PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen; of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a scheme, bearing date the fifteenth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-nine, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen; of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes out of the three cures next hereinafter named (that is to say) the new parish of Saint Mary, Kilburn; the district parish of Saint Mark, Saint Marylebone; and the new parish of Saint Saviour, Paddington; all which said three cures are situate in the county of Middlesex, and in the diocese of London.

"Whereas it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that the particular parts of the said three cures hereinafter mentioned and described (such parts not at present containing within their aggregate limits any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of divine worship), should be constituted into one separate district by the title of Saint Augustine, Kilburn, in the manner hereinafter recommended and set forth.

"And whereas a sum of three thousand pounds sterling has been contributed and paid to the credit of our account at the Bank of England, in aid of the endowment of the district hereinafter recommended to be constituted, and of the maintenance of the incumbent thereof for the time being, and we have in respect of such sum agreed.

with the persons from whom we received the same, and have undertaken to provide and pay, by equal half-yearly payments, on the first day of May and the first day of November in each and every year, to such incumbent as aforesaid, when he shall have been duly licensed in accordance with the provisions of the herein secondly-mentioned Act, and to his successors, the yearly sum of one hundred pounds.

“And whereas the said sum of three thousand pounds has been so contributed and paid as aforesaid, upon the understanding and condition that (such arrangement appearing to us to be expedient) the whole right of patronage of the said district, and of the nomination of the incumbent thereof, should be assigned in the manner hereinafter recommended and proposed.

“And whereas we have also determined to make and pay out of the common fund created by the firstly herein-mentioned Act, to the incumbent for the time being of the said district hereinafter recommended to be constituted, when duly licensed as aforesaid, a grant of fifty pounds per annum, and such grant will be secured by an instrument to be executed by us under our common seal, in accordance with the provisions of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven.

“Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Honourable and Right Reverend John, Bishop of the said diocese of London (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme), we humbly recommend and propose, that all those parts of the said three cures of Saint Mary, Kilburn, Saint Mark, Saint Marylebone, and Saint Saviour, Paddington, which are described in the schedule hereunder written, all which parts together with the boundaries thereof are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, shall, upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, become and be constituted into one separate district for spiritual purposes, and that the same shall be named ‘The District of Saint Augustine, Kilburn.’

“And we further recommend and propose that the whole right of patronage of the said district so recommended to be constituted, and when such district shall have become a new parish under the secondly and thirdly hereinbefore mentioned Acts, then of such new parish, and of the nomination of the Incumbent of the same district or new parish, shall, without any assurance in the law other than this scheme and any duly gazetted Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, and upon and from the day of the date of the publication of such Order in the London Gazette as aforesaid, be assigned to and be absolutely vested in, and shall and may from time to time be exercised jointly by Benjamin Lancaster, of No. 1, Prince's-gardens, in the said county of Middlesex, Esquire, Alexander Richard Kirkpatrick, of Doncomper, near Celbridge, in the county of Kildare, in Ireland, Esquire, the Reverend Richard Temple West, Clerk, Incumbent of the new parish of Saint Mary, Magdalene, Paddington, in the said county of Middlesex, Robert Bentley, Professor of Medical Botany in King's College, London, and Julius Alexander Pearson, of No. 46, Hyde Park-square, in the said county of Middlesex, Doctor of Civil and Canon Law, and their heirs, and assigns for ever.

“And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference.

“The District of Saint Augustine, Kilburn, being:—

“All those contiguous portions of the New Parish of Saint Mary, Kilburn, of the district parish of Saint Mark, Saint Marylebone, and of the new parish of Saint Saviour, Paddington, all in the county of Middlesex, and in the diocese of London, which are comprised within and are bounded by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the district chapelry of the Holy Trinity, Kilburn, in the said county and diocese, from the new parish of Saint Mary, Kilburn aforesaid, at a point in the centre of Kilburn-bridge, which carries the Edgware-road over the line of the London and North Western Railway; and extending thence, northeastward, for a distance of twenty-three chains or thereabouts along the middle of the said line of railway, to a point in the centre of the bridge over the same line of railway at the north-western end of Abbey-road; and extending thence, south-eastward, to and along the middle of the last-named road (thereby following in part the boundary which divides the said district parish of Saint Mark, Saint Marylebone, from the particular district of All Souls, Hampstead, in the county and diocese aforesaid), to the junction of the same road with the road called or known as Carlton-hill; and extending thence, south-westward, along the middle of the last-named road, to the boundary at the junction of the same road with the Edgware-road aforesaid, which divides the said district parish of Saint Mark, Saint Marylebone, from the new parish of Saint Saviour, Paddington aforesaid; and continuing thence, still south-westward, for a distance of nineteen chains and a half or thereabouts (crossing the Edgware-road aforesaid) to and along the middle of Carlton-road (thereby following in part the lastly-mentioned boundary) to the boundary which divides the last-named new parish from the district chapelry of the Holy Trinity, Kilburn aforesaid; and extending thence, generally north-eastward, along the last described boundary to its junction (in the middle of the said Edgware-road) with the boundary which divides the last-named district chapelry from the new parish of Saint Mary, Kilburn aforesaid; and extending thence, northwestward, along the last-described boundary (thereby following the middle of the said Edgware-road) to the first described point in the centre of Kilburn-bridge, where the said imaginary line commenced.”

And whereas a draft of the said scheme has, in accordance with the provisions of the hereinbefore secondly mentioned Act, been transmitted to the patrons and to the incumbents of the cures out of which it is intended that the district therein recommended to be constituted shall be taken.

And whereas more than one calendar month has elapsed since drafts of the said scheme were so transmitted as aforesaid.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London

"And also all that further portion of the said parish of Selborne, comprising part of Woolmer Forest, which is contiguous to, and is situate on, the eastern side of the said new parish of Blackmoor, and which is bounded externally, that is to say, on the north east, east, and south, as follows, viz., on the north east partly by the parish of Headley, in the county and diocese aforesaid, and partly by the parish of Bramshott, in the same county and diocese, on the east by the parish of Rogate, in the county of Sussex and in the diocese of Chichester, and on the south by the parish of Greatham, in the said county of Southampton, and in the diocese of Winchester aforesaid."
