Jacob Henry Tillett, of Carow Abbey, in the city of Norwich, in the room of Sir Henry Josias Stracey, Bart., whose election for the said city has been determined to be void.

The Queen, taking into Her Royal consideration that upon the decease of Thomas Spring, Baron Monteagle, of Brandon, the title and dignity of Baron Monteagle, of Brandon, devolved upon Thomas Spring, now Baron Monteagle, of Brandon, as the eldest son and heir of Stephen Edmond Spring Rice, commonly called the Honourable Stephen Edmond Spring Rice, whilst living the eldest son and heir apparent of the said Thomas Spring, late Baron Monteagle, of Brandon, and that according to the ordinary rules of honour the brother and sisters of the said Thomas Spring, now Baron Monteagle, of Brandon, cannot enjoy that place and precedence which would have been due to them had their said father Stephen Edmond Spring Rice survived his father, the said Thomas Spring, late Baron Monteagle, of Brandon, and had thereby succeeded to the title and dignity of Baron Monteagle, of Brandon, Her Majesty has been graciously pleased to ordain and declare that Francis Spring Rice, Esquire, of the Royal Navy, Theodosia Spring Rice, Spinster, Aileen Spring, the wife of John Raynor Arthur, Esquire, of the Bombay Civil Service, Lucy Spring, the wife of Octavius Newry Knox, Esquire, Alice Spring Rice, Frederica Spring Rice, Catherine Ellen Spring Rice, and Amy Spring Rice, Spinsters, the brother and sisters of the said Thomas Spring, now Baron Monteagle, of Brandon, shall henceforth have, hold, and enjoy the same title, place, pre-eminence, and precedence as if their late father the said Stephen Edmond Spring Rice had survived his father the said Thomas Spring, late Baron Monteagle, of Brandon, and had thereby succeeded to the title and dignity of Baron Monteagle, of Brandon:

And to command that the said Royal order and declaration be registered in Her Majesty's College of Arms.

The Queen has been pleased to give and grant unto Percy Kendall, of the city of York, Gentleman, only son and heir of William Kendall, late of Lupset Lodge, in the parish of Wakefield, in the county of York, Gentleman, deceased, Her Royal licence and authority that he and his issue may (in compliance with a clause contained in the last will and testament of Thomas Lumb, late of Wakefield, in the said county, Esquire, deceased) henceforth take and use the surname of Lumb, in addition to and after that of Kendall, and bear the
