TREASURY WARRANT.

WE, the undersigned, being two of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, in exercise of the powers given to us by the Post Office Acts, and of all other powers enabling us in this behalf, order and direct as follows:—

1. Every letter posted in the United Kingdom, addressed to Norway, or posted in Norway, addressed to the United Kingdom, transmitted by the post between the United Kingdom and Norway direct by private ship, shall be charged, according to the weight thereof, with the following rate or rates of postage (British and foreign combined), that is to say :—

	If Prepaid.	If not Prepaid.
If not exceeding half an ounce in weight ...	Sixpence.	Eight Pence.
If exceeding half an ounce in weight, for the first half-ounce, and for every additional half-ounce, or fractional part of half an ounce ...	Sixpence.	Eight Pence.

2. The rates of postage specified in the first clause shall be in lieu of those now chargeable, and the Warrant of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, dated the 2nd day of November, 1869, shall, on the coming into operation of this Warrant, be repealed.

3. The postage of every letter posted in the United Kingdom addressed to Lagos, or posted in Lagos addressed to the United Kingdom, for transmission by the post by British packet boat, or direct by private ship, between the United Kingdom and Lagos, shall be paid at the time of posting the same, and if any such letter shall be posted wholly unpaid, or partially but insufficiently prepaid, it shall be forwarded charged with the deficient postage, together with a further and additional rate of postage of sixpence.

4. This Warrant shall not prejudice or affect any exemptions or privileges granted by the Post Office Acts, nor the privilege enjoyed by seamen, soldiers, and others in Her Majesty's Service, of sending and receiving letters at a reduced rate of postage.

5. This Warrant shall come into operation on the day of the date hereof.

SANITARY ACT, 1866.

ORDER SETTLING THE BOUNDARIES OF THE SPECIAL DRAINAGE DISTRICT OF ROAD, IN THE COUNTIES OF WILTS AND SOMERSET.

WHEREAS a Petition has been presented to me, as one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, under the 8th section of the Sewage Utilization Act, 1867, signed by ratepayers resident within the proposed Special Drainage District of Road, in the counties of Wilts and Somerset, praying me to settle the boundaries of such Special Drainage District for the purposes of the Sanitary and Sewage Utilization Acts.

And whereas, after inquiry into the subject matter of the aforesaid Petition, held by Arnold Taylor, Esq., the Inspector appointed by me for the purpose and report thereon made by him, and after full consideration of the said Petition and Report: I do hereby under the powers conferred on me by the Sanitary Act, 1866, direct, that from and after the date of this present Order the Special Drainage District of Road shall comprise the area included within the boundaries delineated on the plan annexed to the Inspector's Report, and described as follows :—

The boundary of the district commences at A' at the south-westerly corner of the plan annexed to the Inspector's report, and on the easterly side of the turnpike-road leading to Bath, at the point where the latter is joined by Straight-lane; thence it passes in a westerly direction along the southerly boundary fence of the property numbered 288 on the map, to the River Frome; thence crossing such river and along and including it to the point where Larn Brook joins it; thence, westerly, along and including such brook to the point where it is crossed by the parish road leading from Lillington to Woolverton; thence, northerly, along and including such road to the point B, on the north side of the road leading from Woolverton to Laverton; thence, easterly, along and including such last-named road; thence, northerly, along and including the Bath Turnpike-road, as far as the junction between the Old and the New Bath Roads; thence, northerly, along and including the road leading from Woolverton to Tellisford, to the point C, on the north side of the brook running from Rose's Quarry; thence, easterly and southerly, along and including such brook to the point where it falls into the River Frome; thence, northerly, along and including such river to a point opposite to that at which Langham Brook falls into it; thence, crossing the River Frome easterly, to the north bank of such last-named brook, and following and including such brook to the point where it is crossed by the turnpike road leading from Road to Bradford-on-Avon; thence, northerly, along and including such turnpike road as far as the cross roads by Dilly Brook Farm; thence, south-easterly, along and including Dilly Brook-lane and Poplar Tree-lane to the south side of the turnpike road leading from Beckington to Trowbridge; thence, westward, along and including such last named turnpike road to the point D, on the east side of Monkelay-lane; thence, southward, along and including this lane to the point E, on the boundary line which separates the parishes of Woolverton and Beckington; thence, westerly, along the boundary line which separates in some places the parishes of Woolverton and Beckington, and in other places the parishes of Road and Beckington, the Woolverton portions being shown in yellow, and the Road portions in red, on the said map, to the starting point at A, so completing the boundary of the Special Drainage District of Road.

That Captain Arthur Mayne Noad, R.N., be appointed Summoning Officer for all or any of the purposes of the above and other sections of the Sanitary and Sewage Utilization Acts.

Given under my hand, this 3rd day of August, 1870.

(Signed) H. A. Bruce.

Agents or other persons having any just and legal demand, unliquidated, against the said proceeds, are required to transmit the particulars of any such demand to the Registrar of the High Court of Admiralty, in order that the same may be examined, taxed, and allowed by that Officer, and paid under the sanction of the Judge of the said Court.

Due notice will be given, by future advertisements in the London Gazette, of the date proposed for the commencement of distribution; and, at the same time, the amount of an individual's share in the respective classes will be announced.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby grant and convey to the Incumbent of the vicarage of Eaton, in the county of the city of Norwich, and in the diocese of Norwich, and to his successors, Incumbents of the same vicarage, all those two pieces or parcels of land and hereditaments, with the messuage or tenement and premises standing and being thereon, together with the appurtenances thereunto belonging, particularly described in the schedule hereunto annexed, and now vested in us: to have and to hold the said piece or parcel of land and hereditaments, messuage, or tenement and premises, with the appurtenances, to the use of the said Incumbent and his successors, for ever.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this twenty-eighth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy.

Schedule.

All those two pieces or parcels of land, comprising together six acres and seventeen perches or thereabouts, with the dwelling-house, offices, and buildings standing and being thereon, which said two pieces or parcels of land are numbered 62 and 63 upon the tithe map of the parish of Eaton, in the county of the city of Norwich.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby grant and convey to the Incumbent of the vicarage of Copmanthorpe, in the county of York, and in the diocese of York, and to his successors, Incumbents of the same vicarage, all that piece or parcel of land and hereditaments, with the appurtenances thereunto belonging, particularly described in the schedule hereunto annexed, and now vested in us, to have and to hold the said piece or parcel of land and hereditaments with the appurtenances to the use of the said Incumbent and his successors for ever.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this twenty-eighth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy.

Schedule.

All that piece or parcel of land, comprising three thousand three hundred square yards, or thereabouts, situate in the parish and township of Copmanthorpe, in the county of the city of York, bounded on the north in part by the village street, in other part by property belonging to George Allan, on the east and south by property belonging to Frederick Henry Wood, and on the west by the village street; which said piece or parcel of land is delineated and coloured green upon the plan hereunto annexed.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby grant to the Incumbent of the vicarage of Colebrooke, in the county of Devon, and in the diocese of Exeter, and to his successors, Incumbents of the same vicarage, one yearly sum or stipend of twenty-five pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the seventeenth day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-nine, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient to produce the said yearly sum or stipend, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said vicarage, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this twenty-eighth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy.

(L.S.)

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby, subject as hereinafter mentioned, grant to the Incumbent for the time being of the vicarage of Pelton, in the county of Durham, and in the diocese of Durham, one yearly sum or stipend of one hundred and twenty pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the tenth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that the annual sum or stipend so granted by us to the Incumbent of the said vicarage of Pelton, shall be paid only upon the production to us on or after the first day of May and the first day of November in each and every year, of a certificate under the hand of the Bishop of the said diocese of Durham, that an Assistant Curate, duly licensed by such Bishop, has been employed within the parish of Pelton aforesaid, during the half year then ended, and is in receipt of a salary after a rate of not less than one hundred and twenty pounds per annum: Provided also, that such yearly sum or stipend shall continue payable as aforesaid so long only as may to us appear to be expedient under the circumstances from time to time affecting the said vicarage of Pelton.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this twenty-eighth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby grant and convey to the Incumbent of the vicarage of Christ Church, Wheelock, in the county of Chester, and in the diocese of Chester, and to his successors, Incumbents of the same vicarage, all that messuage or dwelling-house, piece or parcel of land and hereditaments, with the appurtenances thereunto belonging, particularly described in the schedule hereunto annexed, and now vested in us, to have and to hold the said messuage or dwelling-house, piece or parcel of land and hereditaments, with the appurtenances, to the use of the said Incumbent and his successors for ever.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this twenty-eighth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy.

(L.S.)

Schedule.

All that piece or parcel of land situate at Wheelock, in the county of Chester, comprising by admeasurement three roods and thirty perches, or thereabouts, together with the messuage or dwelling-house and buildings standing and being thereon, and used as a parsonage or house of residence for the Incumbent of the vicarage of Wheelock aforesaid, which said piece or parcel of land is delineated and coloured round with pink upon the plan hereunto annexed, which plan is a copy of a plan drawn in the margin of a certain deed of conveyance, dated the twenty-ninth day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-four, made between Edward Caulton, of Wheelock aforesaid, Labourer, of the first part; Ralph Percival, of Sandbach, in the said county of Chester, Silk Throwster, of the second part; the Reverend John Armitstead, Clerk, of the third part; and the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England of the fourth part; which said deed of conveyance is intended to be deposited in the Registry of the diocese of Chester immediately after the publication of these presents in the London Gazette.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction, consisting of one acre, or thereabouts of land, with the messuage and buildings thereon, which has been permanently secured to the vicarage of Laleham, in the county of Middlesex, and in the diocese of London, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, grant to the Incumbent of the said vicarage of Laleham, and to his successors, to meet such benefaction, one yearly sum or stipend of forty one pounds and sixteen shillings, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the day of the publication of these presents in the London Gazette, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient to produce the said yearly sum or stipend, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said vicarage, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this twenty-eighth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy.

(L.S.)

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby, subject as hereinafter mentioned, grant and convey to the incumbent of the vicarage of Saint John the Baptist, Smallhythe, in the county of Kent, and in the diocese of Canterbury, and to his successors, incumbents of the same vicarage, all that piece or parcel of land and hereditaments, with the appurtenances thereunto belonging, particularly described in the schedule hereunto annexed, and now vested in us, to have and to hold the said piece or parcel of land and hereditaments, with the appurtenances, to the use of the said incumbent and his successors for ever: Provided always that the said piece or parcel of land and hereditaments shall be and be held to be in lieu of and in substitution for a portion amounting to ten pounds of the annual sum or stipend of one hundred and three pounds heretofore payable by us, the said Commissioners, to the Incumbent of the said vicarage, under the authority of an instrument sealed by us, and published in the London Gazette of the fourth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-nine; and provided also, that the Incumbent for the time being of the same vicarage shall be entitled to receive from us, or on our account, the net amount of the rents, profits, and proceeds of the said piece or parcel of land and hereditaments, as from the twenty-eighth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this twenty-eighth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy.

In Chancery.—Master of the Rolls.—Monday, the 25th day of July, 1870.—Between Richard Crabtree, Plaintiff; George Poole, Samuel Mortimer, and John Huchcliffe Holdsworth, Defendants.

UPON motion this day made unto the Right Honourable the Master of the Rolls by Counsel for the plaintiff, who alleged that the plaintiff hath filed his amended Bill in this Court against the defendants, and that it appears by the affidavit of Zechariah Wilkinson, filed the 22nd July, 1870, that the defendant Samuel Mortimer has been within the jurisdiction of this Court within two years next before the filing of the said Bill, and that the said defendant is beyond the seas, and that there is just ground to believe that the said defendant has gone out of the realm to avoid being served with a copy of the said Bill, and upon reading the said affidavit, his Lordship doth order that the said defendant Samuel Mortimer do appear to the plaintiff's Bill, on or before the first day of Michaelmas Term next; and the plaintiff is to cause a copy of this Order, together with a notice thereof to the effect set forth at the foot of the Consolidated Orders, Rule 6, to be inserted in the London Gazette within fourteen days from the date hereof, and in the Leeds Mercury and the Bradford Observer on or before the 13th day of August, 1870.

NOTICE.—Samuel Mortimer, take notice, that if you do not appear pursuant to the above Order, the plaintiff may enter an appearance for you, and the Court may afterwards grant to the plaintiff such relief as he may appear to be entitled to on his own showing.—Dated this 4th day of August, 1870.

In the Matter of an Act made and passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the 19th and 20th years of the reign of Her present Majesty, Queen Victoria, chapter 120, intituled "An Act to facilitate the Leases and Sales of Settled Estates;" and in the Matter of another Act made and passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the 21st and 22nd years of the reign of Her said present Majesty, chapter 77, intituled "An Act to amend and extend the Settled Estates Act of 1856;" and in the Matter of another Act made and passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the 27th and 28th years of the reign of Her said present Majesty, chapter 45, intituled "An Act to further amend the Settled Estates Act of 1856;" and in the Matter of the 17 undivided 48th parts of certain Hereditaments called Tregiswyn, situate in the parish of Ruanlanyhorne, in the county of Cornwall, being the undivided parts thereof, which, by a certain Settlement dated the 28th of June, 1866, were settled by William Peter Kempe, deceased, upon William Hussey Bloomfield Kempe and his Sons, in the event of the second marriage of the settlor's widow, Martha Hannah Kempe.

PURSUANT to the above-mentioned Acts of Parliament and the Consolidated General Orders of this Court in this behalf, notice is hereby given, that on the 22nd day of July, 1870, William Hussey Bloomfield Kempe, of Buckland-street, Plymouth, in the county of Devon, Wine Merchant, and his sons, Arthur Wightman Kempe and William Usicke Woodford Kempe, respectively infants under the age of twenty-one years, by Herbert Broad, of No. 3, Endsleigh-street, Plymouth, in the county of Devon, Wine Merchant, their guardian duly appointed in that behalf by an Order of this Honourable Court dated the 21st day of July, 1870, presented their Petition to the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain (to be heard before his Honour the Vice-Chancellor Sir Richard Malins), praying that his Lordship would be pleased to approve of the sale of the aforesaid settled 17 48th parts of the said hereditaments called Tregiswyn to one William Martyn, for the sum of £991 13s. 4d., being a proportionate part of the total purchase money or sum of £2800, for which the petitioner the said William Hussey Bloomfield Kempe had contracted to sell the entirety of the said hereditaments to him; and that the said William Martyn might accordingly be at liberty to pay the said sum of £991 13s. 4d. into Court, to the credit of ex parte the petitioners in the matter of the above-mentioned Acts; and that upon such payment being made, the petitioner William Hussey Bloomfield Kempe might be authorized to execute a conveyance under the said Acts, and in accordance with his aforesaid contract, of the said 17 48th parts to the said William Martyn, or as he should direct; and also praying that the costs of the petitioners of and relating to the said Petition, and consequent thereon, might be provided for as mentioned in the said Petition; and that the residue of the said sum of £991 13s. 4d. after payment thereof of such costs, might be laid out in Bank £3 per cent. Annuities, and that the dividends of such Bank Annuities might be paid to the petitioner William Hussey Bloomfield Kempe until further Order. And notice is hereby also given, that the petitioners may be served with any Order of the Court, or of the Judge in chambers, or notice relating to the subject of the said Petition, at the offices of Messrs. Hooke and Street, situate at No. 27, Lincoln's-inn-fields, in the county of Middlesex, the Agents for Francis Hearle Cook, of Truro, in the county of Cornwall, the Solicitors for the petitioners.—Dated this 1st day of August, 1870.

HOKE and STREET, No. 27, Lincoln's-inn-fields,

In Chancery.

In the Matter of the Act 19th and 20th Victoria, cap. 120, to facilitate Leases and Sales of Settled Estates; and in the matter of one undivided moiety of an estate, part freehold and part copyhold, consisting of a messuage or farm house and buildings, a cottage, and 124 acres of land, or thereabouts, situate at or near to Blitterleas, in the parish of Holme Cultram, in the county of Cumberland, subject to a mortgage thereon, which moiety is comprised in an indenture of settlement, dated the 5th September, 1854, and made on the marriage of Alexander Bayne, since deceased, with Hannah Roper, now Hannah Bayne, Widow.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a Petition in the above-mentioned matters was, on the 15th day of July, 1870, presented to the Lord High Chancellor, of Great Britain, by Hannah Bayne, of No. 20, Cummia-place Grange, Edinburgh, Widow, praying that for the purposes mentioned in the said Petition a sale of the said moiety comprised in the said settlement of the 5th day of September, 1854, of the messuage, buildings, and lands, situate at or near Blitterleas, in the parish of Holme Cultram, and described in the title of the said Petition, may under and by virtue of the provisions of the several above-mentioned Acts of Parliament, be authorized, and to approve of the sale thereof to John Holliday, in the said Petition named, according to the agreement dated the 23rd day of April, 1870 (therein-mentioned to have been made for the purchase by him of the entirety of said premises), as a proper sale to be made of the entirety of the said premises, free from the mortgage referred to in the title of the said Petition (if the incumbrancer of the said premises shall consent to the said sale), and that the money to arise from the said settled moiety, after discharging the said mortgage out of the purchase monies of the entirety of the said premises, may be paid to Joseph Messenger, William Glaister, and Robert Hall Wills, the trustees of the said indenture of settlement of the 5th of September, 1854, and that (subject to the direction in the said Petition mentioned as to payment of costs) the said trustees may be at liberty to apply the same to one or more of the purposes mentioned in the 23rd section of the above-mentioned Act without any application to the Court, and that in the meantime until the said money shall be so applied, the said trustees may be at liberty to invest the same, or the unapplied portion of the same for the time being, in purchase of Bank £3 per cent. Annuities, or on such other stocks, funds, and securities authorized by the General Order of the Court, dated the 1st day of February, 1861, or by statute, as the Judge in Chambers shall from time to time approve, and that the said Joseph Messenger, William Glaister, and Robert Hall Wills may execute the conveyance of the said settled moiety of the said premises to the purchaser thereof, and that notice of the Order to be made upon the said petition, may be endorsed upon the said Indenture of Settlement. And notice is hereby also given, that the Petitioner may be served with any Order of the Court, or notice relating to the subject of the said petition, at the office of Messrs. Gray, Johnston, and Mounsey, situate at No. 5, Raymond-buildings, Gray's-inn, London, Solicitors; the London Agents; of Mr. Robert Lawson, of Wigton, Cumberland, Solicitor.—Dated this 2nd day of August, 1870.
