In the Matter of the Companies Act, 1862; and in the Matter of the Company of the Proprietors of the Wey and Arun Junction Canal.

The Wey and Arun Junction Canal (as a going concern).

MR. HENRY CRAWTER has been appointed by the Vice-Chancellor Sir Richard Malins, to sell by auction, at the Mart, Tokenhouse-yard, in the city of London, on Tuesday, the 30th day of August, 1870, at twelve o'clock at noon, pursuant to an Order of the High Court of Chancery, made in this matter.

This valuable property comprising the line of canal and banks, extending from Stonebridge, near the important market town of Guildford, in the county of Surrey to Newbridge, in the parish of Pulborough, in the county of Sussex, and passing through the several parishes of Shalford, Bramley, Womersl, Cranley, Hascombe, Dunsfold, and Alfold, in the county of Surrey, and the parishes of Rudgwick, Wisborough Green, Billingshurst, and Pulborough, in the county of Sussex, being in length about 18 miles, and occupying an area of about 200 acres, including the extensive reservoir, in the parish of Cranley aforesaid, containing about 50 acres.

The canal forms the connecting link between the navigable rivers the Wey and the Arun, and thus direct water communication is afforded between the Port of Littlehampton and the town of Arundel, in the county of Sussex, and the River Thames. The canal has been kept up and is now in working order for carrying all kinds of materials, goods, and merchandize throughout, attached thereto are water feeding drains, sundry bridges, twenty-three locks, wharves, cottages, or houses and sundry buildings.

At the same time and place will be offered in three lots, the valuable dwelling-house, timber, and stone yards, and storehouses, situate on the River Wey, near the town bridge, in the parish of St. Nicholas, Guildford, let on lease to Mr. Palmer and Messrs. Moon, Builders and Stonemasons.

The attention of canal and barge owners, capitalists and speculators, is invited to this opportunity of securing an important and extensive canal property.

Plans of the property will be ready for inspection at the Solicitors offices, at Guildford, referred to below, and at the Auctioneers fourteen days before the sale.

To view and for particulars apply to Mr. W. Stanton, Manager and Wharfinger, at Bramley aforesaid.

Particulars and conditions of sale may also be had at the principal inns, in Guildford, Godalming, Littlehampton and Arundel; and the inns in each of the parishes above-named. Also of Messrs. W. H. M. and F. F. Smalpeice, Solicitors, Guildford; of Messrs. Pyke, Irving, and Pyke, No. 43, Lincoln's-inn-fields, Solicitors; at the auction Mart; and of Messrs. Crawter, No. 5, Bedford-row, Gray's-inn.

In Chancery.

In the Matter of the Companies Acts, 1862 and 1867, and in the matter of the Glyn Neath Steam Coal and Iron Company, Limited.

Valuable and important colliery and iron-mines in the heart of the rich coal and iron fields of South Wales.

MESSRS. EDWIN FOX and BOUSFIELD are instructed to sell by auction, at the Mart, Tokenhouse-yard, Bank of England, London, on Wednesday, the 24th day of August, 1870, at one o'clock precisely, by Order of the High Court of Chancery:—

The exceedingly valuable property known as the Glyn Neath Steam Coal and Iron Mines, situate at Glyn Neath, near Neath, in the county of Glamorgan, extending under a superficial area of about 1000 acres, containing valuable seams of steam coal and argillaceous iron-ore, together with cottages, workshops, stabling, and other necessary buildings. Also all the powerful and expensive machinery necessary for the workings. Live and dead stock and effects.

The collieries are now in work, and the yield is most successful, and the coal of excellent quality.

The iron mine contains several fine seams and has produced some of the best specimens of argillaceous ore in the district.

They are held under lease at moderate dead rents and low royalties.

Particulars with plan of the section collieries may be obtained of the Liquidator, Arthur Cooper, Esq. (Messrs. Cooper Brothers and Co.), No. 13, George-street, Mansion House, London; of Messrs. Upton, Johnson, Upton, and Budd, Solicitors, No. 20, Austin-friars; of Messrs. Oggleby and Davies, Cardiff; and of Messrs. Edwin Fox and Bousfield, No. 24, Gresham-street, Bank, E.C.
