FRIDAY, AUGUST 12, 1870.

Her Majesty's Most Gracious Speech, delivered by the Lords Commissioners to both Houses of Parliament, on Wednesday, August 10th, 1870.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

THE state of public business enables me to release you from your attendance in Parliament.

I continue to receive from all foreign powers assurances of good-will and friendship; but I have witnessed with grief and pain, on domestic as well as public grounds, the recent outbreak of war between two powerful nations, both of them allied with this country.

My best exertions have been used to avert this great calamity.

I shall now direct a constant and anxious attention to the strict observance of the duties and the maintenance of the rights of neutrality.

I have cheerfully assented to the measure, matured by your wisdom, to enlarge the power of the Executive, not only for the discharge of international duties, but for the prevention of acts which, in time of war might be injurious to the interests of the country.

I shall make every fitting endeavour to check the operation of causes which might lead towards enlarging the area of the present conflict, and to contribute if opportunity shall be afforded me, to the restoration of an early and honourable peace.

I have tendered to the two belligerent powers treaties identical in form to give additional security to Belgium against the hazards of a war waged upon her frontiers. This treaty has been signed by Count Bernstorff, on the part of the North German Confederation, and the French Ambassador has signified that he has authority to sign the corresponding instrument as soon as his full powers arrive. Other powers which were parties to the Treaty of 1839, have been invited to accede, if they should think fit, to this engagement.

The shocking murders recently perpetrated in Greece produced a painful impression throughout Europe, and have drawn attention to serious evils existing in that country. My unremitting efforts will be directed to securing the complete and searching character of the inquiry which has been instituted.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons.

I thank you for the liberal provision which was made by you for the ordinary service of the year, and for the additional supplies of men and money which you have voted in view of the altered state of things on the Continent of Europe.

The condition of the revenue gives ground for the hope that it may be able to meet the new charge which has been created without reversing the proper balance of income and expenditure.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

In regard to domestic legislation, I may fitly congratulate you on the close of the session, marked by an assiduous devotion to labours of the utmost national importance.

The temporary Act for the repression of agrarian crime and the maintenance of order in Ireland, has, up to the present time, answered the purposes for which it was passed.

From the Act for regulating the occupation and ownership of land I anticipate the gradual establishment both of harmonious relations between owners and occupiers of land, and of general confidence in the provisions and administration of the law, and in the just and benevolent intentions of the Legislature.

In consequence of the efforts which have been made in matters of capital moment, to remove from the Statute Book whatever might seem inequitable to Ireland, I trust that the discharge of the first duty of government in providing for the security of life and property will become more easy; and I shall rely with confidence upon the loyalty and affection of my Irish subjects.

It has given me pleasure to concur with you in the passage of the important law providing for national education in England. I perceive in it a new guarantee for the moral and social well-being of the nation, and for its prosperity and power.

The Naturalisation Act, and the Act for the Extradition of Criminals, will tend to confirm our friendly relations with foreign powers.

The Act which regulates enlistment for a shortened term of service in the ranks of the army will, I trust, tend to increase the efficiency of the force, to promote the welfare of the soldier, and to provide for the nation a reserve of men well trained to arms, and ready, in any case of emergency to return to the standards.

I bid you farewell for the recess, with the earnest prayer that, when you are again summoned to your duties, I may be enabled to rejoice with you in the re-establishment of peace on the Continent of Europe.

Then a Commission for proroguing the Parliament was read; after which the Lord Chancellor said:

My Lords and Gentlemen,

By virtue of Her Majesty's Commission, under the Great Seal, to us and other Lords directed, and now read, we do, in Her Majesty's name, and in obedience to Her commands, prorogue this Parliament to Thursday, the twenty-seventh day of October next, to be then here holden; and this Parliament is accordingly prorogued to Thursday, the twenty-seventh day of October next.

By the QUEEN.

A PROCLAMATION.

VICTORIA, R.

WHEREAS We are happily at peace with all Sovereigns, Powers, and States;

And whereas, notwithstanding Our utmost exertions to preserve peace between all Sovereign Powers and States, a state of war unhappily exists between His Imperial Majesty the Emperor of the French and His Majesty the King of Prussia, and between their respective subjects and others inhabiting within their countries, territories, or dominions;

And whereas We are on terms of friendship and amicable intercourse with each of these Sovereigns, and with their several subjects, and others inhabiting within their countries, territories, or dominions;

And whereas great numbers of Our loyal subjects reside and carry on commerce, and possess property and establishments, and enjoy various rights and privileges, within the dominions of each of the aforesaid Sovereigns, protected by the faith of Treaties between Us and each of the aforesaid Sovereigns;

And whereas We, being desirous of preserving to Our subjects the blessings of peace, which they now happily enjoy, are firmly purposed and determined to abstain altogether from taking any part, directly or indirectly, in the war now unhappily existing between the said Sovereigns, their subjects and territories, and to remain at peace with, and to maintain a peaceful and friendly intercourse with each of them, and their respective subjects, and others inhabiting within any of their respective countries, territories, and dominions, and to maintain a strict and impartial neutrality in the said state of war unhappily existing between them;

We, therefore, have thought fit, by and with the advice of Our Privy Council, to issue this Our Royal Proclamation.

And we do hereby strictly charge and command all Our loving subjects to govern themselves accordingly, and to observe a strict neutrality in and during the aforesaid war, and to abstain from violating or contravening either the laws and statutes of the realm in this behalf, or the law of nations in relation thereto, as they will answer to the contrary at their peril.

And whereas in and by a certain Statute made and passed in the present year of Her Majesty, intituled "An Act to regulate the conduct of "Her Majesty's subjects during the existence of "Hostilities between Foreign States with which "Her Majesty is at Peace," it is, amongst other things, declared and enacted as follows:—

“(2.) The Ship in respect of which any such Offence is committed, and her Equipment, shall be forfeited to Her Majesty :

“Provided, that a person building, causing to be built, or equipping a Ship in any of the cases aforesaid, in pursuance of a Contract made before the commencement of such War as aforesaid, shall not be liable to any of the Penalties imposed by this Section in respect of such building or equipping if he satisfies the conditions following (that is to say) :

“(1.) If forthwith upon a Proclamation of Neutrality being issued by Her Majesty he gives Notice to the Secretary of State that he is so building, causing to be built, or equipping such ship, and furnishes such particulars of the contract and of any matters relating to, or done, or to be done under the contract as may be required by the Secretary of State :

“If any Person within the Dominions of Her Majesty, and without the License of Her Majesty,—
“By adding to the Number of the Guns, or by changing those on board for other Guns, or by the addition of any Equipment for War, increases or augments, or procures to be increased or augmented, or is knowingly concerned in increasing or augmenting the warlike Force of any Ship which at the Time of her being within the Dominions of Her Majesty was a Ship in the Military or Naval Service of any Foreign State at War with any Friendly State,—

“If any Person within the Limits of Her Majesty's Dominions, and without the License of Her Majesty,— “Prepares or fits out any Naval or Military Expedition to proceed against the Dominions of any Friendly State, the following consequences shall ensue :

“(1.) Every Person engaged in such Preparation or fitting out, or assistance therein, or employed in any Capacity in such Expedition, shall be guilty of an Offence against this Act, and shall be punishable by Fine and Imprisonment, or either of such Punishments, at the Discretion of the Court before which the Offender is convicted ; and Imprisonment, if awarded, may be either with or without Hard Labour.

“(2.) All Ships, and their Equipments, and all Arms and Munitions of War, used in or forming part of such Expedition, shall be forfeited to Her Majesty.

“Any Person who aids, abets, counsels, or procures the Commission of any Offence against this Act shall be liable to be tried and punished as a principal Offender.”

And whereas by the said Act it is further provided that Ships built, commissioned, equipped, or despatched in Contravention of the said Act, may be condemned and forfeited by Judgment of the Court of Admiralty ; and that if the Secretary of State or Chief Executive Authority is satisfied that there is a reasonable and probable Cause for believing that a Ship within Her Majesty's Dominions has been, or is being, built, commissioned, or equipped, contrary to the said Act, and is about to be taken beyond the Limits of such Dominions, or that a ship is about to be despatched contrary to the Act, such Secretary of State, or Chief Executive Authority, shall have power to issue a Warrant authorising the Seizure and Search of such Ship, and her Detention until she has been either condemned or released by process of law : And whereas certain Powers of Seizure and Detention are conferred by the said Act on certain Local Authorities :

Now, in order that none of Our subjects may unwarily render themselves liable to the penalties imposed by the said statute, We do hereby strictly command that no person or persons whatsoever, do commit any act, matter, or thing whatsoever contrary to the provisions of the said statute, upon pain of the several penalties by the said statute imposed, and of Our high displeasure.

And We do hereby further warn and admonish all Our loving subjects, and all persons whatsoever, entitled to our protection, to observe towards each of the aforesaid Sovereigns, their subjects and territories, and towards all belligerents whatsoever, with whom we are at peace, the duties of neutrality ; and to respect, in all and each of them, the exercise of those belligerent rights which We and Our Royal Predecessors have always claimed to exercise.

And We hereby further warn all Our loving subjects, and all persons whatsoever entitled to Our protection, that, if any of them shall presume, in contempt of this Our Royal Proclamation, and of Our high displeasure, to do any acts in derogation of their duty as subjects of a neutral Sovereign, in a war between other Sovereigns, or in violation or contravention of the law of nations in that behalf, as more especially by breaking, or endeavouring to break, any blockade lawfully and actually established by or on behalf of either of the said Sovereigns, or by carrying officers, soldiers, despatches, arms, ammunition, military stores or materials, or any article or articles considered and deemed to be contraband of war, according to the law or modern usages of nations, for the use or service of either of the said Sovereigns, that all persons so offending, together with their ships and goods, will rightfully incur, and be justly liable to, hostile capture, and to the penalties denounced by the law of nations in that behalf.

And We do hereby give notice, that all Our subjects and persons entitled to Our protection who may misconduct themselves in the premises, will do so at their peril and of their own wrong ; and that they will in no wise obtain any protection from Us against such capture or such penalties as aforesaid, but will, on the contrary, incur Our high displeasure by such misconduct.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the fourth day of August, 1870, in the words following, viz. :—

“Whereas by the twentieth section of an Act passed in the twenty-ninth year of your Majesty's reign, chapter eighty-nine, entitled An Act to provide for the better government of Greenwich Hospital, it is among other things enacted, that the regulations for the admission of children into Greenwich Hospital School, “shall be vested exclusively in the Admiralty, but any such regulations shall not have effect unless and until they are approved by your Majesty in Council,” and whereas we are of opinion that it would be expedient to establish definite regulations with respect to the admission of children into the said school, we beg leave to recommend that your Majesty will be pleased, by your Order in Council, to sanction the establishment of the following regulations:—

Regulations for the Admission of Boys to Greenwich Hospital School.

The school consists of eight hundred boys, the sons of petty officers and seamen, and of non-commissioned officers and privates of Marines, who have served or are now serving in the Royal Navy or Coast Guard, and of other seafaring persons.

All claims for admission to the School will be judged of by a Committee of Selection appointed by their Lordships, in the following order of precedence, special consideration being given to length of service at sea :—

1. Orphans, both parents dead.
2. Sons of fathers killed, drowned, deceased, wounded, or seriously maimed in Her Majesty's Service, or while employed by Her Majesty on board a merchant ship, or in action with an enemy, pirate, or rebel.
3. Those whose fathers, having served in the Royal Navy or Marines, are dead.
4. Those whose fathers are serving, and whose mothers are dead.
5. Sons of naval pensioners, and sons of seamen and marines now serving, both parents living.
6. Sons of seamen and marines* entitled to the benefits of Greenwich Hospital.
7. Sons of other seafaring persons.

N.B.—The sons of commissioned and other officers are not absolutely excluded, provided that the peculiar circumstances of their case render them eligible for this charity.

Applications for admission are to be made to the Secretary of the Admiralty (Greenwich Hospital Branch), London, when the necessary forms will be sent, which, when properly filled up, must be returned as directed, with the two following certificates :—

1. A certificate of the marriage of the parents ; or, if not attainable, other satisfactory proof thereof.
2. Register of the child's birth.

The services of the fathers upon which the claim is founded will be ascertained at the Admiralty, and due notice will be given without further application, should the child be selected for admission into the school.

Boys eligible for admission must be between nine and ten and a quarter years of age, physically fit for sea-service, be able to read an easy sentence and possess a knowledge of the first four rules in arithmetic.

Boys will be discharged from the school on the first day of the month succeeding that in which they shall attain thirteen years of age, unless either they succeed by their talents, industry, and good conduct in obtaining admission into the Selected Division, after competitive examination, or volunteer, with the consent of their parents, to enter the Royal Navy as boys.

In the latter case, if they are reported physically fit, they will be retained until fourteen and a half years, and then entered for continuous service.

Vacancies occasioned by boys unwilling or unfit for service in the Royal Navy will be filled up by selection from the sons of seamen and marines who are thirteen years of age, fit and willing for service, and able to pass a sufficient examination in reading, writing, and arithmetic.

Applications for admission of boys at the age of thirteen must be made six months previously, in the same manner as above directed, and the parents or guardians must sign an agreement, before the boy is admitted, that he shall serve in the Royal Navy for a period of ten years' continuous and general service from the age of eighteen, in addition to whatever period may be necessary until he attain that age.

* Including the Royal Naval Reserve.

The 'Selected Division' will consist of eighty boys. At the age of fourteen the boys in this division of the school will be required to enter into an agreement, jointly with their parents or guardians, to enter the Royal Navy at the conclusion of their tuition, in such capacities as they may be found best qualified to fill. They will then be retained in the school until fifteen and a half years of age, otherwise they will be discharged.

The education of the boys will comprise the usual elements of a sound English education, alternating with practical seamanship and other industrial occupations designed to prepare them for a seafaring life.

In the 'Selected Division,' elementary mathematics and mechanics, navigation, nautical astronomy, and French, will be taught.

Children of Roman Catholics, or of Protestants not being members of the Church of England, will not be required to learn the Church Catechism, and will be allowed to attend convenient places of public worship, in accordance with the religious persuasion of their fathers, provided application be made to that effect at the time of admission, by the father, if living ; and if the father be dead at the time of a child's admission, then the marriage certificate or baptismal register of such child, according to the rites and ceremonies of any established religious community, of a date previous to the said father's death, will be received as evidence of the religious tenets of the father ; that is, provided no authentic document written by the deceased father be produced, expressing a contrary wish or direction as regards the religious instruction of such child."

Her Majesty having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed. And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Arthur Helps.

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 9th day of August, 1870.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the thirteenth and fourteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-one; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the nineteenth day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the thirteenth and fourteenth years of your Majesty, chapter forty-one; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for setting out and constituting a district for spiritual purposes, and annexing such district to the consecrated church of Saint Mary, situate at Moston within the limits of the new parish of Harpurhey-cum-Moston (some time part of the original parish of Manchester), in the county of Lancaster, and in the diocese of Manchester.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district for spiritual purposes should be set out and constituted for, and annexed to the said church of Saint Mary, situate at Moston as aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend James, Bishop of the said diocese of Manchester, testified by his having signed and sealed this scheme, we humbly recommend and propose, that all that part of the said new parish of Harpurhey-cum-Moston, which is described in the schedule hereunder written, and is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, shall, upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, be severed and disannexed from such new parish, and shall be set out and constituted for and annexed to the said church of Saint Mary, situate at Moston as aforesaid, and shall become and be a district for spiritual purposes, and shall be named 'The District of Saint Mary, Moston.'

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the herein-named Acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference.

"The District of Saint Mary, Moston, being:—

"All that part of the new parish of Harpurhey-cum-Moston, within the original limits of the parish of Manchester, in the county of Lancaster, and in the diocese of Manchester, which is bounded on the south by the new parish of All Saints, Newton, on the south-east by the new parish of Failsforth (both also within the original limits of the parish of Manchester aforesaid), on the east by the new parish of Hullenwood, in the county and diocese aforesaid, on the north partly by the new parish of Saint John, Chadderton, and partly by the new parish of Tonge-cum-Alkrington, both in the said county and diocese, and on the remaining side, that is to say, on the west, partly by the new parish of Saint Peter, Blackley (some time part of the parish of Manchester aforesaid), and partly by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the last-named new parish from the new parish of Harpurhey-cum-Moston aforesaid, at the point in 'Boggart-Hole-Clough' where the footpath which leads from the house called or known as 'Clough Bottom or Easton Grange' to the house called or known as Hough, is joined by 'Cow-lane,' and extending thence south-eastward, for a distance of twenty-two chains or thereabouts, along the middle of the said lane, to the point (at or near to the house called or known as 'Street Fold') where the same lane is joined by Moston-lane, by Clegg's-lane, and by Kenyon-lane; and extending thence southward, for a distance of eighteen chains or thereabouts, along the middle of Kenyon-lane aforesaid, to its junction with the footpath, which leads past 'Lily-lane Farm' and across 'Jack's Bridge' to 'Wellock's Bridge'; and extending thence south-westward, for a distance of thirty-three chains or thereabouts, along the middle of the said footpath, to a point in the centre of 'Jack's Bridge' aforesaid, which carries the same footpath over Moston Brook, such point being upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Harpurhey-cum-Moston from the new parish of All Saints, Newton aforesaid."

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 9th day of August, 1870.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commission for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen; of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and four; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the thirtieth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy, in the words and figures following, that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen; of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes, out of the parish of Saint Martin, in the county of Salop, and in the diocese of Saint Asaph.

"Whereas it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion, that the particular part of the said parish of Saint Martin, which is hereinafter-mentioned and described (such part not at present containing within its limits any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of divine worship), should be constituted a separate district in the manner hereinafter recommended and set forth.

"And whereas by a certain deed, bearing date on or about the sixth day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy, and expressed to be made under the authority of the

'New Parishes Acts, 1843, 1844, and 1856,' or some or one of them, and being under the hands and seals of the Venerable Robert Wickham, Archdeacon of Saint Asaph, and vicar of Gresford, in the county of Denbigh, of the Reverend William Walsham How, rector of Whittington, in the said county of Salop, and of Thomas Longueville Longueville, of Penylan, in the parish of Oswestry, in the said county of Salop, Esquire, and being also under the Common Seal of us the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners (which deed is intended to be enrolled in your Majesty's High Court of Chancery, at Westminster), the said Robert Wickham, William Walsham How, and Thomas Longueville Longueville, did grant and confirm unto the Incumbent of the district hereinafter recommended to be constituted so soon as one shall have been appointed and licensed thereto, and to his successors, the Incumbents thereof for the time being, certain tithe commutation rent-charges, or annual sums, amounting together to the sum of forty-eight pounds nine shillings and six-pence, arising and issuing out of or from certain lands in the township of Dudleston, in the parish of Ellesmere, in the said county of Salop, which said tithe commutation, rents-charge, or annual sums, and which said lands are more particularly specified in the schedule which forms part of, and is referred to in the said deed.

"And whereas a sum of one thousand six hundred and ninety-six pounds sterling has been contributed and paid to the credit of our account at the Bank of England, by the Honourable Arthur Edwin Hill-Trevor, of Brynkinalt, in the said county of Denbigh, commonly called Lord Arthur Edwin Hill Trevor, in further aid of the endowment of the district hereinafter recommended to be constituted, and of the maintenance of the incumbent thereof for the time being, and we have in respect of such sum agreed with the said Arthur Edwin Hill-Trevor, and have undertaken to provide and pay by equal half-yearly payments on the first day of May and the first day of November in each and every year to such incumbent, when duly licensed, the yearly sum of fifty six pounds ten shillings and eight pence.

"And whereas the said tithe commutation rent-charges or annual sums have been so granted and confirmed as aforesaid, and the said sum of one thousand six hundred and ninety-six pounds sterling has been so contributed and paid as aforesaid, upon the further understanding that (such arrangement appearing to us to be expedient), the whole right of patronage of the said district, and of the nomination of the incumbent thereof should be assigned in the manner hereinafter mentioned.

"And whereas we have also determined to grant and pay out of the common fund created by the firstly herein mentioned Act to the incumbent for the time being of the said district hereinafter recommended to be constituted, when such incumbent shall have been duly licensed as aforesaid, the annual sum of fifty pounds, and such lastly-mentioned grant will be made and secured by an instrument to be executed by us under our common seal, in accordance with the provisions of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Joshua, Bishop of the said diocese of Saint Asaph (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly recommend and propose, that all that part of the said parish of Saint Martin, which is described in the schedule hereunder written, and which is delineated and set forth upon the map or plan hereunto annexed, shall upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, and without any other assurance in the law, become, and be, and be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes and that the same shall be named 'The District of The Lodge.'

"And we further recommend and propose, that the whole right of patronage of the said district so recommended to be constituted, and of the nomination of the incumbent thereof shall without any assurance in the law other than this scheme and any duly gazetted Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, and upon and from the day of the date of the publication of such Order in the London Gazette as aforesaid, be assigned to and be absolutely vested in the said Arthur Edwin Hill-Trevor, his heirs and assigns, for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein-contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference.

"The District of The Lodge, being :—

"All that part of the parish of Saint Martin, in the county of Salop, and in the diocese of Saint Asaph, which is bounded on the south partly by the consolidated chapelry of Hengoed, and partly by the parish of Selattyn, both in the county and diocese aforesaid, on the west by the new parish of Pontfadog, on the north for the most part by the parish of Chirk, both in the county of Denbigh and in the diocese aforesaid, and on all other sides, that is to say, on the remaining part of the north and on the east, by an imaginary line commencing upon the county boundary, which divides the last-named parish from the parish of Saint Martin aforesaid, at a point in the centre of Chirk Bridge, which carries the new turnpike-road leading from Chirk to Oswestry, and called or known as the New Oswestry-road, over the River Ceiriog; and extending thence, first eastward and then southward, for a distance of nearly one mile and a-half, along the middle of the said new turnpike-road, to the boundary in the centre of the bridge which carries the same turnpike-road over the River Morlas, which boundary divides the said parish of Saint Martin from the consolidated chapelry of Hengoed aforesaid."

And whereas a draft of the said scheme has, in accordance with the provisions of the hereinbefore secondly mentioned Act, been transmitted to the patron and to the incumbent of the parish out of which it is intended that the district therein recommended to be constituted shall be taken, and such patron and incumbent have respectively signified their assent to the said scheme :

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Saint Asaph.

Arthur Helps.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 9th day of August, 1870.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the fourteenth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of your Majesty's reign, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme for assigning certain lands and hereditaments as the permanent endowment of the see of Worcester.

"Whereas the Right Reverend Henry, Bishop of Worcester succeeded to the said see on an avoidance which happened after the passing of the hereinbefore-mentioned Act, and all the lands, hereditaments, and emoluments belonging to the said see of Worcester (except all rights of presentation and the residence of the Bishop) are vested absolutely in us for the purposes, and subject to the provisions applicable to other hereditaments vested in us.

"And whereas the lands and hereditaments particularly described in the schedule hereto annexed which are now vested in us, are, in the judgment of our Estates Committee, convenient to be held as the endowment for the said see, and are approved by the said bishop as suitable for that purpose, and will secure to the holder of the said see, as nearly as may be after deducting costs of management, a net annual income of five thousand pounds and no more, being the amount named for the bishop of the said see, by the Order of your Majesty in Council, of the twenty-fifth day of August, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-one, which Order is now in force.

"Now, therefore, with the consent and approbation of the said Henry, Lord Bishop of Worcester, testified by his having signed this scheme, and sealed the same with his episcopal seal, we humbly recommend and propose, that upon the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly published Order, the lands and hereditaments particularly described in the schedule hereto annexed, with their appurtenances, and all our right, title, and interest therein, save only as is hereinafter saved and excepted, together with the benefit of the perpetual land tax, if any, charged upon the same premises, which has been redeemed, shall be assigned as the endowment of the said bishopric of Worcester, and shall, subject always and nevertheless to the liabilities and charges to which the said lands and hereditaments are now specifically liable, become and be absolutely vested in the said bishop, in as full and ample a manner as if the same had formed part of the ancient possessions of the said see; save and except, and always reserved unto us, our successors, and our and their lessees, tenants and assigns, all and singular the mines, quarries, and beds of coal, stone, clay, sand, minerals, and metalliferous substances of all descriptions, therein or thereunder, with full and exclusive authority to sink, win, work, get up, and carry away the same, in, under, out of, and from the said lands and hereditaments, or any other lands and hereditaments, according to the course and practice at present or hereafter to be used or adopted in the counties wherein the said lands and hereditaments are situate, or according to the most approved mode which may from time to time be used or invented, and to enter upon, take, use, and occupy from time to time, and for such time and in such manner as we, our successors, and our and their lessees, tenants, and assigns shall think fit, so much of the said lands and hereditaments as we or they shall deem necessary, proper or convenient for all or any of the aforesaid purposes, making full compensation for any injury thereby occasioned; and save and except, and always reserved, full and exclusive authority for us, our successors, and our and their lessees, tenants, and assigns, or persons acting under our or their authority and whether in reference or respect to lands held by or under us, or any other property, to make, grant, and use any way or ways upon, across, under, or through the said lands and hereditaments, for the purposes aforesaid: Provided always, and we hereby further recommend and propose, that nothing in the foregoing exception and reservation shall operate in any manner to prevent the said Henry, Bishop of Worcester, and his successors, from taking and using from, off, or under the said lands and hereditaments, all such stone, clay, sand and gravel as may be required hereafter for repairing and amending the buildings, fences, roads, or ways now being in, upon, or about the said lands and hereditaments, or any part thereof, and also for erecting, making, and repairing any buildings, fences, roads, or ways which may require hereafter to be erected or made in, upon, or about the said lands and hereditaments.

"And we further recommend and propose, that the said bishop shall become entitled to the rents, profits, and proceeds of the lands and hereditaments hereby proposed to be assigned as the endowment of the said see, as from the twenty-ninth day of September, one thousand eight hundred and seventy.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in conformity with the provisions of the said hereinbefore-mentioned Act, or of any other Act of Parliament.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England, beyond the limits of the Metropolis, and to amend the Act concerning the burial of the dead in the Metropolis," it is enacted that, in case it appears to Her Majesty in Council, upon the representation of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, that for the protection of the public health, the opening of any new burial ground in any city or town, or within any other limits, save with the previous approval of one of such Secretaries of State, should be prohibited, or that burials in any city or town, or within any other limits, or in any burial ground or places of burial should be wholly discontinued, or should be discontinued subject to any exception or qualification, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order that no new burial-ground shall be opened in any city or town, or within such limits, without such previous approval, or (as the case may require), that after a time mentioned in the Order, burials in such city or town, or within such limits, or in such burial-grounds or places of burial, shall be discontinued wholly, or subject to any exceptions or qualifications mentioned in such Order, and so from time to time, as circumstances may require; provided always,

And whereas the Right Honourable Henry Austin Bruce, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after giving to the Incumbent and the Churchwardens of the parish hereinafter mentioned ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representation, has made a representation stating that, for the protection of the public health, no new burial-ground should be opened in the undermentioned parish without the previous consent of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and that burials should be discontinued therein, with the modifications hereinafter specified:

And whereas an Order in Council has been made, directing the discontinuance, with certain exceptions, of burials in the churchyard of the parish of Outwell, from the time specified in such Order; and whereas it seems fit to Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, that the time for discontinuing burials in the said churchyard be postponed;
