, 1869.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

THIS day, the Right Reverend John, Lord Bishop of London, was, by Her Majesty's command, sworn of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, and took his place at the Board accordingly.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 13th day of May, 1869.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS, in pursuance of the powers vested in Her Majesty by an Act of Parliament passed in the session of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty's reign, chapter ninety-four, entitled an "An Act to remove doubts as to the exercise of power and jurisdiction by Her Majesty within divers countries and places out of Her Majesty's dominions, and to render the same more effectual," Her Majesty was pleased by an Order of Her Majesty in Council, dated the ninth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, to make provision for the due exercise of the power and jurisdiction which Her Majesty had in the dominions of the Emperor of China and in the dominions of the Tycoon of Japan: and whereas it is necessary at the present time that the provisions of the said Order should be made applicable to the Mikado of Japan, instead of to the Tycoon of Japan as therein set forth :

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by virtue of the powers vested in Her Majesty by the aforesaid Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty's reign, is pleased by and with the advice of

Her Privy Council to order, and it is hereby ordered as follows :

Wherever in the aforesaid Order of the ninth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, reference is made to the Tycoon of Japan, such reference shall, from and after the receipt of this present Order by Her Majesty's Envoy Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary in Japan, be held to apply to the Mikado of Japan in place of the Tycoon :

And the Right Honourable the Earl of Clarendon and the Right Honourable the Earl Granville, two of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, are to give the necessary directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain.

Arthur Helps.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 13th day of May, 1869.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty, and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the fourth day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-nine, in the words and figures following; that is to say :

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the sixteenth and seventeenth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty, and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for effecting an exchange of the patronage of the benefice (being a perpetual curacy or a vicarage) of Saint Bartholomew, Quorndon, situate in the county of Leicester, and in the diocese of Peterborough, and of the benefice (being a perpetual curacy or a vicarage) of Saint Peter, Mountsorrel, situate in the same county and diocese, for the patronage of the benefice (being a vicarage) of Fulbourn, All Saints, situate in the county of Cambridge, and in the diocese of Ely.

"Whereas the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of, and to the said benefices of, Saint Bartholomew, Quorndon, and Saint Peter, Mountsorrel, and each of them, and the churches thereof respectively, is vested absolutely in the Master, Fellows, and Scholars of the College of Saint John the Evangelist, in the University of Cambridge, and their successors.

"And whereas the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of, and to the said benefice of, Fulbourn All Saints, is vested absolutely in the Right Reverend William Connor, Bishop of the said diocese of Peterborough, as such Bishop, and in his successors Bishops of the same diocese.

"And whereas the Reverend William Henry Bateson, Doctor in Divinity, the Master and the Fellows and Scholars of the said College of Saint John the Evangelist, in the University of Cambridge, and the said William Connor, Bishop of
