INCOME TAX.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the 28th year of Her Majesty, cap. 30, for granting to Her Majesty certain duties of Customs and Inland Revenue, power is given for increasing in certain cases the number of persons appointed under the provisions made by the Act passed in the 5th and 6th years of Her Majesty, cap. 35, Commissioners for the general purposes of the Income Tax Acts, and persons to supply vacancies amongst such Commissioners in each district or division in Great Britain; and it appearing to the Board of Inland Revenue that the number of persons so appointed for the division of the Isle of Wight, in the county of Southampton, is insufficient for the proper discharge of the business therein arising under the Income Tax Act, the said Board hereby authorise the increase in the number of the Commissioners for the said division to any number not exceeding fourteen, and of persons to supply vacancies amongst such Commissioners to any number not exceeding fourteen; and we, the undersigned, two members of the said Board, do hereby convene a meeting of the persons appointed for putting in execution within the said division an Act passed in the 38th year of the reign of King George the Third, intituled "An Act for granting an aid to His Majesty by a Land Tax to be raised in Great Britain for the service of the year 1798," being respectively qualified to act as Commissioners, in the execution of the last-mentioned Act, to be holden at the Townhall, in Newport, on Saturday, the 4th day of September next, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, for the purpose of choosing and appointing, according to the regulations of the said Act of the 5th and 6th years of Her Majesty, such number of fit and proper persons to be Commissioners for general purposes for the said district of Isle of Wight, and of persons to supply vacancies amongst such Commissioners, as may be sufficient to increase the number of such Commissioners to any number not exceeding fourteen, and of persons to supply vacancies amongst such Commissioners to any number not exceeding fourteen.

Waterloo and Whitehall Railway.

NOTICE is hereby given, that in pursuance of "The Abandonment of Railways Act, 1850," and "The Railway Companies Act, 1867," the Waterloo and Whitehall Railway Company have made application in writing to the Board of Trade, setting forth that the said Waterloo and Whitehall Railway Company are desirous that the railway by the "Waterloo and Whitehall Railway Act, 1865," authorised to be made and therein described as "a Railway commencing in the parish of St. Martin's-in-the-Fields, in the county of Middlesex, in the street or place known as Great Scotland Yard, at or near the western end thereof, and terminating in the parish of Lambeth and county of Surrey, in a piece of land belonging to the London and South-Western Railway Company, and in the occupation of Edwin Benjamin Gammon, near to and opposite the arches under the Waterloo Station of that railway, numbered respectively 249 and 250," should be abandoned.

And notice is hereby further given, that any person who may think himself aggrieved by such proposed abandonment of the said railway, and who may desire to object thereto, may bring such objection before the Board of Trade, by sending a written statement thereof by post, on or before the 21st day of September next, addressed to the Assistant Secretary of the Railway Department, Board of Trade, London, S.W.

Dated this 2nd day of August, 1869.

Edward Bellamy, Secretary.
