TUESDAY, JUNE 28, 1870.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 23rd day of June, 1870.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty, and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-eighth day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy, in the words and figures following, that is to say :

“ We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the sixteenth and seventeenth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty, and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for effecting an exchange of the patronage of the benefice (being a vicarage) of Belchamp, Saint Paul, in the county of Essex, and in the diocese of Rochester, for a certain portion, that is to say, every third turn of presentation of the patronage of the benefice of Saint Peter le Poer (being a rectory) with Saint Benet Fink (being a vicarage or curacy), in the city and diocese of London.

“ Whereas the dean and chapter of the cathedral church of Saint Paul, in the said city and diocese of London, are seized to them and their successors, in fee, of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and to the said benefice of Belchamp, Saint Paul, and the church thereof.

“ And whereas the same dean and chapter and their successors, and the dean and canons of your Majesty's free chapel of Saint George, within your Castle of Windsor, and their successors, are together seized, in fee, of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and to the said benefice of Saint Peter le Poer, with Saint Benet Fink and the church thereof, the said dean and chapter being entitled to present a clerk to the same last-mentioned benefice upon two out of every three consecutive vacancies in the same benefice, and the said dean and canons being entitled to present a clerk thereto upon the third out of every three consecutive vacancies therein.

“ And whereas the said dean and chapter of the said cathedral church of Saint Paul, in London, and the said dean and canons of your Majesty's said free chapel of Saint George, within your Castle of Windsor, have respectively signified to us their desire that the patronage of the said two benefices and of the churches thereof respectively, may be re-arranged by way of exchange in manner hereinafter recommended and proposed.

“ And whereas we have made due enquiry and calculation as to the circumstances and relative values of the said benefices and patronage, and we do hereby certify to your Majesty that the circumstances and present values of the said benefices respectively are as set forth in the schedule hereunto annexed.

“ Now, therefore, with the consent of the Very Reverend Henry Longueville Mansel, Clerk, the dean and the chapter of the said cathedral church of Saint Paul, in the said city and diocese of London (in testimony of which consent to this scheme the said dean and chapter have affixed their common or corporate seal), and with the consent of the Honorable and very Reverend Gerald Wellesley, Clerk, the dean and the canons of your Majesty's said free chapel of Saint George, within your said Castle of Windsor (in testimony of which consent to this scheme the said dean and canons have affixed their common or corporate seal), we humbly recommend and propose, that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and to the said benefice of Belchamp, Saint Paul and the church thereof shall be assigned and transferred from the said dean and chapter of the said cathedral church of Saint Paul, in the said city and diocese of London, and from their successors (in whom as aforesaid it is now vested), and shall become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said dean and canons of your Majesty's said free chapel of Saint George within your said Castle of Windsor, and their successors for ever, and that in exchange for the same the patronage for one out of every three consecutive vacancies or turns of presentation of and to the said benefice of Saint Peter le Poer with Saint Benet Fink, and the church thereof shall in like manner upon and from the day aforesaid be assigned and transferred from
