Published by Authority.

TUESDAY, APRIL 5, 1870.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, March 30, 1870.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Her Majesty's Birthday will be kept on Saturday, the 28th of May next.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace, April 1, 1870.

NOTICE is hereby given, that His Royal Highness The Prince of Wales will, by command of The Queen, hold a Levee at Buckingham Palace, on behalf of Her Majesty, on Wednesday, the 6th of April next, at two o'clock, instead of St. James's Palace, as previously announced.

It is The Queen's pleasure that Presentations to His Royal Highness at this Levee shall be considered as equivalent to Presentations to Her Majesty.

REGULATIONS

TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S LEVEE TO BE HELD BY HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS THE PRINCE OF WALES, ON BEHALF OF HER MAJESTY, AT BUCKINGHAM PALACE.

By Her Majesty's Command.

The Noblemen and Gentlemen, who propose to attend Her Majesty's Levee, at Buckingham Palace, are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with The Queen's Page in attendance in the Corridor, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to His Royal Highness.

PRESENTATIONS.

Any Nobleman or Gentleman who proposes to be presented, must leave at the Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace, before twelve o'clock, two clear days before the Levee, a card with his name written thereon, and with the name of the Nobleman or Gentleman by whom he is to be presented. In order to carry out the existing regulation that no presentation can be made at a Levee excepting by a person actually attending that Levee, it is also necessary that an intimation from the Nobleman or Gentleman, who is to make the presentation, of his intention to be present, should accompany the presentation card above referred to, which will be submitted to The Queen for Her Majesty's approbation. It is Her Majesty's command that no presentations shall be made at these Levees, except in accordance with the above regulations.

It is particularly requested, that in every case the names be very distinctly written upon the cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to His Royal Highness.

The State apartments will be open for the reception of Company coming to Court at one o'clock.

SYDNEY,
Lord Chamberlain.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace, March 28, 1870.

NOTICE is hereby given, that The Queen will hold a Drawing Room at Buckingham Palace, on Tuesday, the 10th of May next, at three o'clock.

REGULATIONS

TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S DRAWING ROOM AT BUCKINGHAM PALACE.

By Her Majesty's Command.

The Ladies, who propose to attend Her Majesty's Drawing Room, at Buckingham Palace, are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with the Queen's Page in Attendance, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to The Queen.

PRESENTATIONS.

Any Lady who proposes to be presented to The Queen must leave at the Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace, before twelve o'clock, two clear days before the Drawing Room, a card with her name written thereon, and with the name of the Lady by whom she is to be presented. In order to carry out the existing regulation, that no presentation can be made at a Drawing Room excepting by a Lady actually attending that Court, it is also necessary that an intimation from the Lady who is to make the presentation, of her intention to be present, should accompany the presentation card above referred to, which will be submitted to The Queen for Her Majesty's approbation. It is Her Majesty's Command, that no presentations shall be made at the Drawing Room, except in accordance with the above regulations.

It is particularly requested that in every case the names be very distinctly written upon the cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to The Queen.

It is not expected that Gentlemen will present themselves at Drawing Rooms, except in attendance on the Ladies of their families.

Any Gentleman who under these circumstances should desire to be presented to The Queen, will observe the same regulations as are in force for Her Majesty's Levees.

The State apartments will be open for the reception of Company coming to Court at two o'clock.

SYDNEY,
Lord Chamberlain.

[This Order in Council is substituted for the one which was published in the London Gazette on the 1st instant.]

AT the Court at Windsor, the 31st day of March, 1870.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the 410th section of "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1854," it is enacted "that upon the completion of any new lighthouse, buoy, or beacon, Her Majesty may, by Order in Council, fix such dues in respect thereof, to be paid by the master or owner of any ship which passes the same or derives benefit therefrom, as Her Majesty may deem reasonable, and may from time to time alter the amount thereof, and that such dues shall be paid and collected in the same manner, and by the same means, and subject to the same conditions, in, by, and subject to which the light dues authorized to be levied by the said Act are paid and collected:"

And whereas the Commissioners of Irish Lights have erected a new lighthouse on Tearaght Island, on the south-west coast of Ireland, County Kerry:

And whereas the said Commissioners will, on the night of the first day of May, one thousand eight hundred and seventy, extinguish the light now known as the Skelligs Rock Upper Light, and exhibit in lieu thereof a light in the said new lighthouse on Tearaght Island:

Now therefore, Her Majesty, in exercise of the powers vested in Her by the said recited Act, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to direct that from and after the first day of May next, the tolls heretofore paid in respect of the said Skelligs Rock Upper Light shall be discontinued, and that in lieu thereof, there shall be paid in respect of the said new lighthouse on Tearaght Island for every vessel, whether British or foreign, which may pass or derive benefit therefrom, the toll of three-sixteenths of a penny per ton of the burden of every such vessel for each time of passing or deriving benefit therefrom if on an oversea voyage; and one-sixteenth of a penny per ton for each time of passing or deriving benefit therefrom if on a coasting voyage.

The said tolls in respect of the said new lighthouse shall be levied by the Commissioners of Irish Lights, subject to the regulations and exemptions contained in the new consolidated table of light duties sanctioned by an Order in Council, dated the first day of November, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, and to the gross abatement or discount of fifty per cent. mentioned in an Order in Council, dated the twenty-eighth day of February, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the twentieth and twenty-first years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the Burial Acts," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that in case it appear to Her Majesty in Council, upon the petition of the Local Board of Health, of any district established under the Public Health Act, that the district of such Local Board of Health is co-extensive with a district for which it is proposed to provide a burial-ground, and that no Burial Board has been appointed for such district, and that an Order in Council has been made for closing all or any of the burial-grounds within the said district, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, with the advice of Her Privy Council, in case Her Majesty see fit so to do, to order that such Local Board shall be a Burial Board for the district of such Local Board, and thereupon such Local Board shall be a Burial Board for such district accordingly, and the powers and provisions of the Acts therein before-mentioned (except the provisions relating to the constitution or appointment and resignation of members of Burial Boards), and the provisions therein contained shall extend to the district of such Board, and to such Board, and to any burial-ground and places for the reception of the bodies of the dead previously to interment which may be provided by such Board in like manner as to any parish or parishes, and the Burial Board thereof, and any burial-ground, and any such places as aforesaid provided by such last-mentioned Board, save that no approval, sanction, or authorization of any vestry shall be requisite: Provided always, that notice of such petition, and of the time when it shall please Her Majesty to order the same to be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, shall be published in the London Gazette, and in one of the newspapers usually circulating in the district of such Local Board, one month, at least, before such petition is so considered:

And whereas the Local Board of Health for the district of Altrincham, in the county of Chester, have, under the provisions of the said recited Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the twentieth and twenty-first years of Her Majesty's reign, presented a petition to Her Majesty in Council, stating amongst other things, that the said district of Altrincham is co-extensive with the district for which it is proposed to provide a burial-ground, and that no Burial Board has been appointed for such district, and that an Order in Council has been made for closing the burial-ground therein mentioned within the said district, subject to the exception or qualification therein set forth, and praying that the said Local Board of Health may be the Burial Board for the district of such Local Board :

And whereas notice of such petition, and of the time when Her Majesty was pleased to order the same to be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, has been duly published as required by the said Act :

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the Local Board of Health for the said district of Altrincham, in the county of Chester, shall be a Burial Board for the district of such Local Board, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the twentieth and twenty-first years of Her Majesty's reign.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 31st day of March, 1870.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England, beyond the limits of the Metropolis, and to amend the Act concerning the burial of the dead in the Metropolis," it is enacted that, in case it appears to Her Majesty in Council, upon the representation of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, that for the protection of the public health, the opening of any new burial ground in any city or town, or within any other limits, save with the previous approval of one of such Secretaries of State, should be prohibited, or that burials in any city or town, or within any other limits, or in any burial ground or places of burial should be wholly discontinued, or should be discontinued subject to any exception or qualification, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order that no new burial-ground shall be opened in any city or town, or within such limits, without such previous approval, or (as the case may require), that after a time mentioned in the Order, burials in such city or town, or within such limits, or in such burial-grounds or places of burial, shall be discontinued wholly, or subject to any exceptions or qualifications mentioned in such Order, and so from time to time, as circumstances may require; provided always, that notice of such representation, and of the time when it shall please Her Majesty to order that the same be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, shall be published in the London Gazette, and shall be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some other conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such representation, one month before such representation is so considered; provided also, that no such representation shall be made in relation to the burial-ground of any parish until ten days' previous notice of the intention to make such representation shall have been given to the Incumbent and Vestry Clerk or Churchwardens of such parish:

And whereas the Right Honourable Henry Austin Bruce, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after giving to the Incumbents and the Churchwardens of the parishes hereinafter mentioned ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representation, has made a representation stating that, for the protection of the public health, no new burial-ground should be opened in the undermentioned parishes without the previous consent of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and that burials should be discontinued therein, with the modifications hereinafter specified:

And whereas Her Majesty was pleased, by Her Order in Council of the fifth day of February last, to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same should be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council on the twenty-first day of March, one thousand eight hundred and seventy, and such Order has been published in the London Gazette, and copies thereof have been affixed, as required by the said Act:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that no new burial-ground shall be opened in the undermentioned parishes, without the previous approval of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and that burials in the said parishes shall be discontinued (except as herein otherwise directed), as follows; viz. —

RESOLVEN, GLAMORGANSHIRE. — Forthwith, wholly, in the Zion Chapel, in the parish of Resolven; and that, in the burial-ground of the said Chapel, the following regulation be observed, viz., that no grave be opened that is not free from remains to the depth of four feet, and that no coffin be exposed.

BIGGLESWADE. — Forthwith, wholly, in the church of Biggleswade, and in the churchyard, except in vaults and walled graves completed before the first of December, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-nine, every coffin buried in which shall be embedded in charcoal, and separately entombed in an air-tight manner.

WORCESTER. — Forthwith, wholly, beneath St. Clement's Church, Worcester, and also in the churchyard of St. Clement's, except in family vaults and walled graves constructed before the first of February, one thousand eight hundred and seventy, in which each coffin shall be embedded in charcoal, and separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented,

WOODFORD. — Forthwith, wholly, in the parish church of Woodford, Essex; and, after the thirty-first of December, one thousand eight hundred and seventy, in the parish churchyard of Woodford, except in vaults and walled graves completed before the thirty-first of December, one thousand eight hundred and seventy, in which each coffin shall be embedded in charcoal, and separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented.

CHATHAM. — Forthwith in the old parish burial-ground (or additional churchyard of St. Mary's), Chatham, except in vaults and walled graves completed before the sixteenth of December, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-nine, and except in family earthen graves, in which no coffin shall be buried within a foot of any other coffin, or less than five feet below the level of the ground.

NORTH LOPHAM. — Forthwith, wholly, in the church of North Lopham, Norfolk; and also in the churchyard, after the thirty-first of December, one thousand eight hundred and seventy, except for the burial of the widowers, widows, and parents of those already buried therein.

CHURCH KIRK. — Forthwith, wholly, in the church of Church Kirk, in the parish of Whalley, Lancashire, and also, except in vaults and walled graves, in the old part of the churchyard; and in the rest of the churchyard after the thirtieth of June, one thousand eight hundred and seventy, with the like exceptions, and except in earthen graves, not less than five feet deep, which can be opened without the exposure of coffins or the disturbance of remains.

BOURTON. — Forthwith, wholly, in the church of Bourton, Gillingham, Dorsetshire; and in the churchyard after the thirtieth of June, one thousand eight hundred and seventy, except in the reserved places, which are enclosed by railing, and except for the burial of the widowers and widows of those previously buried therein.

Arthur Helps.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 31st day of March, 1870.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Right Honourable Henry Austin Bruce, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after giving to the Incumbents and the Churchwardens of the parishes hereinafter mentioned, ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representation, has, under the provisions of an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intitled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England beyond the limits of the Metropolis, and to amend the Act concerning the burial of the dead in the Metropolis," made a representation stating that, for the protection of the public health, no new burial-ground should be opened in the undermentioned parishes without the previous consent of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and that burials should be dis-

GULVAL.—Forthwith wholly in the church of Gulval, Cornwall; and after the thirty-first of December, one thousand eight hundred and seventy, in Gulval Churchyard, except in now existing vaults and walled graves, in which each coffin shall be separately entombed by being enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented.

MULLION.—Forthwith wholly in the parish church of Mullion, Cornwall; and also in the churchyard, except in graves not less than five feet deep, which can be opened without the exposure of coffins or the disturbance of entire bones.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty in Council is pleased hereby to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council on the sixteenth day of May next:

And Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith published in the London Gazette; and that copies thereof be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such representation one month before the said sixteenth day of May.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed Henry Dent Hinrich, of Bedford, in the county of Bedford, Gentleman, to be a Commissioner to administer oaths in the High Court of Chancery in England.

THE Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury having certified to the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, in pursuance of the Act 29 and 30 Vict., cap. 39, sec. 16, that the actual surplus revenue of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, beyond the actual expenditure thereof, for the year ended the 31st day of December, 1869, amounted to the sum of two hundred and fifty-four thousand nine hundred and eighty-two pounds seven shillings and ten pence.

The Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt hereby give notice, that the sum of sixty-three thousand seven hundred and forty-five pounds eleven shillings and eleven pence, being one-fourth part of the said surplus of two hundred and fifty-four thousand nine hundred and eighty-two pounds seven shillings and ten pence, will be applied under the provisions of the said Act, in the quarter ending the 30th day of June, 1870, towards the reduction of the National Debt.

A. Y. Spearman, Comptroller-General.
National Debt Office, April 2, 1870.

Wilts and Gloucestershire Railway Company.

NOTICE is hereby given, that in pursuance of "The Abandonment of Railways Acts, 1850," and "The Railways Companies Act, 1867," The Wilts and Gloucestershire Railway Company, have made application in writing to the Board of Trade setting forth that they the said Wilts and Gloucestershire Railway Company, are desirous that the Railway by "The Wilts and Gloucestershire Railway Act, 1864" authorized to be made and therein described as :

"A railway called (A) commencing by a junction with the Great Western Railway, in the parish of Christian Malford, in the county of Wilts, at or near the bridge by which the said railway is carried over the public road leading from Foxham to Christian Malford, known as Frog-lane, and terminating by a junction with the authorized line of the Stonehouse and Nailsworth Railway, near Nailsworth, in the county of Gloucester, in a field numbered 40, in the parish of Minchinhampton on the plan deposited as aforesaid" should be abandoned.

And notice is hereby further given, that any person who may think himself aggrieved by such proposed abandonment of the said Railway, and who may desire to object thereto, may bring such objection before the Board of Trade, by sending a written statement thereof by post, on or before the 24th day of May next, addressed to the Assistant Secretary of the Railway Department, Board of Trade, Whitehall, London.

Dated this 5th day of April, 1870.

Charles F. Hart, Secretary.
