

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

FRIDAY, APRIL 15, 1870.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, March 30, 1870.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Her Majesty's Birthday will be kept on Saturday, the 28th of May next.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace, March 28, 1870.

NOTICE is hereby given, that The Queen will hold a Drawing Room at Buckingham Palace, on Tuesday, the 10th of May next, at three o'clock.

REGULATIONS

TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S DRAWING ROOM AT BUCKINGHAM PALACE.

By Her Majesty's Command.

The Ladies, who propose to attend Her Majesty's Drawing Room, at Buckingham Palace, are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with the Queen's Page in Attendance, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to The Queen.

PRESENTATIONS.

Any Lady who proposes to be presented to The Queen must leave at the Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace, before twelve o'clock, two clear days before the Drawing Room, a card with her name written thereon, and with the name of the Lady by whom she is to be presented. In order to carry out the existing regulation, that no presentation can be made at a Drawing Room excepting by a Lady actually attending that Court, it is also necessary that an intimation from the Lady who is to make the presentation, of her intention to be present, should accompany the presentation card above referred to, which will be submitted to The Queen for Her Majesty's approbation. It is Her Majesty's Command, that no presentations shall be made at the Drawing Room, except in accordance with the above regulations.

It is particularly requested that in every case the names be very distinctly written upon the cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to The Queen.

It is not expected that Gentlemen will present themselves at Drawing Rooms, except in attendance on the Ladies of their families.

Any Gentleman who under these circumstances should desire to be presented to The Queen, will observe the same regulations as are in force for Her Majesty's Levees.

The State apartments will be open for the reception of Company coming to Court at two o'clock.

SYDNEY.

Lord Chamberlain.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace, April 13, 1870.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the State Apartments of Windsor Castle will be opened to the public, under the usual regulations, on and after Monday next, the 18th instant.

Kensington Palace, April 12, 1870.

Her Royal Highness the Princess Mary Adelaide (The Princess of Teck) has been pleased to appoint Colonel James T. Airey, C.B., to be Comptroller of the Household and Equerry to Her Royal Highness.

Board of Trade, Whitehall,
April 13, 1870.

THE Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade have received, from the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, a Despatch from Her Majesty's Minister at Brussels, reporting that the Committee of the Chamber of Deputies appointed to examine the law on fiscal reforms have agreed to the following modifications:—

The diminution of postage to 10 centimes on single letters in Belgium, and the increase in the duties on spirits, will take place on 1st June next.

The abolition of the excise duty on salt, and of the import duties on fish, and on the sulphites and sulphates of soda, will only take effect on the 1st January, 1871.

The duty on the importation of carbonate of soda will be reduced, from 1st January, 1871, to two francs; from 1st January, 1872, to one franc; and will be completely abolished in 1873.

The Belgian salt refiners will receive a reduction of 12 per cent. on the duties on salt in warehouse on 31st December, 1870.

(C. 474.)

Board of Trade, Whitehall,
April 14, 1870.

THE Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade have received, from the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, a Despatch from Her Majesty's Minister at Yedo, transmitting the subjoined Notification which he has issued for the information of British subjects, in consequence of a request to that effect received from the Government of Japan:—

NOTIFICATION.

The undersigned, in common with the Representatives of the other Treaty Powers, has been requested by the Japanese Government to make known, for the information of their respective countrymen, the determination of the Japanese Government to enforce the provisions of the Treaties in respect to the trading of foreign vessels in non-opened ports in Japan.

The United States has accordingly to warn British subjects of the penalties they incur by the commission of any breach of the aforesaid stipulations.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby grant and convey to the Incumbent of the vicarage of Saint Lawrence, York, in the county of York, and in the diocese of York, and to his successors, incumbents of the same vicarage, all that piece or parcel of land, and hereditaments, with the appurtenances thereunto belonging, particularly described in the schedule hereunto annexed, and are now vested in us, to have and to hold the said piece or parcel of land and hereditaments, with the appurtenances, to the use of the said Incumbent and his successors for ever.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this thirty-first day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy.

Schedule.

All that piece or parcel of land, containing by estimation two roods and nine perches, situate in the parish of Saint Nicholas, in the county of York, being part of a certain field, called Bull Lane Field, bounded on the east by lands belonging to the Reverend J. N. Fowler, on the south by the high road called Saint Lawrence Street, leading from the York Walmgate Bar to Hull, on the west by a narrow strip of the said field intervening between the plot of land intended to be hereby conveyed and Bull Lane, and on the north by the remainder of the said Bull Lane Field, and which said piece or parcel of land is delineated and colored pink upon the plan hereunto annexed.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby grant and convey to the Incumbent of the vicarage of Saint Thomas, Charterhouse, in the county of Middlesex, and in the diocese of London, and to his successors, incumbents of the same vicarage, all that piece or parcel of land and hereditaments, with the appurtenances thereunto belonging, and particularly described in the schedule hereunto annexed, and now vested in us, to have and to hold the said piece or parcel of land and hereditaments with the appurtenances to the use of the said Incumbent and his successors for ever.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this thirty-first day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy.

Schedule.

All that piece or parcel of land, situate on the west side of Goswell-street, in the new parish of Saint Thomas, Charterhouse, in the county of Middlesex, measuring on the north, east, south, and west sides thereof respectively, one hundred and twenty-seven feet, twenty-three feet, one hundred and thirty-three feet, and twenty-two feet, more or less, bounded on the north by the proposed site for the intended parsonage house for the vicarage of Saint Mary, Charterhouse, on the east by Goswell-street, on the south by the church and schools of Saint Thomas, Charterhouse, and on the west by land belonging to the Merchant Taylors' Company, and which piece or parcel of land is delineated and colored blue upon the plan hereunto annexed.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby grant and convey to the Incumbent of the benefice of Raughton Head with Gatesgill, in the county of Cumberland, and in the diocese of Carlisle, and to his successors, Incumbents of the same benefice, all those pieces or parcels of land and hereditaments, with the appurtenances thereunto belonging, which are particularly described in the schedule hereunto annexed, and are now vested in us, to have and to hold the said pieces or parcels of land and hereditaments, with the appurtenances, to the use of the said Incumbent and his successors for ever: Provided always, that the Incumbent for the time being of the same benefice shall be entitled to receive from us, or on our account, the net amount of the rents, profits, and proceeds of the said pieces or parcels of land and hereditaments, as from the twenty-ninth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-nine.

Schedule.

All those four several pieces or parcels of land, containing together by admeasurement seven acres two roods and nine perches, be the same little more or less, situate, lying, and being in the consolidated chapelry of Raughton Head with Gatesgill, in the county of Cumberland, which said pieces or parcels of land are known as Little Pad, Pasture Close, Far Hill, and Croft Head, and are delineated and coloured green upon the plan hereunto annexed, which plan is a copy of a plan drawn in the margin of a certain deed of conveyance, dated the twenty-ninth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-nine, made between George Gill Mounsey, of Castle-town, in the county of Cumberland, of the one part, and the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, of the other part, which said deed of conveyance is intended to be deposited in the Registry of the diocese of Carlisle, immediately after the publication of these presents in the London Gazette.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction, of a clear annual rent-charge of forty-three pounds, which has been permanently secured to the vicarage of Christ Church, Mount Pleasant, Whitehaven, in the county of Cumberland, and in the diocese of Carlisle, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, grant to the Incumbent of the said vicarage, and to his successors, to meet such benefaction, a yearly sum or stipend of forty-three pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the day of the publication of these presents in the London Gazette, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions, on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient to produce the said yearly sum or stipend, so payable out of our common fund, as lastly herein mentioned, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said vicarage, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this seventh day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby grant and convey to the Incumbent of the vicarage of Cassop with Quarrington, in the county of Durham, and in the diocese of Durham, and to his successors, Incumbents of the same vicarage, all that piece or parcel of land and hereditaments, with the appurtenances thereunto belonging particularly described in the schedule hereunto annexed, and now vested in us, to have and to hold the said piece or parcel of land, and hereditaments with the appurtenances, to the use of the said Incumbent and his successors for ever.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this seventh day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy.

Schedule.

All that piece or parcel of land, containing by admeasurement one acre, situate, lying, and being in the township of Quarrington, in the parish of Kelloe, in the county of Durham, bounded on the north and west by lands belonging to the Reverend Robert Hopper Williamson, on the east, by other lands belonging to the said Robert Hopper Williamson, but separated therefrom by a road or footpath leading from the road hereinafter mentioned to Heugh Hall and Cassop, and on the south by the road leading from the city of Durham to Quarrington, and which piece or parcel of land is delineated and coloured round with red on the plan hereunto annexed, which plan is a copy of a plan drawn in the margin of a certain deed of conveyance, dated the first day of November, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-nine, made between the said Robert Hopper Williamson, of Hurworth Rectory, in the county of Durham, Clerk, of the one part, and the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, of the other part, which said deed of conveyance is intended to be deposited in the Registry of the diocese of Durham, immediately after the publication of these presents in the London Gazette.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction, consisting of one thousand and five hundred pounds sterling, which has been paid to us in favour of the vicarage of Saint Andrew, Norwich, in the county of Norfolk, and in the diocese of Norwich, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, sections five and eleven, grant and appropriate out of our common fund to the said vicarage of Saint Andrew, Norwich, to meet such benefaction, one capital sum of one thousand and five hundred pounds sterling, to be applicable towards purchasing certain land, approved by us as an addition to the glebe lands of the said vicarage, and to remain in the meantime in our hands at interest after the rate of three pounds per centum per annum, and such interest to be paid to the Incumbent for the time being of the said vicarage of Saint Andrew, Norwich.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this seventh day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, sections five and eleven, do hereby grant and appropriate out of our common fund to the rectory of Baughurst, in the county of Southampton, and in the diocese of Winchester, one capital sum of fifty-two pounds six shillings and three pence, such capital sum to be applicable to the discharge of certain liabilities incurred in repairing and improving the parsonage or house of residence of the said rectory of Baughurst.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this seventh day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, sections five and eleven, do, subject as hereinafter mentioned, grant, and appropriate out of our common fund to the vicarage of Llanelwedd, in the county of Radnor, and in the diocese of Saint David's, one capital sum of one hundred pounds sterling, to be applicable towards defraying the cost of making certain improvements in and about the parsonage or house of residence for the said vicarage, according to the plans and specification, which have been approved by us, such capital sum or the balance thereof unapplied to such purpose to remain in the meantime in our hands at interest after the rate of three pounds per centum per annum, and such interest to be paid to the Incumbent for the time being of the said vicarage of Llanelwedd: Provided always, that the said capital sum shall be, and be held to be, in lieu of, and in full substitution for, the annual sum or stipend of three pounds, six shillings, and eight pence, heretofore payable by us to the Incumbent for the time being of the said vicarage, under the authority of an instrument sealed by us and published in the London Gazette of the twelfth day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-nine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this seventh day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy.

In Parliament—Session 1870.

Leverington Rectory.

(Division of the Parish of Leverington; Reduction of the Endowments of Leverington and Newton with St. Mary-in-the-Marsh; Formation and Endowment of New Districts or Parishes; Vesting of Patronage, and appropriation of Glebe; Erection of Churches and Houses of Residence; Arrangements with Ecclesiastical Commissioners for transfer to them of parts of Glebe, and for Grants by them; Charging of Annual Sum on Rectory of Newton; Transfer of Patronage, and abrogation of Trusts relating to Parson Drove Chapel and Lands; Amendment of Acts, &c.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that it is intended to apply to Parliament, in this present session, for leave to bring in a Bill for effecting the several objects and purposes following, or some of them; that is to say:—

1. To authorise the formation, partly out of the original limits of the parish of Leverington, and partly out of the adjacent parishes of Newton with St. Mary-in-the-Marsh, Wisbech St. Peter and St. Paul, and Wisbech St. Mary, all in the county of Cambridge, and diocese of Ely, of new districts or parishes, and to provide for a church or churches in such districts or parishes, or some or one of them, and of houses for the incumbents or ministers thereof, and to prescribe and regulate the patronage of such districts or parishes, and the fees to be taken therein, and to constitute them as rectories or vicarages, and to render it obligatory to maintain assistant curates, or some or one of them.

2. To provide for the carrying out of such objects, and for the endowment of such intended new districts or parishes, and for that purpose and for the other objects of the Bill to authorize the appropriation to such intended new districts or parishes, and for the vesting in the ministers or incumbents thereof respectively (with all proper and necessary powers for the recovery thereof) of portions of the tithe rent-charge belonging to the said parish of Leverington, and also (subject to the incumbency therein of the Reverend George Elwes Corrie, D.D.) the appropriation and vesting as aforesaid of portions of the tithe rent-charge belonging to the parish of Newton with St. Mary-in-the-Marsh aforesaid, and the vesting the portions of tithe rent-charge so to be appropriated in the rectors or vicars of the said intended new districts or parishes and their successors respectively, and subject as aforesaid the charging and vesting as aforesaid of a further sum or sums upon the endowment of the said rectory of Newton, and the borrowing from the Governors of Queen Anne's Bounty, and to require the said Governors to advance a sum or sums of money upon the security of the respective benefices of Leverington, and of the said intended new districts or parishes, and for requiring the said Governors to advance and lend the same for the purposes and on the terms in the Bill named.

3. To authorize the transfer to and vesting in the Minister or Incumbent or Ministers or Incumbents of some or one of the said intended new districts or parishes and their successors of portions of the glebe of the said parish of Leverington, and the transfer to and vesting in the Minister or Incumbent of the intended new district or parish of Southea-with-Murrow in the Bill mentioned, of the site of the chapel of Murrow in the Bill also mentioned, part or reputed part of the Vicarial Glebe of Wisbech St. Mary aforesaid, and to authorize the transfer to and vesting in the Minister or Incumbent of the intended district or parish of Parson Drove in the Bill mentioned of the site of the existing church of Parson Drove, and for exempting all or any of such portions of glebe so to be transferred from liability to the expense of repairing the Chancel of the ancient Parish Churches of Leverington and Newton, and for reducing, so far as may be necessary for carrying into effect the objects aforesaid, the area for Ecclesiastical purposes of the said parishes of Leverington and Newton.

4. To authorise the transfer to and vesting in the Ecclesiastical Commissioners of England, their successors and assigns, of portions of the glebe of Leverington in the Bill mentioned, and to authorise and require the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, in consideration of such transfer, to appropriate out of their common fund a sum or sums of money for the purposes of the said intended new districts or parishes, or some or one of them, and to require the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, in consideration of the local claims of some or one of the said intended new districts or parishes, to advance other sums of money, and to authorise agreements between the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners and the Lord Bishop of Ely, and the Incumbents for the time being of the several districts or parishes, or intended new districts or parishes in the Bill mentioned, for the purpose of more effectually carrying out the objects thereof.

5. To alter, repeal, or amend, so far as may be necessary or desirable for the purposes aforesaid, the provisions of the several Acts relating to the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, and to confer on them further powers.

To abrogate from and after the passing of the said Bill, all the trusts relating to the chapel, messuage, and lands known as Parson Drove Chapel, and lands created by a Royal Mandate made on the 24th day of October, in the eleventh year of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Third, and to vest such lands as glebe in the minister or incumbent of Parson Drove aforesaid, and his successors.

To provide for the appropriation and disposition of the profits of the said benefice of Leverington which shall accrue during the present vacancy thereof, and for the payment thereof, and by other means, of the expenses of passing the said Bill.

And Notice is hereby further given, that printed copies of the said intended Bill have been deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons.

Dated this 4th day of April, 1870.
