PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, chapter seventy-seven; and of the Act of the fifth and sixth years of Her Majesty, chapter twenty-six, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the second day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, have in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, chapter seventy-seven; and of the Act of the fifth and sixth years of your Majesty, chapter twenty-six, duly prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for authorizing certain alterations and improvements in the episcopal residence known as Winchester House, situate in Saint James's-square, in the county of Middlesex, and belonging to the see of Winchester.

"Whereas it has been represented to us by the Right Reverend Samuel, Bishop of the diocese of Winchester, that the said episcopal house of residence, known as Winchester House, requires certain additions and improvements to be made therein, in order to render it suitable and convenient, and it has been proposed to us by the said bishop, and it appears to us to be expedient that towards defraying the cost of effecting such additions and improvements a sum of one thousand five hundred pounds, being a sum not exceeding two years income of the see, should be provided by borrowing the same by way of mortgage upon the security of all and every part of the lands, tenements, and hereditaments or endowments which now belong or may hereafter belong to the bishoprick.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the said Samuel, Bishop of the said diocese of Winchester, testified by his having signed and sealed this scheme, we humbly recommend and propose that the said bishop be authorized to borrow from the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne, and that the said Governors be empowered to lend under the provisions of the above-mentioned Acts the sum of one thousand five hundred pounds, and that as a security for the same the said bishop do mortgage all and every part of the lands, tenements, and hereditaments, and endowments which now or may hereafter belong to his said see, to the said governors by deed for the term of thirty years, or until the said sum of one thousand five hundred pounds with the interest for the same, and all costs and charges which may attend the recovery thereof, shall be fully paid and satisfied, and that such principal sum shall be repaid with interest, in manner following, that is to say, from and after the expiration of the first year of the said term, computed from the day of the date of the mortgage, in which year no part of the said principal sum shall be repayable, the said bishop or his successors shall yearly and every year pay to the said governors, their successors, or assigns, one thirtieth part of the said principal sum until the whole thereof shall be repaid, and shall at the end of the first and each succeeding year pay interest at the rate of four pounds per centum per annum on the said principal sum or on so much thereof as shall from time to time remain unpaid, and if and when it shall happen that the principal and interest directed to be paid as hereinbefore mentioned shall be in arrear and unpaid for the space of forty days after the same shall have become due it shall and may be lawful for the said governors, their successors and assigns to recover the same and the costs and charges attending the recovery thereof by distress and sale, in the like manner as rents may be recovered by landlords or lessors from their tenants by the laws in force at the time of such distress and sale, and that such mortgage deed shall be in the form and to the effect to be approved by us, and shall bind as well the said Samuel, now Bishop of the said diocese of Winchester, as every succeeding bishop of the same diocese until the principal money and interest, costs, and charges shall have been paid off and discharged.

"And we further recommend and propose, that the said sum of one thousand five hundred pounds shall be paid to us, and that the receipt of our joint treasurers for the time being endorsed on the said mortgage deed shall be a good and sufficient discharge to the said governors and their successors for the same, who shall not be bound or required to see to the application thereof, and that upon the receipt of the said sum of one thousand five hundred pounds the whole or any part or parts thereof shall be applied by us at such times and in such manner as shall appear to us to be expedient towards effecting the said additions and improvements in the episcopal house of residence as aforesaid.

"And we further recommend and propose, that the Bishop of Winchester for the time being shall, at his personal charge and expense, insure and keep insured the said episcopal house of residence from loss or damage by fire, in one of the public offices of assurance in London or Westminster, to be approved by us, in a sum of not less than fifteen thousand pounds; and that such bishop shall, within fourteen days after any premium for such assurance shall have become due and payable, deliver to us the receipt for the same; and that in case of any loss or damage by fire to the said house, any and every sum of money receivable under such insurance shall become and be payable and be paid to and deposited with us, in trust, to be applied, and the same, together with any interest and accumulations thereof, shall be applied by us towards the rebuilding or repairing and reinstating of the said house, or of any part thereof which may have so suffered loss or damage, in such manner as shall be determined on by us, with the concurrence of the Bishop of Winchester for the time being.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in conformity with the provisions of the herein-named Acts or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Winchester.

The letters and packets described in the First Schedule hereto may be transmitted by the post from the countries and places set forth in the first column to the countries and places set forth in the second column of such schedule (the transmission between the United Kingdom and North Germany being either in closed mails, via Belgium, by packet boat, or direct by private ship, and the transmission through North Germany of any packet addressed to or posted in any foreign country via North Germany, being otherwise than in closed mails), at the rates of postage respectively specified in the same schedule, and applicable thereto, and subject to the regulations and conditions hereinafter contained.

2. The postage prepaid upon any partially but insufficiently prepaid letter posted in the United Kingdom, addressed to North Germany, Austria, Bavaria, Wurtemberg, Baden, or those provinces of the Grand Duchy of Hesse which do not belong to the North German Confederation, or posted in any of the last-mentioned countries or provinces, addressed to the United Kingdom, shall be allowed and deducted in charging the postage payable thereupon.

3. Registered letters may be transmitted upon payment of such additional charges or rates of postage, or otherwise, as the Postmaster-General from time to time directs or appoints; provided that all rates of postage and additional charges or rates payable thereupon shall be prepaid, and that no payment shall be made thereupon on delivery.

4. This Warrant shall not prejudice or affect any exemptions or privileges granted by the Post Office Acts, nor the privilege enjoyed by seamen, soldiers, and others employed in Her Majesty's Service, of sending and receiving letters at a reduced rate of postage.

5. The postage of every packet (except any packet sent from or to any department or office in or connected with the public service of Her Majesty which shall keep a postage account with the General Post Office in London), posted in the United Kingdom, addressed to North Germany, Austria, Bavaria, Wurtemberg, Baden, or those Provinces of the Grand Duchy of Hesse which do not belong to the North German Confederation, or posted in any of the last-mentioned countries or provinces, addressed to the United Kingdom, shall be prepaid.

6. 7. If any packet, consisting of a British newspaper, shall be posted partially but insufficiently prepaid, it shall be detained and returned or given up to the sender thereof.

8. If any packet, mentioned in the fifth clause (other than a packet consisting of a British newspaper) shall be posted partially but insufficiently prepaid, it shall be forwarded, charged with double the amount of the deficient postage.

9. Every British newspaper shall be printed and published at intervals not exceeding thirty-one days between any two consecutive numbers, or parts of such publication, and the same shall be registered by the proprietor or printer thereof at the General Post Office in London, and shall be posted within fifteen days from the date of its publication, and the title and date of the newspaper shall be printed at the top of every page thereof, and, for the purposes of this Warrant, every such newspaper shall be deemed and considered a packet, and shall be charged and chargeable with a separate and distinct single rate, or separate and distinct progressive rates of postage, according to the weight thereof, as mentioned in the first schedule hereto, notwithstanding two or more newspapers shall be enclosed and transmitted in one and the same cover, wrapper, envelope, or bundle, and form only one parcel or bundle of newspapers, and every printed supplement or additional sheet to any such newspaper shall, for the purpose of charging the postage under this Warrant, be deemed a distinct newspaper, unless sent in the same cover, or together with the newspaper to which it is a supplement or addition.

SCHOOL OF NAVAL ARCHITECTURE, &c.

Admiralty, June 20, 1870.

THE Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty hereby give notice, that the arrangements for the admission of persons, not already in the Government service, to the Royal School of Naval Architecture and Marine Engineering, as Admiralty Pupils, will, for the present year, be as follows:—

Candidates must not be less than 18 or more than 21 years of age, and must have served at least two years in private shipbuilding or engineering establishments, or must give satisfactory proof that they have in some way been so connected with shipbuilding or engineering operations as to become well-grounded in the elementary principles and practice thereof.

The pupils will be selected by competitive examination, the subjects for which, and numbers of marks assigned for each, are as follows:—

	Marks.
Pure mathematics, including arithmetic, mensuration, geometry (plane and descriptive), plane trigonometry, and the elements of the differential and integral calculus ...	2,500
Applied mathematics, including mechanics and hydrostatics ...	1,000
Practical shipbuilding, including laying-off (for shipwright candidates only) ...	2,500
Practical marine engineering (for engineer candidates only) ...	2,500
French ...	500
Elements of physic and chymistry ...	750
English grammar and composition ...	750
Geography and history ...	750

No candidate will be admitted who does not obtain at least two-thirds of the full number of marks in the two first-named subjects, and three-fifths of the full number, either for practical ship-building or marine engineering.

The last four subjects, although counting in the competition, will not be considered obligatory.

The candidates who may be selected will be treated, while attached to the school, in all respects as the Admiralty pupils; they will receive wages the same as dockyard apprentices, commencing at 1s. 6d. per day for six days per week for first year, and increasing yearly 3d. per day till it reaches 2s. per day; and in addition a subsistence allowance of 3s. per day for seven days per week while away from their homes, either at the school or in the dockyards.

Seven months of each year—viz., from October till May—will be devoted to study at the school, and the remaining five months to actual work and the acquirement of practical knowledge in the dockyards.

It is to be understood that the Admiralty make no engagements to employ these pupils after the completion of their course of study; and they must rely on their own worth, as educated naval architects, for obtaining employment in their subsequent career.

The number of such pupils to be selected this year is one shipwright and one engineer.

Persons desirous of competing must forward their names, with a certificate of birth, and on the grounds on which they consider themselves practically qualified, enclosing proper certificates to that effect to the Secretary of the Admiralty, not later than the 11th July.

The candidates should also state whether they wish to be examined as engineers or shipwrights.

The examination will take place on the 18th July and three following days.

By command of their Lordships,

Vernon Lushington.
