*Board of Trade (Harbour Department),
Whitehall Gardens, June 10, 1870.*

THE Board of Trade have received from the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs a copy of a Despatch from Lieutenant-Colonel Stokes, R.E., the British Representative on the European Commission of the Danube, forwarding a Notice to vessels navigating the Black Sea, which the European Commission is about to publish, a copy of which is subjoined:—

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

A Timber Beacon fifty feet high has been erected by the European Commission of the Danube on the low sandy strip of coast between Lake Razein and the sea, to the south-west of the St. George's Mouth of the Danube.

This beacon bears W. 3° 0' S. from the St. George's Light House, from which it is distant twenty-one miles.

To mark the St. George's Shoal and Portitza anchorage between this beacon and the lighthouse, eight buoys have been put down on the five fathom line of soundings, running nearly due east and west. The first and eighth buoys are painted red, the intermediate buoys black. They are 2½ miles apart.

The East Red Buoy bears from St. George's Lighthouse S. 6° 0' W., distance 2½ miles.

The West Red Buoy bears from the beacon S 62° 5' E., distance 4½ miles.
