

boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Saint Thomas, situate in the township of Sutton as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Thomas, Sutton.'

"And with the like consent of the said Robert, Bishop of the said diocese of Ripon (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us, the said Commissioners, to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism, or for the registration thereof.

"We, therefore, humbly pray, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to your Majesty, in your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Saint Thomas, Sutton, being:—

"All that part of the parish of Kildwick, in the county of York, and in the diocese of Ripon, wherein the present incumbent of such parish now possesses the exclusive cure of souls, which is comprised within, and is co-extensive with, the limits of the main portion of the township of Sutton, and of that portion of the township of Glusburn which is bounded on the east partly by the said township of Sutton, on the south partly by the last-named township and partly by the new parish of Cowling, in the county and diocese aforesaid, on the west by the new parish of Christ Church, Lothersdale, in the same county and diocese, and on all other sides, that is to say, on the north, and on the remaining part of the east, by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary, which divides the last-named new parish from the parish of Kildwick aforesaid, at a point in the middle of Glusburn Moor-lane, near to Grey Hall, and extending thence south-eastward for a distance of one mile, or thereabouts, along the middle of the said lane to its junction with High Gate-lane, and continuing thence in the same direction along the middle of the last-named lane to its junction with Wheatlands-lane, and extending thence southward along the middle of the last-named lane to its junction with the Blackburn, Addingham, and Cocking End Trust-road, and extending thence eastward for a distance of ten and a half chains, or thereabouts, along the middle of the said trust road to its junction at the Cross Hills turnpike with Holme-lane, and extending thence southward for a distance of one chain and a half, or thereabouts, along the middle of the said lane to the boundary which divides the said township of Glusburn from the township of Sutton aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Ripon.

Arthur Helps.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 22nd day of February, 1870.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the seventh and eighth years of Her Majesty, chapter ninety-four, and of the Act of the thirteenth and fourteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter ninety-four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the third day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy, in the words and figures following, that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the seventh and eighth years of your Majesty, chapter ninety-four, and of the Act of the thirteenth and fourteenth years of your Majesty, chapter ninety-four, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for altering the boundaries of the new parish of Blackmoor, in the county of Southampton, and in the diocese of Winchester.

"Whereas the district of Blackmoor was constituted out of the parish of Selborne, in the county and diocese aforesaid, under the provisions of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, and by virtue of a scheme prepared by us, and ratified by an Order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the fourth day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, and published in the London Gazette on the fifth day of November in the same year.

"And whereas the said district of Blackmoor has since become a new parish of the character contemplated by the said Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven.

"And whereas it has been represented to us, and it appears to us to be expedient, that the boundaries of the said new parish of Blackmoor should be altered, so that they shall include certain further portions of the said parish of Selborne.

Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Samuel, Bishop of the said diocese of Winchester (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme), we humbly recommend and propose that, from and after the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, all those portions of the said parish of Selborne, which are described in the schedule hereunder written, and are delineated and set forth upon the map or plan hereunto annexed, and are thereupon coloured pink, shall henceforth be dissevered from such parish, and shall be annexed to, and form part of, and be, and be deemed
