*Board of Trade, Whitehall,
July 23, 1870.*

THE Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade have received, from the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, a copy of a Despatch from Her Majesty's Chargé d'Affaires in Venezuela, transmitting copies of two Decrees of General Guzman Blanco, the one declaring the Port of Borburata open to trade for importation and exportation, and the other granting permission to foreign vessels to engage in the coasting trade of Venezuela for the term of four months, under the formalities and requirements established for native vessels by the VI Law of the Code of Finance, sanctioned on the 25th of May, 1867, which is in force

(C. 929.)

*Board of Trade, Whitehall,
July 23, 1870.*

THE Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade have received, from the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, a copy of a Despatch from Her Majesty's Ambassador at Vienna, inclosing translation of two Articles of a Treaty recently signed and ratified between Austria and the North German Confederation, for the abolition of the Elbe Dues.

The following is the translation of the Articles:—

ART. I. On and after July 1, 1870, tolls shall be levied on the Elbe upon ships and their cargoes, and upon rafts only for use of certain special appliances designed for the facilitation of traffic.

ART. II. The Convention of the 4th of April, 1863, between Prussia, Austria, Saxony, Hanover, Denmark, Mecklenburg-Schwerin, Anhalt-Dessau-Köthen, Anhalt-Bernburg, Lubeck, and Hamburg, respecting a readjustment of the Elbe Dues, the regulations imposed by existing treaties, compacts affecting the navigation of the Elbe, which were suspended in virtue of Art. 14 of that Convention, and the compact of the 4th of April, 1863, between Prussia, Austria, Saxony, Anhalt-Dessau-Köthen, Anhalt-Bernburg, and Hamburg, concerning the administration and imposition at Wittenberg of the Elbe Dues, held in common, will cease to have force on and after July, 1870.

LOCAL GOVERNMENT ACT, 1858.

ORDER APPROVING OF ADOPTION OF ACT BY THE TOWNSHIP OF LITTLE CROSBY, IN THE COUNTY OF LANCASTER.

WHEREAS a resolution for the adoption of the Local Government Act, 1858, was, on the 7th day of April, 1870, passed by the owners and ratepayers of the township of Little Crosby, in the parish of Sefton, in the county of Lancaster; and notice of such adoption has been given, in writing to me, as one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, as required by such Act: and whereas it has now been certified to me that a copy of such notice has been duly advertised, and that copies have also been affixed to the principal doors of each church and chapel in the district to which notices are usually affixed, and the period fixed by the said Act for appeal has now expired, and no such appeal has been made: And whereas, although the said township is a place with a population of less than 3,000 by the last census, it has appeared to me, as one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, that by reason of the special circumstances, it is expedient that the said township should be allowed to adopt the said Act, I do hereby approve of such adoption by the township aforesaid; and do further order that such Act shall, from the date of this Order, have the force of law within such township of Little Crosby.

Given under my hand this 25th day of July, 1870.

(Signed) H. A. Bruce.

INCOME TAX.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the 28th year of Her Majesty, cap. 30, for granting to

Her Majesty certain duties of Customs and Inland Revenue, power is given for increasing in certain cases the number of persons appointed under the provisions made by the Act passed in the 5th and 6th years of Her Majesty, cap. 35, Commissioners for the general purposes of the Income Tax Act, and persons to supply vacancies amongst such Commissioners in each district or division in Great Britain; and it appearing to the Board of Inland Revenue that the number of persons so appointed for the division of West Penwith, in the county of Cornwall, is insufficient for the proper discharge of the business therein arising under the Income Tax Act, the said Board hereby authorise the increase in the number of the Commissioners for the said division to any number not exceeding fourteen, and of persons to supply vacancies amongst such Commissioners to any number not exceeding fourteen; and we, the undersigned, two members of the said Board, do hereby convene a meeting of the persons appointed for putting in execution within the said county an Act passed in the 38th year of the reign of King George the Third, intituled "An Act for granting an aid to His Majesty by a Land Tax to be raised in Great Britain for the service of the year 1798," being respectively qualified to act as Commissioners in the execution of the last-mentioned Act, to be holden at the Commercial-buildings, in Penzance, on Thursday, the 4th day of August, 1870, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, for the purpose of choosing and appointing, according to the regulations of the said Act of the 5th and 6th years of Her Majesty, such number of fit and proper persons to be Commissioners for general purposes for the said division of West Penwith, and of persons to supply vacancies amongst such Commissioners, as may be sufficient to increase the number of such Commissioners to any number not exceeding fourteen, and of persons to supply vacancies amongst such Commissioners to any number not exceeding fourteen.
