and a scale of weight to be contained in such Warrant, and from time to time by Warrant as aforesaid, to alter or repeal any such altered rates, and to make and establish any new or other rates in lieu thereof.

And whereas further powers are given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury by another Act passed in the eleventh year of the reign of Her Majesty, for giving further facilities for the transmission of letters by post, and for the regulating the duties of postage thereon, and for other purposes relating to the Post Office.

And whereas an additional Convention hath been lately entered into between Her Majesty and His Majesty the Emperor of the French, for improving the postal service between their respective dominions, and it is expedient for the better carrying out of the same, that certain regulations should be made in the manner hereinafter mentioned.

Now we, the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, in exercise of the powers reserved to us in and by the said hereinbefore recited Acts of Parliament and each of them, and of all other powers enabling us in this behalf, do by this Warrant under the hands of two of us the said Commissioners, by the authority of the statute in that case made and provided, order and direct as follows, that is to say:—

1. Every letter posted in any of the countries and places mentioned and set forth in the first column of the schedule hereunder written, addressed to any of the countries and places mentioned and set forth in the second column of such schedule, may be transmitted by the post from any of the countries and places mentioned and set forth in the said first column of the said schedule to any of the countries and places mentioned and set forth in the said second column of such schedule, by the several routes and means of conveyance described and set forth in the third column of such schedule, and in respect of such transmission as aforesaid, there shall be charged, taken, and paid on every such letter, according to the weight thereof respectively, the several and respective rates of postage applicable thereto, as are specified in the said schedule.

2. If any letter transmitted by the post under the authority of this Warrant, shall be posted in the United Kingdom or Malta, addressed to France or Algeria, or shall be posted in France or Algeria, addressed to the United Kingdom or Malta, or shall be posted in the United Kingdom or Malta addressed to any place in Turkey, Syria, or Egypt, at which France maintains post offices, or to Tunis or Tangier, or shall be posted in any place in Turkey, Syria, or Egypt at which France maintains post offices, or in Tunis or Tangier, addressed to the United Kingdom or Malta, the transmission between the United Kingdom and any of such places respectively being otherwise than in closed mails, and the postage paid thereon or postage stamp or stamps affixed thereto respectively shall represent a less amount than the rate or rates of postage to which the same would be liable under or by virtue of this Warrant if prepaid, every such letter shall be charged with postage as an unpaid letter, provided that in the case of any such letter posted in the United Kingdom addressed to France or Algeria, or posted in France or Algeria addressed to the United Kingdom, the amount of such postage paid thereon or stamp or stamps affixed thereto shall be allowed and deducted in charging such postage thereon.

5. Nothing herein contained shall be deemed or construed to repeal, alter, or affect any of the rates of postage now payable upon letters sent in transit through the United Kingdom between any British colony or foreign country and France, or any foreign country via France, nor shall anything herein contained be construed in anywise to annul, prejudice, or affect any of the exemptions and privileges granted by the said firstly hereinbefore recited Act, nor to annul, prejudice, or affect any of the privileges which seamen, soldiers, and others employed in Her Majesty's service now by law enjoy of sending and receiving letters by the post, subject to the regulations and restrictions in respect of the same.
