Published by Authority.

FRIDAY, MARCH 11, 1870.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace, February 7, 1870.

NOTICE is hereby given, that The Queen will hold a Drawing Room at Buckingham Palace, on Tuesday, the 22nd of March next, at three o'clock.

REGULATIONS

TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S DRAWING ROOM AT BUCKINGHAM PALACE.

By Her Majesty's Command.

The Ladies, who propose to attend Her Majesty's Drawing Room, at Buckingham Palace, are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with the Queen's Page in Attendance, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to The Queen.

PRESENTATIONS.

Any Lady who proposes to be presented to The Queen must leave at the Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace, before twelve o'clock, two clear days before the Drawing Room, a card with her name written thereon, and with the name of the Lady by whom she is to be presented. In order to carry out the existing regulation, that no presentation can be made at a Drawing Room excepting by a Lady actually attending that Court, it is also necessary that an intimation from the Lady who is to make the presentation, of her intention to be present, should accompany the presentation card above referred to, which will be submitted to The Queen for Her Majesty's approbation. It is Her Majesty's Command, that no presentations shall be made at the Drawing Room, except in accordance with the above regulations.

It is particularly requested that in every case the names be very distinctly written upon the cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to The Queen.

It is not expected that Gentlemen will present themselves at Drawing Rooms, except in attendance on the Ladies of their families.

Any Gentleman who under these circumstances should desire to be presented to The Queen, will observe the same regulations as are in force for Her Majesty's Levees.

The State apartments will be open for the reception of Company coming to Court at two o'clock.

SYDNEY,
Lord Chamberlain.

*Board of Trade, Whitehall,
March 10, 1870.*

THE Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade have received, from the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, a copy of a Note from the Ambassador of the North German Confederation at this Court, inclosing a copy of a Notification issued by the Directors of the General Industrial Exhibition for all kinds of Domestic Articles about to take place at Cassel.

This Notification extends the time for announcement by manufacturers in foreign countries to the 1st April next, in order to ensure the participation of other than German productions for domestic purposes; and fixes the 20th May next (instead of the 15th) as the latest date for the reception of other than German manufactures at Cassel.

The Directors of the Exhibition also give notice, that such articles as may not be sold at the Exhibition will be entitled to return carriage free on all Prussian State roads and railroads under State administration, and that a similar advantage on private roads has already been partly, and will soon it is hoped be wholly, secured.

(C. 317.)

*Board of Trade, Whitehall,
March 10, 1870.*

THE Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade have received, from the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, a translation of a Decree which was issued by the Government of Salvador on the 16th December last, and which contains the following Articles:—

Art. I. Alcohol that is for the future imported into the Republic shall pay a duty of four reales (two shillings) per bottle.

Art. II. The present resolution shall come into force three months after the date of its publication in the Official Gazette (16th Dec., 1869).

(C. 318.)

*Board of Trade, Whitehall,
March 10, 1870.*

THE Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade have received intelligence, through the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, from Her Majesty's Chargé d'Affaires at Guatemala, that the Port of Corinto, which was declared closed to foreign commerce on the 15th July, last by the President of the Republic of Nicaragua, was re-opened on the 3rd November last.

(C. 321.)

*Board of Trade, Whitehall,
March 10, 1870.*

THE Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade have received, from the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, a copy of a Despatch from Her Majesty's Ambassador at Vienna, inclosing a copy of the Vienna Gazette (Reichsgesetzblatt), which contains a Notification to the effect that the Commercial Convention concluded between Great Britain and the Austro-Hungarian Monarchy on the 30th December last, came into operation on the date of its official publication, viz., 26th February ultimo.

NOTICE OF INTENDED DISTRIBUTION OF NAVAL PRIZE MONEY.

Department of the Accountant-General of the Navy and Comptroller of Navy Pay, Admiralty, S.W., March 8, 1870.

NOTICE is hereby given to the Officers, Seamen, and Marines, and to all persons interested therein, that the distribution of the tonnage bounty, &c., for five slave dhows, captured between the 3rd and 21st August, 1868, by Her Majesty's ship "Nymphe," will commence on Friday, the 18th instant, in the Prize Branch of the Department of the "Accountant-General of the Navy, Admiralty, Somerset House."

Personal applications by persons entitled to share, and by agents and other persons holding powers of attorney, prize orders, assignments, or other instruments, by virtue of which they may be legally entitled to claim the share of any captor serving in the above-named ship, are to be made at the Prize Branch of the Admiralty, Somerset House.

Any Officer, Seaman, Marine, or other person, who may desire to receive his share from the Collector of Customs or of Inland Revenue within the United Kingdom, is required to intimate the same by letter to be addressed "On Prize Business, to the Accountant-General of the Navy and Comptroller of Navy Pay, Admiralty, S.W.," (enclosing his certificate of service, or an attested copy thereof, excepting in the case of Commissioned Officers),—in which letter his own place of residence is to be precisely stated, as well as the place of the nearest Collector of Customs, or of Inland Revenue, from whom it would be convenient to receive such share of prize money.

The following are the shares due to an individual in the several classes:—

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby grant to the Incumbent of the vicarage of Saint Mary, Meller, in the county of Lancaster, and in the diocese of Manchester, and to his successors, Incumbents of the same vicarage, one yearly sum or stipend of twenty pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the first day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-nine, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient to produce the said yearly sum or stipend, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said vicarage, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this third day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby grant to the Incumbent of the rectory of Luddenham, with the vicarage of Stone-next-Faversham, in the county of Kent, and in the diocese of Canterbury, and to his successors, Incumbents of the same rectory, one yearly sum or stipend of thirty pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the fifth day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient to produce the said yearly sum or stipend, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said rectory, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this third day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy.

(L.S.)

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby grant to the Incumbent of the vicarage of Saint Paul, Coppenhall, in the county of Chester, and in the diocese of Chester, and to his successors, Incumbents of the same vicarage, one yearly sum or stipend of two hundred pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the fourteenth day of December, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-nine, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions, on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient to produce the said yearly sum or stipend, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said vicarage, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this third day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction, consisting of four thousand eight hundred and forty (or thereabouts) square yards of land, with the messuage and premises thereon, which has been permanently secured to the vicarage of Saint Anthony, Byker, in the county of Northumberland, and in the diocese of Durham, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, grant to the Incumbent of the said vicarage of Saint Anthony, Byker, and to his successors, to meet such benefaction, one yearly sum or stipend of fifty pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the day of the publication of these presents in the London Gazette, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient to produce the said yearly sum or stipend, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said vicarage, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this third day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy.

(L.S.)

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby, subject as hereinafter mentioned, grant and convey to the Incumbent of the vicarage of Landkey, in the county of Devon, and in the diocese of Exeter, and to his successors, Incumbents of the same vicarage, all those pieces or parcels of land and hereditaments, with the messuage and premises standing thereon, which are particularly described in the schedule hereunto annexed, and are now vested in us, to have and to hold the said pieces or parcels of land and hereditaments, with the appurtenances, to the use of the said Incumbent and his successors for ever: Provided always, that the said pieces or parcels of land and hereditaments shall be, and be held to be, in lieu of and in full substitution for a portion, amounting to twenty-two pounds four shillings and ten pence, of the annual grant of two hundred and one pounds heretofore payable by us to the Incumbent of the said vicarage, under the authority of an instrument sealed by us, and published in the London Gazette of the fifteenth day of January, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven: And provided also, that the Incumbent for the time being of the same vicarage shall be entitled to receive from us, or on our account, the net amount of the rents, profits, and proceeds of the said pieces or parcels of land and hereditaments, as from the eighth day of December, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-nine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this third day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy.

Schedule.

All those several pieces or parcels of land, comprising together six acres one rood and six perches, or thereabouts, being the closes numbered respectively 1123, 1124, 1125, and 1126, on the tithe apportionment map of the parish of Landkey, in the county of Devon, and also all that piece or parcel of land, comprising one acre three roods and ten perches, or thereabouts, being the close numbered 1067 on the said tithe apportionment map.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, sections five and eleven, do hereby, subject as hereinafter mentioned, grant and appropriate out of our common fund to the vicarage of Portisham, in the county of Dorset, and in the diocese of Salisbury, one capital sum of one thousand and five hundred pounds sterling, such capital sum to be applicable towards the purchase for the said vicarage of certain tithe commutation rent charges approved by us, and to remain in the meantime in our hands at interest after the rate of three pounds per centum per annum, and such interest to be paid to the Incumbent for the time being of the said vicarage of Portisham: Provided always, that such capital sum of one thousand and five hundred pounds, so granted by us as aforesaid, shall be, and be held to be, in lieu of, and in full substitution for, an annual grant of fifty pounds, heretofore payable by us to the Incumbent of the said vicarage of Portisham, under the authority of an instrument sealed by us and published in the London Gazette of the seventeenth day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-nine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this third day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy.

(L.S.)

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction, consisting of two hundred and fifty pounds sterling, which has been paid to us in favour of the vicarage of Great Sampford, with the chapelry of Hempstead annexed, in the county of Essex, and in the diocese of Rochester, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, sections five and eleven, grant and appropriate out of our common fund to the said vicarage of Great Sampford, with the chapelry of Hempstead annexed, to meet such benefaction, one capital sum of two hundred and fifty pounds sterling, to be applicable towards defraying the cost of providing a parsonage or house of residence for the said vicarage, according to plans and a specification to be approved by us, such capital sum, or the balance thereof unapplied to such purpose, to remain in the meantime in our hands at interest after the rate of three pounds per centum per annum, and such interest to be paid to the Incumbent for the time being of the said vicarage of Great Sampford, with the chapelry of Hempstead annexed.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this third day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction of three thousand pounds sterling, which has been paid to us in favour of the district of Saint Augustine, Kilburn, in the county of Middlesex, and in the diocese of London, and in respect of which we have agreed to pay to the Minister of the same district, and to his successors, a yearly sum of one hundred pounds, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, grant to the Minister of the said district of Saint Augustine, Kilburn, and to his successors, to meet such benefaction, one yearly sum or stipend of fifty pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the day of the publication of these presents in the London Gazette, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions, on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient to produce the yearly sum or stipend so payable out of our common fund, as lastly herein mentioned, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said district, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this third day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy.
