

The London Gazette

Published by Authority.

FRIDAY, MAY 20, 1870.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, March 30, 1870.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Her Majesty's Birthday will be kept on Saturday, the 28th of May next.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace, May 10, 1870.

NOTICE is hereby given, that His Royal Highness The Prince of Wales will, by command of The Queen, hold a Levee at St. James's Palace, on behalf of Her Majesty, on Monday, the 30th instant, at two o'clock.

It is The Queen's pleasure that Presentations to His Royal Highness at this Levee shall be considered as equivalent to Presentations to Her Majesty.

REGULATIONS

TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S LEVEE TO BE HELD BY HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS THE PRINCE OF WALES, ON BEHALF OF HER MAJESTY, AT ST. JAMES'S PALACE.

By Her Majesty's Command.

The Noblemen and Gentlemen, who propose to attend Her Majesty's Levee, at St. James's Palace, are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with The Queen's Page in attendance in the Corridor, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to His Royal Highness.

PRESENTATIONS.

Any Nobleman or Gentleman who proposes to be presented, must leave at the Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace, before twelve o'clock, two clear days before the Levee, a card with his name written thereon, and with the name of the Nobleman or Gentleman by whom he is to be presented. In order to carry out the existing regulation that no presentation can be made at a Levee excepting by a person actually attending that Levee, it is also necessary that an intimation from the Nobleman or Gentleman who is to make the presentation, of his intention to be present, should accompany the presentation card above referred to, which will be submitted to The Queen for Her Majesty's approbation. It is Her Majesty's command that no presentations shall be made at these Levees, except in accordance with the above regulations.

It is particularly requested, that in every case the names be very distinctly written upon the cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to His Royal Highness.

The State apartments will be open for the reception of Company coming to Court at one o'clock.

SYDNEY,
Lord Chamberlain.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace, May 19, 1870.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the State Apartments of Windsor Castle will be open to the public on Monday next, the 23rd instant, and will close after Friday, the 27th instant, until further notice.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 18th day of May, 1870.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

THIS day, the Right Honourable James Anthony Lawson was, by Her Majesty's command, sworn of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, and took his place at the Board accordingly.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 18th day of May, 1870.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by "The Common Law Procedure Act, 1860," it is enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, from time to time, by an Order in Council, to direct that all or any part of the provisions of the said Act shall apply to all or any Court or Courts of Record in England and Wales, and that within one month after such Order shall have been made and published in the London Gazette, such provision shall extend and apply in manner directed by such Order, and that any such Order may be, in like manner, from time to time altered and annulled; and that in and by such Order Her Majesty may direct by whom any powers or duties incident to the provisions applied under the said Act shall and may be exercised with respect to matters in such Court or Courts, and may make any orders or regulations which may be deemed requisite for carrying into operation in such Court or Courts the provisions so applied:

And, whereas it has seemed fit to Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, that certain of the provisions of the said Act should be extended and applied to all the Courts of Record established under the provisions of "The County Courts Act, 1846," and also to the City of London Court of Record as constituted by "The County Courts Act, 1867:"

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the provisions contained in sections twenty-eight, twenty-nine, thirty, and thirty-one of "The Common Law Procedure Act, 1860," shall apply to the said Courts of Record.

And Her Majesty is further pleased, by and with the advice aforesaid, to direct that the powers and duties incident to the above-mentioned provisions of "The Common Law Procedure Act, 1860," with respect to matters in the said Courts of Record, shall and may be exercised by the Judges of the said Courts respectively, or their respective deputies, and to order that the statutes, rules of practice, orders, and forms in force and used in the said Courts of Record shall be adopted with reference to proceedings had in such Courts under the above-mentioned provisions of "The Common Law Procedure Act, 1860," so far as the same are applicable, mutatis mutandis.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the 397th section of "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1854," it is enacted that Her Majesty may, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time reduce all or any of the dues for the time being payable in respect of existing or future lighthouses, buoys, or beacons for the time being under the management of the General Lighthouse Authorities, and may, by the like advice, vary any of such dues:

And whereas by the 398th section of the same Act it is further enacted, that each of the General Lighthouse Authorities shall have power, with the consent of Her Majesty in Council, to exempt any ships or any classes of ships from the payment of light dues receivable by such authority, and to annex any terms or conditions to such exemptions:

And whereas it has been made to appear to Her Majesty that it is reasonable and proper that the reductions, variations, and exemptions hereinafter specified should be made, and take effect from and after the time hereinafter mentioned:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by virtue of the power vested in Her by the said recited Act, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to direct that, on and after the first day of October, one thousand eight hundred and seventy, the following reductions and variations in and exemptions from the light dues now payable shall take effect; that is to say:—

- (1.) The light dues now payable in respect of the Smalls Light off the coast of Pembrokeshire, and in respect of the Skerries Light off the Island of Anglesea, by oversea vessels passing or deriving benefit therefrom (amounting to one penny per ton of the burden of every such vessel in respect of each of the said lights), shall be reduced to twelve-sixteenths of a penny per ton of the burden of every such vessel in respect of each of the said lights, subject, however, to the gross abatement or discount of fifty per cent. mentioned in an Order in Council, dated the twenty-ninth day of February, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight.
- (2.) All vessels trading to or from Bergen, and ports north thereof, from and to Berwick, and ports south thereof to Seaham (exclusive) (if navigated by the East Coast) shall, in lieu of the dues now payable in respect of North Unst Light, and the lights south thereof, pay dues only in respect of St. Abb's Head Light, and the lights south thereof, according to the destination of such vessels.
- (3.) All vessels trading to or from ports north of Bergen from and to ports in Great Britain between Seaham and Yarmouth (if navigated by the East Coast) shall, in lieu of the dues now payable in respect of the North Unst Light, and the lights south thereof, pay dues only in respect of Tynemouth Light, and the lights south thereof, according to the destination of such vessels.
- (4.) All vessels trading to or from the White Sea, or to or from ports between the North Cape and Norden, from or to Yarmouth and ports in Great Britain south thereof (if navigated by the East Coast) shall, in lieu of the dues now payable in respect of the North Unst or Tynemouth or Spurn or Outer Dowsing Lights, and the lights south thereof, pay dues only in respect of the Leman and Ower, Winterton, Haisborough, and Newarp Lights and the lights south thereof, according to the destination of such vessels.
- (5.) All vessels trading to or from the Eider Canal, and ports between the said Canal and Norden, from or to Dover and ports in the United Kingdom to the south and west thereof, shall, in lieu of the dues now payable in respect of the Outer Dowsing Light, and the lights south thereof, pay dues only in respect of the Kentish Knock Light, and the lights south thereof.

(6.) All vessels trading to or from ports between Norden and Rotterdam from or to Dover, and ports in the United Kingdom to the south and west thereof, shall, in lieu of the dues now payable in respect of the Winterton Light, and lights south thereof, pay dues only in respect of the Kentish Knock and North Foreland Lights, and lights south and west thereof.

(7.) All vessels trading to or from ports between Rotterdam and Antwerp, both inclusive, from or to Dover and ports in the United Kingdom to the south and west thereof, shall, in lieu of the dues now payable in respect of the Kentish Knock Light, and the lights south thereof, pay dues in respect of the North Foreland Light, and the lights south thereof.

(8.) All vessels trading between ports in the United Kingdom and ports in Europe (excepting ports in the Mediterranean) shall, in respect of every light passed on the whole voyage out and home, be liable to only one payment of dues for each general passing light.

(9.) All vessels calling for orders at any port in the United Kingdom, and proceeding thence outwards to a foreign port of destination, shall be exempted from payment of light dues in respect of all lights which may be passed, or from which benefit may be derived, on such outward voyage, after leaving the port at which orders were called for.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by "The Merchant Shipping Act Amendment Act, 1862," it is enacted that, in the case of any harbour, river, or other inland navigation for which rules concerning the lights or signals to be carried by vessels navigating the waters of any harbour, river, or other inland navigation, or concerning the steps for avoiding collision to be taken by such vessels, are not and cannot be made by or under the authority of any Local Act, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty in Council, upon application from the Harbour Trust or Body Corporate, if any, owning or exercising jurisdiction upon the waters of such harbour, river, or inland navigation, or if there is no such Harbour Trust or Body Corporate, upon application from persons interested in the navigation of such waters, to make rules concerning the lights or signals to be carried, and concerning the steps for avoiding collision to be taken by vessels navigating such waters; and such rules, when so made, shall, so far as regards vessels navigating such waters, have the same effect as if they were regulations contained in Table (C) in the schedule to the said Act, notwithstanding anything in the said Act or in the schedule thereto contained:

And whereas the Company of Proprietors of the Mersey and Irwell Navigation are a Body Corporate owning or exercising jurisdiction upon the inland navigation called the Mersey and Irwell Navigation, and have made application to Her Majesty to make rules concerning the lights or signals to be carried, and concerning the steps for avoiding collision to be taken by vessels navigating the said inland navigation:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by virtue of the powers vested in Her by the said recited Act, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to make the rules contained in the schedule hereunto annexed, concerning the lights and signals to be carried, and concerning the steps for avoiding collision to be taken by vessels navigating the inland navigation called the "Mersey and Irwell Navigation."

Arthur Helps.

Schedule referred to in the foregoing Order.

RULES concerning the Lights and Signals to be carried, and concerning the steps for avoiding Collision to be taken by Vessels navigating the Inland Navigation called the Mersey and Irwell Navigation.

1. In this Order, the term "vessel" includes ships, boats, barges, crafts, packets, and vessels of every kind, navigating or being upon or in any part of the Mersey and Irwell Navigation, or on or in any cut, canal, or other works belonging to the said navigation.

2. No vessel shall, unless duly authorized by some agent of the owners of, or body exercising jurisdiction upon the Mersey and Irwell Navigation referred to in the foregoing Order, be navigated without a rudder at the stern.

3. No vessel shall be navigated without one person, at the least, on board, competent to steer and manage her, and acquainted with the ordinary rules of navigating on rivers and canals.

4. No vessel shall lie or be left without a person on board capable of taking care thereof.

5. No vessel shall lie or be left between sunset and sunrise without having a bright white light so fitted, placed, or arranged that it shall be visible fore and aft. This light shall be of such a character as to be visible on a dark night with a clear atmosphere for a distance of at least one mile.

6. No vessel shall be navigated through a tunnel either by day or by night, without carrying a light visible fore and aft; such light to be of the description and power named in the preceding rule.

7. Nothing shall be allowed to project beyond the sides of any vessel.

8. No vessel shall be placed or lie so as to obstruct the passage of any other vessel into or out of any lock, dock, bridgeway, stop-place, aqueduct, or tunnel, or enter any such lock, dock, bridgeway, stop-place, aqueduct, or tunnel out of its turn.

9. No vessel shall remain or be placed so as to obstruct the passage upon and along any part of the said Mersey and Irwell Navigation.

10. No vessel shall be moored in any dock entrance, bridgeway, stop-place, aqueduct or tunnel.

11. No attempt shall be made to moor a vessel in any basin, dock, or cut, or near any wharf, warehouse, or crane, contrary to the orders of an agent of the owners of, or body exercising jurisdiction upon, the said navigation.

12. Every vessel which would, if not stopped, meet another vessel on a part of the said navigation where two vessels cannot pass each other, shall stop at the passage place until the other vessel shall have passed clear of her.

13. No vessel shall be or remain at the entrance to any dock or basin, or in any bridgeway, stop-place, aqueduct, or tunnel or at any crane or wharf longer than is necessary for passing through or using the same.

14. No attempt shall be made so to load, unload, moor, or berth any vessel in any lock, dock, basin, bridgeway, stop-place, tunnel, or aqueduct, or so near thereto as to obstruct the passage thereof.

15. The line of every vessel going down the navigation shall be lowered and give way to every passing vessel going up the navigation, unless the vessel going down the navigation is a passenger packet, in which case the vessel going up the navigation and not being a passenger packet shall give way to such passenger packet.

16. The line of every vessel whether light or loaded, not being a passenger packet, shall be lowered and give way to a passenger packet.

17. Every vessel not being a passenger packet shall whenever a passenger packet is within one hundred yards from any lock, bridge, aqueduct, or tunnel give way to such passenger packet, and let it pass first through such lock, bridge, aqueduct, or tunnel.

18. There shall be a driver in attendance upon every horse hauling any vessel or being upon any hauling road or towing path.

19. Every steam vessel shall be furnished with a loud and shrill steam whistle, and such steam whistle shall be placed before the funnel not less than three feet above the deck or gunwale of such vessel, and shall be so fitted that it shall be blown by the steam from the boiler of the vessel.

20. The steam-whistle of every vessel under steam shall be sounded as follows, namely, when such vessel is about to round and is rounding any turnings in the navigation as well as when such vessel is meeting, approaching, or overtaking any vessel.

21. Every vessel under steam when passing a vessel not under steam shall pass the vessel not under steam on the off side thereof.

22. Every vessel not under steam shall take the towing-path side when meeting or passing or approaching to, or being overtaken by a vessel under steam.

23. Every vessel under steam, meeting another vessel under steam shall if going down the navigation take the off side, and shall if coming up the navigation take the towing-path side.

24. Every vessel under steam overtaking another vessel under steam shall take the off side.

25. Every vessel under steam when being overtaken by another vessel under steam shall take the towing-path side.

26. Every vessel under steam shall check her speed when meeting, overtaking, or approaching any vessel, and shall stop and reverse if necessary.

27. No person shall without being duly authorized by some Agent of the owners of, or body exercising jurisdiction upon the said navigation, cut any mooring-line, or unmoor or cut adrift any vessel.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 18th day of May, 1870.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the "Merchant Shipping Act Amendment Act, 1862," it is enacted that, in the case of any harbour, river, or other inland navigation, for which rules concerning the lights or signals to be carried by vessels navigating the waters of any harbour, river, or other inland navigation, or concerning the steps for avoiding collision to be taken by such vessels are not and cannot be made by or under the authority of any local Act, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty in Council, upon application from the harbour trust or body corporate, if any, owning or exercising jurisdiction upon the waters of such harbour, river, or inland navigation, or, if there is no such harbour trust or body corporate, upon application from persons interested in the navigation of such waters, to make rules concerning the lights or signals to be carried, and concerning the steps for avoiding collision to be taken by vessels navigating such waters; and such rules, when so made, shall, so far as regards vessels navigating such waters, have the same effect as if they were regulations contained in Table (C) in the schedule to the said Act, notwithstanding anything in the said Act or in the schedule thereto contained:

And whereas the Right Honourable John Frederick Vaughan, Earl Cawdor, the Honourable George Henry Charles Byng (commonly called Viscount Enfield), and the Honourable Algernon Egerton, Member of Parliament (trustees acting in execution of the trusts of the will of the Most Noble Francis, late Duke of Bridgewater), are a body of persons interested in the several inland navigations severally called "The Duke of Bridgewater's Canal," "The Manchester and Salford Junction Canal," and "The Runcorn and Weston Canal," and have made application to Her Majesty to make rules concerning the lights or signals to be carried, and concerning the steps for avoiding collision to be taken by vessels navigating the said inland several navigations, or any of them:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by virtue of the powers vested in Her by the said recited Act, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to make the Rules contained in the schedule hereunto annexed, concerning the lights and signals to be carried, and concerning the steps for avoiding collision to be taken by vessels navigating the several inland navigations called the Duke of Bridgewater's Canal, the Manchester and Salford Junction Canal, and the Runcorn and Weston Canal, or any of them.

Arthur Helps.

Schedule referred to in the foregoing Order.

RULES concerning the lights and signals to be carried, and concerning the steps for avoiding collision to be taken by vessels navigating the several inland navigations called the Duke of Bridgewater's Canal, the Manchester and Salford Junction Canal, and the Runcorn and Weston Canal, or any of them.

1. In this Order the term "vessel" includes ships, boats, barges, craft, packets, and vessels of every kind navigating or being upon or in any part of the Duke of Bridgewater's Canal, the Manchester and Salford Junction Canal, and the Runcorn and Weston Canal, or any of them, or on or in any cut, canal, or other works belonging to the said navigations or any of them.

2. No vessel shall be navigated on any of the said navigations referred to in the foregoing Order, without a rudder at the stern, unless duly authorized by some agent of the owners of, or body of persons interested in, the respective navigations on which the same shall be navigated.

3. No vessel shall be navigated without one person, at the least, on board competent to steer and manage her, and acquainted with the ordinary rules of navigating on canals.

4. No vessel shall lie or be left without a person on board capable of taking care thereof.

5. No vessel shall lie or be left between sunset and sunrise without having a bright white light so fitted, placed, or arranged, that it shall be visible fore and aft. This light shall be of such a character as to be visible on a dark night, with a clear atmosphere, for a distance of at least one mile.

7. Nothing shall be allowed to project beyond the sides of any vessel.

8. No vessel shall be placed or lie so as to obstruct the passage of any other vessel into or out of any lock, dock, bridgeway, stop-place, aqueduct, or tunnel, or enter any such lock, dock, bridgeway, stop-place, aqueduct, or tunnel, out of its turn.

9. No vessel shall remain or be placed so as to obstruct the passage upon and along any part of the said canals respectively.

10. No vessel shall be moored in any dock entrance, bridgeway, stop-place, aqueduct, or tunnel.

11. No attempt shall be made to moor a vessel in any basin, dock, or cut, or near any wharf, warehouse, or crane, contrary to the orders of an agent of the owners of, or body interested in, the said navigations respectively.

12. Every vessel which would, if not stopped, meet another vessel on a part of any of the said navigations where two vessels cannot pass each other, shall stop at the passage place until the other vessel shall have passed clear of her.

13. No vessel shall be or remain at the entrance to any dock or basin, or in any bridgeway, stop-place, aqueduct, or tunnel, or at any crane or wharf, longer than is necessary for passing through or using the same.

14. No attempt shall be made so to load, unload, moor, or berth any vessel in any lock, dock, basin, bridgeway, stop-place, tunnel, or aqueduct, or so near thereto as to obstruct the passage thereof.

15. The line of every vessel going down the navigation shall be lowered and give way to every passing vessel going up the navigation, unless the vessel going down the navigation is a passenger packet, in which case the vessel going up the navigation and not being a passenger packet shall give way to the passenger packet.

16. The line of every vessel not being a passenger packet, and whether light or loaded, shall be lowered and give way to a passenger packet.

17. Every vessel not being a passenger packet shall, whenever a passenger packet is within one hundred yards from any lock, bridge, aqueduct, or tunnel give way to such passenger packet, and let it pass first through such lock, bridge, aqueduct, or tunnel.

18. There shall be a driver in attendance upon every horse hauling any vessel, or being upon any hauling-road or towing-path.

20. The steam whistle of every vessel under steam shall be sounded as follows, viz., when such vessel is about to round, and is rounding, any turnings in the navigation, as well as when such vessel is meeting, approaching, or overtaking any vessel.

21. Every vessel under steam, when passing a vessel not under steam, shall pass the vessel not under steam on the off side thereof.

22. Every vessel not under steam shall take the towing-path side when meeting or passing, or approaching to, or being overtaken by, a vessel under steam.

23. Every vessel under steam meeting another vessel under steam shall, if going down the navigation, take the off-side, and shall, if coming up the navigation, take the towing-path side.

24. Every vessel under steam overtaking another vessel under steam shall take the off-side.

25. Every vessel under steam, when being overtaken by another vessel under steam, shall take the towing-path side.

26. Every vessel under steam shall check her speed when meeting, overtaking, or approaching any vessel, and shall stop and reverse if necessary.

27. No person shall, without being duly authorised by some agent of the owners of, or body interested in; the said several navigations respectively, cut any mooring line, or unmoor or cut adrift any vessel.

At the Court at Windsor, the 18th day of May, 1870.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty, and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the seventeenth day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy, in the words and figures following, that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the sixteenth and seventeenth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty, and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for effecting an exchange of the patronage of the benefice (being a rectory) of Little Tey with Surrex, situate in the county of Essex and in the diocese of Rochester, for the patronage of the benefice (being a perpetual curacy or vicarage) of Saint Botolph, situate at Colchester, in the same county and diocese.

"Whereas the Right Reverend Thomas Legh, Bishop of the said diocese of Rochester, is seized in fee, in right of his see, of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and to the said benefice of Little Tey with Surrex, and the church thereof.

"And whereas the Master and Scholars of Balliol College, in the University of Oxford, are, in their corporate capacity, seized in fee of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and to the said benefice of Saint Botolph, situate at Colchester, and the church thereof.

“And whereas the said Thomas Legh, Bishop of Rochester, and the Reverend Robert Scott, Clerk, Doctor in Divinity, the Master of Balliol College aforesaid, acting for himself as such Master and for the scholars of the same College, have respectively signified to us their desire that the patronage of the said two benefices, and of the churches thereof respectively, may be re-arranged, by way of exchange, in manner hereinafter recommended and proposed.

“And whereas we have made due enquiry and calculation as to the circumstances and relative values of the said benefices and patronage, and we do hereby certify to your Majesty that the circumstances and present values of the said benefices respectively are as set forth in the schedule hereunto annexed.

“Now, therefore, with the consent of the said Thomas Legh, Bishop of the said diocese of Rochester, and with the consent of the said Robert Scott, the Master and the Scholars of Balliol College aforesaid (in testimony of which consent to this scheme the said Bishop hath affixed his signature and seal, and the said Master and Scholars have affixed their common or corporate seal), we humbly recommend and propose, that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and to the said benefice of Little Tey with Surrex, and the church thereof, shall be assigned and transferred from the said Thomas Legh, Bishop of the said diocese of Rochester, and from his successors, and shall become and be absolutely vested in, and shall and may from time to time be exercised by, the said Robert Scott, the Master, and the Scholars of Balliol College aforesaid, and his and their successors for ever; and that in exchange for the same, the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and to the said benefice of Saint Botolph, situate at Colchester, and the church thereof, shall in like manner be assigned and transferred from the said Robert Scott, the Master, and the Scholars of Balliol College aforesaid, and from his and their successors, in whom as aforesaid it is now vested, and shall become and be absolutely vested in, and shall and may from time to time be exercised by, the said Thomas Legh, Bishop of the said diocese of Rochester, and by his successors, Bishops of the same diocese, for ever.

“And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

“The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference.

| Name and Quality of Benefice. | County. | Diocese. | Population. | Income (in gross for 1868). | Residence. |
|---|-----------|-----------|-------------|-----------------------------------|------------|
| Little Tey with Surrex, a Rectory | Essex ... | Rochester | 163 | £ 223 | Yes |
| Saint Botolph's, Colchester, a Perpetual Curacy or Vicarage | Essex ... | Rochester | 3000 | 231 | Yes |

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Rochester.

Arthur Helps.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 18th day of May, 1870.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the twenty-fourth day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of your Majesty, chapter seventy; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of your Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church called Christ Church, situate at Ebbw Vale, in the new parish of Tredegar, in the county of Monmouth, and in the diocese of Llandaff.

“Whereas at certain extremities of the said new parish of Tredegar, of the parish or parochial chapelry of Aberystroth, in the county and diocese aforsaid, and of the new parish of Beaufort, in the same county and diocese, which said extremities lie contiguous one to another, and are described in the schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such new parishes and parish or parochial chapelry respectively.

“And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that such contiguous portions of the said new parish of Tredegar, of the said parish or parochial chapelry of Aberystroth, and of the said new parish of Beaufort, should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes, and that the same should be assigned to the said church called Christ Church, situate at Ebbw Vale as aforesaid.

“Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Alfred, Bishop of the said diocese of Llandaff, as such Bishop, and also as the alternate patron, in right of his see, of the vicarage of the said new parish of Beaufort, with the consent of the Right Honourable William Ewart Gladstone, the First Lord of your Majesty's Treasury, acting on behalf of your Majesty as the other alternate patron, in right of the Crown, of the same vicarage, with the consent of the Reverend Edward Jones, the vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the parish or parochial chapelry of Bedwelty, in the county and diocese aforesaid, and as such vicar or incumbent the patron of the vicarage of the said new parish of Tredegar, and with the consent of the Right Honourable William, Earl of Abergavenny, the patron of the rectory of the said parish or parochial chapelry of Aberystroth (in testimony whereof they, the said consenting parties, have respectively signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent that it would in our opinion be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said new parish of Tredegar, of the said parish or parochial chapelry of Aberystroth, and of the said new parish of Beaufort, which are described in the schedule hereunder written, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church called Christ Church, situate at Ebbw Vale as aforesaid, and that the same should be named ‘The Consolidated Chapelry of Christ Church, Ebbw Vale;’ and that the right of presentation and appointment to the church of such consolidated chapelry should belong to, and be exercised by, the said Alfred, Bishop of the said diocese of Llandaff, and by his successors, Bishops of the same diocese for ever.

“We therefore humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to your Majesty, in your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

“The Consolidated Chapelry of Christ Church, Ebbw Vale, being :—

“All those contiguous portions of the new parish of Tredegar, of the parish or parochial chapelry of Aberystroth, and of the new parish of Beaufort, all in the county of Monmouth, and in the diocese of Llandaff, which are comprised within and are bounded by an imaginary line, commencing in the centre of the bridge called or known as Pont-ynis-y-neuadd, which carries the private road leading from Ebbw Vale Farm to

Ebbw Vale Iron Works over that branch of the River Ebbw which is called or known as Ebbw Fawr, at the point where the boundary which divides the said parish or parochial chapelry of Aberystroth, from the new parish of Tredegar aforesaid, meets the boundary dividing the last-named new parish from the new parish of Beaufort aforesaid; and extending thence, north-westward along the last described boundary, thereby following the middle of the said river to the point where the same boundary diverges from such river; and continuing thence, still north-westward, along the middle of the said river, thereby passing to the east of Ebbw Vale House to the point where the said boundary returns to the same river; and extending thence, first north-westward, and then south-westward, along the same boundary, thereby following the middle of the said river, as far as the bridge called or known as Pont-y-gof, and thence following in part the middle of the parish road leading from Ebbw Vale towards Sirhowy, and in part the turnpike-road, leading from Abergavenny to Sirhowy, to the point where the said boundary diverges to the northwest, near to the point where the said turnpike-road is joined by the parish road leading over the mountain called or known as Cefn Manmoel, past Carregbicca and Ton-y-fedw, towards Pentref-Manmoel; and extending thence, south-eastward, for a distance of three miles and three quarters or thereabouts, along the middle of the last described road to the point near the house called or known as Maes-yr-onn-Fawr, where the same road is intersected by the boundary which divides the said new parish of Tredegar from the parish or parochial chapelry of Bedwelty, in the county and diocese aforesaid; and extending thence, north-eastward, for a distance of half-a-mile, or thereabouts, along the last-described boundary, to its junction in the middle of the river called or known as Ebbw Fawr, as aforesaid, with the boundary which divides the last-named parish or parochial chapelry from the parish or parochial chapelry of Aberystroth aforesaid; and extending thence, south-eastward, for a distance of one mile and a-quarter, or thereabouts, along the last-described boundary, thereby following the course of the said river, to a point opposite to the south-western end of the fence near the public-house called the Waterloo Arms, which divides the close numbered 747 upon the tithe commutation map of the said parish or parochial chapelry of Aberystroth, and upon the map hereunto annexed from the closes numbered respectively 662 and 663 upon the said maps; and extending thence, north eastward, to and along the middle of the said fence, and across the line of the Western Valleys Railway, to and along the middle of the fence dividing the close numbered 744 upon the said maps from the closes numbered respectively 665, 666, 668, 669, and 672 upon the same maps, to the junction of the fence dividing the close numbered 744 from the close numbered 672 as aforesaid with the fence dividing the last-mentioned close from the common or moor land numbered 559 on the said maps; and extending thence, generally northward, along the line of fences dividing such common or moor land numbered 559 as aforesaid, and the close numbered 624 upon the said maps, from the closes numbered respectively 672 as aforesaid, 671, 670, 667, 659, 658, 656, 655, 648, 647, 623, 110, 109, 108, 103, 98, 93, 76, 75, 77, 74, 69, 39, 34, 36, 30, 29, and 26 upon the same maps, to the point where the fence dividing the common land numbered 559 from the close numbered 26 as aforesaid, is intersected by the boundary which divides the said parish or parochial chapelry of Aberystwith from the new parish of Beaufort aforesaid; and extending thence, south-westward, for a distance of fifteen chains, or thereabouts, along the last-described boundary, to the first-described point in the centre of the bridge called or known as Pont-y-nis-y-neuadd aforesaid, where the same boundary meets the boundary dividing the said parish or parochial chapelry of Aberystwith from the new parish of Tredegar aforesaid, at which point the said imaginary line commenced."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Llandaff.

AT the Court, at Windsor, the 18th day of May, 1870.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the tenth day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of your Majesty, chapter seventy; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of your Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Peter, situate at Hednesford, in the parish or parochial chapelry of Cannock, in the county of Stafford, and in the diocese of Lichfield.

"Whereas at certain extremities of the said parish or parochial chapelry of Cannock, of the parish of Rugeley, of the new parish of Brereton, and of the new parish of Gentleshawe, all in the said county of Stafford, and in the said diocese of Lichfield, which said extremities lie contiguous one to another, and are described in the schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such respective cures.

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that such contiguous portions of the said parish or parochial chapelry of Cannock, of the said parish of Rugeley, of the said new parish of Brereton, and of the said new parish of Gentleshawe, should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes, and that the same should be assigned to the said church of Saint Peter, situate at Hednesford as aforesaid.

"And whereas the dean and chapter of the cathedral church of Lichfield are the patrons of the vicarage of the said parish or parochial chapelry of Cannock, and also of the vicarage of the said parish of Rugeley, and the Reverend Richard Macgregor Grier, the vicar or incumbent of the lastly mentioned vicarage is, as such vicar or incumbent, the patron of the vicarage of the said new parish of Brereton, and the Reverend George Augustus, Bishop of the said diocese of Lichfield, is as such bishop the alternate patron of the vicarage of the said new parish of Gentleshawe, and the said dean and chapter of the cathedral church of Lichfield are the other alternate patrons of the said lastly mentioned vicarage.

"Now therefore, with the consent of the said George Augustus, Bishop of the said diocese of Lichfield, acting as such Bishop and also as such alternate patron as aforesaid, with the consent of the said dean and chapter of the cathedral church of Lichfield, and with the consent of the said Richard Macgregor Grier (in testimony whereof the said George Augustus, Bishop of the said diocese of Lichfield, and the said Richard Macgregor Grier have respectively signed and sealed this representation, and the said dean and chapter have hereunto affixed their capitular or common seal), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England humbly represent that it would in our opinion be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said parish or parochial chapelry of Cannock, of the said parish of Rugeley, of the said new parish of Brereton, and of the said new parish of Gentleshawe, which are described in the schedule hereunder written, all which portions together with the boundaries thereof are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of Saint Peter, situate at Hednesford as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Peter, Hednesford,' and that the right of presentation and appointment to the church of such consolidated chapelry should belong to and be exercised by the said George Augustus, Bishop of the said diocese of Lichfield, and by his successors Bishops of the same diocese for ever.

"We therefore humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to your Majesty, in your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Peter, Hednesford, being:—

"All those several contiguous portions of the parish or parochial chapelry of Cannock, of the parish of Rugeley, of the new parish of Brereton, and of the new parish of Gentleshawe, all in the county of Stafford, and in the diocese of Lichfield, which said portions of such parishes and new parishes are comprised within and are bounded by an imaginary line, commencing upon the boundary which divides the said parish or parochial chapelry of Cannock from the parish or parochial chapelry of Norton Canes, in the county and diocese aforesaid, at a boundary stone marked 'H. St. P. C. C. 1870, No. 1,' and placed at or near to the Five

Ways sign-post upon Norton Common, at the junction of the several roads called or known respectively as the Leacroft-hill-road, the Cannock and Lichfield-road, the Norton and Wimblebury-road, and the Norton and Hednesford road; and extending thence, north-westward, for a distance of nearly half a mile along the middle of the last-named road, to its junction at Heathy Hays-corner with Heathy Hays-lane; and extending thence, south-westward, for a distance of three hundred yards, or thereabouts, along the middle of the last-named lane, to a point opposite to a boundary stone inscribed 'H. St. P. C. C. 1870, No. 2,' and placed on the north-western side of the said lane, at the southern end of the fence which divides the close numbered 1027 upon the map of the Ordnance survey of the said parish or parochial chapelry of Cannock, published in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, and upon the map hereunto annexed from the close numbered 1026 upon the same maps; and extending thence, north-westward to such boundary stone, and continuing thence still north-westward and in a direct line for a distance of one hundred and sixty-six yards or thereabouts across the closes numbered respectively 1026 as aforesaid, and 1018 upon the said maps, to a point in the middle of a certain stream or watercourse, which flows past the south-western sides of the several closes numbered respectively 1131, 1135, 1136, 1142, 1147, 1152, 1153, 1162, and 1167 upon the tithe commutation map of the said parish or parochial chapelry of Cannock, and upon the map hereunto annexed as aforesaid, into the brook flowing from Wimblebury past Hednesford towards Cannock; and continuing thence still north-westward for a distance of seven furlongs or thereabouts along the middle of the said stream or watercourse to its junction, at a distance of three hundred and twenty-five yards or thereabouts to the west of the house called or known as Prospect-place, with the brook which flows from Wimblebury past Hednesford towards Cannock as aforesaid; and extending thence, westward for a distance of four hundred and twenty-five yards or thereabouts along the middle of the last-described brook to its junction with the stream, which flows from Cannock Bog towards Cannock, at or near to which point of junction a boundary stone inscribed 'H. St. P. C. C. 1870 No. 3' has been placed on the southern side of the Old Rugeley-road, which leads from Cannock through Hill Top to Rugeley; and extending thence, first northward and then north-westward, for a distance of one thousand yards or thereabouts, along the middle of the last-described stream, thereby crossing the last-described road, and passing under the line of the Cannock Mineral Railway to a boundary stone inscribed 'H. St. P. C. C., 1870, No. 4,' and placed immediately over the same stream on the south-eastern side of the Cannock and Hednesford-road; and continuing thence, still north-westward, to a point in the middle of the last-named road: and extending thence, north-eastward for a distance of nine hundred and twenty-five yards or thereabouts, along the middle of the same road to its junction near the Hednesford Station of the above-named line of railway, with the Hednesford and Stafford-road; and extending thence, first north-westward, then northward, and then again north-westward, for a distance of one mile and three furlongs or thereabouts, along the middle of the last-named road, to a boundary stone inscribed 'H. St. P. C. C., 1870, No. 5,' and placed at the junction of the same road with the Cannock and Rugeley road, at the place called or known as Deakin's-grave, near to the eastern side of the Plantation called or known as Huntington Belt; and extending thence, eastward, and in a direct line for a distance of two and a quarter miles or thereabouts thereby crossing the boundary, which divides the said parish or parochial chapelry of Cannock from the parish of Rugeley aforesaid, and also crossing Brindley Heath, Brindley Coppice, and Upper Brindley Pool, to the point on the north-western side of the line of the Cannock Mineral Railway aforesaid, where the stone or post indicating a distance of eighteen miles from Dudley is situate; and extending thence, south-eastward, and in a direct line, for a distance of nearly one mile, thereby crossing the north-eastern end of Baland's Pool, and also crossing the boundary which divides the said parish of Rugeley from the new parish of Brereton aforesaid, and passing over Rainbow Hill, to a boundary stone inscribed 'H. St. P. C. C., 1870, No. 6,' and placed on the eastern side of the house called or known as Sugars Lodge, at the southern end of the fence forming the eastern boundary of the close numbered 1814 upon the tithe commutation map of the said parish of Rugeley, and upon the map hereunto annexed as aforesaid, on the north-western side of the Hednesford, Wandon, and Brereton-road; and extending thence, south-eastward and in a direct line, for a distance of one mile and one furlong, or thereabouts, thereby crossing Beaudesert Old Park, the boundary dividing the said new parish of Brereton from the new parish of Gentleshawe aforesaid, and the wood called or known as New Hays, to a boundary stone inscribed 'H. St. P. C. C., 1870, No. 7,' and placed at the point where the Hednesford and Cannock Wood-road is joined by the Burnt Wood and Cannock Wood-road; and extending thence, generally southward, for a distance of eight hundred yards, or thereabouts, along the middle of the last-named road, to a boundary stone inscribed 'H. St. P. C. C. 1870, No. 8,' and placed at the point where the same road is intersected by the Chorley and Hednesford road, upon or near to the boundary which divides the said new parish of Gentleshawe from the parish or parochial chapelry of Cannock aforesaid; and extending thence, south-eastward, for a distance of three furlongs or thereabouts along the last-described boundary to its junction with the boundary dividing the said parish or parochial chapelry of Cannock from the consolidated chapelry of Chasetown, in the county and diocese aforesaid; and extending thence, first westward, then southward, and then south-westward, for a distance of one mile-and-a-half, or thereabouts, along the last-described boundary to its junction near to the Cannock and Lichfield road aforesaid with the boundary which divides the said parish or parochial chapelry of Cannock from the parish or parochial chapelry of Norton Canes aforesaid; and continuing thence, westward, for a distance of three-quarters of a mile, or thereabouts, along the last described boundary, thereby following, for the most part, the course of the last-named road to the first-described boundary stone, inscribed 'H. St. P. C. C. 1870, No. 1,' and placed at or near to the Five Ways Sign Post as aforesaid, where the said imaginary line commenced."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and

Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is please hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Lichfield.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 18th day of May, 1870.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the first and second years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and seven; of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the twenty-fourth day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the first and second years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and seven; of the Act of the second and third years of your Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Gabriel, situate within the limits of the district parish of the Holy Trinity, Bristol, in the diocese of Gloucester and Bristol.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint Gabriel, situate within the limits of the said district parish of the Holy Trinity, Bristol, as aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Charles John, Bishop of the said diocese of Gloucester and Bristol, and with the consent of the Reverend David Cooper, the vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the said district parish of the Holy Trinity, Bristol (in testimony whereof they, the said consenting parties, have respectively signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said district parish of the Holy Trinity, Bristol, which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Saint Gabriel, situate within the limits of such district parish as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Gabriel, Bristol.'

"And, with the like consent of the said Charles John, Bishop of the said diocese of Gloucester and Bristol, and with the like consent of the said David Cooper (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent; hat it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at the said church of Saint Gabriel, situate within the limits of the said district parish of the Holy Trinity, Bristol, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns, and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices, should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always, that so long as the said David Cooper shall continue to be the vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the said district parish of the Holy Trinity, Bristol, all the fees which may be received in respect of such publication, solemnization, or performance at the said church of Saint Gabriel, situate as aforesaid, shall be paid over by the minister thereof to the said David Cooper: and provided also, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us, the said Commissioners, to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism, or for the registration thereof.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to your Majesty; in your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Saint Gabriel, Bristol, being:—

"All that part of the district parish of the Holy Trinity, Bristol, in the diocese of Gloucester and Bristol, wherein the present Incumbent of such district parish now possesses the exclusive cure of souls, which is bounded on the north by the new parish of Saint Simon, Bristol, in the said diocese, on the north-east and on the south-east by the new parish of Saint Mark, Easton, in the same diocese, and on the remaining sides, that is to say, on the south-west and on the north-west by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the last-named new parish from the district parish of the Holy Trinity, Bristol aforesaid, at the point where Easton-road is joined by Twinnell-street; and extending thence north-westward along the middle of the said street to its junction with the street or road, called or known as Clifton-place; and extending thence westward along the middle of the last-named street or road to its junction with Stapleton-road; and extending thence north-westward across the last-named road to and along the middle of Perry-street to the junction of the last-named street with Goodhind-street; and extending thence westward across the last-named street to and along the middle of a proposed new street to its junction with Pennywell-road; and extending thence north-eastward for a distance of one hundred and sixty-six yards or thereabouts along the middle of the last-named road to the boundary which divides the said district parish of the Holy Trinity, Bristol, from the new parish of Saint Simon, Bristol aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the respective Registrars of the two several registries of the said diocese of Gloucester and Bristol, at Bristol and at Gloucester.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 18th day of May, 1870.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the seventh day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of his Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of your Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Peter, situate at Fordcomb, in the parish of Penshurst, in the county of Kent, and in the diocese of Canterbury.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient, that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint Peter, situate at Fordcomb as aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Archibald Campbell, Archbishop of Canterbury (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Penshurst which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Saint Peter, situate at Fordcomb as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Peter, Fordcomb.'

"And with the like consent of the said Archibald Campbell, Archbishop of Canterbury (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us, the said Commissioners, to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism, or for the registration thereof.

"We, therefore, humbly pray, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to your Majesty, in your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Saint Peter, Fordcomb, being:—

"All that part of the parish of Penshurst, in the county of Kent, and in the diocese of Canterbury, which is bounded on the south-east partly by the parish of Speldhurst, and partly by a detached portion of the parish of Ashurst, both in the said county and diocese, on the south-west partly by the last-named parish, and partly by the parish of Chiddingstone, in the county and diocese aforesaid, and on the remaining sides, that is to say, on the north and on the east by an imaginary line, commencing upon the boundary which divides the said parish of Chiddingstone from the parish of Penshurst aforesaid, at the point where the road leading from Fordcomb Green to Finch Green is intersected by Coldharbour-lane, which leads from Frinden, past the farm-house called or known as Whitepost Farm, and over Smart's-hill, to Penshurst; and extending thence, alternately north-eastward and eastward, for a distance of one mile, or thereabouts, along the middle of the said lane, to its junction on Smart's-hill aforesaid, with the road which leads from Penshurst over the said Smart's-hill, and past the farm-house called or known as Saints-hill, to Fordcomb Green; and extending thence, first south-eastward, then south-westward, and then southward, for a distance of fifty-five chains, or thereabouts, along the middle of the last described road, to the centre of the bridge which carries the same road over the River Medway; and extending thence, first eastward, and then north-eastward, for a distance of one mile, or thereabouts, along the middle of the said river to the centre of the bridge, which carries the road leading from Nash's Farm past Penshurst Cemetery towards Poundsbridge Farm over the same river; and extending thence, first south-eastward, and then southward for a distance of twenty-five chains or thereabouts along the middle of the last-described road, to a point opposite to the eastern end of the wall or fence forming the northern boundary of the Penshurst Cemetery aforesaid; and extending thence, westward to and along the middle of such boundary wall or fence to its junction with the wall or fence forming the western boundary of the same cemetery; and extending thence, southward along the middle of the last-described wall or fence to its southern end on the northern side of the road, which leads from Palmers-green to Pounds Bridge; and extending thence, eastward for a distance of thirteen and a half chains or thereabouts along the middle of the last-described road to its junction with the road, which leads from Pounds Bridge aforesaid to Little Hickman's Farm; and extending thence, southward for a distance of forty-three chains or thereabouts along the middle of the last-described road to the boundary which divides the said parish of Penshurst from the parish of Speldhurst aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Canterbury.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine; of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter sixty; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the seventh day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of your Majesty, chapter forty-nine; of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter sixty; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Paul, situate at Haswell, in the new parish of Shotton-with-Haswell, in the county of Durham, and in the diocese of Durham.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint Paul, situate at Haswell as aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Charles, Bishop of the said diocese of Durham (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said new parish of Shotton-with-Haswell, which is described in the Schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Saint Paul, situate at Haswell as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Paul, Haswell.'

"And, with the like consent of the said Charles, Bishop of the said diocese of Durham (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials, should be solemnized or performed at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns, and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us the said Commissioners to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism or for the registration thereof.

"We, therefore, humbly pray, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to your Majesty, in your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Saint Paul, Haswell, being:—

"All that part of the new parish of Shotton-with-Haswell, in the county of Durham, and in the diocese of Durham, which is bounded on the south in part by the new parish of Saint Cuthbert, Shadforth, on the south-west by the last-named new parish, on the west and on the north-west by the parish of Pittington, on the north by the district of Lyons, on the north-east by the new parish of the Holy Trinity, South Hettou, on the east by the parish of Easington, all such parishes, new parishes, and district being in the county and diocese aforesaid, and on the remaining side, that is to say, on the remaining part of the south by an imaginary line commencing at the point near to the house called or known as Tut Hill, where Durham-lane is intersected by the boundary which divides the said parish of Easington from the new parish of Shotton-with-Haswell aforesaid; and extending thence westward for a distance of sixty-seven chains or thereabouts along the middle of the said lane (thereby crossing at Tut Hill Bridge, over the line of the Hartlepool and Sunderland Branch of the North-Eastern Railway), to the junction of the same lane with the roadway which leads on to Harehill Moor; and extending thence southward for a distance of nine chains or thereabouts along the middle of the said roadway to the boundary at the southern end of the same roadway, which divides the said new parish of Shotton-with-Haswell from the new parish of Saint Cuthbert, Shadforth aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Durham.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 18th day of May, 1870.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-eighth day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for authorizing the sale and disposal of certain property formerly belonging to the dean and chapter of the cathedral church of the Holy and Undivided Trinity of Norwich, and now vested in us.

"Whereas under 'The Ecclesiastical Commission Act, 1868,' and by virtue of an Order of your Majesty in Council made under the provisions of the same Act, bearing date the seventeenth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-nine, and duly published in the London Gazette on the nineteenth of the same month, all the manors, lands, tithes, tenements, and hereditaments, then belonging either in possession or reversion to the said dean and chapter (excepting certain portions thereof in such Order particularly excepted, and excepting also any rights of ecclesiastical patronage), became absolutely vested in us for the purposes and subject to the provisions applicable to other hereditaments vested in us.

"And whereas the manors, lands, tithes, tenements, and hereditaments aforesaid consist to a considerable extent of reversions expectant upon grants and leases for lives and years, and produce, during the subsistence of such grants and leases, only small annual revenues, and on that account, and in some instances on account of the character or situation of the property are unsuitable or inconvenient to be assigned as an endowment for the said dean and chapter, or to be held or applied for the other purposes for which estates vested in us are applicable under the Acts by which our proceedings are governed. . . .

"And whereas by an Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, power is given to lessees holding under us, in the event of our declining to enter into a treaty for the sale of our reversions, or the purchase of the leasehold interests, to require us to purchase such leasehold interests at a valuation.

"And whereas, with a view to the appropriation of such portions of the aforesaid manors, lands, tithes, tenements, and hereditaments lately belonging to the said dean and chapter (either with or without other property vested in us, as the case may require), as in the judgment of our Estates Committee, and subject to the approbation of the said dean and chapter, shall be deemed convenient to be held as an endowment for the said dean and chapter, and as will secure a net annual income of two thousand and six hundred pounds (being the income contemplated by the above-mentioned Order of your Majesty in Council of the seventeenth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-nine), and for that purpose, as well as with a view to the more advantageous appropriation of the remainder of the said manors, lands, tithes, tenements, and hereditaments, or of the proceeds thereof, for the ultimate improvement of our common fund, it is expedient that the said manors, lands, tithes, tenements, and hereditaments, or such part or parts thereof as we shall at any time and from time to time think fit, should be sold or disposed of, and accordingly, that we should be empowered to dispose of our interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, in such manner as shall appear to us advisable.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, that we may be authorized and empowered, by instrument or instruments, in writing, duly executed according to law, from time to time, to sell or dispose of, and duly to convey, according to the provisions of the said Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty's reign, with the consent of the respective holders (if any) to be testified by their being made parties to such instruments, all or any of the said manors, lands, tithes, tenements, and hereditaments heretofore belonging to the said dean and chapter of the cathedral church of Norwich, and so vested in us as aforesaid, with their appurtenances, and all our estate, right, title, and interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his, her, or their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, or otherwise, as he, she, or they shall direct or appoint, and for such considerations as shall, upon due calculation and inquiry, appear to us to be just and reasonable, it being our intention to invest the proceeds of such sale from time to time as occasion may arise in the purchase of other lands, tithes, rent-charges, tenements, or hereditaments, or of some estate or interest therein convenient to be assigned as an endowment for the said dean and chapter, or to be held by us for the purposes of the Acts by which our proceedings are governed as aforesaid, and in the meantime to invest the proceeds in some government or parliamentary stock or other public securities in England.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Norwich.

Arthur Helps.

At the Court at Windsor, the 18th day of May, 1870.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the thirteenth and fourteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-one; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a scheme, bearing date the twenty-eighth day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the thirteenth and fourteenth years of your Majesty, chapter forty-one; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for setting out and constituting a district for spiritual purposes, and annexing such district to the consecrated church of Saint Stephen, situate at Hulme, within the limits of the new parish of Saint George, Hulme (some time part of the original parish of Manchester), in the county of Lancaster; and in the diocese of Manchester.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district for spiritual purposes should be set out and constituted for, and annexed to the said church of Saint Stephen, situate at Hulme as aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend James, Bishop of the said diocese of Manchester, testified by his having signed and sealed this scheme; we humbly recommend and propose, that all that part of the said new parish of Saint George, Hulme, which is described in the schedule hereunder written, and is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, shall, upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, be severed and disannexed from such new parish, and shall be set out and constituted for and annexed to the said church of Saint Stephen, situate at Hulme as aforesaid, and shall become and be a district for spiritual purposes, and shall be named 'The District of Saint Stephen, Hulme.'

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or to any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the herein-named Acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference.

“The District of Saint Stephen, Hulme, being:—

“All that part of the new parish of Saint George, Hulme (within the original limits of the parish of Manchester), in the county of Lancaster, and in the diocese of Manchester, wherein the present incumbent of such new parish now possesses the exclusive cure of souls, which is bounded on the southeast by the new parish of Saint Michael, Hulme, and on the north-east by the new parish of Saint Mark, Hulme (both within the original limits of the parish of Manchester aforesaid), and on the remaining sides that is to say on the north-west and on the south-west by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint Mark, Hulme, from the new parish of Saint George, Hulme aforesaid, at the point where Great Jackson-street joins Chester-road; and extending thence, south-westward, along the middle of the said road to its junction with York-street; and extending thence, south-eastward, along the middle of the last-named street, to its intersection by Silver-street; and extending thence, south-westward, along the middle of the last-named street, to its intersection by Lloyd-street; and extending thence, south-eastward, along the middle of the last named street, to the boundary at the junction of the same street with City-road, which divides the said new parish of Saint George, Hulme, from the new parish of Saint Michael, Hulme aforesaid.”

And whereas a draft of the said scheme has, in accordance with the provisions of the said firstly mentioned Act, been transmitted to the patrons and to the incumbent of the rectory of the said new parish of Saint George, Hulme, out of which it is intended that the district therein recommended to be constituted shall be taken, and such patrons and incumbent have respectively signified their assent to the said scheme.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts: and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Manchester.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 18th day of May, 1870.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the twenty-eighth day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy, in the words following; that is to say:

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of your Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five; have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Stephen, situate within the limits of the parish of Hampstead, in the county of Middlesex, and in the diocese of London.

“Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint Stephen, situate within the limits of the parish of Hampstead as aforesaid.

“Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Honourable and Right Reverend John, Bishop of the said diocese of London (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Hampstead, which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Saint Stephen, situate within the limits of the same parish, and that the same should be named ‘The District Chapelry of Saint Stephen, Hampstead.’

“And with the like consent of the said John, Bishop of the said diocese of London (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at the said church of Saint Stephen, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices, should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always, that so long as the Reverend Charlton Lane, the present vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the said parish of Hampstead, shall continue to be such vicar or incumbent, all the fees, which may be received in respect of such publication, solemnization, or performance at the said church of Saint Stephen as aforesaid, shall be paid over by the minister thereof to the said Charlton Lane; and provided also, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us, the said Commissioners, to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism or for the registration thereof.

“We, therefore, humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to your Majesty, in your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

“The District Chapelry of Saint Stephen, Hampstead, being:—

“All that part of the parish of Hampstead, in the county of Middlesex, and in the diocese of London, wherein the present incumbent of such parish now possesses the exclusive cure of souls, which is bounded on the southwest partly by the new parish of Saint Peter, Belsize Park, on the southeast by the new parish of Saint Saviour, South Hampstead, on the east by the new parish of Saint Andrew, Haverstock-hill, the new parish of Kentish Town, and by the consolidated chapelry of Saint Anne, Brookfield, Highgate Rise, on the north partly by the particular district of Christ Church, Hampstead, all such new parishes, consolidated chapelry, and particular district being in the county and diocese aforesaid, and on all other sides, that is to say, on the remaining part of the north, and on the remaining part of the southwest by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said particular district of Christ Church, Hampstead, from the parish of Hampstead aforesaid, at a point in the middle of the street or road called or known as Flask Walk, at its junction with the street or road called or known as Garden-place; and extending thence, south-westward along the middle of the said Flask Walk, to its junction with High-street, Hampstead; and extending thence, south-eastward along the middle of the last-named street, and along the middle of Roslyn-street, for a distance of half-a-mile or thereabouts (passing by the western side of the church of Saint Stephen), to the boundary at the junction of the last-named street with Belsize-lane, which boundary divides the said parish of Hampstead from the new parish of Saint Peter, Belsize Park aforesaid, save and except from the above-described part of the said parish of Hampstead, all that territory abutting on the north-eastern side of High-street, Hampstead aforesaid, containing by admeasurement one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six superficial yards or thereabouts, with frontage of sixty feet to High-street, which said territory forms the site of the house and premises called or known as Saint John's vicarage."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of London.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the fifth day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for authorizing the sale and disposal of certain property formerly belonging to the rectory of the parish of Saint Mary, Newington, in the county of Surrey, and now vested in us.

"Whereas under and by virtue of 'The Saint Mary, Newington Rectory Act, 1869,' the lands, messuages, and hereditaments belonging at the date of the passing of the said Act to the said rectory became, with certain exceptions, vested in us for all the estate and interest therein of the rector of the said rectory and his successors, and by virtue of the same Act we became entitled to all the profits which had accrued from the endowments so vested in us from the death of the Reverend Arthur Cyril Onslow, the then late rector, and by the same Act it was enacted that, subject to a certain charge therein mentioned, which charge has since been extinguished, the said endowments and profits should be held by us in the manner and for the purposes and subject to the provisions in, for, and subject to which we hold hereditaments, of which the rents and profits are carried to our common fund.

"And whereas the lands, messuages, and hereditaments aforesaid are now in our possession, but some portions thereof, on account of the character and situation of the property, are unsuitable or inconvenient to be held or applied for the purposes referred to in the last-mentioned Act.

"And whereas with a view to the advantageous appropriation of the said lands, messuages, and hereditaments, or of the proceeds thereof, to the purposes to which the same are applicable under the provisions of the said 'Saint Mary Newington Rectory Act, 1869,' it is expedient that the said lands, messuages, and hereditaments, or such parts thereof as we shall at any time and from time to time think fit, should be sold or disposed of, and accordingly that we should be empowered to dispose of our interest therein or in any part or parts thereof, in such manner as shall appear to us advisable.

"Now therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, that we may be authorized and empowered by instrument or instruments in writing, duly executed according to law, from time to time, to sell or dispose of and duly to convey according to the provisions of the said Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty's reign, all or any of the said lands, messuages, and hereditaments formerly belonging to the said rectory, and so vested in us as aforesaid, with their appurtenances and all our estate, right, title, and interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his, her, or their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, or otherwise, as he, she, or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall upon due calculation and inquiry appear to us to be just and reasonable, it being our intention to invest the proceeds of such sale from time to time as occasion may arise, in the purchase of other lands, tithes, rent-charges, tenements, or hereditaments, or of some estate or interest therein, convenient to be held by us for the purposes referred to in the said last-mentioned Act, and in the meantime to invest the proceeds in some government or parliamentary stock or other public securities in England.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of London.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the fifth day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for authorizing the sale and disposal of certain property formerly belonging to the Deanery of Lichfield, in the Cathedral Church of Lichfield, and now vested in us.

"Whereas, under and by virtue of a certain indenture, bearing date the second day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight, and made, or expressed to be made, between the Very Reverend Henry Edward John Howard, Doctor in Divinity, Dean of the said Cathedral Church, and, as such, Prebendary of the Prebend of Brewood, of the one part, and us, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, of the other part, certain tithes, and tithe rent charge, arising in the parish of Brewood, in the county of Stafford, and more particularly described in the schedule to the said indenture, to which the said Henry Edward John Howard was entitled as such prebendary as aforesaid, became, with their appurtenances, vested in us, in fee simple, subject to a certain beneficial lease for lives, for the purposes, and subject to the provisions applicable to other hereditaments vested in us.

"And whereas on the vacancy of the said deanery, which occurred on or about the eighth day of October, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight, by the decease of the said Henry Edward John Howard, all the lands, tithes, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments theretofore belonging to the said deanery, and to the Prebends of Brewood and Adbaston, which were annexed thereto (except rights of patronage), became, by virtue of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, absolutely vested in us for the purposes and subject to the provisions applicable to other hereditaments vested in us.

"And whereas the lands, tithes, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments, which so severally became vested in us as aforesaid, consist, to a considerable extent, of reversions expectant upon grants, and leases for lives and years, and produce, during the subsistence of such grants and leases, only small annual revenues, and on that account, and in some instances on account of the character or situation of the property, are unsuitable or inconvenient to be held or applied for the purposes for which estates vested in us are applicable, under the Acts by which our proceedings are governed.

"And whereas, by an Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, power is given to lessees holding under us, in the event of our declining to enter into a treaty for the sale of our reversions or the purchase of the leasehold interests, to require us to purchase such leasehold interests at a valuation.

"And whereas, with a view to the advantageous appropriation of the said lands, tithes, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments, or of the proceeds thereof, for the ultimate improvement of our common fund, it is expedient that the said lands, tithes, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments, or such parts thereof, as we shall at any time, and from time to time, think fit, should be sold or disposed of, and accordingly that we should be empowered to dispose of our interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, in such manner, as shall appear to us advisable.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, that we may be authorized and empowered, by instrument or instruments in writing, duly executed according to law, from time to time to sell or dispose of, and duly to convey, according to the provisions of the said Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty's reign, with the consent of the holder or holders thereof (if any), to be testified by his, her, or their being made parties to such instruments, all or any of the said lands, tithes, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments heretofore belonging to the said Deanery of Lichfield, and to the said Prebends of Brewood and Adbaston, and so vested in us as aforesaid, with their appurtenances, and all our estate, right, title, and interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his, her, or their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, or otherwise, as he, she, or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall, upon due calculation and inquiry, appear to us to be just and reasonable, it being our intention to invest the proceeds of such sale from time to time, as occasion may arise, in the purchase of other lands, tithes, rent charges, tenements, or hereditaments, or of some estate or interest therein convenient to be held by us for the purposes of the Acts by which our proceedings are governed as aforesaid, and in the meantime to invest the said proceeds in some government or parliamentary stock, or other public securities in England.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Lichfield.

At the Court at Windsor, the 18th day of May, 1870.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the twentieth and twenty-first years of Her Majesty's reign, intitled "An Act to amend the Burial Acts," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that in case it appear to Her Majesty in Council, upon the petition of the Local Board of Health of any district established under the Public Health Act, that the district of such Local Board of Health is co-extensive with a district for which it is proposed to provide a burial-ground, and that no Burial Board has been appointed for such district, and that an Order in Council has been made for closing all or any of the burial-grounds within the said district, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, with the advice of Her Privy Council, in case Her Majesty see fit so to do, to order that such Local Board shall be a Burial Board for the district of such Local Board, and thereupon such Local Board shall be a Burial Board for such district accordingly, and the powers and provisions of the Acts therein before-mentioned (except the provisions relating to the constitution or appointment and resignation of members of Burial Boards), and the provisions therein contained shall extend to the district of such Board, and to such Board, and to any burial-ground and places for the reception of the bodies of the dead previously to interment which may be provided by such Board in like manner as to any parish or parishes, and the Burial Board thereof, and any burial-ground, and any such places as aforesaid provided by such last-mentioned Board, save that no approval, sanction, or authorization of any vestry shall be requisite: Provided always, that notice of such petition, and of the time when it shall please Her Majesty to order the same to be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, shall be published in the London Gazette, and in one of the newspapers usually circulating in the district of such Local Board, one month, at least, before such petition is so considered:

And whereas the Crewe Local Board acting in and for the township of Monks Coppenhall, in the county of Chester, originally called the Monks Coppenhall Local Board, have presented a petition to Her Majesty in Council, stating, amongst other things, that the district of the said Local Board is co-extensive with the district for which it is proposed to provide a burial-ground, and that no Burial Board has been appointed for such district, and that an Order in Council has been made for closing, with certain exceptions, the burial-ground therein mentioned within the said district, and praying that the said Local Board may be the Burial Board for the district for which it is now constituted a Local Board under the Local Government Act, 1858:

And whereas notice of such petition, and of the time when Her Majesty was pleased to order the same to be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, has been duly published as required by the said Act:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the Crewe Local Board acting in and for the township of Monks Coppenhall, in the county of Chester, originally called the Monks Coppenhall Local Board, shall be a Burial Board for the district of such Local Board, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the twentieth and twenty-first years of Her Majesty's reign.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 18th day of May, 1870.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England, beyond the limits of the Metropolis, and to amend the Act concerning the burial of the dead in the Metropolis;" it is enacted that, in case it appears to Her Majesty in Council, upon the representation of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, that for the protection of the public health, the opening of any new burial ground in any city or town, or within any other limits, save with the previous approval of one of such Secretaries of State, should be prohibited, or that burials in any city or town, or within any other limits, or in any burial ground or places of burial should be wholly discontinued, or should be discontinued subject to any exception or qualification, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order that no new burial-ground shall be opened in any city or town, or within such limits, without such previous approval, or (as the case may require), that after a time mentioned in the Order, burials in such city or town, or within such limits, or in such burial-grounds or places of burial, shall be discontinued wholly, or subject to any exceptions or qualifications mentioned in such Order, and so from time to time, as circumstances may require; provided always, that notice of such representation, and of the time when it shall please Her Majesty to order that the same be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, shall be published in the London Gazette, and shall be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some other conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such representation, one month before such representation is so considered; provided also, that no such representation shall be made in relation to the burial-ground of any parish until ten days' previous notice of the intention to make such representation shall have been given to the Incumbent and Vestry Clerk or Churchwardens of such parish:

And whereas the Right Honourable Henry Austin Bruce, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after giving to the Incumbents and the Churchwardens of the parishes hereinafter mentioned ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representation, has made a representation stating that, for the protection of the public health, no new burial-ground should be opened in the undermentioned parishes without the previous consent of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and that burials should be discontinued in them, with the modifications hereinafter specified:

And whereas Her Majesty was pleased, by Her Order in Council of the thirty-first day of March last, to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same should be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, on the sixteenth day of May, one thousand eight hundred and seventy, and such Order has been published in the London Gazette, and copies thereof have been affixed, as required by the said Act:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that no new burial-ground shall be opened in the undermentioned parishes, without the previous approval of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and that burials in the said parishes shall be discontinued (except as herein otherwise directed), as follows; viz. —

GULVAL.—Forthwith wholly in the church of Gulval, Cornwall; and after the thirty-first of December, one thousand eight hundred and seventy, in Gulval Churchyard, except in now existing vaults and walled graves, in which each coffin shall be separately entombed by being enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented.

MULLION.—Forthwith wholly in the parish church of Mullion, Cornwall; and also in the churchyard, except in graves not less than five feet deep, which can be opened without the exposure of coffins or the disturbance of entire bones.

Arthur Helps.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 18th day of May, 1870.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Right Honourable Henry Austin Bruce, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after giving to the Incumbents and the Churchwardens of the parishes hereinafter mentioned, ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representation, has, under the provisions of an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England beyond the limits of the Metropolis," and to "amend the Act concerning the burial of the dead in the Metropolis," made a representation stating that, for the protection of the public health, no new burial-ground should be opened in the undermentioned parishes without the previous consent of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and that burials should be discontinued in them, with the following modifications, viz.:—

LYE.—Forthwith in the church of Lye, Old Swinford; and in the churchyard, except in now existing vaults and walled graves, in which each coffin shall be embedded in charcoal, and separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented, and except in earthen graves which can be opened without the exposure of coffins to the depth of five feet, for the burial of persons above twelve years of age, and of four feet, for the burial of children below that age.

CHESTER-LE-STREET.—Forthwith, wholly, in the church of Chester-le-Street, Durham; and in the old churchyard, except in now completed vaults and walled graves, in which each coffin shall be embedded in charcoal, and separately enclosed by brickwork, or stonework properly cemented; and except in earthen graves for the burial only of those whose husbands or wives have been buried in the churchyard.

HEMINGBOROUGH.—Forthwith, wholly, in the church of Hemingborough, Yorkshire.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty in Council is pleased hereby to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council on the fourth day of July next:

And Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith published in the London Gazette; and that copies thereof be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such representation, one month before the said fourth day of July.

Whitehall, May 19, 1870.

The Queen has been pleased to appoint the Most Noble William, Duke of Devonshire, K.G.; the Most Honourable Henry Charles Keith, Marquess of Lansdowne; Sir John Lubbock, Bart.; Sir James Phillips Kay-Shuttleworth, Bart.; Bernhard Samuelson, Esq.; William Sharpey, Esq., M.D.; Thomas Henry Huxley, Esq., Professor of Natural History in the Royal School of Mines; William Allen Miller, Esq., M.D., Professor of Chemistry in King's College, London; and George Gabriel Stokes, Esq., M.A., Lucasian Professor of Mathematics in the University of Cambridge, to be Her Majesty's Commissioners to make inquiry with regard to Scientific Instruction and the Advancement of Science, and to inquire what aid thereto is derived from grants voted by Parliament, or from endowments belonging to the several Universities in Great Britain and Ireland, and the Colleges thereof, and whether such aid could be rendered in a manner more effectual for the purpose.

Whitehall, May, 19, 1870.

The Queen has been pleased to grant the Archdeaconry of Lancaster unto the Reverend William Hornby, M.A.

Crown Office, May 18, 1870.

MEMBER returned to serve in the present PARLIAMENT.

County of Longford.

The Honourable George Frederick Nugent Greville Nugent, of Clonyn, Castle Delvin, in the county of Westmeath, in the room of the Honourable Reginald James Macartney Greville Nugent, whose election for the said county has been determined to be void.

Board of Trade, Whitehall Gardens, May 19, 1870.

THE Board of Trade have received, through the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, the following Regulations for the navigation by night of the Straits of the Dardanelles and Bosphorus by merchant-vessels outward bound, which have been forwarded by the Turkish Ambassador:—

(Translation.)

ART. 1. By virtue of an Imperial Iradé, on and after the $\frac{1}{3}$ May next, all merchant-vessels, whether sailing or steam, national, tributary, or foreign, leaving Constantinople on a voyage to the Black Sea or the Mediterranean, will be allowed to pass through the Straits of the Bosphorus and the Dardanelles at all hours of the night, under the following conditions:—

ART. 2. The above-mentioned vessels, on passing through the Straits, will be required to give up their Firmans (firman de passage), as is done in the day time, a night service being established for this purpose.

ART. 3. No vessel will be allowed to pass, whether by day or night, without giving up the Firman.

ART. 4. The Firmans will henceforth be issued directly by the Office of Firmans at the Sublime Porte, in the case of foreign ships, upon receipt of a written application from the Embassy or Legation to which the vessel belongs, or, in the case of national ships, from the Liman-Odassy.

ART. 5. A sum of sixty-five silver piastres will be charged at the Firman Office for each Firman. Ships will have no charge to pay on giving up the Firmans at the Straits. Mail steamers will be charged thirty-seven and a half silver piastres for each Firman, without distinction as to flag.

ART. 6. In conformity with the established regulations vessels will not be permitted, between sunset and sunrise, under any consideration whatever, to load or discharge cargo, nor to embark or land passengers, at the port of Constantinople, in the Bosphorus, or along the Straits of the Dardanelles.

(C. 638.)

NAVAL SALVAGE MONEY.

Department of the Accountant-General of the Navy and Comptroller of Navy Pay, Admiralty, S.W., May 14, 1870.

NOTICE is hereby given to all persons interested therein, that preparations are now being made for the intended distribution of the amount awarded for salvage of the cargo of the "Bremensis," between the 11th and 19th August, 1868, by Her Majesty's ship "Flora."

Agents or other persons having any just and legal demand, unliquidated, against the said award, are required to transmit the particulars of any such demand to the Registrar of the High Court of Admiralty, in order that the same may be examined, taxed, and allowed by that Officer, and paid under the sanction of the Judge of the said Court.

Due notice will be given, by future advertisements in the London Gazette, of the date proposed for the commencement of distribution; and at the same time, the amount of an individual's share in the respective classes will be announced.

NOTICE OF INTENDED DISTRIBUTION OF NAVAL PRIZE MONEY.

Department of the Accountant-General of the Navy and Comptroller of Navy Pay, Admiralty, S.W., May 17, 1870.

NOTICE is hereby given to the Officers, Seamen, and Marines, and to all persons interested therein, that the distribution of the proceeds of a piratical junk and cargo, captured on the 8th April, 1867, by Her Majesty's gunboat "Havock," will commence on Friday, the 27th instant, in the Prize Branch of the Department of the "Accountant-General of the Navy, Admiralty, Somerset House."

Personal applications by persons entitled to share, and by agents and other persons holding powers of attorney, prize orders, assignments, or other instruments, by virtue of which they may be legally entitled to claim the share of any captor serving in the above-named ship, are to be made at the Prize Branch of the Admiralty, Somerset House.

Any Officer, Seaman, Marine, or other person, who may desire to receive his share from the Collector of Customs or of Inland Revenue within the United Kingdom, is required to intimate the same by letter to be addressed "On Prize Business, to the Accountant-General of the Navy and Comptroller of Navy Pay, Admiralty, S.W.," (enclosing his certificate of service, or an attested copy thereof, excepting in the case of Commissioned Officers),—in which letter his own place of residence is to be precisely stated, as well as the place of the nearest Collector of Customs, or of Inland Revenue, from whom it would be convenient to receive such share of prize money.

The following are the shares due to an individual in the several classes:—

|---------------------------------|---|----|----|
| Lieutenant Commanding | 3 | 7 | 2 |
| Fourth class | 1 | 18 | 5 |
| Fifth class | 1 | 3 | 0 |
| Sixth class | 0 | 19 | 3 |
| Seventh class | 0 | 13 | 5 |
| Eighth class | 0 | 7 | 8 |
| Ninth class | 0 | 3 | 10 |
| Tenth class | 0 | 1 | 11 |

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction consisting of a portion of certain tithe commutation rent charges, amounting in the aggregate to one hundred and eighty-nine pounds thirteen shillings and six pence per annum, which are about to be permanently secured to the vicarage of Saint Mary Bredin, Canterbury, in the county of Kent, and in the diocese of Canterbury, and of a further benefaction of two hundred pounds sterling, which has been paid to us in favour of the same vicarage, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, sections five and eleven, grant to the Incumbent of the said vicarage of Saint Mary Bredin, Canterbury, and to his successors, Incumbents of the same vicarage, one yearly sum or stipend of fifty pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the day of the publication of these presents in the London Gazette, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions, on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year. And we do also in further consideration of the aforesaid benefactions, hereby grant and appropriate out of our said common fund to the said vicarage of Saint Mary Bredin, Canterbury, one capital sum of one thousand and eighty-two pounds sterling, to be paid and applied by us as the consideration for the conveyance to the said vicarage of the remaining portion of the aforesaid tithe commutation rent charges: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient to produce the said yearly sum or stipend of fifty pounds, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said vicarage, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this twelfth day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction of eight hundred and forty pounds sterling, which has been paid to us in favour of the rectory of Bridport, in the county of Dorset, and in the diocese of Salisbury, and in respect of which we have agreed to pay to the Incumbent of the same rectory and to his successors a yearly sum of twenty-eight pounds, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, grant to the Incumbent of the said rectory of Bridport, and to his successors, to meet such benefaction, one other yearly sum or stipend of twenty-eight pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the day of the publication of these presents in the London Gazette, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions, on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient to produce the yearly sum or stipend, so payable out of our common fund, as lastly herein mentioned, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said rectory, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this twelfth day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction consisting of one hundred pounds sterling, which has been paid to us in favour of the vicarage of Lodsworth, in the county of Sussex, and in the diocese of Chichester, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, sections five and eleven, grant and appropriate out of our common fund to the said vicarage of Lodsworth, to meet such benefaction, one other capital sum of one hundred pounds sterling, to be applicable towards defraying the cost of altering and enlarging the parsonage or house of residence belonging to the said vicarage, according to the plans and specification which have been approved by us, such capital sum, or the balance thereof unapplied to such purpose, to remain in the meantime in our hands at interest after the rate of three pounds per centum per annum, and such interest to be paid to the Incumbent for the time being of the said vicarage of Lodsworth.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this twelfth day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby, subject as hereinafter mentioned, grant and convey to the Incumbent of the vicarage of Cornforth, in the county of Durham, and in the diocese of Durham, and to his successors Incumbents of the same vicarage, all that piece or parcel of land and hereditaments with the appurtenances thereunto belonging, particularly described in the schedule hereunto annexed, and now vested in us, to have and to hold the said piece or parcel of land and hereditaments with the appurtenances to the use of the said Incumbent and his successors for ever: Provided always that the said piece or parcel of land and hereditaments shall be, and be held to be, in lieu of, and in substitution for, a portion amounting to five pounds per annum of the annual grant of three hundred pounds heretofore payable by us to the Incumbent of the said vicarage, under the authority of an Order of Her Majesty in Council, published in the London Gazette of the fourth day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five; And provided also, that the Incumbent for the time being of the same vicarage shall be entitled to receive from us, or on our account, the net amount of the rents, profits, and proceeds of the said piece or parcel of land and hereditaments, as from the first day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this twelfth day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy.

Tees Valley Railway Company.

Certificate of the Board of Trade for Authority to Raise Additional Capital.

WHEREAS the Tees Valley Railway Company have complied with the requirements of the "Railway Companies Powers Act, 1864."

Now, therefore, the Board of Trade do, by this their certificate, in pursuance of the said Act, and by virtue and in exercise of the powers thereby in them vested, and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, certify as follows:—

Power to Raise Additional Capital.

1. The Tees Valley Railway Company (hereinafter called the Company) are hereby authorised to raise, for the purposes of their undertaking, in addition to the capital which they are already authorised to raise, any further sums, not exceeding in the whole twelve thousand pounds, by the issue of new shares or new stock, either ordinary or preference, or partly ordinary and partly preference, at the option of the Company.

Rate of Preferential Dividend.

2. The preferential dividend, or interest on any preference shares or stock which may be issued under this Certificate, shall not exceed six pounds per centum per annum.

Disposal of New Shares.

3. In respect of any shares or stock to be issued under this Certificate, section twenty-one of "The Companies Clauses Act, 1863," shall, for the purposes of this Certificate, be read and have effect as provided with respect to a special Act by section twenty-seven of "The Railway Companies Act, 1867."

Privileges, &c., of holders of New Capital.

4. Save as herein, or in the Acts incorporated herewith otherwise provided, the holders of shares or stock in the additional capital hereby authorized to be raised, shall be entitled to the like rights and privileges, and be subject to the like liabilities, as the holders of shares or stock in the existing ordinary capital of the Company.

Power to Borrow.

5. The Company may from time to time raise, by borrowing on mortgage for the purposes of their undertaking, in addition to the money they are already authorised to borrow, any sum not exceeding in the whole four thousand pounds.

Arrears may be enforced by appointment of a Receiver.

6. The mortgagees, under this Certificate, may enforce payment of arrears of principal and interest due on their mortgages, by the appointment of a Receiver, and in order to authorise the appointment of a Receiver in the event of the principal money or interest due on such mortgages not being duly paid, the amount owing to the mortgagees by whom the application for a Receiver shall be made shall be not less than one thousand pounds in the whole.

Existing Mortgages to have Priority.

7. All mortgages granted by the Company in pursuance of the powers of any Act of Parliament, and in force when this Certificate comes into operation, shall, during the continuance of such mortgages, have priority over any mortgages to be created by virtue of this Certificate.

Power to Issue Debenture Stock.

8. In respect of any part of the money hereby authorised to be raised by mortgage the Company may create and issue debenture stock.

Short Title.

9. This Certificate may be cited as "The Tees Valley Railway (Additional Capital) Certificate, 1870."

Dated this 17th day of May, 1870.

G. Shaw Lefevre,

Secretary to the Board of Trade.

The Board of Trade, Whitehall.

In the Matter of the Abandonment of Railways Act, 1850, and the Railway Companies Act, 1867, and of the Laugharne Railway Company.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Board of Trade, by a warrant bearing date the 11th day of May, 1870, and made in pursuance of the Abandonment of Railways Act, 1850, and the Railway Companies Act, 1867, have ordered and declared that the railway by the Laugharne Railway Act, 1866, authorized to be made, and therein described as—

"A Railway 5 miles, 3 furlongs, and 9 chains in length, commencing in the parish of Llanfihangel, in Abercoven, in the county of Carmarthen, by a junction with the South Wales Railway of the Great Western Railway Company, at a point one chain or thereabouts west of the south-western end of the south or down passenger platform of the St. Clears Station on the said railway, and terminating in the parish of Laugharne, in the said county, at or near a point on the foreshore of the Slob or mudlands of Laugharne, about 3 feet above ordinary high water mark, and immediately below the north-east corner of a field or enclosure in the said parish of Laugharne, belonging to the Corporation of Laugharne aforesaid, and in the occupation of Evan David," shall be abandoned by the Laugharne Railway Company.

And notice is hereby further given, that all persons having any claims or demands upon the said Laugharne Railway Company for compensation or otherwise, by reason of the abandonment of the hereinbefore-mentioned railway, are hereby required to transmit the statement of such claims or demands to the Registrar of Joint Stock Companies, No. 13, Serjeant's-inn, Fleet-street, London, E.C., within four calendar months from the date of the said warrant.—Dated the 12th day of May, 1870.

Ashurst, Morris, and Co., No. 6, Old Jewry, London, E.C.; Solicitors for Albert Ricardo, the Petitioner in the above matter.

NOTICE is hereby given, that in pursuance of "The Abandonment of Railways Act, 1850," and "The Railway Companies Act, 1867," the Coventry and Great Western Junction Railway Company have made application in writing to the Board of Trade, setting forth that the said Company are desirous that the Railway by "The Coventry and Great Western Junction Railway Act, 1865," authorized to be made, and therein described as:—

- No. 1. A Railway commencing in the parish of the Holy Trinity, in the city of Coventry, near Priory-street, and terminating in the parish of Birdingbury, by a junction with the authorized line of the Southam Railway, near a field numbered 18 in that parish, on the deposited plans of the said Railway referred to in "The Southam Railway Act, 1864."
- No. 2. A railway commencing in the parish of St. Michael, Coventry, by a junction with the Railway No. 1, in a field known as Town Wall Close, and terminating in the parish of Holy Trinity, Coventry, by a junction with the Coventry and Nuneaton Branch of the London and North-Western Railway, near the mile post thereon denoting ninety-six and a quarter miles from London, should be abandoned.

And notice is hereby further given, that any person who may think himself aggrieved by such proposed abandonment of the said Railway, and who may desire to object thereto, may bring such objection before the Board of Trade by sending a written statement thereof by post, on or before the 5th day of July next, addressed to the Assistant Secretary of the Railway Department, Board of Trade, Whitehall, London.

Dated this 19th day of May, 1870.
