Published by Authority.

FRIDAY, APRIL 1, 1870.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, March 30, 1870.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Her Majesty's Birthday will be kept on Saturday, the 28th of May next.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace, April 1, 1870.

NOTICE is hereby given, that His Royal Highness The Prince of Wales will, by command of The Queen, hold a Levee at Buckingham Palace, on behalf of Her Majesty, on Wednesday, the 6th of April next, at two o'clock, instead of St. James's Palace, as previously announced.

It is The Queen's pleasure that Presentations to His Royal Highness at this Levee shall be considered as equivalent to Presentations to Her Majesty.

REGULATIONS

TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S LEVEE TO BE HELD BY HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS THE PRINCE OF WALES, ON BEHALF OF HER MAJESTY, AT BUCKINGHAM PALACE.

By Her Majesty's Command.

The Noblemen and Gentlemen, who propose to attend Her Majesty's Levee, at Buckingham Palace, are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with The Queen's Page in attendance in the Corridor, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to His Royal Highness.

PRESENTATIONS.

Any Nobleman or Gentleman who proposes to be presented, must leave at the Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace, before twelve o'clock, two clear days before the Levee, a card with his name written thereon, and with the name of the Nobleman or Gentleman by whom he is to be presented. In order to carry out the existing regulation that no presentation can be made at a Levee excepting by a person actually attending that Levee, it is also necessary that an intimation from the Nobleman or Gentleman who is to make the presentation, of his intention to be present, should accompany the presentation card above referred to, which will be submitted to The Queen for Her Majesty's approbation. It is Her Majesty's command that no presentations shall be made at these Levees, except in accordance with the above regulations.

It is particularly requested, that in every case the names be very distinctly written upon the cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to His Royal Highness.

The State apartments will be open for the reception of Company coming to Court at one o'clock.

SYDNEY,
Lord Chamberlain.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace, March 28, 1870.

NOTICE is hereby given, that The Queen will hold a Drawing Room at Buckingham Palace, on Tuesday, the 10th of May next, at three o'clock.

REGULATIONS

TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S DRAWING ROOM AT BUCKINGHAM PALACE.

By Her Majesty's Command.

The Ladies, who propose to attend Her Majesty's Drawing Room, at Buckingham Palace, are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with the Queen's Page in Attendance, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to The Queen.

PRESENTATIONS.

Any Lady who proposes to be presented to The Queen must leave at the Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace, before twelve o'clock, two clear days before the Drawing Room, a card with her name written thereon, and with the name of the Lady by whom she is to be presented. In order to carry out the existing regulation, that no presentation can be made at a Drawing Room excepting by a Lady actually attending that Court, it is also necessary that an intimation from the Lady who is to make the presentation, of her intention to be present, should accompany the presentation card above referred to, which will be submitted to The Queen for Her Majesty's approbation. It is Her Majesty's Command, that no presentations shall be made at the Drawing Room, except in accordance with the above regulations.

It is particularly requested that in every case the names be very distinctly written upon the cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to The Queen.

It is not expected that Gentlemen will present themselves at Drawing Rooms, except in attendance on the Ladies of their families.

Any Gentleman who under these circumstances should desire to be presented to The Queen, will observe the same regulations as are in force for Her Majesty's Levees.

The State apartments will be open for the reception of Company coming to Court at two o'clock.

SYDNEY,
Lord Chamberlain.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 31st day of March, 1870.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by "The County Courts' Admiralty Jurisdiction Act, 1868," it is among other things enacted, that, if at any time after the passing of that Act, it shall appear to Her Majesty in Council, on the representation of the Lord Chancellor, expedient that any County Court should have Admiralty jurisdiction, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by Order in Council, to appoint that Court to have Admiralty jurisdiction accordingly, and to assign to that Court as its district for Admiralty purposes any part or parts of any one or more district or districts of County Courts; and further, that any such Order may be from time to time varied as seems expedient:

And whereas Her Majesty was pleased by an Order in Council of the fourteenth day of January, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-nine, to order that certain County Courts should have Admiralty jurisdiction:

And whereas a representation has been made to Her Majesty in Council by the Lord Chancellor, stating that it is expedient that the said Order should be varied by removing the district of the County Court of Durham, holden at Hartlepool, from the County Court of Durham, holden at Stockton and Middlesborough (to which Court by the said Order the district of the said County Court of Durham, holden at Hartlepool was assigned) and by appointing the said last-mentioned County Court to have Admiralty jurisdiction and by assigning to that Court as its district for Admiralty purposes the district of the said Court.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, having taken the said representation into consideration, is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order and appoint, and it is hereby ordered and appointed, that from and after the eleventh day of April, one thousand eight hundred and seventy, the district of the County Court of Durham, holden at Hartlepool, shall, for Admiralty purposes, cease to form part of the district of the County Court of Durham, holden at Stockton and Middlesborough; and that the said County Court of Durham, holden at Hartlepool, shall have Admiralty jurisdiction, and that for its district, for Admiralty purposes, the district of the said Court shall be and is hereby assigned to the said Court.

Arthur Helps.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 31st day of March, 1870.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN' Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the 410th section of "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1854," it is enacted "that upon the completion of any new lighthouse, buoy, or beacon, Her Majesty may, "by Order in Council, fix such dues in respect "thereof, to be paid by the master or owner of "any ship which passes the same or derives benefit "therefrom, as Her Majesty may deem reasonable, "and may from time to time alter the amount "thereof, and that such dues shall be paid and "collected in the same manner, and by the same "means, and subject to the same conditions, in, "by, and subject to which the light dues authorized to be levied by the said Act are paid and "collected:"

And whereas the Commissioners of Irish Lights have erected a new lighthouse on Tearaght Island, on the south-west coast of Ireland, County Kerry:

And whereas the said Commissioners will, on the night of the first day of May, one thousand eight hundred and seventy, extinguish the light now known as the Skellings Rock Upper Light, and exhibit in lieu thereof a light in the said new lighthouse on Tearaght Island:

Now therefore, Her Majesty, in exercise of the powers vested in Her by the said recited Act, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to direct that from and after the first day of May next, the tolls heretofore paid in respect of the said Skellig's Rock Upper Light shall be discontinued, and that in lieu thereof, there shall be paid in respect of the said new lighthouse on Tearaght Island for every vessel, whether British or foreign, which may pass or derive benefit therefrom, the toll of three-sixteenths of a penny per ton of the burden of every such vessel for each time of passing or deriving benefit therefrom if on an oversea voyage; and one-sixteenth of a penny per ton for each time of passing or deriving benefit therefrom if on a coasting voyage.

The said tolls in respect of the said new lighthouse shall be levied by the Commissioners of Irish Lights, subject to the regulations and exemptions contained in the new consolidated table of light duties sanctioned by an Order in Council, dated the first day of November, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, and to the gross abatement or discount of fifty per cent. mentioned in an Order in Council, dated the twenty-eighth day of February, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight.

Arthur Helps.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 31st day of March, 1870.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, have, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and forty-two, and of an Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of Her Majesty, being the "Lady Slaney's (Trust) Estate Act, 1869," duly prepared and certified to and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the seventeenth day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and forty-two, and of an Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of your Majesty, being the 'Lady Slaney's (Trust) Estate Act, 1869,' have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for uniting the following contiguous benefices in the city and diocese of London, namely, the benefice (being a perpetual curacy) of Allhallows Staining, otherwise Allhallows Steyning, and the benefice (being a rectory) of Saint Olave Hart Street, that is to say:

"Scheme for effecting the union of the following contiguous benefices in the city and diocese of London, namely, the perpetual curacy of Allhallows Staining and the rectory of Saint Olave Hart Street.

"In this scheme the expression 'the Bishop' means the Lord Bishop of London for the time being; the expression 'the Commissioners' means the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England; the expression 'the Grocers Company' means the Wardens and Commonalty of the Mystery of Grocers of the city of London; the expression 'the tithes of Allhallows' means the annual fixed tithes or sums of money in lieu of tithes (subject to periodical revision). The tithes of the parish of Allhallows Staining have been commuted under 'The London (City) Tithes Act, 1864.'

STATEMENT concerning the Population, Endowment, Church Accommodation and Patronage, and as to the Incumbents of the said Benefices.

POPULATION.

Allhallows Staining ...	...	...	358
Saint Olave Hart Street ...	...	...	757
			1,115

ENDOWMENTS.

"The tithes of Allhallows Staining have been commuted under the provisions of 'The London (City) Tithes Act, 1864,' at £1,600 a-year (subject to periodical revision), and belong to the Grocers Company (as impropiators) under the trust of Lady Slaney's will; and under the conditions of the said trust the incumbent of the benefice would be entitled to them in the event of the Company making an appointment to the vacant living.

"The incumbent of Allhallows is entitled to receive from the Trinity House under the provisions of an Act of Parliament 39 George III, 1797, the following sums:—

Lady Holford's Gift ...	£46	18	4	a-year
Bewley's Gift ...	...	4	19	2
				£51 12 6

Under the provisions of the same Act the parish clerk of Allhallows is paid £7 a-year, and the sexton of Allhallows £4 13s. 4d. a-year.

"The tithes of Saint Olave Hart Street have been commuted at £2,600 a-year, subject to periodical revision, under the provisions of 'The London (City) Tithes Act, 1864,' subject to the sum of '£600 a-year being applied for church endowment when a scheme shall have been agreed on by the trustees of the advowson and by the incumbent with the approval of the bishop and confirmed by an Order of Her Majesty in Council.'

"There is a Thursday evening lectureship endowed with £20 a-year, which the rector of Saint Olave has the option of holding.

PARISH CHURCHES.

"There is a church belonging to the parish of Allhallows Staining, capable of accommodating 300 persons.

"There is a church belonging to the parish of Saint Olave Hart Street, capable of accommodating the like number. By an alteration in the seats of Saint Olave's church a larger number could be accommodated.

"There is a parish clerk of Saint Olave (appointed by the rector), who has no salary, but receives a gratuity voted by the vestry of about £35 a-year.

"There is a sexton of Saint Olave's appointed annually by the vestry at a salary of £31 a-year.

PATRONAGE.

"The patrons of Allhallows Staining are the Grocers Company, as trustees of the will of Dame Margaret Slaney, deceased.

"The patrons of Saint Olave Hart Street are the trustees of the advowson. The names and addresses of the present trustees are—

Joseph Turnley, 12, Cooper's-row,
Henry Johnson, 39, Crutched-friars,
Richard Williams, 8, Laura-place, Clapton.
Thomas Williamson, 12, Savage-gardens,
George Young, 17, Trinity-square, Tower-hill;

INCUMBENTS.

"The benefice of Allhallows Staining is now vacant by the death of the Reverend Francis John Stainforth, the last incumbent thereof. He used to reside on his benefice.

"The rector of Saint Olave Hart Street is the Reverend Alfred Povah, who resides on his benefice in the rectory house, which is adjacent to Saint Olave's Church.

TERMS OF PROPOSED UNION.

"That the said benefices of Allhallows Staining and Saint Olave Hart Street, be united into one benefice, under the style of the United Rectory of Saint Olave Hart Street, and Allhallows Staining.

"That inasmuch as the Reverend Alfred Povah, who is the present incumbent of the benefice of Saint Olave Hart Street, has signified his willingness to become the incumbent of the united benefice, the union shall take effect immediately after the scheme shall be confirmed by an Order in Council, provided the said Alfred Povah be at that time incumbent of the benefice of Saint Olave Hart Street, and the benefice of Allhallows Staining shall be vacant, in which case he shall be the first incumbent of the united benefice; but if any other person shall be at that time incumbent of the benefice of Saint Olave Hart Street, then, if the benefice of Allhallows Staining shall be still vacant, the union shall take effect upon the next vacancy of the benefice of Saint Olave Hart Street, unless the incumbent of such benefice shall consent to become the incumbent of the united benefice, in which case the union shall forthwith take effect, and he shall be the first incumbent of the united benefice; but if at the time when the scheme shall be so confirmed both of the said present benefices shall be full, then the union shall take effect upon the next vacancy of either of them, if the incumbent for the time being of the other of the said present benefices shall consent to become the incumbent of the united benefice, and he shall be the first incumbent of the united benefice, but if he shall not so consent then the union shall take effect immediately upon the next vacancy of his benefice, and the then incumbent of the other of the said present benefices shall be the first incumbent of the united benefice; and in any case it shall be lawful for the bishop to admit to the united benefice such first incumbent (if an incumbent for the time being of either of the existing benefices) without any form or fee of presentation, and he shall thereupon become the incumbent of the united benefice. Until the time of the union taking effect the existing incumbencies shall remain separate, and the rights and liabilities in respect thereof shall remain unaffected.

As respects the Church of the United Benefice.

"That upon the union taking effect the church of Saint Olave Hart Street shall become and thereafter continue to be the parish church of the united benefice, and that the inhabitants of the two parishes shall have the joint use of it, with the vestry-room, plate and furniture thereof.

"That upon the union taking effect the font, communion table, and sacramental plate, and the stained glass windows, organ, bells, clock, and pulpit respectively belonging to the church of Allhallows Staining, shall be appropriated for the use of all or any of the new churches, the patronage of which may be vested in the Grocers Company, in substitution for the patronage of the benefice of Allhallows Staining, as the bishop shall select, and may be transferred to such new churches or church accordingly.

"That upon the union taking effect if the tables of fees used in the two churches be alike in all particulars the table of fees used in the church which will become the church of the united benefice shall (until revised or altered by proper authority) be the table of fees for the united benefice; but if such tables of fees be not alike in all particulars the same shall be of no authority, and a new table of fees shall be made by the proper authority for the use of the united parishes as if the same were one parish.

"That upon the union taking effect the persons who at that time shall hold the offices of parish clerk of the parish of Allhallows Staining and parish clerk of the parish of Saint Olave Hart Street shall, without any further appointment, become the joint parish clerks of the united benefice; and the persons who at the time of the union taking effect shall hold the offices of sexton of the parish of Allhallows Staining and sexton of the parish of Saint Olave Hart Street shall without any further appointment become the joint sextons of the united benefice; and upon the death, retirement or removal of either of the joint parish clerks the other of them shall become the parish clerk of the united benefice; and upon the death, retirement or removal of either of the joint sextons the other of them shall become the sexton of the united benefice; and the parish clerk of the united benefice shall afterwards upon any vacancy in that office be appointed by the incumbent of the united benefice, and any future vacancy in the office of sexton shall be filled up by the joint vestry of the two united parishes.

"That upon the union taking effect the persons who at that time shall respectively hold the offices of clerk and sexton of the parishes of Allhallows Staining and Saint Olave Hart Street, and who shall become such joint clerks and sextons of the united benefice shall respectively cease to hold the office of clerk and sexton respectively of such last-mentioned parishes; and the clerks shall so long as they shall be such joint clerks of the united benefice receive their present emoluments and from the same sources, and in like manner the sextons so long as they shall be such joint sextons of the united benefices shall receive their present emoluments and from the same sources, subject to the performance by such clerk and sexton respectively of such duties appertaining to the offices of clerk and sexton respectively in the parish church of the united benefices, or otherwise connected with such parish, and the performance of the services therein, as the rector and churchwardens may from time to time require; but no parish clerk or sexton of the united benefice shall have any larger estate or interest in his office than he shall have possessed in his original office before the union; the salaries of the clerk and sexton of the united benefice shall be paid as between the two parishes in proportion to the rateable annual value of the property as assessed for the time being for the purpose of the consolidated or police rate.

As respects the Residence of the Incumbent:

"That the rectory house of Saint Olave Hart Street be the residence of the incumbent of the united benefice.

As respects the Endowments:

"That upon the union taking effect all the properties constituting the endowments of the respective benefices of Allhallows Staining and Saint Olave Hart Street (except the tithes of Allhallows) be transferred and annexed to the united benefice as the endowment thereof.

As to the Patronage of the United Benefice:

"That the sole patronage of the united benefice be vested in the trustees of the advowson of Saint Olave Hart Street by way of substitution for the advowson of Saint Olave Hart Street, and shall be so vested in them upon the same trusts and subject to the same provisions as affect the advowson of Saint Olave Hart Street.

As respects the disused Church and the Curate's Residence and the Patronage to be vested in the Grocers Company in substitution for the Patronage of the Benefice of Allhallows Staining, and as regards the Tithes of Allhallows:

"That upon the union taking effect the site of the existing church of Allhallows Staining and of the curate's residence be sold by the Commissioners to the Master, Wardens and Commonalty of Freemen of the Art or Mystery of Clothworkers in the city of London (herein called the Clothworkers Company) for a sum to be previously agreed upon and specified in the scheme, or for a sum to be afterwards determined by the surveyor for the time being of the Commissioners, the surveyor for the time being of the Grocers Company, and the surveyor for the time being of the Clothworkers Company (or in case such surveyors shall be unable to agree upon a sum, then for such a sum as shall be determined by an umpire to be appointed by them); The site of the church of Allhallows Staining and the site of the curate's residence adjoining the same and the yard and ground belonging to such residence, including the passage or entrance thereto from Mark Lane, and including the curate's house and the materials thereof, be sold by the Commissioners, and that the Commissioners shall convey to the Clothworkers Company in fee simple (but subject as hereinafter is mentioned) the hereditaments to be so sold, and that in making such valuation regard shall be had to the obligations subject to which the sale is hereinafter proposed to be made.

"That the sale to be so made shall not include the materials of the Church of Allhallows Staining, or the font, communion table, plate, stained glass windows, organ, bells, clock, pulpit or other fittings or furniture of the church, and that the Commissioners shall have power to sell the same (except the font, communion table, plate, stained glass windows, organ, bells, clock, and pulpit) and to cause the property sold to be pulled down and removed by the purchasers, or to remove without selling the same all or any of the property not included in the sale to the Clothworkers Company and capable of being removed, and that the sale to the Clothworkers Company be made subject to the following obligations on the part of the Clothworkers Company, their successors and assigns, viz. :—

"First. An obligation to throw open and dedicate to the public use a sufficient portion of the site of the church under or adjacent to the east wall of the church to widen the foot pavement of Mark-lane, so that the line to form the west side of such foot pavement (to the extent of the frontage of the site of the church thereon) shall be a straight line drawn from the point at which the wall forming the north side of the church now meets the foot pavement of Mark-lane (at the extreme north-east point of such wall) to the point now forming the extreme north-east corner of the passage leading from Mark-lane to the curate's residence.

"Secondly. An obligation not to pull down or remove the tower of the Church of Allhallows Staining, but at the expense of the Clothworkers Company, their successors or assigns, to maintain and keep such tower at all times in repair, as a memorial of the original dedication and use of the site of the church.

"Thirdly. An obligation not to build or to allow any building to be erected on any part of the land forming the site of the Church of Allhallows Staining (other than the tower which is to be so maintained and kept in repair), except upon the portion fronting upon Mark-lane, which will lie between Mark-lane and a straight line connecting the two following points, namely, a point in the north side or boundary of the site distant twenty-nine feet from the northernmost point of the piece of land which is to be thrown into the foot pavement of Mark-lane as aforesaid, and a point in the south side or boundary of the site distant thirty-one feet from the southernmost point of the last-mentioned piece of land.

"Fourthly. An obligation to fence in the churchyard of Allhallows Staining at the cost of the Clothworkers Company, their successors or assigns, with a substantial ornamental iron railing, and at the like cost to plant in an ornamental manner and preserve at all times in good order so planted the churchyard and the portion which is to remain unbuilt upon as before is mentioned of the site of the body of the church as an open space.

"Fifthly. An obligation to pay to the Commissioners the costs and expenses of removing the bodies interred in the vault of the church of Allhallows Staining known as the rector's vault to a vault to be formed under some portion of such last-mentioned intended open space, which bodies shall be so removed accordingly. And an obligation to provide, form, and build such vault at the cost of the Clothworkers Company, their successors or assigns, and that after such removal the vaults under the last-mentioned intended open space shall be finally closed, and shall not afterwards be disturbed.

"Before the sale of the site of the church if it shall be known that any bodies are interred under such site the remains shall be decently removed and interred in the churchyard of Allhallows Staining or under some portion of the site (which is not to be built upon as aforesaid) of the church of Allhallows Staining, such removal and interment to be made by the Commissioners at the cost of the Clothworkers Company.

"That the proceeds of such sale or sales and the tithes of Allhallows be respectively applied and dealt with in such manner and subject to such provisions as shall be respectively indicated and contained in an Act of Parliament, a Bill for which has been introduced into Parliament and is now in progress, called or intended to be called 'Lady Slaney's (Trust) Estate Act, 1869,' (if that Act shall be passed), and that the several provisions to be contained in such Act be considered as part of the scheme.

"We, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, certify to your Majesty in Council that the proposals for this scheme have been consented to by the Bishop, the Grocers Company, the Trustees of Saint Olave Hart Street, and the Vestries of the parishes of Allhallows Staining, and Saint Olave Hart Street, and that the same scheme is in pursuance of 'Lady Slaney's (Trust) Estate Act, 1869,' and does not contain any alteration in or variation from the proposals set forth in the schedule to the said Act."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council, now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the union thereby contemplated shall take effect in the manner thereby provided.

Arthur Helps.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 31st day of March, 1870.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the thirteenth day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme, for authorizing the sale and disposal of certain property in the parish of Llancarvan, in the county of Glamorgan, now vested in us.

"Whereas under and by virtue of an indenture bearing date the twenty-ninth day of January, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-nine, made between the Reverend David Morgan, of Crosston, in the said parish of Llancarvan, Clerk, of the one part, and us the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England of the other part, the lands, tenements, and hereditaments described in the schedule hereunto annexed, became and are now vested in us.

"And whereas the lands, tenements, and hereditaments aforesaid are not subject to any outstanding beneficial lease or grant but are now in possession, but some portions thereof on account of their character or situation are unsuitable or inconvenient to be held or applied for the purposes for which estates vested in us are applicable under the Acts by which our proceedings are governed.

"And whereas with a view to the advantageous appropriation of the same or of the proceeds thereof for the ultimate improvement of our common fund it is expedient that the said lands, tenements, and hereditaments, or such part or parts thereof, as we shall at any time and from time to time think fit should be sold or disposed of, and accordingly that we should be empowered to sell or dispose of our interest in such lands, tenements, and hereditaments or in any part or parts thereof, in such manner as shall appear to us advisable.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose that we may be authorised and empowered by instrument or instruments in writing duly executed according to law from time to time to sell or dispose of and duly to convey according to the provisions of the said Act, all or any of the said lands, tenements, and hereditaments so vested in us as aforesaid, with their appurtenances and all our estate, right, title, and interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his or their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns or otherwise as he or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall upon due calculation and inquiry appear to us to be just and reasonable, it being our intention to invest the proceeds of such sale from time to time as occasion may arise in the purchase of other lands, tithes, rent charges, tenements, or hereditaments, or of some estate or interest therein convenient to be held by us for the purposes of the Acts by which our proceedings are governed as aforesaid, and in the meantime to invest the said proceeds in some government or parliamentary stock or other public securities in England.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of any other Act of Parliament.

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for authorizing the sale and disposal of certain property formerly belonging to the Prebend of Haydor-cum-Walton, in the Cathedral Church of Lincoln, and now vested in us.

"Whereas on the vacancy of the said prebend which occurred in or about the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-two, all the lands, hereditaments, and endowments theretofore belonging to the said prebend (except any right of patronage) became by virtue of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, absolutely vested in us, for the purposes and subject to the provisions applicable to other hereditaments vested in us.

"And whereas some portions of the said lands, hereditaments, and endowments, have been already sold and conveyed by us to other parties, and other portions of the said lands, hereditaments, and endowments are now in our possession, but on account of the character and situation of the property are unsuitable or inconvenient to be held or applied for the purposes for which estates vested in us are applicable, under the Acts by which our proceedings are governed.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose that we may be authorized and empowered by instrument or instruments in writing, duly executed according to law, from time to time to sell or dispose of, and duly to convey according to the provisions of the said Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty's reign, all or any of the said lands, hereditaments, and endowments, so in our possession as aforesaid, with their appurtenances, and all our estate, right, title, and interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his, her, or their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, or otherwise as he, she, or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall upon due calculation and inquiry appear to us to be just and reasonable, it being our intention to invest the proceeds of such sale from time to time, as occasion may arise, in the purchase of other lands, tithes, rent charges, tenements, or hereditaments, or of some estate or interest therein convenient to be held by us for the purposes of the Acts by which our proceedings are governed as aforesaid, and in the meantime to invest the said proceeds in some government or parliamentary stock, or other public securities in England.

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the fourth day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-nine, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme for authorizing the sale and disposal of certain property formerly belonging to the Prebend of Yatton, in the cathedral church of Wells, and now vested in us.

"Whereas on the vacancy of the said Prebend, which occurred in or about the month of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five by the decease of the Reverend Henry Watson Barnard, Clerk, the then Prebendary, all the lands, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments theretofore belonging to the said prebend (except rights of patronage) became by virtue of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, absolutely vested in us for the purposes and subject to the provisions applicable to other hereditaments vested in us.

"And whereas our estate in the lands, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments aforesaid consists of reversions expectant upon the determination of a beneficial lease, and of copyhold grants for lives, such lease and grants producing only a small annual revenue, and partly on that account, and partly on account of the character or situation of the property, certain portions of the same are unsuitable or inconvenient to be held or applied for the purposes for which estates vested in us are applicable under the Acts by which our proceedings are governed.

"And whereas by an Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, power is given to lessees holding under us, in the event of our declining to enter into a treaty for the sale of our reversions or the purchase of the leasehold interests to require us to purchase such leasehold interests at a valuation.

"And whereas with a view to the advantageous appropriation of the said lands, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments, or of the proceeds thereof, for the ultimate improvement of our common fund, it is expedient that the said lands, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments, or such parts thereof as we shall at any time and from time to time think fit, should be sold or disposed of, and accordingly that we should be empowered to dispose of our interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, in such manner as shall appear to us advisable.

"Now therefore, we humbly recommend and propose that we may be authorized and empowered by instrument or instruments in writing, duly executed according to law from time to time to sell or dispose of, and duly to convey according to the provisions of the said Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty's reign, with the consent of the holder or holders thereof, to be testified by his, her, or their being made parties to such instruments, all or any of the said lands, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments heretofore belonging to the said prebend of Yatton, and so vested in us as aforesaid, with their appurtenances, and all our estate, right, title, and interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his, her, or their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, or otherwise as he, she, or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall upon due calculation and inquiry appear to us to be just and reasonable, it being our intention to invest the proceeds of such sale from time to time, as occasion may arise, in the purchase of other lands, tithes, rent charges, tenements, or hereditaments, or of some estate or interest therein convenient to be held by us for the purposes of the Acts, by which our proceedings are governed as aforesaid, and in the meantime to invest the said proceeds in some government or parliamentary stock, or other public securities in England.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Bath and Wells.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-fifth day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-nine, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme for authorizing the sale and disposal of certain property formerly belonging to the bishoprick of Winchester, and now vested in us.

"Whereas by an Order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the eleventh day of November last, and made under the provisions of 'The Bishops Resignation Act, 1869,' the bishoprick of Winchester was declared to be vacant, and upon such vacancy all the lands, tithes, hereditaments and endowments then belonging to the said bishoprick (except rights of patronage and the episcopal houses of residence situate at Farnham, in the county of Surrey, and in Saint James's-square, in the county of Middlesex, and in the city of Winchester) became absolutely vested in us, for the purposes and subject to the provisions applicable to other hereditaments vested in us.

"And whereas the lands, tithes, hereditaments, and endowments aforesaid consist, to a considerable extent, of reversions expectant upon grants and leases for lives and years, and produce, during the subsistence of such grants and leases only small annual revenues, and on that account, and in some instances on account of the character or situation of the property, are unsuitable or inconvenient to be assigned as an endowment for the said bishoprick, or to be held or applied for the other purposes for which estates vested in us are applicable under the Acts by which our proceedings are governed.

"And whereas by the last-mentioned Act power is given to lessees holding under us, in the event of our declining to enter into a treaty for the sale of our reversions, or for the purchase of the leasehold interests, to require us to purchase such leasehold interests at a valuation.

"And whereas it is expedient that such of the aforesaid lands, tithes, hereditaments, and endowments lately belonging to the see of Winchester (either with or without other property vested in us, as the case may require), as in the judgment of our Estates Committee, and subject to the approbation of the bishop for the time being, shall be deemed convenient to be held as an endowment for the said see, and as will secure a net annual income of seven thousand pounds, being the income named for the Bishop of Winchester and his successors, by the Order made by your Majesty in Council on the twenty-fifth day of August, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-one, which order was duly published in the London Gazette on the nineteenth day of September following, should be assigned as the endowment of the said see, and that for that purpose, as well as with a view to the more advantageous appropriation of the remainder of the said lands, tithes, hereditaments, and endowments, or of the proceeds thereof, for the ultimate improvement of our common fund, we should be empowered to dispose of our interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, and in such manner as shall appear to us advisable.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, that we may be authorized and empowered, by instrument or instruments in writing duly executed according to law, from time to time to sell or dispose of, and duly to convey, according to the provisions of the said Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty's reign, with the consent of the respective holders (if any), to be testified by their being made parties to such instruments, all or any of the said lands, tithes, hereditaments, and endowments heretofore belonging to the said bishoprick of Winchester, and so vested in us as aforesaid, with their appurtenances, and all our estate, right, title, and interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his, her, or their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, or otherwise, as he, she, or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall upon due calculation and inquiry appear to us to be just and reasonable, it being our intention to invest the proceeds thereof from time to time, as occasion may arise, in the purchase of other lands, tithes, rent charges, tenements, or hereditaments, or of some estate or interest therein, convenient to be assigned as the endowment for the said see, or to be held by us for the purposes of the Acts by which our proceedings are governed as aforesaid, and in the meantime to invest the said proceeds in some Government or Parliamentary stock, or other public securities in England.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Winchester,

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight; and of another Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the second day of December, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-nine, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight; and of another Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, sections two, three, and twenty-four, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for authorizing the sale and disposal of certain property formerly belonging to the bishoprick of Salisbury, and now vested in us.

"Whereas on the vacancy of the said bishoprick, which occurred on or about the first day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-nine, by the decease of the Right Reverend Walter Kerr, the late bishop of Salisbury, all the lands, tithes, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments formerly belonging to the said bishoprick (except rights of patronage, and the episcopal house of residence, situate at Salisbury), became absolutely vested in us for the purposes, and subject to the provisions applicable to other hereditaments vested in us.

"And whereas the lands, tithes, tenements,

"And whereas by the last-mentioned Act, power is given to lessees holding under us, in the event of our declining to enter into a treaty for the sale of our reversions or for the purchase of the leasehold interests, to require us to purchase such leasehold interests at a valuation.

"And whereas it is expedient that such of the aforesaid lands, tithes, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments lately belonging to the See of Salisbury, either with or without other property vested in us, as the case may require, as in the judgment of our Estates Committee, and subject to the approbation of the bishop for the time being, shall be deemed convenient to be held as an endowment for the said see, and as will secure a net annual income of five thousand pounds, being the income named for the Bishop of Salisbury and his successors by the Order made by your Majesty in Council, on the twenty-fifth day of August, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-one, which Order was duly published in the London Gazette on the nineteenth day of September following, should be assigned as the endowment of the said see, and that for that purpose as well as with a view to the more advantageous appropriation of the remainder of the said lands, tithes, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments, or of the proceeds thereof, for the ultimate improvement of our common fund, we should be empowered to dispose of our interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, and in such manner as shall appear to us advisable.

Now therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, that we may be authorized and empowered by instrument or instruments in writing duly executed according to law, from time to time to sell or dispose of and duly to convey according to the provisions of the said Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty's reign, with the consent of the respective owners (if any) to be testified by their being made parties to such instruments, all or any of the said lands, tithes, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments, heretofore belonging to the said bishopric of Salisbury, and so vested in us by the vacation of the said bishoprick as aforesaid, with their appurtenances, and all our estate, right, title, and interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his, her, or their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns; or otherwise, as he, she, or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall upon due calculation and enquiry appear to us to be just and reasonable, it being our intention to invest the proceeds thereof from time to time as occasion may arise, in the purchase of other lands, tithes, rent-charges, tenements, or hereditaments, or of some estate or interest therein, convenient to be assigned as the endowment for the said see, or to be held by us for the purposes of the Acts by which our proceedings are governed as aforesaid, and in the meantime to invest the said proceeds in some government or parliamentary stock, or other public securities in England.

And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein-contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of any other Act of Parliament."

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the eleventh day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-nine, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for authorizing the sale and disposal of certain property formerly belonging to the archbishoprick of York, and now vested in us, and also of certain other property now vested in us.

"Whereas, under an Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, and by virtue of an Order of your Majesty in Council made under the provisions of the same Act, and bearing date the seventeenth day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-nine, and duly published in the London Gazette on the nineteenth day of the same month, certain lands and hereditaments then belonging to the said archbishoprick, being the lands and hereditaments comprised in the schedule marked A, annexed to the scheme ratified by the said Order, became and are now vested in us, in fee simple, for the purposes and subject to the provisions applicable to other hereditaments vested in us.

"And whereas, under and by virtue of three several indentures, the first bearing date the twenty-eighth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, and made between Edmund Denison, Robert Scholfield, and Edward Scholfield, therein respectively described, of the one part, and us the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England of the other part, and the second bearing date the fifteenth day of February, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, and made between the Duke of Buccleuch and Queensberry and Lord William Thynne, therein respectively described, of the first part, the Earl of Harewood, therein described, of the second part, and us the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England of the third part, and the third bearing date the twelfth day of November, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, and made between William Houfe, therein described, of the one part, and us the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England of the other part, the lands and hereditaments specified in the schedule hereto annexed became and are now vested in us, in fee simple, for the purposes and subject to the provisions applicable to other hereditaments vested in us.

"And whereas the whole of the lands and hereditaments which so became vested in us as aforesaid by the said Order of your Majesty in Council and the said three indentures are now in our possession, but some portions thereof, on account of their character or situation, are unsuitable or inconvenient to be held or applied for the purposes for which estates vested in us are applicable under the Acts by which our proceedings are governed.

"And whereas, with a view to the advantageous appropriation of the said lands and hereditaments, or of the proceeds thereof for the ultimate improvement of our common fund, it is expedient that the said lands and hereditaments, or such part or parts thereof as we shall at any time and from time to time think fit, should be sold or disposed of, and accordingly that we should be empowered to sell or dispose of our interest in such lands and hereditaments, or in any part or parts thereof, in such manner as shall appear to us advisable.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, that we may be authorized and empowered, by instrument or instruments, in writing, duly executed according to law from time to time, to sell or dispose of, and duly to convey, according to the provisions of the said Act, all or any of the said lands and hereditaments so vested in us as aforesaid under the said Order of your Majesty in Council, and under the said three indentures, with their appurtenances, and all our estate, right, title, and interest therein, or in part or parts thereof, unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his or their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, or otherwise as he or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall, upon due calculation and inquiry, appear to us to be just and reasonable, it being our intention to invest the proceeds of such sale or sales from time to time as occasion may arise in the purchase of other lands, tithes, rent-charges, tenements, or hereditaments, or of some estate or interest therein, convenient to be held by us for the purposes of the Acts by which our proceedings are governed as aforesaid, and in the meantime to invest the said proceeds in some government or parliamentary stock or other public securities in England.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament.

" SCHEDULE.

"All those the lands situate in the township of Brighton, in the parish of Bubwith, in the county of York, which in the schedule annexed to the indenture of the twenty-eighth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, referred to in this scheme, are particularly described and set out as follows; that is to say:

Which tithe rent charge of ninety-five pounds is one moiety of a tithe rent charge of one hundred and ninety pounds, by the tithe apportionment award of the township of Brighton, awarded in lieu of all the great tithes, and tithes of hemp and flax arising or accruing upon all the lands of the same township, except the lands of the hamlet of Gunley, the same moiety having been awarded to the Earl of Harewood, and which tithe rent charge of seven pounds was awarded to the Earl of Harewood instead of one moiety of the tithes of potatoes arising or accruing upon all the lands of the said township of Brighton except the lands of the said hamlet of Gunley.

All those the lands which, in the indenture of the twelfth day of November, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, referred to in this scheme, are particularly described as follows; that is to say: All that close of arable land called New Close, situate, lying, and being in the township of Brighton, in the parish of Bubwith, in the East Riding of the county of York, containing by survey, according to the apportionment of tithe rent charges for the said township of Brighton, four acres, three roods, and thirty-eight perches, and now in the occupation of John Coldwell; and also all that one flatt of land, situate, lying, and being in the New Moor Field, at Brighton aforesaid, containing by survey, according to the tithe apportionment aforesaid, three acres, one rood, and thirty-eight perches, and now in the occupation of Edward Howden (which said close and flatt of land formerly passed by the description of, All that close or parcel of land or ground called New Close, containing by estimation four acres and a half (more or less), situate at and being at Brighton aforesaid, between the Mill Field and Longland Field).

And also all those several lands, or pieces or parcels of ground, constituting one flatt, and containing altogether by estimation four acres, more or less, situate and being in a certain open field or unenclosed place at Brighton, called the New Moor, and lying between the flats or lands of Lord Harewood and John Brown, which same close and lands were to be considered and assessed as a quarter of an oxgang, and were formerly in the tenure or occupation of William Simpson.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of York.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the fourth day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-nine, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme for authorizing the sale and disposal of certain property now vested in us.

"Whereas under and by virtue of a certain indenture, bearing date the eighth day of December, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, and made between Robert Lake, of Milton Chapel, near Canterbury, in the county of Kent, Esquire, of the first part; James Lake, of Newlands, in the parish of Teynham, in the said county of Kent, Esquire, and the said Robert Lake (the surviving executors and trustees of the will of John Lake, late of Radfield, in the parish of Bapchild, in the county of Kent aforesaid, Gentleman, deceased), of the second part; Mercy Lake, the wife of the said Robert Lake, and daughter of the said John Lake, of Radfield, of the third part; and us, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, of the fourth part, certain lands and hereditaments situate in the parish of Ruckinge, in the county of Kent, more particularly described in the schedule hereto annexed, became and are now vested in us, in fee simple, for the purposes and subject to the provisions applicable to other hereditaments vested in us.

"And whereas the lands and hereditaments aforesaid are not subject to any outstanding beneficial lease or grant, but are now in possession but some portions thereof on account of their character or situation are unsuitable or inconvenient to be held or applied for the purposes for which estates vested in us are applicable, under the Acts by which our proceedings are governed.

"And whereas with a view to the advantageous appropriation of the same, or of the proceeds thereof, for the ultimate improvement of our common fund, it is expedient that the said lands and hereditaments, or such part or parts thereof, as we shall at any time and from time to time think fit should be sold or disposed of, and accordingly that we should be empowered to sell or dispose of our interest in such lands and hereditaments, or in any part or parts thereof, in such manner as shall appear to us advisable.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose that we may be authorized and empowered, by instrument or instruments in writing, duly executed according to law, from time to time to sell or dispose of, and duly to convey, according to the provisions of the said Act, all or any of the said lands and hereditaments so vested in us as aforesaid, with their appurtenances, and all our estate, right, title, and interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his or their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, or otherwise, as he or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall upon due calculation and enquiry appear to us to be just and reasonable, it being our intention to invest the proceeds of such sale from time to time as occasion may arise, in the purchase of other lands, tithes, rent-charges, tenements, or hereditaments, or of some estate or interest therein convenient to be held by us for the purposes of the Acts by which our proceedings are governed as aforesaid, and in the meantime to invest the said proceeds in some government or parliamentary stock or other public securities in England.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the fourth day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-nine, in the words following; that is to say:

We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme for authorizing the sale and disposal of certain property, formerly belonging to the Prebend of Hova Ecclesia in the cathedral church of Chichester, and now vested in us.

"Whereas on the vacancy of the said prebend which occurred on or about the tenth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and forty-one, by the decease of the Reverend Henry Plimley, the then prebendary, all the lands, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments theretofore belonging to the said prebend (except rights of patronage) became, by virtue of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, absolutely vested in us for the purposes and subject to the provisions applicable to other hereditaments vested in us.

"And whereas our estate in the lands, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments aforesaid consists as to part thereof of a reversion expectant upon the determination of a beneficial lease, such lease producing only a small annual revenue, and partly on that account and partly on account of the character or situation of the property, certain portions of the same are unsuitable or inconvenient to be held or applied for the purposes for which estates vested in us are applicable under the Acts, by which our proceedings are governed.

"And whereas by an Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, power is given to lessees holding under us, in the event of our declining to enter into a treaty for the sale of our reversions for the purchase of the leasehold interests, to require us to purchase such leasehold interests at a valuation.

"And whereas, with a view to the advantageous appropriation of the said lands, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments, or of the proceeds thereof, for the ultimate improvement of our common fund, it is expedient that the said lands, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments, or such parts thereof as we shall at any time, and from time to time think fit, should be sold or disposed of, and accordingly that we should be empowered to dispose of our interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, in such manner as shall appear to us advisable.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose that we may be authorized and empowered by instrument or instruments, in writing, duly executed according to law, from time to time, to sell or dispose of, and duly to convey according to the provisions of the said Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty's reign, with the consent of the holder or holders thereof, to be testified by his, her, or their being made parties to such instruments, all or any of the said lands, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments heretofore belonging to the said prebend of Hova Ecclesia, and so vested in us as aforesaid, with their appurtenances, and all our estate, right, title, and interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his, her, or their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, or otherwise as he, she, or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall upon due calculation and inquiry appear to us to be just and reasonable, it being our intention to invest the proceeds of such sale from time to time, as occasion may arise, in the purchase of other lands, tithes, rent charges, tenements, or hereditaments, or of some estate or interest therein, convenient to be held by us for the purposes of the Acts, by which our proceedings are governed as aforesaid, and in the meantime to invest the said proceeds in some government or parliamentary stock, or other public securities in England.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Chichester.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the fourth day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-nine, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for authorizing the sale and disposal of certain property formerly belonging to the archdeaconry of Ely, in the diocese of Ely, and now vested in us:

"Whereas under an Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of another Act of the fourth and fifth years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and by virtue of an Order of your Majesty in Council made under the provisions of the same Acts, and bearing date the ninth day of September, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, and duly published in the London Gazette on the twelfth day of the same month, all lands, tithes, and hereditaments (except rights of patronage) then belonging to the said archdeaconry, became absolutely vested in us, for the purposes and subject to the provisions applicable to other hereditaments vested in us:

"And whereas the lands, tithes, hereditaments, and endowments aforesaid consist to a considerable extent of reversions expectant upon leases for lives, and produce during the subsistence of such leases only small annual revenues, and on that account, and in some instances on account of the character or situation of the property are unsuitable or inconvenient to be held, or applied for the purposes for which estates vested in us are applicable under the Acts by which our proceedings are governed.

"And whereas by an Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, power is given to lessees holding under us in the event of our declining to enter into a treaty for the sale of our reversions, or the purchase of the leasehold interests, to require us to purchase such leasehold interests at a valuation.

"And whereas with a view to the advantageous appropriation of the said lands, tithes, and hereditaments, or of the proceeds thereof, for the ultimate improvement of our common fund, it is expedient that the said lands, tithes, and hereditaments, or such parts thereof as we shall at any time and from time to time think fit, should be sold or disposed of, and accordingly that we should be empowered to dispose of our interest in such lands, tithes, and hereditaments, or in any part or parts thereof, in such manner as shall appear to us advisable.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose that we may be authorized and empowered by instrument or instruments in writing, duly executed according to law from time to time, to sell or dispose of, and duly to convey according to the provisions of the said Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty's reign, with the consent of the respective holders (if any) to be testified by their being made parties to such instruments, all or any of the said lands, tithes, and hereditaments heretofore belonging to the said archdeaconry of Ely, and so vested in us as aforesaid, with their appurtenances, and all our estate, right, title, and interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his or their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, or otherwise as he or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall upon due calculation and inquiry appear to us to be just and reasonable, it being our intention to invest the proceeds of such sale from time to time, as occasion may arise, in the purchase of other lands, tithes, rent charges, tenements, or hereditaments, or of some estate or interest therein convenient to be held by us for the purposes of the Acts, by which our proceedings are governed as aforesaid, and in the meantime to invest the said proceeds in some government or parliamentary stock or other public securities in England:

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Ely.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the eleventh day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-nine, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for authorizing the sale and disposal of certain property formerly belonging to the Prebend of Gaia Major, in the cathedral church of Lichfield, and now vested in us.

"Whereas on the vacancy of the said prebend, which occurred in or about the month of October, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-two, by the decease of the Reverend Simeon Clayton, Clerk, the then prebendary, all the lands, tithes, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments theretofore belonging to the said prebend (except rights of patronage), became, by virtue of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, absolutely vested in us for the purposes, and subject to the provisions, applicable to other hereditaments vested in us.

"And whereas a considerable portion of the said lands, tithes, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments aforesaid, consist of reversions expectant upon beneficial leases, and produce during the subsistence of such leases only a small annual revenue, and partly on that account, and partly on account of the character or situation of the property, are unsuitable or inconvenient to be held or applied for the purposes for which estates vested in us are applicable under the Acts by which our proceedings are governed.

"And whereas, by an Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, power is given to lessees holding under us, in the event of our declining to enter into a treaty for the sale of our reversions or the purchase of the leasehold interests, to require us to purchase such leasehold interests at a valuation.

"And whereas, with a view to the advantageous appropriation of the said lands, tithes, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments, or of the proceeds thereof, for the ultimate improvement of our common fund, it is expedient that the said lands, tithes, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments, or such parts thereof as we shall at any time, and from time to time, think fit should be sold or disposed of, and, accordingly, that we should be empowered to dispose of our interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, in such manner as shall appear to us advisable.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose that we may be authorized and empowered, by instrument or instruments in writing, duly executed according to law, from time to time to sell or dispose of, and duly to convey, according to the provisions of the said Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty's reign, with the consent of the holder or holders thereof (if any), to be testified by his, her, or their being made parties to such instruments, all or any of the said lands, tithes, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments theretofore belonging to the said prebend of Gaia Major, and so vested in us as aforesaid, with their appurtenances, and all our estate, right, title, and interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his, her, or their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, or otherwise, as he, she, or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall upon due calculation and inquiry appear to us to be just and reasonable, it being our intention to invest the proceeds of such sale, from time to time, as occasion may arise, in the purchase of other lands, titles, rent charges, tenements, or hereditaments, or of some estate or interest therein convenient to be held by us for the purposes of the Acts by which our proceedings are governed, as aforesaid, and in the meantime to invest the said proceeds in some government or parliamentary stock, or other public securities in England.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Lichfield.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the second day of December, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-nine, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for authorizing the sale and disposal of certain property formerly belonging to the dean and chapter of Ely, and now vested in us.

"Whereas under 'The Ecclesiastical Commission Act, 1868,' and by virtue of an Order of your Majesty in Council made under the provisions of the said Act, bearing date the seventh day of October last past, and duly published in the London Gazette on the eighth day of the same month, all the property which then belonged to the said dean and chapter of Ely (excepting certain portions thereof in such Order particularly excepted, and excepting also any rights of ecclesiastical patronage) was transferred to and became absolutely vested in us, for the purposes and subject to the provisions applicable to other hereditaments vested in us.

"And whereas the property aforesaid consists to a considerable extent of reversions expectant upon grants and leases for lives and years, and produces, during the subsistence of such grants and leases, only small annual revenues, and on that account, and in some instances on account of its character or situation, is unsuitable or inconvenient to be assigned as an endowment for the said dean and chapter, or to be held or applied for the other purposes for which estates vested in us are applicable under the Acts by which our proceedings are governed.

"And whereas by an Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, power is given to lessees holding under us, in the event of our declining to enter into a treaty for the sale of our reversions, or the purchase of the leasehold interests, to require us to purchase such leasehold interests at a valuation.

"And whereas, with a view to the appropriation of such portions of the aforesaid property lately belonging to the said dean and chapter of Ely (either with or without other property vested in us, as the case may require), as in the judgment of our Estates Committee, and subject to the approbation of the said dean and chapter, shall be deemed convenient to be held as an endowment for the said dean and chapter, and as will secure a net annual income of five thousand and two hundred pounds (being the income contemplated by the above-mentioned Order of your Majesty in Council, of the seventh day of October last), and for that purpose, as well as with a view to the more advantageous appropriation of the remainder of the said property, or of the proceeds thereof, for the ultimate improvement of our common fund, it is expedient that the said property, or such part or parts thereof as we shall at any time and from time to time think fit, should be sold or disposed of, and accordingly, that we should be empowered to dispose of our interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, in such manner as shall appear to us advisable.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, that we may be authorized and empowered, by instrument or instruments, in writing, duly executed according to law, from time to time, to sell or dispose of, and duly to convey, according to the provisions of the said Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty's reign, with the consent of the respective holders (if any) to be testified by their being made parties to such instruments, all or any part of the said property heretofore belonging to the said dean and chapter of Ely, and so transferred to and vested in us as aforesaid, with its appurtenances, and all our estate, right, title, and interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his, her, or their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, or otherwise, as he, she, or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall, upon due calculation and inquiry, appear to us to be just and reasonable, it being our intention to invest the proceeds of such sales from time to time as occasion may arise in the purchase of other lands, tithes, rent-charges, tenements, or hereditaments, or of some estate or interest therein convenient to be assigned as the endowment for the said dean and chapter to be held by us for the purposes of the Acts by which our proceedings are governed as aforesaid, and in the meantime to invest the said proceeds in some government or parliamentary stock or other public securities in England.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Ely.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the eighteenth day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-nine, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for authorizing the sale and disposal of certain property now vested in us.

"Whereas, under and by virtue of a certain indenture, bearing date the twentieth day of November, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, and made, or expressed to be made, between John Stacey Norris, of Carmelow, in the county of Stafford, Farmer (surviving devisee, in trust, for sale, appointed in and by the last will and testament of William Norris, late of Eccleshall aforesaid, Gentleman, deceased), of the one part, and us, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, of the other part, certain lands and hereditaments, situate in the parish of Eccleshall aforesaid, more particularly described in the schedule hereto annexed, became and are now vested in us, in fee simple, for the purposes, and subject to the provisions applicable to other hereditaments vested in us.

"And whereas the lands and hereditaments aforesaid are not subject to any outstanding beneficial lease or grant, but are now in possession, but some portions thereof, on account of their character or situation, are unsuitable or inconvenient to be held or applied for the purposes for which estates vested in us are applicable, under the Acts by which our proceedings are governed.

"And whereas, with a view to the advantageous appropriation of the same, or of the proceeds thereof, for the ultimate improvement of our common fund, it is expedient that the said lands and hereditaments, or such part or parts thereof as we shall at any time, and from time to time, think fit, should be sold or disposed of, and accordingly that we should be empowered to sell or dispose of our interest in such lands and hereditaments, or in any part or parts thereof, in such manner, as shall appear to us advisable.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, that we may be authorized and empowered, by instrument or instruments in writing, duly executed according to law, from time to time to sell or dispose of, and duly to convey, according to the provisions of the said Act, all or any of the said lands and hereditaments, so vested in us as aforesaid, with their appurtenances, and all our estate, right, title, and interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his or their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, or otherwise, as he or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall, upon due calculation and inquiry, appear to us to be just and reasonable, it being our intention to invest the proceeds of such sale from time to time, as occasion may arise, in the purchase of other lands, tithes, rent charges, tenements, or hereditaments, or of some estate or interest therein convenient to be held by us for the purposes of the Acts, by which our proceedings are governed as aforesaid, and in the meantime to invest the said proceeds in some government or parliamentary stock, or other public securities in England.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the second day of December, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-nine, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for authorizing the sale and disposal of certain property, formerly belonging to the dean and chapter of the collegiate church at Westminster, and now vested in us.

"Whereas, under an Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and another Act of the fourth and fifth years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and by virtue of an Order of your Majesty in Council, made under the provisions of the said Acts, bearing date the twenty-sixth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, and duly published in the London Gazette on the twenty-ninth of the same month, certain lands, tithes, and hereditaments, situate at Castle Norton, in the county of Worcester, and particularly described in the schedule to the said Order, were transferred to and became absolutely vested in us for the purposes, and subject to the provisions applicable to other hereditaments vested in us.

"And whereas, under 'The Ecclesiastical Commission Act, 1868,' and by virtue of an Order of your Majesty in Council, made under the provisions of the same Act, bearing date the seventh day of August, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-nine, and duly published in the London Gazette on the thirteenth of the same month, all the manors, lands, tithes, tenements, and hereditaments, and sums of stock or cash then belonging to the said dean and chapter of the said collegiate church (excepting certain portions thereof in such Order particularly excepted, and excepting also any rights of ecclesiastical patronage) were transferred to and became absolutely vested in us for the purposes, and subject to the provisions applicable to other hereditaments vested in us.

"And whereas the manors, lands, tithes, tenements, and hereditaments, so transferred to and vested in us as aforesaid, by virtue of the said two several Orders of your Majesty in Council, consist to a considerable extent of reversions expectant upon grants and leases for lives and years, and produce during the subsistence of such grants and leases only small annual revenues, and on that account and in some instances on account of the character or situation of the property are unsuitable or inconvenient to be assigned as an endowment for the said dean and chapter, or to be held or applied for the other purposes for which estates vested in us are applicable under the Acts by which our proceedings are governed.

"And whereas, by an Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, power is given to lessees holding under us, in the event of our declining to enter into a treaty for the sale of our reversions or the purchase of the leasehold interests to require us to purchase such leasehold interests at a valuation.

"And whereas, with a view to the appropriation of such portions of the aforesaid manors, lands, tithes, tenements, and hereditaments lately belonging to the said dean and chapter (either with or without other property vested in us, as the case may require) as in the judgment of our Estates Committee, and subject to the approbation of the said dean and chapter, shall be deemed convenient to be held as an endowment for the said dean and chapter, and as will secure a net annual income of nine thousand and nine hundred pounds (being the income contemplated by the above-mentioned Order of your Majesty in Council of the seventh day of August last), and for that purpose, as well as with a view to the more advantageous appropriation of the remainder of the said manors, lands, tithes, tenements, and hereditaments, or of the proceeds thereof, for the ultimate improvement of our common fund, it is expedient that the said manors, lands, tithes, tenements, and hereditaments, or such part or parts thereof as we shall at any time and from time to time think fit, should be sold or disposed of, and accordingly, that we should be empowered to dispose of our interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, in such manner as shall appear to us advisable.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, that we may be authorized and empowered, by instrument or instruments in writing, duly executed according to law, from time to time to sell or dispose of, and duly to convey, according to the provisions of the said Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty's reign, with the consent of the respective holders (if any), to be testified by their being made parties to such instruments, all or any of the said manors, lands, tithes, tenements, and hereditaments heretofore belonging to the said dean and chapter of the collegiate church of Westminster, and so vested in us as aforesaid, with their appurtenances, and all our estate, right, title, and interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his, her, or their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, or otherwise, as he, she, or they shall direct or appoint, and for such considerations as shall, upon due calculation and enquiry, appear to us to be just and reasonable, it being our intention to invest the proceeds of such sale from time to time, as occasion may arise, in the purchase of other lands, tithes, rent-charges, tenements, or hereditaments, or of some estate or interest therein, convenient to be assigned as an endowment for the said dean and chapter, or to be held by us for the purposes of the Acts by which our proceedings are governed as aforesaid, and in the meantime to invest the said proceeds in some government or parliamentary stock or other public securities in England.

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-seventh day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme for authorizing the sale and disposal of certain property formerly belonging to the prebend of Mora, otherwise the Moor, in the cathedral church of Saint Paul, London, and now vested in us.

"Whereas on the vacancy of the said prebend, which occurred on or about the seventeenth day of February, one thousand eight hundred and forty-seven, by the decease of the venerable Joseph Holden Pott, Archdeacon of London, all the lands, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments theretofore belonging to the said prebend (except any rights of patronage), became, by virtue of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, absolutely vested in us for the purposes and subject to the provisions applicable to other hereditaments vested in us.

"And whereas the lands, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments aforesaid, are demised by certain leases and sub-leases for long terms of years, and the same produce to us during the subsistence of such leases and sub-leases only small annual revenues, and partly on that account, and in some instances on account of the character or situation of the property are unsuitable or inconvenient to be held or applied for the purposes for which estates vested in us are applicable under the Acts by which our proceedings are governed.

"And whereas, by an Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, power is given to lessees holding under us, in the event of our declining to enter into a treaty for the sale of our reversions or the purchase of the leasehold interests, to require us to purchase such leasehold interests at a valuation.

"And whereas, with a view to the advantageous appropriation of the said lands, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments, or of the proceeds thereof, for the ultimate improvement of our common fund, it is expedient that the said lands, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments, or such parts thereof as we shall at any time, and from time to time, think fit should be sold or disposed of, and accordingly that we should be empowered to dispose of our interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, in such manner as shall appear to us advisable.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, that we may be authorized and empowered, by instrument or instruments in writing duly executed according to law, from time to time to sell or dispose of, and duly to convey, according to the provisions of the said Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty's reign, with the consent of the holder or holders thereof (if any), to be testified by his, her, or their being made parties to such instruments, all or any of the said lands, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments, formerly belonging to the said prebend, and so vested in us as aforesaid, with their appurtenances, and all our estate, right, title, and interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his, her, or their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, or otherwise, as he, she, or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall, upon due calculation and inquiry, appear to us to be just and reasonable, it being our intention to invest the proceeds of such sale from time to time, as occasion may arise, in the purchase of other lands, tithes, rent charges, tenements, or hereditaments, or of some estate or interest therein convenient to be held by us, for the purpose of the Acts by which our proceedings are governed, as aforesaid, and in the meantime to invest the proceeds in some government or parliamentary stock, or other public securities in England.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of any other Act of Parliament."

AT the Court at Windsor, the 31st day of March, 1870.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King

George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the twenty-seventh day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of your Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five; have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Saviour, situate at Mortimer West End, in the parish of Stratfield Mortimer, which said parish is situate partly in the county of Berks, and partly in the county of Southampton, and wholly in the diocese of Oxford.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint Saviour, situate at Mortimer West End as aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend John Fielder, Bishop of the said diocese of Oxford (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Stratfield Mortimer, which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Saint Saviour, situate at Mortimer West End as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Saviour, Mortimer West End.'

"And with the like consent of the said John Fielder, Bishop of the said diocese of Oxford (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices, should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us, the said Commissioners, to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism or for the registration thereof.

We, therefore, humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to your Majesty, in your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Saint Saviour, Mortimer West End, being:—

"All that part of the parish of Stratfield Mortimer, situate partly in the county of Berks, and partly in the county of Southampton, and wholly in the diocese of Oxford, which is comprised within and is co-extensive with the limits of that portion of the tithing of Mortimer West End in the said county of Southampton, which is bounded on the north-east by the tithing of Stratfield Mortimer, in the county of Berks aforesaid, on the north by the parish of Upton Nervet, in the said county of Berks, and in the diocese of Oxford aforesaid, on the northwest by the parish of Padworth, in the last-named county and diocese, on the west by the parish of Aldermaston, in the same county and diocese, on the south by the parish of Silchester, in the said county of Southampton, and in the diocese of Winchester, and on the remaining side, that is to say, on the east by an imaginary line, commencing upon the boundary, which divides the last-named parish from the parish of Stratfield Mortimer aforesaid, at the point where the road leading from Silchester to Stratfield Saye is joined by the road leading from Bramley, past the houses called or known respectively as Sheepgrove Farm and as Brocas Lands Farm to Stratfield Mortimer; and extending thence, north-eastward for a distance of fifty-six chains or thereabouts, along the middle of the last-described road to its junction near the house called or known as Brocas Lands Farm aforesaid, with Turks-lane; and extending thence, north-westward along the middle of the last-named lane to its junction with the road leading from Sims's Farm past Summerlug towards Stratfield Mortimer; and extending thence, north-eastward for a distance of five and a half chains or thereabouts, along the middle of the last-described road to the boundary at or near Summerlug aforesaid, which divides the said tithing of Mortimer, West End, from the tithing of Stratfield Mortimer aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Oxford.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 31st day of March, 1870.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the third day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for authorizing the sale and disposal of certain property formerly belonging to the prebend of Itchen Abbas, in the collegiate church of Itchen Abbas, in the county of Southampton.

"Whereas by the decease of the Reverend Robert Wright, which occurred in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty, all the lands, tenements, and hereditaments theretofore belonging to the said prebend, became by virtue of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, absolutely vested in us, for the purposes and subject to the provisions applicable to other hereditaments vested in us.

"And whereas our estate in the lands, tenements, and hereditaments aforesaid consists of a reversion expectant upon the determination of a beneficial lease, such lease producing only a small annual revenue, and partly on that account, and partly on account of the character or situation of the property, the said lands, tenements, and hereditaments are unsuitable or inconvenient to be held or applied for the purposes for which estates vested in us are applicable, under the Acts by which our proceedings are governed.

"And whereas by an Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, power is given to lessees holding under us, in the event of our declining to enter into a treaty for the sale of our reversions, or the purchase of the leasehold interests, to require us to purchase such leasehold interests at a valuation.

"And whereas with a view to the advantageous appropriation of the said lands, tenements, and hereditaments, or of the proceeds thereof, for the ultimate improvement of our common fund, it is expedient that the said lands, tenements, and hereditaments, or such parts thereof as we shall at any time and from time to time think fit should be sold or disposed of, and accordingly that we should be empowered to dispose of our interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, in such manner as shall appear to us advisable.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose that we may be authorized and empowered by instrument or instruments in writing, duly executed according to law from time to time to sell or dispose of, and duly to convey, according to the provisions of the said Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty's reign, with the consent of the holder or holders thereof, to be testified by his, her, or their being made parties to such instruments, all or any of the said lands, tenements, and hereditaments heretofore belonging to the said prebend of Itchen Abbas, and so vested in us as aforesaid, with their appurtenances, and all our estate, right, title, and interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his, her, or their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns or otherwise as he, she, or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall upon due calculation and inquiry appear to us to be just and reasonable, it being our intention to invest the proceeds of such sale from time to time as occasion may arise in the purchase of other lands, tithes, rent charges, tenements, or hereditaments, or of some estate or interest therein, convenient to be held by us for the purposes of the Acts by which our proceedings are governed as aforesaid, and in the meantime to invest the said proceeds in some government or parliamentary stock or other public securities in England.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Winchester.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 31st day of March, 1870.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the third day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for authorizing the sale and disposal of certain property formerly belonging to the archdeaconry of Barnstaple, in the diocese of Exeter, and now vested in us.

"Whereas, under an Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and another Act of the thirteenth and fourteenth years of your Majesty, chapter ninety-four, and by virtue of an Order of your Majesty in Council, made under the provisions of the same Acts, and bearing date the nineteenth day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, and duly published in the London Gazette on the twenty-second day of the same month, all lands, tenements, and hereditaments, whatsoever, then belonging to the said archdeaconry of Barnstaple, became absolutely vested in us for the purposes, and subject to the provisions, applicable to other hereditaments vested in us.

"And whereas the lands, tenements, and hereditaments aforesaid are subject to a beneficial lease for lives, and produce during the subsistence of such lease only a small annual revenue, and, on that account, and partly on account of the character or situation of the property, are unsuitable or inconvenient to be held or applied for the purposes for which estates vested in us are applicable under the Acts by which our proceedings are governed.

"And whereas by an Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, power is given to lessees holding under us, in the event of our declining to enter into a treaty for the sale of our reversions, or the purchase of the leasehold interests, to require us to purchase such leasehold interests at a valuation.

"And whereas, with a view to the advantageous appropriation of the said lands, tenements, and hereditaments, or of the proceeds thereof, for the ultimate improvement of our common fund, it is expedient that the said lands, tenements, and hereditaments, or such part or parts thereof as we shall at any time and from time to time think fit, should be sold or disposed of, and accordingly that we should be empowered to dispose of our interests therein, or in any part or parts thereof, in such manner as shall appear to us advisable.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose that we may be authorized and empowered, by instrument or instruments in writing, duly executed according to law, from time to time to sell or dispose of, and duly to convey, according to the provisions of the said Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty's reign, with the consent of the respective holders (if any), to be testified by their being made parties to such instruments, all or any of the said lands, tenements, and hereditaments heretofore belonging to the said archdeaconry of Barnstaple, and so vested in us as aforesaid, with their appurtenances, and all our estate, right, title, and interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his, her, or their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, or otherwise, as he, she, or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall upon due calculation and inquiry appear to us to be just and reasonable, it being our intention to invest the proceeds of such sale, from time to time, as occasion may arise, in the purchase of other lands, tithes, rent charges, tenements, or hereditaments, or of some estate or interest therein, convenient to be held by us for the purposes of the Acts by which our proceedings are governed as aforesaid, and in the meantime to invest the proceeds in some government or parliamentary stock, or other public securities in England.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Exeter.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the tenth day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for authorizing the sale and disposal of certain property formerly belonging to the custos and college of vicars choral of the cathedral church of Exeter, and now vested in us.

"Whereas under an Act of the twenty-seventh and twenty-eighth years of your Majesty, chapter seventy, and by virtue of an Order of your Majesty in Council, made under the provisions of the same Act, and bearing date the fourth day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, and duly published in the London Gazette, on the fifth day of the same month, certain lands, tithes, and other hereditaments, then belonging to the said custos and college of vicars choral, became absolutely vested in us for the purposes and subject to the provisions applicable to other hereditaments vested in us.

"And whereas the greater part of the lands, tithes, and hereditaments aforesaid, are demised by beneficial leases or grants for lives or terms of years and produce during the subsistence of such leases or grants only a small annual revenue, and on that account and in some instances on account of the character or situation of the property are unsuitable or inconvenient to be held or applied for the purposes for which estates vested in us are applicable under the Acts by which our proceedings are governed.

"And whereas by an Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four power is given to lessees holding under us in the event of our declining to enter into a treaty for the sale of our reversions or the purchase of the leasehold interests to require us to purchase such leasehold interests at a valuation.

"And whereas with a view to the advantageous appropriation of the said lands, tithes, and hereditaments or of the proceeds thereof for the ultimate improvement of our common fund, it is expedient that the said lands, tithes, and hereditaments, or such part or parts thereof as we shall at any time and from time to time think fit should be sold or disposed of, and accordingly that we should be empowered to dispose of our interest therein or in any part or parts thereof, in such manner as shall appear to us advisable.

"Now therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, that we may be authorized and empowered by instrument or instruments in writing, duly executed according to law, from time to time, to sell or dispose of and duly to convey according to the provisions of the said Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty's reign, with the consent of the respective holders (if any), to be testified by their being made parties to such instruments, all or any of the said lands, tithes, and hereditaments heretofore belonging to the said custos and college of vicars choral, and so vested in us as aforesaid, with their appurtenances and all our estate, right, title, and interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his, her, or their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, or otherwise, as he, she, or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall upon due calculation and inquiry appear to us to be just and reasonable, it being our intention to invest the proceeds of such sale from time to time as occasion may arise, in the purchase of other lands, tithes, rent-charges, tenements, or hereditaments, or of some estate or interest therein, convenient to be held by us for the purposes of the Acts by which our proceedings are governed as aforesaid, and in the meantime to invest the proceeds in some government or parliamentary stock or other public securities in England.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Exeter.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 31st day of March, 1870.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the third day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act passed in the session of Parliament, held in the third and fourth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to carry into effect with certain modifications the Fourth Report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues;' and of another Act passed in the session of Parliament, held in the fourth and fifth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to explain and amend two several Acts relating to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England,' have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme relating to the maintenance of the fabric of the cathedral church at Ripon.

"Whereas by the firstly recited Act, it was enacted, that as soon as conveniently might be, and by the authority of an Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying a scheme to be prepared by us such annual sums should be determined upon to be paid and should accordingly be paid by us, as after due enquiry and calculation should give to the dean of every cathedral and collegiate church in England, an average annual income of one thousand pounds, and to the respective canons of every cathedral church in England, an average annual income of five hundred pounds, and with regard to the cathedral church of Ripon, as should also enable the chapter thereof to provide for the efficient performance of all the duties of the said church, and for the maintenance of the fabric thereof.

"And whereas, by the secondly recited Act, it was enacted, that notwithstanding such last recited provision, it should be lawful to carry such purposes or any of them into effect by any mode of payment, contribution, augmentation, or endowment which might be deemed fit, as well as by the modes in such Act specified, and that the scale of payments might be by the like authority, from time to time in any case revised, and if need be, varied so as to preserve as nearly as might be the intended average annual incomes respectively, but not so as to affect any dean or canon in possession at the time of making any such variation.

"And whereas, by an Order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the fifteenth day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-two, and duly published in the London Gazette on the twenty-fifth day of February following, we were authorized to pay at the times therein mentioned, to the treasurer of the said cathedral church of Ripon, an annual sum of three thousand and three hundred pounds, or under certain circumstances therein set forth, a certain proportionate part thereof, to be applied in the manner therein mentioned towards providing for the efficient performance of the services and the maintenance of the fabric of the said cathedral church, and the augmentation of the annual incomes of the dean and the canons thereof.

"And whereas by an Order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the twenty-seventh day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-two, and duly published in the London Gazette of the tenth day of December following, it was provided that the annual income of every Dean of the said cathedral church of Ripon, appointed after the date of the passing of the same Order, should be one thousand pounds, and no more, and the income of every canon of the said cathedral church, appointed after the same date, five hundred pounds, and no more; and certain arrangements for providing and securing such incomes were made by the same Order, but without affecting the share of the cathedral revenues which it was contemplated by the said first-recited Order would be applicable exclusively to providing for the performance of the services, and to maintaining the fabric of the said cathedral church.

"And whereas by an Order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the thirtieth day of November, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, and duly published in the London Gazette of the second day of December following, we were authorized, under the circumstances set forth in such Order, to expend, in effecting such repairs as might be necessary for the due sustentation of the said cathedral church, any sum not exceeding ten thousand pounds; provided always, that the works, the cost of which should be defrayed out of such sum, should be such as we might consider necessary or desirable for the sustentation of the said cathedral church, and should be executed to our satisfaction.

"And whereas a sum nearly amounting to ten thousand pounds has been expended by us in accordance with the provisions of the Order last hereinbefore mentioned, in effecting such repairs as, at the date of the same Order, were absolutely required for the due sustentation of the fabric of the said cathedral church.

"And whereas we have satisfied ourselves, that the execution of further works is necessary for the sustentation of the same fabric, and that with a view to economy and efficiency in the execution of such works, the cost thereof should be provided by an immediate appropriation out of the funds under our control, of a capital sum of five thousand pounds, rather than by the annual expenditure of yearly sums to that amount or more, during a period of years.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, that there shall be expended by us in defraying the cost of the last-mentioned works, the further sum of five thousand pounds; Provided always, that the works, the cost of which shall be defrayed out of such last-mentioned sum, shall be such as we may consider necessary or desirable for the sustentation of the fabric of the said cathedral church, and shall be executed to our satisfaction.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them, in conformity with the provisions of the said recited Acts, or either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Ripon.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, and of another Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the tenth day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, and of another Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, sections two, three, and twenty-four, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme for authorizing the sale and disposal of certain pro-party formerly belonging to the bishoprick of Oxford, and now vested in us.

"Whereas on the vacancy of the said bishoprick, which occurred on or about the eleventh day of December, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-nine, by the translation of the Right Reverend Samuel, the then Bishop of Oxford, to the see of Winchester, all the lands, tithes, hereditaments, and endowments then belonging to the said bishoprick of Oxford (except rights of patronage and the episcopal house of residence situate at Cuddesdon, in the county of Oxford), became absolutely vested in us, for the purposes and subject to the provisions applicable to other hereditaments vested in us.

"And whereas the lands, tithes, hereditaments, and endowments aforesaid consist, to a considerable extent, of reversions expectant upon grants and leases for lives and years, and produce during the subsistence of such grants and leases only small annual revenues, and on that account, and in some instances, on account of the character or situation of the property, are unsuitable or inconvenient to be assigned as an endowment for the said bishoprick, or to be held or applied for the other purposes for which estates vested in us are applicable under the Acts by which our proceedings are governed.

"And whereas by the last-mentioned Act power is given to lessees holding under us, in the event of our declining to enter into a treaty for the sale of our reversions, or for the purchase of the leasehold interests to require us to purchase such leasehold interests at a valuation.

"And whereas it is expedient that such of the aforesaid lands, tithes, hereditaments, and endowments lately belonging to the see of Oxford (either with or without other property vested in us, as the case may require), as in the judgment of our Estates Committee, and subject to the approbation of the bishop for the time being, shall be deemed convenient to be held as an endowment for the said see; and as will secure a net annual income of five thousand pounds, being the income named for the Bishop of Oxford and his successors, by the Order made by your Majesty in Council, on the twenty-fifth day of August, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-one, which Order was duly published in the London Gazette on the nineteenth day of September following, should be assigned as the endowment of the said see, and that for that purpose, as well as with a view to the more advantageous appropriation of the remainder of the said lands, tithes, hereditaments, and endowments; or of the proceeds thereof, for the ultimate improvement of our common fund, we should be empowered to dispose of our interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, and in such manner as shall appear to us advisable.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose that we may be authorized and empowered, by instrument or instruments in writing, duly executed according to law, from time to time to sell or dispose of and duly to convey, according to the provisions of the said Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty's reign, with the consent of the respective holders (if any), to be testified by their being made parties to such instruments, all or any of the said lands, tithes, hereditaments, and endowments heretofore belonging to the said bishoprick of Oxford, and so vested in us by the vacation of the said bishoprick, with their appurtenances, and all our estate, right, title, and interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same; and his, her, or their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, or otherwise; as he, she, or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall, upon due calculation and inquiry, appear to us to be just and reasonable, it being our intention to invest the proceeds thereof from time to time, as occasion may arise, in the purchase of other lands, tithes, rent charges, tene-ments, or hereditaments, or of some estate or interest therein convenient to be assigned as the endowment for the said see, or to be held by us for the purposes of the Acts by which our proceedings are governed as aforesaid, and in the meantime to invest the said proceeds in some government or parliamentary stock; or other public securities in England.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore; Her Majesty by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Oxford.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation; bearing date the seventeenth day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of his Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of your Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Luke, situate at Holbeach Hurn, in the parish of Holbeach, in the county of Lincoln, and in the diocese of Lincoln.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient, that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint Luke, situate at Holbeach Hurn as aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Christopher, Bishop of the said diocese of Lincoln (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Holbeach which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Saint Luke, situate at Holbeach Hurn as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Luke, Holbeach Hurn.'

"And with the like consent of the said Christopher, Bishop of the said diocese of Lincoln (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us, the said Commissioners, to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism, or for the registration thereof.

"We, therefore, humbly pray, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to your Majesty, in your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Saint Luke, Holbeach Hurn, being:—

"All that part of the parish of Holbeach, in the county of Lincoln, and in the diocese of Lincoln, wherein the present incumbent of such parish now possesses the exclusive cure of souls, which is bounded on the south by the parish of Fleet, in the county and diocese aforesaid; on the east, partly by the parish of Gedney, in the said county and diocese, and partly by the district of Drove-end, some time part of the last-named parish: on the north by the new parish of Saint Mark, Holbeach March, in the same county and diocese; and on the remaining sides, that is to say, on the north-west and on the south-west by an imaginary line commencing on the boundary which divides the last-named new parish from the parish of Holbeach aforesaid, at a point in the middle of Eastern-road, opposite to a boundary stone inscribed 'H. M. St. M. D. C. 1869, No. 5'; and extending thence, south-eastward for a distance of thirty-two chains and twelve links or thereabouts, along the middle of the said road to its junction at or near to the house called or known as Cowfield Gool, with the road called or known as the Half Mile Bank, being a part of the old Roman Bank; and extending thence first north-westward and then south-westward for a distance of thirty-six chains and fifty links or thereabouts along the middle of the last-mentioned road to its junction with Pear Tree House-road; and extending thence, southward for a distance of two chains and thirty-five links or thereabouts, along the middle of the last-named road to a point opposite to a boundary stone inscribed 'H. H. St. L. D. C., 1870, No. 1,' and placed on the eastern side of the same road at the side of a certain public drain, which divides the closes numbered respectively 885, 893, 894, 916, 971, 970, 961, and 962 upon the tithe commutation map of the said parish of Holbeach, and upon the map hereunto annexed, from the closes numbered respectively 884, 883, 922, 921, 918, 917, 952, 953, 957, 958, 959, and 960 upon the same maps; and extending thence, south-eastward, along the middle of the said public drain, to a boundary stone inscribed 'H. H. St. L. D. C., 1870, No. 2,' and placed on the north-western side of Woodhouse-lane; and extending thence, south-westward, for a distance of twelve chains and twenty links or thereabouts along the middle of the said lane, to its junction with Washway-road; and extending thence, south-eastward, for a distance of twelve chains and sixty links or thereabouts, along the middle of the last-named road to the boundary, which divides the said parish of Holbeach from the parish of Fleet aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Lincoln.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine; of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter sixty; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the twenty-fourth day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of your Majesty, chapter forty-nine; of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter sixty; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Mary, situate at Walkley, in the chapelry district of Saint Philip, Sheffield, in the county of York, and in the diocese of York.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint Mary, situate at Walkley as aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Honorable and Most Reverend William, Archbishop of York (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said chapelry district of Saint Philip, Sheffield, which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Saint Mary, situate at Walkley as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Mary, Walkley.'

"And, with the like consent of the said William, Archbishop of York (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at the said church of Saint Mary, situate at Walkley as aforesaid, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns, and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices, should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always, that so long as the Reverend John Livesey, the present incumbent of the perpetual curacy of the said chapelry district of Saint Philip, Sheffield, shall continue to be such incumbent, all the fees which may be received in respect of such publication, solemnization, or performance at the said church of Saint Mary, situate at Walkley as aforesaid, shall be paid over by the minister thereof to the said John Livesey: and provided also, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us, the said Commissioners, to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism, or for the registration thereof.

"We, therefore, humbly pray, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to your Majesty, in your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Saint Mary, Walkley, being:—

"All that part of the chapelry district of Saint Philip, Sheffield, sometime part of the parish of Sheffield, in the county of York, and in the diocese of York, which is bounded on the northwest by the new parish of Stannington, in the county and diocese aforesaid, on the southwest by the particular district of Saint Thomas Crookes, also sometime part of the said parish of Sheffield, and on all other sides, that is to say, on the southeast, on the east, and on the north by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said particular district of Saint Thomas Crookes from the chapelry district of Saint Philip, Sheffield aforesaid, at the point where Heavy Gate-road is joined by the road called or known as Howard Hill, and extending thence northward along the middle of the last-described road to its junction with Prospect-street, and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the last-named street, and along the middle of Daniel Hill-street to the junction of the last-named street with Cliffe-street, and extending thence north-westward along the middle of the last-named street to its junction with Burgoyne-street; and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the last-named street to its junction with Langsett-road; and extending thence north-westward along the middle of the last-named road to its junction with Greaves-street; and extending thence south-westward along the middle of the last-named street to its junction with Walkley-road; and extending thence westward along the middle of the last-named road to its junction with Walkley Bank-road; and extending thence north-westward along the middle of the last-named road to its junction with Cross-lane; and continuing thence still north-westward along the public bridle road, which leads towards Malin Bridge, as far as the point where such bridle road strikes the southern bank of the River Loxley; and extending thence first north-westward to, and then westward along, the middle of the said river to the boundary at Malin Bridge aforesaid, which divides the said chapelry district of Saint Philip, Sheffield, from the new parish of Stannington aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of York.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council

WHEREAS the Crewe Local Board acting in and for the township of Monks Coppenhall, in the county of Chester, originally called the Monks Coppenhall Local Board, have, under the provisions of an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the twentieth and twenty-first years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the Burial Acts," presented a petition to Her Majesty in Council, stating that the district of the said Local Board is co-extensive with the district for which it is proposed to provide a burial-ground, that no burial board has been appointed for such district, and that an Order in Council has been made for closing, with certain exceptions, the burial-ground therein mentioned, within the said district, and praying that the said Local Board may be the Burial Board for the district for which they are now constituted a Local Board under the Local Government Act, 1858:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty in Council is pleased hereby to give notice of such petition, and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's

Most Honourable Privy Council on the sixteenth day of May, one thousand eight hundred and seventy :

And Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be published in the London Gazette, and in one of the newspapers usually circulating in the district of the Local Board aforesaid, one month at least before the said sixteenth day of May, one thousand eight hundred and seventy.

WHEREAS the New Governing Body of Eton College, in virtue of the powers conferred upon them by the "Public Schools Act, 1868," and of every other power enabling them in that behalf, did make a scheme for improving the property of Eton College by running out beneficial leases.

And whereas the said scheme has been submitted to, and approved by, the Special Commissioners appointed by this Act, and has been this day laid before Her Majesty in Council, the same is published in the London Gazette, in pursuance of the provisions of the said Act: And notice is hereby given; that it is lawful for the bodies or persons authorized so to do in that Act, within two months from the date of the publication of this notification, to petition Her Majesty in Council to withhold Her approval from the whole or any part of such scheme.

Arthur Helps.

A SCHEME for improving the Property of Eton College by running out Beneficial Leases.

AFTER the confirmation of the present scheme no more fines shall be taken for the renewal of leases.

For the purpose of improving the College property, by running out the beneficial leases, there shall be established two temporary funds, one to be called the Fines Fund and the other the Rents Fund.

There shall be paid into the Fines Fund :—

1. Such sums to be borrowed from time to time on mortgage of the College estates, or any of them, in accordance with the 24th section of the "Public Schools Act, 1868," as may be required for the purpose of carrying out the object of this scheme.

2. The sums of money from time to time paid from the Rents Fund as hereinafter provided.

There shall be paid out of the Fines Fund :—

1. The expenses of procuring the mortgages.

2. To the present Provost and Fellows, annually, the commuted equivalent of their respective interests in the renewal fines, calculated as provided by the 24th section of the "Public Schools Act, 1868," and to any future Provost and Fellows, such stipends as may be assigned to them by any statute which may hereafter be made by the New Governing Body, and confirmed as directed by the said Act.

Provided that the total sum so paid in any year shall not exceed the total commuted equivalent for one year of the interest of the existing Provost and Fellows in renewal fines.

3. From time to time, so soon as the fund shall be in a condition to bear it, the various sums which shall have been borrowed on mortgage.

There shall be paid into the Rents Fund :—

The excess of the future rent over the present rent, in the case of any College property now let on a beneficial lease or on a building lease:

There shall be paid out of the Rents Fund :—

1. The interest on the sums borrowed on mortgage for the Fines Fund.

2. Such sums as the new Governing Body may deem expedient for the improvement of the School: Provided that the total sum so paid shall not at any time exceed one-third of the total sum received up to that time from the improvement of rent.

3. After the payment of the interest and of the sums provided for the improvement of the school as aforesaid, the remaining sum in each year shall be applied to the repayment of a sum of four thousand four hundred and thirty-seven pounds (£4437), being a debt already incurred by the College for extinguishing beneficial leases; and after the payment of such debt, the balance shall be paid into the Fines Fund.

When all the mortgages shall have been paid off, the Fines and Rents Funds shall be extinguished, by carrying the balance to the Common Fund of the College.

It shall be the duty of the Provost and Fellows to carry out the above scheme, and to submit annually to the new Governing Body an account of the receipts and expenditure of the Rents and Fines Funds aforesaid; and of the amount of the debt.

WHEREAS the Special Commissioners appointed for the purposes of "The Public Schools Act, 1868," in virtue of the powers conferred upon them by that Act, have made a statute for amending a statute previously made by them for determining and establishing the Constitution of the New Governing Body of Charterhouse School.

And whereas the said Statute has been this day laid before Her Majesty in Council, the same is published in the London Gazette, in pursuance of the provisions of the said Act; and notice is hereby given, that it is lawful for the bodies or persons authorized so to do in that Act, within two months from the date of the publication of this notification, to petition Her Majesty in Council to withhold her approval from the whole or any part of such Statute.

Arthur Helps.

A STATUTE for amending a Statute for determining and establishing the Constitution of the new Governing Body of Charterhouse School, made by the Special Commissioners appointed for the purposes of "The Public Schools Act, 1868."

WHEREAS the Special Commissioners appointed for the purposes of "the Public Schools Act, 1868," have, in pursuance of the powers by the said Act vested in them, made a statute for determining and establishing the constitution of the New Governing Body of Charterhouse School, and have, by the first section of the said statute, enacted that such Governing Body should consist of an ex-officio member, and certain elected members, as therein specified:

And whereas by the said statute provision is made for the appointment of the elected members of the said Governing Body, by the persons, and bodies of persons, in the said statute specified, but no time is limited within which such appointment is to be made, and it is expedient that a time should be limited in that behalf:

Now we, the said Special Commissioners, in pursuance of the said Act, do, by this statute, enact as follows, that is to say:—

The said elected members shall be elected or nominated respectively by the persons, and bodies of persons, in the first section of the said statute specified, within three months after the approval of this statute by Her Majesty in Council.

If any member be not appointed within the time by this statute limited for his election or nomination, Her Majesty may, by Order in Council, make such appointment in the manner and subject to the proviso specified in the fourth section of the said statute for determining and establishing the constitution of the New Governing Body of Charterhouse School.

Approved and sealed by the Special Commissioners appointed for the purposes of "The Public Schools Act, 1868," this twenty-sixth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and seventy.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction of one thousand and five hundred pounds sterling, which has been paid to us in favour of the vicarage of Saint Paul, Buttershaw, in the county of York, and in the diocese of Ripon, and in respect of which we have agreed to pay to the Incumbent of the same vicarage, and to his successors, a yearly sum of fifty pounds, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, grant to the Incumbent of the said district of Saint Paul, Buttershaw, and to his successors, to meet such benefaction, one other yearly sum or stipend of fifty pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the day of the publication of these presents in the London Gazette, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions, on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient to produce the yearly sum or stipend so payable out of our common fund, as lastly herein mentioned, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said vicarage, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this twenty-fourth day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy.

(L.S.)

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby, subject as hereinafter mentioned, grant and convey to the Incumbent of the vicarage of Lamberhurst, in the counties of Kent and Sussex, and in the diocese of Canterbury, and to his successors Incumbents of the same vicarage, all those annual tithe commutation rent charges, which are particularly described in the schedule hereunto annexed, and are now vested in us; to have and to hold the said tithe commutation rent charges to the use of the said Incumbent and his successors for ever: Provided always that the said tithe commutation rent charges shall be, and be held to be, in lieu of, and in full substitution for, the annual payment of one quarter of wheat and one quarter of oats, heretofore payable by us, or by our lessee, to the Incumbent of the said vicarage, in respect of certain property situate and arising within the parish of Lamberhurst aforesaid, formerly belonging to the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Rochester: And provided also, that the Incumbent for the time being of the same vicarage shall be entitled to receive from us, or on our account, the net amount of the rents, profits, and proceeds of the said tithe commutation rent charges, as from the first day of October, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-nine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this twenty-fourth day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this twenty-fourth day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy.

Schedule.

All that piece or parcel of land or ground, containing by admeasurement one acre, situate, lying, and being in the township of Cornforth, in the parish of Bishop Middleham, in the county of Durham, bounded on the north and west by lands belonging to John Picken, on the east by the Stockton and Darlington turnpike-road, and on the south by an occupation-road leading from the said turnpike-road to land of William Henry Leighton, which said piece or parcel of land is delineated and coloured round with red on the plan drawn in the margin of a certain deed of conveyance dated the thirtieth day of September, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-nine, made between Abraham Flory, of the city of Durham, Gentleman, of the first part, John Picken, of Coxhoe, in the county of Durham, Butcher, of the second part, and the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, of the third part, which said deed of conveyance is intended to be deposited in the Registry of the diocese of Durham, immediately after the publication of these presents in the London Gazette.

In Parliament.—Session 1870.

Bury St. Edmund's and Thetford Railway.

Proposed Additional Provisions.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application has been made to Parliament for leave to make provision in the Bury St. Edmund's and Thetford Railway Bill now pending in Parliament for effecting the following objects; viz.:—

1. To empower the Bury St. Edmund's and Thetford Railway Company to make the proposed substituted railway, called in the Bill "the Railway," and on the plans deposited for the purposes of the Bill in November last, called "the deviation line," in an altered line or course, and which railway as proposed to be altered will be wholly situate in the parish of Barnham St. Martin and St. Gregory, in the county of Suffolk, and will commence by a junction with the Railway No. 1, authorised by the Bury St. Edmund's and Thetford Railway Act of 1865, in a field the property of the Duke of Grafton, distinguished on the plans deposited with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Suffolk, with reference to the last-mentioned Act, as No. 4, in the said parish, at a point therein seven miles or thereabouts from the commencement of the said authorised Railway No. 1, measuring along the authorised centre line thereof, as delineated on the said plans, and terminating by a junction with the same authorised Railway No. 1, in a field the property of the said Duke, distinguished on the aforesaid plans by the No. 52 in the said parish, at a point therein nine miles six furlongs and five and a half chains from the commencement of the said authorised Railway No. 1, measuring as aforesaid.

2. To authorise the Company to purchase, by compulsion or otherwise, lands and hereditaments for the purpose of the intended railway, and to vary and extinguish all rights, privileges, and easements connected with, or incident to, such lands and hereditaments.

3. To authorise the Company for the purposes of the intended railway to stop up, alter, or divert turnpike and other roads, highways, watercourses, and works in the parish aforesaid.

4. To authorise the Company to levy tolls, rates, and duties upon or in respect of the intended railway, to alter existing tolls, rates, and duties, to confer, vary, or extinguish exemptions from payment of tolls, rates, and duties, and to confer, vary, or extinguish other rights or privileges.

5. To provide that the intended railway shall be deemed part of the undertaking of the Company, and be subject to the same provisions as the other parts of the railways of the Company.

6. To authorise the deviation laterally from the lines of the intended railway, to the extent shown.

on the plans hereinafter mentioned, and also the deviation vertically from the levels thereof, as shown on the sections hereinafter mentioned.

7. To authorise the Company to apply their corporate funds for the purposes of the intended line.

8. And notice is hereby further given, that plans and sections of the said intended line as altered, with the book of reference of such plans, a published map showing the altered line, and a copy of this notice, will be deposited for public inspection with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Suffolk, at his office, at Bury St. Edmund's, in the present month of April; and a copy of such plans and sections, with a copy of this notice, will be deposited in the present month of April with the parish clerk of the parish of Barnham St. Martin and St. Gregory, at his residence.

9. Printed copies of the proposed additional provision to be made in the Bill for effecting the objects aforesaid will also, in the present month of April, be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons.

Dated this 1st day of April, 1870.

809. To James Murdoch Napier, of York-road, Lambeth, in the county of Surrey, for the invention of "improvements in apparatus for running or pouring metals, and for moulding and forming the same."

810. To Sir William Fairbairn, Baronet, of Manchester, for the invention of "improvements in steam boilers."

811. To William Woofe, of Bedford, Agricultural Engineer, for the invention of "improved means and apparatus for guiding ploughs, and also for regulating the depth of working of the same."

813. To William Austin, of Greville-street, Hatton-garden, in the county of Middlesex, Box and Match Manufacturer, for the invention of "improvements in the manufacture of boxes and cases, and in the modes or means of ornamenting, and rendering the same wet-resisting or damp proof."

814. And to William Guest, of Great Saffron-hill, Farringdon-road, in the county of Middlesex, Machinist, for the invention of "improvements in machinery or apparatus for the manufacture of ropes, cords, and wire ropes."

On their several petitions, recorded in the Office of the Commissioners on the 18th day of March, 1870.

815. To Alexander Morton Strathern, of Coat-bridge, in the county of Lanark, North Britain, Engineer, for the invention of "improvements in apparatus for getting or cutting minerals, and in apparatus for compressing air."

816. To Thomas Keely, of the firm of Keely, Shaw, and Lambert, of the town and county of the town of Nottingham, Manufacturers, for the invention of "improvements in the manufacture of looped fabrics."
818. To John Hockey, of No. 187, Carlton-road, Kilburn, in the county of Middlesex, for the invention of "improvements in ventilating lights."
820. To William Alexander Lytle, of the Grove Hammersmith, in the county of Middlesex, Engineer, for the invention of "improvements in wheels."
823. To James Staniland Stocks and Benjamin Stocks, of Leeds, in the county of York, Leather Dressers, and Samuel Hutchinson, of the same place, Manager, for the invention of "improvements in machinery for scouring and shaving hides, skins, or leather."
824. To George Weedon, of Gracechurch-street, in the city of London, for the invention of "improvements in knife cleaning machines."
825. To George Kent, of No. 199, High Holborn, in the county of Middlesex, Machinist, for the invention of "an improved combined carving fork and knife sharpener."
826. To Charles James Hislop Warden, of Aldridge-road-villas, Bayswater, in the county of Middlesex, Gentleman, for the invention of "improvements in apparatus for securing the doors of railway carriages and preventing the opening of the same while the train is in motion."
827. And to Robert Francis Fairlie, of Victoria-chambers, in the city of Westminster, Engineer, for the invention of "improvements in wheels for rail or tramway locomotive engines and carriages or vehicles and in the permanent way for the same."
- On their several petitions, recorded in the Office of the Commissioners on the 19th day of March, 1870.
828. To James Stirling, of Kilmarnock, in the county of Ayr, North Britain, Locomotive Engineer, for the invention of "improvements in apparatus for working railway brakes."
829. To John Ferris, of Leyton, in the county of Essex, Civil Engineer, for the invention of "an improved lubricating apparatus for lubricating the slide-valves and cylinders of steam engines."
830. To George Barker and James McFarlane, both of the city of Glasgow, in the county of Lanark, North Britain, Engineers, for the invention of "improved modes, means, and apparatus for and connected with the copying of letters and other documents."
832. To John Millar, of Dalry, in the county of Ayr, North Britain, Machinist, for the invention of "new or improved motors or motive power mechanism or machines for obtaining and transmitting motive power."
833. To Samuel Brooke, of Brighthouse, in the county of York, Card Maker, for the invention of "improvements in the doffers of condensing carding engines and means or apparatus for effecting the same."
834. To Alfred Vincent Newton, of the Office for Patents, 66, Chancery-lane, in the county of Middlesex, Mechanical Draughtsman, for the invention of "improvements in manufacturing barrels and other round vessels of wood."—A communication to him from abroad by Daniel Howard Waters, of Grand Rapids, in the State of Michigan, United States of America.
836. To George Skey, of Tamworth, in the county of Warwick, Manufacturer, and Thomas Proud, of Birmingham, in the county of Warwick, Gas Engineer, for the invention of "an improved sieve for gas-purifiers and scrubbers."

837. To William Robert Lake, of the "International Patent Office," Southampton-buildings, London, Consulting Engineer, for the invention of "improvements in wheels for railway engines and carriages."—A communication to him from abroad by James Atkins Woodbury, of Boston, Massachusetts, United States of America.
838. To Alfred Barlow, of the Strand, in the county of Middlesex, Engineer, for the invention of "improvements in jacquard mechanism for weaving and other purposes, parts of which improvements are also applicable for playing musical instruments."
839. And to William Robert Lake, of the "International Patent Office," Southampton-buildings, London, Consulting Engineer, for the invention of "an improved micrometric steelyard."—A communication to him from abroad by Louis Jean Baptiste Saladin, of Paris, in the Empire of France.
- On their several petitions, recorded in the Office of the Commissioners on the 21st day of March, 1870.
841. To Richard Hucknall Rimes, of Bradford, in the county of York, Boot and Shoe Merchant, for the invention of "improvements in boots and shoes."
842. To William Henry Clemesha and Thomas Roberts, of the city of Manchester, in the county of Lancaster, for the invention of "improvements in self cleansing high pressure filters for the purification of water."
843. To William Gallimore, of Leek, in the county of Stafford, Silk Manufacturer, for the invention of "improvements in machinery and apparatus for drying, clearing, smoothing, stretching, and lustreing or glossing yarn or thread in the hank or skein."
844. To David Joy, of Saltburn, in the county of York, Engineer, for the invention of "improvements in the means and apparatus for increasing the efficiency of steam generators."
845. To William Robert Lake, of the "International Patent Office," Southampton-buildings, London, Consulting Engineer, for the invention of "an improved method of counteracting the pressure on the slide valves of steam or other engines."—A communication to him from abroad by William Myrtle Williams, of Dry Diggins, Victoria, Australia, Blacksmith.
847. To John Henry Johnson, of 47, Lincoln's-inn-fields, in the county of Middlesex, Gentleman, for the invention of "improvements in locomotion, and in the means to be employed therein."—A communication to him from abroad by Nicolas Joly, of Paris, in the Empire of France, Chemist.
848. To Daniel Gray, of Wishaw, in the county of Lanark, North Britain, for the invention of "improvements in the manufacture of wheel tyres, and in the machinery or apparatus employed therefor."
849. To Thomas James Smith, of the firm of Robertson, Brooman, and Company, of 166, Fleet-street, in the city of London, Patent Agent, for the invention of "improved processes for the treatment of ores in order to extract copper therefrom."—A communication to him from abroad by the Company or Society Cyprien Marie Tessié du Motay and Company, of Paris, France.

850. And to Charles James Eyre, of Westbourne-grove, in the county of Middlesex, Gentleman, for the invention of "improvements in apparatus for producing motive power."

On their several petitions, recorded in the Office of the Commissioners on the 22nd day of March, 1870.

851. To James Bradbury and John Bradbury, of Denton, in the county of Lancaster, Fur Clearers, and John Roberts, of Hyde, in the county of Chester, Hat Manufacturer, for the invention of "improvements in machinery for felting hat bodies."

852. To William Thurston Culmer, of Hornsey-road, in the county of Middlesex, of the firm of W. Culmer and Sons, Painting Brush Manufacturers, for the invention of "a new or improved mode of manufacturing brushes."

853. To John Baker Colbran and William Pollard, both of Holloway, in the county of Middlesex, for the invention of "an improved trap for catching mice, rats, and other vermin or animals."

854. To Charles Farrow and Richard Brooker Jackson, of Great Tower-street, in the city of London, Mechanical Engineers, for the invention of "improvements in the construction of iron wine bins."

855. To Middleton Chapman, of the firm of O. Chapman and Son, of Charterhouse-buildings, Goswell-road, in the county of Middlesex, Manufacturers, for the invention of "an improved album or device for containing photographic or other pictures."

857. To John Moore, of the city of Dublin, Blacksmith, for the invention of "improvements in metal bushes for the bungholes of casks, and in the mode of and apparatus for securing the same therein."

858. To James Charles Cushion, of Vine Cottage, Penrose-street, Walworth, in the county of Surrey, Miller, for the invention of "improvements in mill bills or chisels and picks for dressing millstones, marble, or other stones"

859. And to John Henry Miles, of Birmingham, in the county of Warwick, Perambulator Manufacturer, for the invention of "improvements in velocipedes."

On their several petitions, recorded in the Office of the Commissioners on the 23rd day of March, 1870.

860. To Sunderland Mawson, of Bradford, in the county of York, Dentist, for the invention of "improvements in apparatus employed in the administration of nitrous oxide gas (or other gas that may be inhaled) for indicating the quantity at each and every inhalation."

862. To James Gilchrist, of the city of Glasgow, in the county of Lanark, North Britain, Engineers' Ironmonger, for the invention of "a new or improved ratchet brace or ratchet drill brace and grab combined."

864. To Robert Henry Kay and Alfred Thomas Richardson, of Mobberly, in the county of Chester, Crape Manufacturers, for the invention of "improvements in the manufacture of crape."

866. To Samuel Bateman, of Asnières, near Paris, Card Maker, for the invention of "an apparatus for measuring card filleting whilst in the process of making."

868. To Edwin Cambridge, of the city of Bristol, Engineer, for the invention of "improvements applicable to steam boilers or generators."

872. And to William Robert Lake, of the "International Patent Office," Southampton-buildings, London, Consulting Engineer, for the invention of "improvements in the preparation of ammoniated sulphuric acid for the manufacture of manure."—A communication to him from abroad by Charles U. Shepard, Junior, of Charleston, South Carolina, United States of America.

On their several petitions, recorded in the Office of the Commissioners on the 24th day of March, 1870.

Erratum in Gazette of Tuesday, March, 29, 1870.

No. 3347. For "And Betti Giuseppe," read "And Betti, Giuseppe."
