At the Court, at Windsor, the 31st day of March, 1870.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the second day of December, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-nine, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for authorizing the sale and disposal of certain property, formerly belonging to the dean and chapter of the collegiate church at Westminster, and now vested in us.

“Whereas, under an Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and another Act of the fourth and fifth years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and by virtue of an Order of your Majesty in Council, made under the provisions of the said Acts, bearing date the twenty-sixth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, and duly published in the London Gazette on the twenty-ninth of the same month, certain lands, tithes, and hereditaments, situate at Castle Norton, in the county of Worcester, and particularly described in the schedule to the said Order, were transferred to and became absolutely vested in us for the purposes, and subject to the provisions applicable to other hereditaments vested in us.

“And whereas, under ‘The Ecclesiastical Commission Act, 1868,’ and by virtue of an Order of your Majesty in Council, made under the provisions of the same Act, bearing date the seventh day of August, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-nine, and duly published in the London Gazette on the thirteenth of the same month, all the manors, lands, tithes, tenements, and hereditaments, and sums of stock or cash then belonging to the said dean and chapter of the said collegiate church (excepting certain portions thereof in such Order particularly excepted, and excepting also any rights of ecclesiastical patronage) were transferred to and became absolutely vested in us for the purposes, and subject to the provisions applicable to other hereditaments vested in us.

“And whereas the manors, lands, tithes, tenements, and hereditaments, so transferred to and vested in us as aforesaid, by virtue of the said two several Orders of your Majesty in Council, consist to a considerable extent of reversions expectant upon grants and leases for lives and years, and produce during the subsistence of such grants and leases only small annual revenues, and on that account and in some instances on account
