FRIDAY, JULY 22, 1870.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight,
the 19th day of July, 1870.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

Lord President.
Earl of Kimberley,
Lord Chamberlain.
Lord Dufferin.

WHEREAS it is expedient to make provision for appeals from Her Majesty's Supreme Court of the Colony of Natal to Her Majesty in Council: It is therefore ordered by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, as follows:

It shall and may be lawful for any person or persons being a party or parties to any civil suit or action depending in the said Supreme Court of the Colony of Natal to appeal to Her Majesty,
her heirs and successors, in her or their Privy Council, against any final judgment, decree or sentence of the said Court, or against any rule or order made in any such civil suit or action
having the effect of a final or definitive sentence, and which appeals shall be made subject to the rules, regulations, and limitations following, that it to say:

First: Such judgment, decree, order, or sentence shall be given or pronounced for or in respect of a sum or matter at issue above the amount of five hundred pounds sterling, or shall involve directly or indirectly the title to property or to some civil right amounting to or of the value of five hundred pounds sterling.

Secondly: The person or persons feeling aggrieved by such judgment, decree, order, or sentence, shall, within fourteen days next after the same shall have been pronounced, made, or given, apply to the said Supreme Court for leave to appeal therefrom to Her Majesty, her heirs and successors, in her or their Privy Council.

Thirdly: If such leave to appeal shall be prayed by the party or parties who is or are adjudged to pay any sum of money or to perform any duty, the court shall direct that the judgment, decree, or sentence appealed from shall be carried into execution, if the party or parties respondent shall give security for the immediate performance of any judgment or sentence which may be pronounced or made by Her Majesty, her heirs and successors, in her or their Privy Council, upon any appeal, and until such security be given, the execution of the judgment, decree, order, or sentence appealed from shall be stayed.

Fourthly: Provided nevertheless, that if the party or parties appellant shall establish to the satisfaction of the said Supreme Court that real and substantial justice requires that pending such appeal execution should be stayed, it shall be lawful for such Supreme Court to order the execution of such judgment, decree, order, or sentence to be suspended pending such appeal, if the party or parties appellant shall give security for the immediate performance of any judgment or sentence which may be pronounced or made by Her Majesty, her heirs and successors, in her or their Privy Council, upon any such appeal.

Fifthly: In all cases security shall also be given by the party or parties appellant for the prosecution of the appeal, and for the payment of all such costs as may be awarded by Her Majesty, her heirs and successors, to the party or parties respondent.

Sixthly: The said Supreme Court shall, subject to the conditions hereinafter mentioned determine the nature, amount, and sufficiency of the several securities so to be taken as aforesaid.

Seventhly: Provided, nevertheless, that in any case where the subject of litigation shall consist of immovable property, and the judgment, decree, order, or sentence appealed from shall not change, affect, or relate to the actual occupation thereof, no security shall be demanded either from the party or parties respondent or from the party or parties appellant for the performance of the judgment or sentence to be pronounced or made upon such appeal; but if such judgment, decree, order, or sentence shall change, affect, or relate to the occupation of any such property, then such security shall not be of greater amount
than may be necessary to secure the restitution,
free from all damage or loss of such property, or of the intermediate profit which, pending any such appeal, may probably accrue from the intermediate occupation thereof.

Eighthly: In any case where the subject of litigation shall consist of money or other chattels, or of any personal debt or demand, the security
to be demanded either from the party or parties respondent or from the party or parties appellant, for the performance of the judgment or sentence
to be pronounced or made upon such appeal, shall be either a bond to be entered into in the amount or value of such subject of litigation by one or more sufficient surety or sureties, or such security shall be given by way of mortgage or voluntary condemnation of or upon some immovable property situate and being within such settlement, and being of the full value of such subject of litigation over and above the amount of all mortgages and charges of whatever nature upon or affecting the same.

Ninthly: The security to be given by the party or parties appellant for the prosecution of the appeal and for the payment of costs shall in no case exceed the sum of five hundred pounds sterling; and shall be given either by such surety or sureties, or by such mortgage or voluntary condemnation as aforesaid.

Tenthly: If the security to be given by the party or parties appellant for the prosecution of the appeal and for the payment of such costs as may be awarded, shall in manner aforesaid be completed within three months from the date of the petition for leave to appeal, then, and not otherwise, the said Supreme Court shall make an order allowing such appeal, and the party or parties appellant shall be at liberty to prefer and prosecute his, her, or their appeal to Her Majesty, her heirs and successors, in her or their Privy Council, in such manner and under such rules as are observed in appeals made to Her Majesty in Council from the plantations or colonies.

Eleventhly: Provided nevertheless, that any person or persons feeling aggrieved by any order which may be made by, or by any proceedings of the said Supreme Court, respecting the security to be taken upon any such appeal as aforesaid, shall be and is hereby authorized by petition to Her Majesty, her heirs and successors, in Council, to apply for redress in the premises.

Provided always, and it is hereby further ordered, that nothing herein contained doth or shall extend, or be construed to extend, to take away or abridge the undoubted right or authority of Her Majesty, her heirs and successors, to admit and receive any appeal from any judgment, decree, sentence, or order of the said Supreme Court on the humble petition of any person or persons aggrieved thereby, in any case in which, and subject to any conditions or restrictions upon and under which it may seem meet to Her Majesty, her heirs and successors, so to admit and receive any such appeal.

In all cases of appeal allowed by the said Supreme Court, or by Her Majesty, her heirs and successors, such Court shall, on the application and at the costs of the party or parties appellant, certify and transmit to Her Majesty, her heirs and successors, in her or their Privy Council, a true and exact copy of all proceedings, evidence, judge's notes of evidence, and judge's reasons, judgments, decrees, and orders had or made in such causes so appealed, so far as the same have relation to the matter of appeal, such copies to be certified under the seal of the said court.

The said Supreme Court shall in all cases of appeal to Her Majesty, her heirs and successors, execute and carry into immediate effect such judgments and orders as Her Majesty, her heirs and successors, shall make thereupon in such manner as any original judgment or decree of the said court can or may be executed.

And the Right Honourable the Earl of Kimberley, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Arthur Helps.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the seventeenth and eighteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter eighty-four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the second day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the seventeenth and eighteenth years of your Majesty, chapter eighty-four, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for making better provision for the cure of souls within the district chapelry or new parish of Saint James, Wetherby, in the county of York, and in the diocese of Ripon.

"Whereas the said district chapelry or new parish was sometime part of the parish of Spofforth, in the county and diocese aforesaid.

"And whereas the Right Honorable Henry, Baron Leconfield, is the owner of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of the rectory and parish church of the said parish of Spofforth, and is also the owner of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of the vicarage and church of the said district chapelry or new parish of Saint James, Wetherby.

"And whereas it has been made to appear to us, that the church of the said district chapelry or new parish of Saint James, Wetherby, is at present ill endowed, and that the said rectory of the parish of Spofforth aforesaid is competently endowed, and it has been represented to us by the said Henry, Baron Leconfield, and by the Reverend James Tripp, clerk, the present rector or incumbent of the rectory and parish church of the parish of Spofforth aforesaid, and we are of opinion, that it is desirable that additional provision should be made for the cure of souls within the said district chapelry or new parish of Saint James, Wetherby, by means of the apportionment of the endowment of the said rectory of the parish of Spofforth, which is hereinafter recommended and proposed.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Robert, Bishop of the said diocese of Ripon (in testimony whereof he has set his hand and his episcopal seal to this scheme), and with the consent of the said Henry, Baron Leconfield, as such patron as aforesaid both of the said rectory and parish church of Spofforth, and also of the vicarage and church of the said district chapelry or new parish of Saint James, Wetherby (in testimony whereof he the said Henry, Baron Leconfield has set his hand and seal to this scheme), we humbly recommend and propose, that from and after the day of the date of the next avoidance of the rectory and parish church of Spofforth aforesaid, all the tithes or rent charges in lieu of tithes (amounting in gross to the yearly sum of two hundred and forty-six pounds seven shillings and eight pence or thereabouts), now belonging to the said rectory and parish church, which arise within the limits of the township of Wetherby, which township was sometime part of the said parish of Spofforth, but now constitutes the said district chapelry or new parish of Saint James, Wetherby, shall without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than this scheme, and any duly gazetted Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, be disannexed and transferred from the rectory and parish church of Spofforth aforesaid, and from the rector or incumbent of the same and his successors, and shall thenceforth and thereafter become and be annexed to the vicarage and church of the said district chapelry or new parish of Saint James, Wetherby, and shall absolutely belong to and be vested in the incumbent of the same church and vicarage, and his successors, for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Ripon.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of his Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the sixteenth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four: of the Act of the second and third years of your Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of the Holy Trinity, situate in the township of Mapperley, within the limits of the parish of Kirk Hallam, in the county of Derby, and in the diocese of Lichfield.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of the Holy Trinity, situate in the township of Mapperley as aforesaid.

"Now therefore with the consent of the Right Reverend George Augustus, Bishop of the said diocese of Lichfield (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners humbly represent, that it would in our opinion be expedient that all that detached portion of the said parish of Kirk Hallam, which is comprised within and is co-extensive with the limits of the said township of Mapperley, all which portion together with the boundaries thereof is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of the Holy Trinity, situate as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of the Holy Trinity, Mapperley.'

"And with the like consent of the said George Augustus, Bishop of the said diocese of Lichfield (testified as aforesaid), we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient, that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns, and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices, should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us the said Commissioners, to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism, or for the registration thereof.

"We therefore humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such order with respect thereto, as to your Majesty, in your Royal wisdom shall seem meet."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Lichfield.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of Her Majesty, chapter ninety-four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme or representation, bearing date the twenty-third day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy, in the words following, that is to say:

We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting under the provisions of the Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of your Majesty, chapter ninety-four, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme or representation for altering the boundaries of the new parish of Saint

Paul, Tipton, and of the new parish of Saint John, Tipton, both which new parishes were sometime part of the parish of Tipton, in the county of Stafford, and in the diocese of Lichfield,

"Whereas, by the authority of an Order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the second day of October, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-three, and published in the London Gazette upon the twenty-second day of December in the same year, and also by the authority of another Order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the eighth day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, and published in the London Gazette on the following day, a part of the said parish of Tipton was assigned as a district chapelry to the church of Saint Paul, situate within the limits of the said parish, and was named 'The district chapelry of Saint Paul, Tipton.'

"And whereas, by the authority of an Order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the seventh day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, and published in the London Gazette upon the twenty-fifth day of the same month, a part of the said parish of Tipton was assigned as a district chapelry to the church of Saint John, situate within the limits of the same parish, and was named 'The district chapelry of Saint John, Tipton.'

"And whereas both the said district chapelry of Saint Paul, Tipton, and the said district chapelry of Saint John, Tipton, have, under the provisions of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, become new parishes of the character contemplated by that Act and by the Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, and by the said above-mentioned Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of your Majesty, chapter ninety-four.

"And whereas it has been represented to us, and it appears to us to be expedient that the boundaries of the said new parish of Saint Paul, Tipton, should be altered so as to discover therefrom a certain part, and that the boundaries of the said new parish of Saint John, Tipton, should be altered by way of extension, so that they shall include not only the above-mentioned part to be dissevered from the new parish of Saint Paul, Tipton as aforesaid, but also certain other territory now forming part of the said parish of Tipton.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend George Augustus, Bishop of the said diocese of Lichfield (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme or representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly recommend and propose that from and after the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme or representation, all that part of the said new parish of Saint Paul, Tipton, which is described in the first schedule hereunder written, and is delineated and set forth upon the map or plan hereunto appended, and is thereon coloured green, shall be dissevered from such new parish, and that from the same day and date all that part of the parish of Tipton aforesaid which is described in the second schedule hereunder written, and is delineated and set forth upon the said map or plan hereunto appended, and is thereon coloured pink, shall be dissevered from such parish, and that both the said part of the new parish of Saint Paul, Tipton, so to be dissevered as aforesaid, and also the said part of the parish of Tipton so to be dissevered as last mentioned, shall be respectively annexed to, and shall form parts of, and shall become and be and be deemed to be within the limits of the said new parish of Saint John, Tipton.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, in accordance with the provisions of the herein-before mentioned Acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

The First SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme or Representation has reference.

"The Territory proposed to be dissevered from the new parish of Saint Paul, Tipton, sometime part of the parish of Tipton, in the county of Stafford, and in the diocese of Lichfield, and to be annexed to the new parish of Saint John, Tipton, also sometime part of the said parish of Tipton, being:—

"All that part of the said new parish of Saint Paul, Tipton, comprising the territory, or a portion of the territory, commonly called 'Upper Bloomfield,' all which part is bounded on the north-west by the district parish of Coseley, in the county and diocese aforesaid, on the north-east by the said new parish of Saint John, Tipton, and on the remaining side, that is to say, on the south, by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary, which divides the last-named new parish from the new parish of Saint Paul, Tipton aforesaid, at a point in the centre of the bridge over the Wolverhampton Level of the Birmingham Canal, which is called or known as 'Soaker's Bridge,' and extending thence, generally westward, for a distance of half a mile, or thereabouts, along the middle of the said canal, to the boundary, which divides the said new parish of Saint Paul, Tipton, from the district parish of Coseley aforesaid.

The Second SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme or Representation has reference.

"The further Territory proposed to be annexed to the new parish of Saint John, Tipton, sometime part of the parish of Tipton, in the county of Stafford, and in the diocese of Lichfield, being:—

"All that part of the said parish of Tipton comprising the territory, or a portion of the territory, commonly called 'Toll End,' all which part is bounded on the north partly by the said new parish of Saint John, Tipton, and partly by the new parish of Ocker Hill, in the county and diocese aforesaid, and on all other sides, that is to say, on the east, on the south, and on the west, by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary, which divides the last-named new parish from the parish of Tipton aforesaid at a point in the middle of the southern end of Toll End Bridge, which carries Toll End-road over the Toll End branch of the Birmingham Canal; and extending thence southward along the middle of the said road to its junction with Aston-street; and extending thence westward along the middle of the said street to its junction with Bridge-road; and extending thence southward along the middle of the last-named road to its junction with Shrubbery-lane; and extending thence westward along the middle of the last-named lane to the boundary, in the centre of the bridge over the said branch canal called Workhouse-lane Bridge, which divides the said new parish of Saint John, Tipton, from the parish of Tipton aforesaid."

And whereas a draft of the said scheme or representation has been transmitted to each of the patrons and incumbents of the three cures affected by the arrangements in such scheme recommended or proposed, and they the said patrons and incumbents have each and all of them assented thereto.

And whereas the said scheme or representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme or representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Lichfield.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight,
the 19th day of July, 1870.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the thirtieth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for authorizing the sale and disposal of certain property formerly belonging to the Prebend of Woodhorne, in the cathedral church of Chichester, and now vested in us.

"Whereas on the vacancy of the said prebend, which occurred on or about the sixteenth day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, by the decease of the Reverend Samuel Holland, Doctor of Divinity, the then prebendary, all the lands, tithes, and hereditaments theretofore belonging to the said prebend (except rights of patronage), became, by virtue of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, absolutely vested in us for the purposes, and subject to the provisions, applicable to other hereditaments vested in us.

"And whereas the lands, tithes, and hereditaments aforesaid are not subject to any outstanding lease or grant, but are now in our possession, but some portions thereof, on account of their character or situation, are unsuitable or inconvenient to be held or applied for the purposes for which estates vested in us are applicable under the Acts by which our proceedings are governed.

"And whereas, with a view to the advantageous appropriation of the said lands, tithes, and hereditaments, or of the proceeds thereof, for the ultimate improvement of our common fund, it is expedient that the said lands, tithes, and hereditaments, or such part or parts thereof as we shall at any time, and from time to time, think fit should be sold or disposed of, and, accordingly, that we should be empowered to sell or dispose of our interest in such lands, tithes, and hereditaments, or in any part or parts thereof, in such manner as shall appear to us advisable.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose that we may be authorized and empowered, by instrument or instruments in writing, duly executed according to law, from time to time to sell or dispose of, and duly to convey, according to the provisions of the said Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty's reign, all or any of the said lands, tithes, and hereditaments, heretofore belonging to the said prebend, and so vested in us as aforesaid, with their appurtenances, and all our estate, right, title, and interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his or their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, or otherwise, as he or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall upon due calculation and inquiry appear to us to be just and reasonable, it being our intention to invest the proceeds of such sale, from time to time, as occasion may arise, in the purchase of other lands, tithes, rent charges, tenements, or hereditaments, or of some estate or interest therein convenient to be held by us for the purposes of the Acts by which our proceedings are governed, as aforesaid, and in the meantime to invest the proceeds in some government or parliamentary stock, or other public securities in England.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Chichester.

LOCAL GOVERNMENT ACT, 1858.

ORDER SETTLING THE BOUNDARIES OF THE DISTRICT OF WINSFORD, IN THE COUNTY OF CHESTER, FOR THE PURPOSES OF THE LOCAL GOVERNMENT ACT, 1858.

WHEREAS a petition has been duly presented to me, as one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, from ratepayers resident within the townships of Over and Wharton, in the county of Chester, praying me to settle the boundaries of a district to be styled the "Winsford District," for the purposes of the Local Government Act, 1858.

And whereas the said petition was duly signed, as required by the said Act, and set forth, likewise, the proposed boundaries of the district sought to be formed under its provisions; and inquiry has now been made by Robert Morgan, Esquire, the Inspector appointed by me for such purpose, and he has reported to me thereon.

Leading Lights, River Humber.

WITH reference to Notice to Mariners, No. 49, dated 30th April, 1870, respecting the establishment of four leading lights upon the northern, or Yorkshire, shore of the river Humber, for the purpose of facilitating the navigation between Paull and Kingston-upon-Hull.

The Trinity House, Hull, has given notice that, from the 25th day of July, 1870, the four lights will be exhibited, viz:—

Two white lights at Thorngumbald Clough, about half a mile to the southward of Paull Lighthouse, on a line of the leading mark on the Admiralty Chart.

Two white lights at Salt End, northward of Paull Lighthouse, near Hedon Haven, also on the line of the leading mark on the Admiralty Chart.

At about half a mile above No. 8 black buoy, a light from the high lighthouse will be visible.

The two high lighthouses will be painted red, and the two low lighthouses yellow.

For vessels bound up the river, the present Killingholme lights serve as leading lights to the point where the new lights at Thorngumbald Clough will become leading lights, and the latter will serve as such until the two lights at Salt End are in one, when the last-mentioned will guide a vessel up to the lower part of Hull-road.

Also, that from the same date the light at Paull will be discontinued.

Also, that from the 31st day of August the Hebbles floating light will be discontinued and the vessel removed.
