Duchy of Cornwall, September 29, 1870.

THE Prince of Wales has been pleased to direct Letters Patent to be passed under the Seal of the Duchy of Cornwall appointing Herbert William Fisher, Esq., of the Inner Temple, Barrister-at-Law, to be Vice-Warden of the Stannaries, in the place of Sir Edward Smirke, resigned.

Marlborough House, September 29, 1870.

The Prince of Wales has been pleased to appoint Francis Knollys, Esq., to be Private Secretary to His Royal Highness, in the place of Herbert W. Fisher, Esq., resigned.

Marlborough House, September 29, 1870.

The Princess of Wales has been pleased to appoint Maurice Holzmann, Esq., German Secretary and Librarian to the Prince of Wales, to be Private Secretary to Her Royal Highness, in the place of Herbert W. Fisher, Esq., resigned.

By virtue of an Act, passed in the twenty-fourth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to repeal so much of two Acts, made in the tenth and fifteenth years of the reign of His present Majesty, as authorizes the Speaker of the House of Commons to issue his warrant to the Clerk of the Crown for making out writs for the election of Members to serve in Parliament, in the manner therein mentioned, and for substituting other provisions for the like purposes;" and of an Act passed in the twenty-sixth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to further limit and define the time for proceeding to Election during the "Recess;"

I do hereby give notice, that it hath been certified to me in writing, under the hands of two Members serving in this present Parliament, that the Honourable William Brodrick, late a Member serving in this present Parliament for the Middle

Division of the county of Surrey, is become a Peer of the United Kingdom, and that a writ of summons hath been issued to him, under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom, to summon him to Parliament; and that I shall issue my warrant to the Clerk of the Crown to make out a new writ for the electing of a Member to serve in this present Parliament for the said Division of the county, at the end of six days after the insertion of this notice in the London Gazette.

Given under my hand this twenty-ninth day of September, 1870.

J. E. DENISON, Speaker.

*Board of Trade, Whitehall,
September 29, 1870.*

THE Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade have received intelligence, from the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, that, in consequence of the occupation of the Roman Provinces by the Italian Troops, the line of Custom-houses between those Provinces and the Italian Kingdom has been abolished; and that the Italian Government has taken measures for establishing their Customs Authorities along the seaboard of the Pontifical States.

(C. 1140.)

*Board of Trade, Whitehall,
September 29, 1870.*

THE Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade have received, through the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, a Despatch from Her Majesty's Acting British Consul at Leghorn, reporting that all vessels arriving at that port from any Spanish port, Gibraltar included, that have taken ten days to perform the voyage, and have no case of sickness on board, will be liable to ten days quarantine:—all vessels that have taken less than ten days to perform the voyage will be liable to fifteen days quarantine, to be undergone at Leghorn, if there is no case of sickness on board, but if there be sickness, the same period, viz., fifteen days quarantine will have to be performed at the Lazaretto of Varignano.

(C. 1187.)

*Board of Trade, Whitehall,
September 29, 1870.*

THE Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade have received, through the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, a translation of a Notice issued by the Roumanian Government, and dated 8th September, 1870, which decrees that

"In consequence of the outbreak of cholera in the Russian Empire, and more especially at Odessa and Taganrog, the Government has established a quarantine of ten days at all the points of communication between Roumania and the Russian Empire, both by land and sea."

"Vessels entering by Sulina, and having a clean bill of health, are alone exempted from quarantine."

TREASURY WARRANT

WE, the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, in exercise of all powers enabling us in this behalf, do by this Warrant, under the hands of two of us the said Commissioners, order, direct, and declare as follows:—

1. All warrants heretofore at any time made under the hands of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury for the time being, or any two or more of them, which relate to newspapers, book packets, or pattern or sample packets, transmitted or intended to be transmitted by post between places within the United Kingdom, the Channel Islands, and the Isle of Man, shall be, and the same are hereby repealed, revoked, and annulled, so far and so far only as the same relate to such newspapers, book packets, and pattern and sample packets respectively, and such newspapers, book packets, and pattern and sample packets shall hereafter be subject in all respects to certain regulations and directions bearing even date with this Warrant and made by Her Majesty's Postmaster-General, with the approval of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury.

2. This Warrant shall come into operation on the first day of October, one thousand eight hundred and seventy.

Whitehall Treasury Chambers, the twentieth day of September, one thousand eight hundred and seventy.

W. P. Adam.

W. H. Gladstone.

I, SPENCER COMPTON CAVENDISH, commonly called MARQUIS OF HARTINGTON, Her Majesty's Postmaster-General, with the approval of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, given under the hands of two of the said Commissioners, whose names are hereunder signed and written, by virtue of the powers vested in me by "The Post Office Act, 1870," and of every other power enabling me in this behalf, do hereby issue the following directions respecting the registration of publications under the said Act, and do hereby make, in relation respectively to registered newspapers, book packets, pattern or sample packets, and post cards sent by post, or posted within the United Kingdom, the Channel Islands, and the Isle of Man, the following regulations for the purposes mentioned in the 9th and 20th sections of the said Act, or some of such purposes, and do hereby issue, with respect to any registered or other newspaper, supplement, publication, book packet, pattern or sample packet, or post card, which shall be sent by post, within the limits aforesaid, otherwise than in conformity with the said Act, or the said regulations, the following directions as to the return or forwarding thereof, and as to the postage to be charged thereon (that is to say):—

As to Newspapers for Inland Transmission.

1. The proprietor or printer of any newspaper within the description contained in section 6 of "The Post Office Act, 1870," and the proprietor or printer of any publication which, regard being had to the proportion of advertisements to other matter therein, is not within the description aforesaid, but which was stamped as a newspaper before the 15th day of June, 1855, may register it at the General Post Office on payment to the Postmaster-General of a fee of 5 shillings.

2. The registration of any such newspaper or other publication as aforesaid may be renewed from year to year on payment to the Postmaster-General of a like fee of 5 shillings.

3. The postage payable on registered newspapers, with or without supplements, by virtue of section 8 of "The Post Office Act, 1870, shall, in all cases, be prepaid.

4. If the postage on a registered newspaper, or a packet of registered newspapers with or without supplements is not prepaid in conformity with the preceding regulation in that behalf, the packet shall be forwarded to its destination and charged on delivery with postage as an unpaid or (as the case may be) an insufficiently paid book packet of the same weight.

5. The postage for each transmission of a registered newspaper or packet of registered newspapers may be prepaid either by an adhesive postage stamp or stamps, or by the use of a stamped cover, or in money, but if in money, at such post offices only, within such hours only, and under and subject to all such regulations, conditions, and restrictions as the Postmaster-General shall from time to time think fit and direct.

6. The Postmaster-General may also, if he think fit, in the case of copies of a registered newspaper addressed for transmission by post at the publishing office of such newspaper, permit the work of impressing and of cancelling a stamp denoting the postage to be performed at such publishing office, under such regulations and restrictions as to the payment of the postage and otherwise as the Postmaster-General may from time to time direct, but all such newspapers shall be forwarded from the publishing office to the post office in sealed bags, and any such newspaper forwarded to the post office otherwise than in a sealed bag, shall, notwithstanding the impressment and cancellation of such stamp, be charged as a newspaper posted unpaid.

7. The Postmaster-General may also in the case of any registered newspaper permit the work of impressing a stamp denoting the postage, to be done at the office of Inland Revenue, under such regulations as to the payment of the postage and otherwise as the Postmaster-General may from time to time direct.

8. No registered newspaper shall be sent by the post a second time for the original postage, and (except in the case of redirection) a newspaper which has already been sent by post shall for all postal purposes be treated as if it had never been so sent.

9. In the case of the redirection of a registered newspaper or packet of registered newspapers made by an officer of the post office to a place within the same free delivery as the original address, no redirection postage shall be charged.

10. In any case (not within the last preceding regulation) of the redirection of a registered newspaper or packet of registered newspapers, a redirection postage shall be charged and paid at the prepaid newspaper rate, and such postage may be collected on the delivery of the newspaper or packet charged.

11. Every registered newspaper or packet of registered newspapers shall be posted either without a cover or in a cover open at both ends, and so that the same can be easily removed for the purpose of examination.

12. If any newspaper or packet of newspapers is sent by post otherwise than in conformity with the last preceding regulation it shall, at the option in each case of the Postmaster-General, be either returned to the sender thereof or be forwarded to its destination, and shall in either case be charged with postage as an unpaid letter of the same weight, but giving credit for any postage already paid.

13. Every registered newspaper when posted shall be so folded and covered (if posted in a cover) as to permit the title to be readily inspected.

14. No registered newspaper, whether posted singly or in a packet, shall be posted with any enclosure concealed therein, or in the supplement or supplements belonging thereto.

15. If any registered newspaper shall be posted with any enclosure prohibited by the last preceding regulation, then if the enclosure consists wholly or in part of another copy (whether of the same or a different date) of the same registered newspaper, or of a copy of any other publication, the entire packet shall, at the option in each case of the Postmaster-General, be either returned to the sender thereof or forwarded to its destination, and shall in either case be charged with postage as an unpaid letter of the same weight, but giving credit for any postage already paid. In any other case of a prohibited enclosure the enclosing newspaper shall not be subject to any additional charge, but the enclosure or enclosures shall be taken out and forwarded, and charged with postage on delivery as an unpaid letter of the same weight.

16. No registered newspaper shall be posted with any letter or communication in the nature of a letter written thereon, or on the cover thereof (if any).

17. If any newspaper shall be sent by post otherwise than in conformity with the last preceding regulation, the same shall, at the option in each case of the Postmaster-General, be either returned to the sender thereof or forwarded to its destination, and shall in either case be charged with postage as an unpaid letter, but giving credit for any postage already paid.

18. No packet of newspapers shall be forwarded by post, the weight of which shall exceed fourteen pounds or the dimensions of which shall exceed two feet in length or one foot in width or depth.

As to Book Packets for Inland transmission.

19. The expression "book packet" shall comprise not only books but also all packets consisting of articles of the following kinds, not being trade patterns or samples of merchandize (that is to say):—

- (1.) Paper or any other substance in ordinary use for writing or printing, whether such paper or other substance be plain or with anything (except a letter or communication in the nature of a letter) written, printed, or otherwise impressed thereon, and whether the same be in the form of books or in any other form.
- (2.) Circulars, appearing from internal evidence to be intended for transmission in identical terms to several persons, and the whole or the greater part of each of which is printed, engraved, or lithographed, notwithstanding that such circulars may be letters or communications in the nature of a letter.
- (3.) Photographs and other things of a like kind when not on glass or in frames containing glass or any brittle substance of a like kind.
- (4.) Any thing usually attached or appurtenant to any of the before mentioned articles in the way of binding, mounting, or otherwise, and anything convenient for their safe transmission by post which shall be contained in the same packet.
- (5.) Such other articles as the Postmaster-General shall from time to time decide to be capable of transmission by post as book packets, without detriment or inconvenience to the public service.

20. The postage payable on book packets by virtue of section 8 of "The Post Office Act, 1870," shall in all cases be prepaid.

21. If no part of the postage on a book packet is prepaid in conformity with the preceding regulation, the packet shall be forwarded to its destination and charged on delivery with postage at the following rates; that is to say:—

On a book packet not exceeding two ounces in weight, one penny;

On a book packet exceeding two ounces in weight, for the first two ounces, and for every additional two ounces or fractional part of two ounces, one penny.

22. If the postage on a book packet is only partly prepaid in conformity with the preceding regulation in that behalf, the packet shall, at the option in each case of the Postmaster-General, be either returned to the sender thereof, or be forwarded to its destination, and shall in either case be charged with double the deficient book packet postage at the prepaid rate; provided, nevertheless, that no registered newspaper or newspapers containing an enclosure concealed therein shall be sent by post as a book packet, unless the postage thereon at the book packet rate is fully prepaid.

23. Notwithstanding the preceding regulations as to the payment of postage on book packets, the whole or any part of the postage payable by virtue of "The Post Office Act, 1870," on a book packet consisting wholly of printed votes or proceedings of the Imperial Parliament, may be either prepaid or may be collected on delivery.

24. The postage on a book packet may be prepaid either by an adhesive postage stamp or stamps affixed outside the packet or its cover, or by the use of a stamped cover, or in money; but if in money, at such Post Offices only within such hours only, and under and subject to all such regulations, conditions, and restrictions as the Postmaster-General shall from time to time think fit and direct.

25. In the case of the redirection of a book packet, made by an officer of the Post Office, to a place within the same free delivery as the original address, no redirection postage shall be charged.

26. In any case (not within the last preceding regulation) of the redirection of a book packet, a redirection postage shall be charged and paid at the prepaid book packet rate, and such postage may be collected on the delivery of the packet charged.

27. Every book packet shall be posted either without a cover, or in a cover open at both ends, and so that the same can easily be removed for the purpose of examination.

28. No book packet shall be posted which shall contain anything sealed or otherwise closed against inspection, or which shall contain any letter or any communication in the nature of a letter, written on any part of the packet or the cover thereof (although the same may be open to inspection), or which shall contain any separate letter or communication in the nature of a letter, not being a circular, within the meaning of these regulations.

29. If there shall be posted any book packet in a cover not in conformity with the preceding regulation in that behalf, or any book packet containing a letter or communication in the nature of a letter, written on any part of the packet or the cover thereof, such packet shall, at the option in each case of the Postmaster-General, be either returned to the sender thereof or forwarded to its destination, and shall in either case be charged with postage as an unpaid letter of the same weight, but giving credit for any postage already paid.

30. If there shall be posted any book packet which shall contain anything prohibited by the preceding regulation in that behalf, except such letter or communication as is mentioned in the last preceding regulation, the prohibited matter shall be taken out and forwarded to the address on the packet, and shall be charged with postage on delivery as an unpaid letter of the same weight, and the residue of the packet shall be forwarded to the address aforesaid, without any additional charge by reason of the prohibited enclosure.

31. No book packet shall be forwarded by post the weight of which shall exceed fourteen pounds, or (unless by the special permission in any case or class of cases of the Postmaster-General) the dimensions of which shall exceed two feet in length, or one foot in width or depth.

As to Pattern and Sample Packets for Inland Transmission.

32. The expressions "pattern packets" and "sample packets" shall comprise such articles only as consist wholly of trade patterns, or of samples of merchandize.

33. The postage payable on pattern packets or sample packets by virtue of section 8 of "The Post Office Act, 1870," shall in all cases be prepaid.

34. If no part of the postage on a pattern packet or sample packet is prepaid, in conformity with the preceding regulations, the packet shall be forwarded to its destination and charged on delivery with postage at the following rates, that is to say :—

On each packet not exceeding two ounces in weight, one penny.

On each packet exceeding two ounces in weight, for the first two ounces, and for every additional two ounces or fractional part of two ounces, one penny.

35. If the postage on a pattern or sample packet is only partly prepaid, in accordance with the preceding regulation in that behalf, the packet shall, at the option in each case of the Postmaster-General, be either returned to the sender thereof, or be forwarded to its destination, and shall in either case be charged with double the deficient postage at the prepaid rate.

36. The postage on a pattern or sample packet may be prepaid, either by an adhesive postage stamp or stamps, or by the use of a stamped cover, or in money; but if in money, at such Post Offices only, within such hours only, and under and subject to all such regulations, conditions, and restrictions as the Postmaster-General shall from time to time think fit and direct.

37. In the case of the redirection of a pattern or sample packet made by an officer of the Post Office, to a place within the same free delivery as the original address, no redirection postage shall be charged.

38. In any case (not within the last preceding regulation) of the redirection of a pattern or sample packet a redirection postage shall be charged and paid at the prepaid pattern or sample packet rate, and such postage may be collected on the delivery of the packet charged.

39. Patterns or samples shall, when practicable, be posted in covers open at both ends, and so that the same may be easily removed for the purpose of examination, or in such other covers as the Postmaster-General shall from time to time approve. Nevertheless, samples of seeds, drugs, and such other articles as cannot be posted in open covers, but such articles only may be posted enclosed in boxes, or in bags of linen, or other material, fastened in such a manner that they may be readily opened, or in bags entirely closed, provided such closed bags are transparent, so as to enable the officers of the Post Office readily to satisfy themselves as to the nature of the contents.

40. If any pattern or sample packet is sent by post otherwise than in conformity with the last preceding regulation, it shall, at the option in each case of the Postmaster-General, be either returned to the sender thereof, or be forwarded to its destination, and shall in either case be charged with postage as an unpaid letter of the same weight, but giving credit for any postage already paid.

41. There shall be no writing or printing upon any pattern or sample packet, or on the cover thereof, except the address of the person for whom it is intended, the address of the sender thereof, a trade mark or number, and the price of the articles, patterns or samples of which are contained therein, nor shall there be any writing or printing or other thing enclosed in any such packet, except the address of the sender thereof, a trade mark or number, and the price, and a description of the articles, patterns or samples of which are contained therein, which may be either written or printed, and any such permitted writing or printing in any such packet may be on labels attached to the patterns or samples.

42. If any pattern or sample packet shall be posted with any prohibited writing or printing or other thing thereon or therein, or on the cover thereof, it shall, at the option in each case of the Postmaster-General, be either returned to the sender thereof or be forwarded to its destination, and shall in either case be charged with postage as an unpaid letter, but giving credit for any postage already paid.

43. If any pattern or sample packet shall be posted which shall contain any enclosure, sealed or otherwise closed against inspection, or any other enclosure not authorized by these regulations, every such enclosure shall be taken out and forwarded to the address on the packet and charged with postage on delivery as an unpaid letter of the same weight, and the remainder of the packet, if duly prepaid, shall be forwarded to the place of its address, without any extra charge.

44. No pattern or sample packet shall be sent by post, the weight of which shall exceed 12 ounces.

45. If there shall be posted any pattern or sample packet, the weight of which shall exceed 12 ounces, such packet shall, at the option in each case of the Postmaster-General, be either returned to the sender thereof or be forwarded to its destination, and shall in either case be charged (in addition to any other postage with which the same may be chargeable, as an unpaid or insufficiently paid pattern or sample packet at the rates aforesaid), with postage as an unpaid book packet of the same weight.

46. No pattern or sample packet shall be forwarded by post the weight of which shall exceed 14 pounds, or (unless by the special permission in any case, or class of cases, of the Postmaster-General) the dimensions of which shall exceed 2 feet in length, or 1 foot in width or depth.

As to Post Cards for Inland Transmission.

47. Post cards, with an impressed stamp of one halfpenny, shall be issued by the Postmaster-General, and the cards so issued, and no others, shall be deemed to be post cards within the meaning of these regulations.

48. The address, and nothing else, shall be written, printed, or otherwise impressed on the side of the post card which bears the impressed stamp, and no part of the address shall be written, printed, or otherwise impressed across such stamp.

49. Anything (including a letter or communication in the nature of a letter) may be written, printed, or otherwise impressed on the side of the post card which does not bear the impressed stamp.

50. Nothing whatever shall be in any manner attached to a post card, nor shall a post card be cut or folded, or otherwise altered.

51. If any post card is sent by post otherwise than in conformity with these regulations, it shall be enclosed in a sealed cover and forwarded to its destination, charged, on delivery, with postage as an insufficiently paid letter of the same weight.

52. In the case of the redirection of a post card made by an officer of the Post Office to a place within the same free delivery as the original address, no redirection postage shall be charged.

53. In any case (not within the last preceding regulation) of the redirection of a post card, a redirection postage shall be charged and paid of one halfpenny, and such postage may be either prepaid by an adhesive stamp, or may be collected on the delivery of the post card.

GENERAL REGULATIONS AND DIRECTIONS.

54. Where the despatch or delivery from a post office of letters, would be delayed by the despatch or delivery therefrom at the same time of book packets, pattern or sample packets, and post cards, or any of them, the same or any of them may be detained in the post office, until the despatch or delivery next following that by which they would ordinarily be despatched or delivered.

55. There shall not be sent or forwarded by post, any packet (whether a book packet, pattern packet, or sample packet), which shall not be securely packed and guarded, in such manner as to furnish complete protection against injury to the officers of the post office, and to the contents of the mail bags or any packet which shall contain anything which might by pressure or otherwise be rendered injurious either to the officers of the post office or to the contents of the mail bags.

56. Any packet, the sending of which by post is prohibited by the last preceding Regulation, shall, if posted, be returned to the sender thereof, charged with postage as an unpaid letter of the same weight, but giving credit for any postage already paid.

57. There shall not be sent or forwarded by post, any indecent or obscene print, painting, photograph, lithograph, engraving, book or card, or any other indecent or obscene article, or any letter, newspaper, supplement, publication, packet or card, having thereon or on the cover thereof, any words, marks or designs, of an indecent, obscene, libellous, or grossly offensive character, and if anything shall be posted which shall prima facie fall within the aforesaid prohibition, it shall be stopped and submitted at the General Post Office to the inspection of an officer duly authorised in that behalf by the Postmaster-General.

58. The Postmaster-General may, in any case in which he shall consider it just or reasonable so to do, remit any postage made payable by any of the preceding regulations.

59. These regulations and directions shall come into operation on the first day of October, one thousand eight hundred and seventy, except the regulation numbered 1, as to registration, which shall come into operation forthwith.

Dated this twenty-sixth day of September, one thousand eight hundred and seventy.

Hartington,

Her Majesty's Postmaster-General.

We approve of the foregoing regulations and directions.

*W. P. Adam,
W. H. Gladstone,*

Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury.
