NAVAL PRIZE MONEY.

Department of the Accountant-General of the Navy and Comptroller of Navy Pay, Admiralty, S.W., February 3, 1870.

NOTICE is hereby given to all persons interested therein, that preparations are now being made for the intended distribution of the proceeds of the cargo of a piratical junk, captured on the 27th June, 1867, by Her Majesty's ships "Havock" and "Bouncer."

Agents or other persons having any just and legal demand, unliquidated, against the said proceeds are required to transmit the particulars of any such demand to the Registrar of the High Court of Admiralty, in order that the same may be examined, taxed, and allowed by that officer, and paid under the sanction of the Judge of the said Court.

Due notice will be given, by future advertisements in the London Gazette, of the date proposed for the commencement of distribution; and at the same time the amount of an individual's share in the respective classes will be announced.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction consisting of a clear annual rent charge of twenty-four pounds, which has been permanently secured to the vicarage of Acklington, in the county of Northumberland, and in the diocese of Durham, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, grant to the Incumbent of the said vicarage of Acklington, and to his successors, to meet such benefaction, one yearly sum or stipend of twenty-four pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the twenty-second day of July, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-nine, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient to produce the said yearly sum or stipend, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said vicarage, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this twenty-seventh day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby, subject as hereinafter mentioned, grant to the Incumbent for the time being of the vicarage of Bleasby-with-Halloughton, in the county of Nottingham, and in the diocese of Lincoln, one yearly sum or stipend of one hundred and twenty pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the ninth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-nine, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that the annual sum or stipend so granted by us to the Incumbent of the said vicarage of Bleasby-with-Halloughton, shall be paid only upon the production to us, on or after the first day of May and the first day of November in each and every year, of a certificate under the hand of the Bishop of the said diocese of Lincoln, that an Assistant Curate, duly licensed by such Bishop, has been employed within the parishes of Bleasby and Halloughton aforesaid, or within the parish of Morton, in the same county and diocese, during the half-year then ended, and is in receipt of a salary after a rate of not less than one hundred and twenty pounds per annum: Provided also, that such yearly sum or stipend shall continue payable as aforesaid so long only as may to us appear to be expedient under the circumstances from time to time affecting the said vicarage of Bleasby-with-Halloughton, or the said parish of Morton.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction consisting of certain tithe commutation rent charges amounting to one hundred pounds, which have been permanently secured to the vicarage of Saint Nicholas, Whiston, in the county of Lancaster, and in the diocese of Chester, and of a further benefaction of three hundred pounds sterling, which has been paid to us in favour of the same vicarage, and in respect of which we have agreed to pay to the Incumbent of the said vicarage, and to his successors a yearly sum of ten pounds, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, grant to the Incumbent of the said vicarage of Saint Nicholas, Whiston, and to his successors, to meet such benefactions, one yearly sum or stipend of fifty pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the day of the publication of these presents in the London Gazette, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient to produce the said yearly sum or stipend, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said vicarage, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this twenty-seventh day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy.
