TUESDAY, OCTOBER 25, 1870.

AT the Court at Balmoral, the 24th day of October, 1870.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

HER Majesty in Council was this day pleased to declare Her consent to a Contract of Matrimony between Her Royal Highness The Princess Louise Caroline Alberta, and John George Edward Henry Douglas Sutherland Campbell (commonly called the Marquess of Lorne), which consent Her Majesty has also caused to be signified under the Great Seal.

By the QUEEN.

A PROCLAMATION.

VICTORIA, R.

WHEREAS Our Parliament stands prorogued to Thursday, the twenty-seventh day of October instant: We, by and with the advice of Our Privy Council, hereby issue Our Royal Proclamation, and publish and declare that the said Parliament be further prorogued to Tuesday, the thirteenth day of December next.

Given at Our Court at Balmoral, this twenty-fourth day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy, and in the thirty-fourth year of Our reign.

GOD save the QUEEN.

AT the Court at Balmoral, the 24th day of
October, 1870.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

IT is this day ordered by Her Majesty in Council, that the Convocations of the Provinces of Canterbury and York be prorogued from the day to which the same now stand prorogued to Wednesday, the fourteenth day of December next; and the Right Honourable the Lord High Chancellor of that part of the United Kingdom called Great Britain is to cause Writs to be prepared and issued in the usual manner for proroguing the Convocations accordingly.

AT the Court at Balmoral, the 24th day of October, 1870.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by "The Thames Conservancy Act, 1857," it is enacted that the Conservators of the River Thames shall have power and authority from time to time to make bye-laws for the regulation, management, and improvement of the River Thames and the navigation thereof, in the manner thereby provided, and at such times and in such manner to alter, vary, or repeal such bye-laws, or any of them, as they shall think fit, and to impose penalties not exceeding five pounds, for the breach or non-performance of such bye-laws:

And whereas by the 47th section of the said Act, it is enacted that no such bye-laws shall be in force until the same have been sent to the Lord Chief Justice of the Court of Queen's Bench, the Lord Chief Justice of the Court of Common Pleas, and the Lord Chief Baron of the Court of Exchequer, and shall have been approved by one of them:

And whereas by the 31st section of "The Thames Conservancy Act, 1864," it is enacted, that from and after the thirty-first day of December, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, section 47 of "The Thames Conservancy Act, 1857" shall be repealed, and that bye-laws made after the commencement of such repeal, under the authority of either of the said recited Acts, shall not have any force unless and until they are allowed by Order of Her Majesty in Council:

And whereas the said Conservators have, in exercise of the powers conferred upon them by the said recited Act, made and submitted for the allowance of Her Majesty in Council the new rules or bye-laws, of which a copy is set forth in the schedule hereunto annexed:

And whereas the said new rules or bye-laws have been duly published in accordance with the last-recited Act, and it has been made to appear to Her Majesty that the said new rules or bye-laws, so set forth as aforesaid, are reasonable and proper:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by virtue of the power vested in Her by the said last-recited Act, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to allow the said new rules or bye-laws.

Arthur Helps.

SCHEDULE REFERRED TO IN THE ABOVE ORDER.

Rules and Bye-Laws for the Regulation of the Navigation of the River Thames.

1.—The 2nd Rule or Bye-Law, passed under the corporate Seal of the Conservators of the River Thames, the 26th day of May, 1862, shall, after this present Bye-Law shall have been allowed in the manner required by the Thames Conservancy Act, 1864, and shall have come into force, be and the same is hereby repealed.

2.—All Barges, Boats, Lighters, and other like craft navigating the River Thames between Staines and Yantlett Creek, shall, when under way, have at least one competent person constantly on board for the navigation and management thereof, and all such craft of above 50 tons burthen shall, when under way, have two competent persons on board for the navigation and management of the same, with the following exceptions:—When being towed by a Steam Vessel, or when being moved to and fro between any Vessels or places a distance not exceeding 200 yards; and in case of non-compliance with this present Bye-Law, any of the Harbour Masters may take charge of and remove such craft to such place as to such Harbour Master may seem fit, and the amount of the charges and expenses of taking charge thereof, and of such removal, shall be recoverable from the Owner or Owners or Master thereof, to the use of the said Conservators, in the like manner as the penalties imposed by the Bye-Laws of the 3rd day of January, 1860, are recoverable.

3.—Any person committing any breach of or in any way infringing this Bye-Law shall be liable to a penalty of, and shall forfeit a sum not exceeding, £5, which said penalty shall be recovered, enforced, and applied according to the provisions of the said Thames Conservancy Acts.

AT the Court at Balmoral, the 24th day of October, 1870.

PRESENT.

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1854," it is enacted, that "Her Majesty may, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time reduce all or any of the dues for the time being payable in respect of existing or future lighthouses, buoys, or beacons, for the time being under the management of the General Lighthouse Authorities," therein mentioned (that is to say), the Corporation of the Trinity House of Deptford Strond, the Commissioners of Northern Lighthouses, and the Port of Dublin Corporation, now called the Commissioners of Irish Lights:

"And may also, by and with the like advice, from time to time increase or vary any of such dues, so that no dues payable in respect of any lighthouse, buoy, or beacon existing at the time when the said Act came into operation, should be made to exceed the amount which had at any period, previous to such time, been received in respect thereof, or to which the said dues might during any part of such period as last aforesaid lawfully have been raised."

And whereas it is by the said Act further enacted, that "Tables of all Light Dues, and a copy of the Regulations for the time being in force in respect thereof, shall be posted up at all Custom Houses within the United Kingdom, and that each of the said General Lighthouse Authorities shall from time to time, as occasion requires, furnish copies of such tables and regulations to the Commissioners of Customs in London, and to the principal Officers of Customs, resident at all places where light dues are collected on account of such lighthouse authority, and that such copies shall be posted up by the Commissioners at the Custom House in London, and by such Officers at the Custom Houses of the places at which they are respectively resident:"

And whereas by an Order in Council of the twenty-sixth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, Her Majesty did approve of certain Consolidated Tables therein referred to of Light Duties levied by the said General Lighthouse Authorities respectively:

And whereas by an Order in Council dated the first day of November, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, Her Majesty did approve of certain revised and amended Consolidated Tables of Light Duties therein referred to levied by the said authorities respectively, together with certain abatements, regulations, and exemptions therein contained:

And whereas by an Order in Council of the eighteenth day of May, one thousand eight hundred and seventy, Her Majesty has directed that certain reductions and variations in and exemptions from the Light Duties then payable therein specified shall take effect from and after the first day of October, one thousand eight hundred and seventy:

And whereas by various other Orders in Council, Her Majesty has approved of certain variations and abatements from the Light Duties comprised in the said tables, and also of certain duties for new lights:

And whereas it has been made to appear to Her Majesty that it is expedient further to revise and amend the aforesaid Consolidated Tables of Light Duties:

And whereas new Consolidated Tables of Light Duties (Oversea section) levied by the said General Lighthouse Authorities respectively in the form hereunto annexed, together with the several reductions, variations, abatements, regulations, and exemptions contained therein, have been submitted for Her Majesty's approval:

And whereas the said last mentioned Consolidated Tables (Oversea section) and the said reductions, variations, abatements, regulations, and exemptions contained therein, appear to be proper and reasonable, and it is expedient that the said tables shall come into operation on the day hereinafter mentioned:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by virtue of the power vested in Her by the said recited Act, and by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to approve, and doth hereby approve the said new Tables of Light Duties (Oversea section), and the said reductions, variations, abatements, regulations and exemptions, submitted as aforesaid, and doth hereby direct that the said tables shall come into operation on the first day of October, one thousand eight hundred and seventy.

Arthur Helps.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England, beyond the limits of the Metropolis, and to amend the Act concerning the burial of the dead in the Metropolis," it is enacted that, in case it appears to Her Majesty in Council, upon the representation of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, that for the protection of the public health, the opening of any new burial-ground in any city or town, or within any other limits, save with the previous approval of one of such Secretaries of State, should be prohibited, or that burials in any city or town, or within any other limits, or in any burial-ground or places of burial, should be wholly discontinued, or should be discontinued subject to any exception or qualification, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order that no new burial-ground shall be opened in any city or town, or within such limits, without such previous approval, or (as the case may require), that after a time mentioned in the Order, burials in such city or town, or within such limits, or in such burial-grounds or places of burial, shall be discontinued wholly, or subject to any exceptions or qualifications mentioned in such Order, and so from time to time, as circumstances may require; provided always, that notice of such representation, and of the time when it shall please Her Majesty to order that the same be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, shall be published in the London Gazette, and shall be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some other conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such representation, one month before such representation is so considered; provided also that no such representation shall be made in relation to the burial-ground of any parish until ten days' previous notice of the intention to make such representation shall have been given to the Incumbent and Vestry Clerk or Churchwardens of such parish;

And whereas the Right Honourable Henry Austin Bruce, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after giving to the Incumbents and the Churchwardens of the parishes hereinafter mentioned, ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representation, has made a representation stating that, for the protection of the public health, no new burial-ground should be opened in the undermentioned parishes without the previous consent of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and that burials should be discontinued therein, with the modifications hereinafter specified:

And whereas Her Majesty was pleased, by Her Order in Council of the sixth day of July last, to give notice of such representations, and to order that the same should be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, on the seventeenth day of August, one thousand eight hundred and seventy, and such Order has been published in the London Gazette, and copies thereof have been affixed, as required by the said Act:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that no new burial-ground shall be opened in the undermentioned parishes without the previous approval of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and that burials in the said parishes shall be discontinued (except as herein otherwise directed), as follows; viz.:—

PORTLAND.—Forthwith wholly in the Wesleyan Chapel at Portland, in the county of Dorset; and in the burial-ground of the said chapel, except in graves not less than four feet deep, which can be opened without the exposure of coffins or the disturbance of remains.

MARTOCK.—Forthwith wholly in the church of Martock, Somersetshire, and all coffins buried in the vaults and walled graves in the churchyard, to be separately entombed.

WIDCOMBE.—Forthwith in the churchyard and old burial-ground of Widcombe, Bath, except in now existing vaults and walled graves, in which each coffin shall be embedded in charcoal, and separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented.

BATHWICK.—Forthwith in the churchyard and old burial-ground of Bathwick, Bath, except in now existing vaults and walled graves, in which each coffin shall be embedded in charcoal, and separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented.

Arthur Helps.

AT the Court at Balmoral, the 24th day of October, 1870.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Right Honourable Henry Austin Bruce, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after giving to the Incumbent and the Churchwardens of the parishes hereinafter mentioned, ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representation, has, under the provisions of an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England beyond the limits of the Metropolis, and to amend the Act concerning the burial of the dead in the Metropolis," made a representation stating that, for the protection of the public health, no new burial-ground should be opened in the undermentioned parishes without the previous consent of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and that burials should be discontinued in them, with the following modifications, viz.:—

WEREHAM-WITH-WRETTON.—Forthwith wholly in the Parish Churchyards of Wereham and Wretton, except in graves which can be opened to the depth of four feet without the exposure of coffins or the disturbance of undecayed bones.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty in Council is pleased hereby to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council on the eighth day of December next:

And Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith published in the London Gazette; and that copies thereof be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such representation, one month before the said eighth day of December.

Arthur Helps.

Council Office, October 24, 1870.

WHEREAS the Special Commissioners appointed for the purposes of "The Public Schools Act, 1868," in virtue of the powers conferred upon them by that Act, have made five statutes for determining and establishing the constitution of the New Governing Bodies of the Schools of Winchester, Harrow, Rugby, Shrewsbury, and Charterhouse:

And whereas the said Statutes have been this day laid before Her Majesty in Council, the same are published in the London Gazette, in pursuance of the provisions of the said Act; and notice is hereby given, that it is lawful for the bodies or persons authorized so to do in that Act, within two months from the date of the publication of this notification, to petition Her Majesty in Council to withhold her approval from the whole or any part of such Statutes.

WINCHESTER.

A STATUTE for determining and establishing constitution of the new Governing Body of Winchester School made by the Special Commissioners appointed for the purposes of "The Public Schools Act, 1868."

WHEREAS by the Public Schools Act, 1868, "School" is defined in the case of Winchester to include Winchester College, and at Winchester the Warden and Fellows are declared for the purposes of the Act to be "the existing Governing Body" of the School; and whereas by the fifth section of the said Act, it was provided that the existing Governing Body of each of the Schools to which the said Act applies might at any time before the first day of May, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-nine, or within such further time as might be determined by Her Majesty in Council as therein-after mentioned, make a Statute or Statutes for determining and establishing the constitution of the Governing Body of each of the said Schools in such manner as might be deemed expedient.

And whereas it was by the same section further provided that from and after the said first day of May, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-nine, or such further time as aforesaid, all powers of making Statutes vested by the said section in the Governing Body of a School should pass to the Special Commissioners therein-after mentioned.

And whereas by the said Act the period for which Her Majesty was empowered by Order in Council to extend the said time for making such a Statute or Statutes was limited to one month.

And whereas Her Majesty did, by Order in Council in pursuance of the said Act, extend for the period of one month the time within which the Warden and Fellows of Winchester might make such a Statute or Statutes as aforesaid, and such period has now elapsed without any such Statute as aforesaid being approved in pursuance of the said Act.

And whereas all power of making such a Statute or Statutes vested in the Governing Body of Winchester School by the fifth section of the said Act have passed to and are now vested in the Special Commissioners appointed for the purposes of the said Act.

Now we, the said Commissioners, in pursuance of the said Act, do by this Statute enact as follows, that is to say:

Members of Governing Body.

1. The Governing Body of Winchester School, as defined by the said Act, shall consist of the following ex-officio members, namely:—

The Warden of New College, Oxford,
The Warden of Winchester, and of the following elected members, namely:—

One member to be elected by the Warden and Fellows of New College, Oxford.

One member to be elected by the Hebdomadal Council of the University of Oxford.

One member to be elected by the Council of the Senate of the University of Cambridge.

One member to be elected by the President and Council of the Royal Society.

One member to be nominated by the Lord Chief Justice of England for the time being.

One member to be elected by the head master, second master, and assistant masters of the school for the time being.

Not less than two nor more than four members to be elected by the Governing Body for the time being.

The said elected members other than the members to be elected by the Governing Body for the time being may be elected or nominated as aforesaid at any time within three months after the approval of this Statute by Her Majesty in Council, and the said members to be elected by the Governing Body for the time being may be elected at any time within five months after such approval.

Qualification of Members.

2. Any person, not being the Head Master, Second Master, or one of the Assistant Masters in the School, may be elected or nominated a member of the Governing Body who is a member of the Church of England, and duly qualified in the judgment of the person or persons by whom he is elected or nominated to take part in the government of the School as a place of liberal education.

Mode of electing Members to be elected by Governing Body.

3. The first election of members to be elected by the Governing Body for the time being shall take place at a meeting at which not less than five of the persons herein-before respectively referred to as ex-officio and elected members are present, and of which sufficient notice specifying the purpose of the meeting has been given by the Warden of New College; subsequent elections shall be held by the Governing Body for the time being.

Mode of filling up Vacancies.

4. Subject to the provisions herein-before contained, with respect to the election of members to be elected by the Governing Body for the time being, all vacancies occurring among the elected members shall be from time to time filled up by the appointment of a member by the person, or body of persons aforesaid, who had by this Statute the power of appointing the member in respect of whom the vacancy occurs; provided that such appointment be made within three months of the date on which such vacancy occurred.

Power of Queen in Council to fill up Vacancies.

5. If any of the said elected members are not appointed within the time by this Statute limited for their election or nomination, or if any such vacancy as aforesaid be not filled up within three months after the date of its occurrence, Her Majesty may, by Order in Council, make such appointment or fill up such vacancy by the nomination of any qualified person She may think fit, subject to the following provisions, namely:—

- (a.) No vacancy among the members to be elected by the Governing Body for the time being shall be so filled up until the number of such members is reduced below two.
- (b.) The making of an appointment or the filling up of any vacancy by Her Majesty in Council in pursuance of this enactment shall not confer upon Her Majesty any power of filling up any subsequent vacancy until the person or body of persons aforesaid, empowered by this Statute to fill up such vacancy have failed to do so for the period of three months after the vacancy has occurred.

Mode of summoning First Meeting.

6. The first meeting of the Governing Body shall be summoned by the Warden of New College, and shall be held in London.

Mode of summoning subsequent Meetings.

Subsequent meetings shall be summoned at such times and places (the places being in Winchester or London) as the Governing Body may determine.

Non-attendance of Members.

7. If any elected member be absent from every meeting of the Governing Body during the space of two years, he shall, ipso facto, cease to be a member.

Quorum.

8. No business shall be transacted at any meeting of the Governing Body unless five members at least be present.

Chairman at Meetings.

9. At the first meeting of the Governing Body, held by them after the approval of this Statute by Her Majesty in Council, and at the first meeting held by them in every subsequent year, the members of the Governing Body present at such meeting shall choose one of their body to act as Chairman of the Governing Body for the year then current, and shall also, if they think fit, choose another member to act as Deputy Chairman for the same period.

If the Chairman or Deputy Chairman die or cease to be a member of the Governing Body during his period of office, the members present at the next meeting held after the occurrence of such vacancy shall choose some other member to fill the vacancy, and the member so chosen shall hold office so long as the person in whose place he is chosen would have held the same.

If at any meeting neither the Chairman nor Deputy Chairman of the Governing Body be present, the members present shall choose some one of their number to be Chairman at such meeting.

In case of an equality of votes at any meeting the Chairman of the meeting shall have a second or casting vote.

Approved and sealed by the Special Commissioners appointed for the purposes of the "Public Schools Act, 1868," this thirteenth day of October, one thousand eight hundred and seventy.

HARROW.

A STATUTE for determining and establishing the constitution of the new Governing Body of Harrow School, made by the Special Commissioners appointed for the purposes of "The Public Schools Act, 1868."

WHEREAS by the Public Schools Act, 1868, it is enacted that the "Existing Governing Body" of a School shall for the purposes of the Act mean, at Harrow, the Governors. And whereas it was provided by the fifth section of the said Act that the existing Governing Body of each of the Schools to which the Act applies might at any time before the first day of May, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-nine, or within such further time as might be determined by Her Majesty in Council, as thereafter mentioned, make a Statute or Statutes for determining and establishing the constitution of the Governing Body of each of such Schools in such manner as might be deemed expedient. And whereas it was by the same section further provided that from and after the said first day of May, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-nine, or such further time as aforesaid, all powers of making Statutes vested by the said section in the Governing Body of a school should pass to the Special Commissioners therein-after mentioned.

And whereas by the said Act the period for which Her Majesty was empowered by Order in Council to extend the said time for making such a Statute or Statutes was limited to one month.

And whereas Her Majesty did, by Order in Council in pursuance of the said Act, extend for the period of one month the time within which the Governors of Harrow might make such a Statute or Statutes as aforesaid, and such period has now elapsed without any such Statute as aforesaid being approved in pursuance of the said Act.

And whereas all powers of making such a Statute or Statutes vested in the Governing Body of Harrow School by the fifth section of the said Act have passed to and are now vested in the Special Commissioners appointed for the purposes of the said Act.

Now we, the said Commissioners, in pursuance of the said Act, do by this Statute, enact as follows, that is to say:—

Members of Governing Body.

1. The Governing Body of Harrow School shall consist of the following members, namely,—

- One member to be elected by the Hebdomadal Council of the University of Oxford.
- One member to be elected by the Council of the Senate of the University of Cambridge.
- One member to be elected by the President and Council of the Royal Society.

One member to be nominated by the Lord Chancellor for the time being.

One member to be elected by the head, lower, and assistant masters of the school for the time being.

Five members to be elected in the first instance by the Keepers and Governors of the possessions, revenues, and goods of the Free Grammar School of John Lyon, in the village of Harrow-on-the-Hill, and in subsequent cases to be elected in manner hereinafter mentioned.

The said members may be elected or nominated as aforesaid at any time within three months after the approval of this Statute by Her Majesty in Council.

Qualifications of Members.

2. Any person, not being the head master, lower master, or one of the assistant masters of the School, may be elected or nominated a member of the Governing Body who is a member of the Church of England, and duly qualified in the judgment of the person or persons by whom he is elected or nominated to take part in the government of the School as a place of liberal education.

Provision for filling up Vacancies in Governing Body.

3. Every vacancy occurring among members of the Governing Body shall be filled up within three months after the date of its occurrence, in manner following, that is to say:—

Any vacancy occurring among the members to be elected in the first instance by the Keepers and Governors of the possessions, revenues, and goods of the Free Grammar School of John Lyon, in the village of Harrow-on-the-Hill, shall from time to time be filled up by a member to be elected by the Governing Body for the time being: but, subject to the foregoing provision, all vacancies occurring among the members of the Governing Body shall be from time to time filled up by the appointment of a member by the person or body of persons aforesaid, who under this Statute had the power of appointing the member in respect of whom the vacancy occurs.

Power of Her Majesty in Council to fill up Vacancies.

4. If any of the said members be not appointed within the time limited by this Statute for their election or nomination, or if any such vacancy as aforesaid be not filled up within three months after the date of its occurrence, Her Majesty may, by Order in Council, make such appointment or fill up such vacancy by the nomination of any qualified person whom she may think fit, subject to this proviso, that the making of such appointment or filling up of such vacancy by Her Majesty in Council shall not confer upon Her Majesty any power of filling up any subsequent vacancy, unless the person or body of persons aforesaid empowered by this Statute to fill up such vacancy have failed to do so for the period of three months after its occurrence.

Non-Attendance of Members.

5. If any member be absent from every meeting of the Governing Body during the space of two years, he shall, ipso facto, cease to be a member.

Mode of Summoning Meetings.

6. The first meeting of the Governing Body shall be summoned by the member elected by the Council of the Senate of the University of Cambridge, and shall be held in London.

7. Subsequent meetings shall be summoned at such times and places (the places being in Harrow or London,) as the Governing Body may determine.

Quorum at Meetings.

8. No business shall be transacted at a meeting of the Governing Body unless five members at the least be present.

Chairman at Meetings.

9. At the first meeting of the Governing Body held by them after the approval of this Statute by Her Majesty in Council, and at the first meeting held by them in every subsequent year, the members of the Governing Body present at such meeting shall choose one of their body to act as Chairman of the Governing Body for the year then current, and shall also, if they think fit, choose another member to act as Deputy Chairman for the same period. If the Chairman or Deputy Chairman die or cease to be a member of the Governing Body during his period of office, the members present at the meeting next after the occurrence of such vacancy may choose some other member to fill the vacancy, and the member so chosen shall hold office so long as the person in whose place he is chosen would have held the same.

If at any meeting neither the Chairman nor Deputy Chairman of the Governing Body be present, the members present shall choose some one of their number to be Chairman at such meeting.

In case of an equality of votes at any meeting the Chairman of the meeting shall have a second or casting vote.

Approved and sealed by the Special Commissioners appointed for the purposes of the "Public Schools Act, 1868," this thirteenth day of October, one thousand eight hundred and seventy.

RUGBY.

A STATUTE for determining and establishing the constitution of the new Governing Body of Rugby School made by the Special Commissioners appointed for the purposes of "The Public Schools Act, 1868."

WHEREAS by the Public Schools Act, 1868, it is enacted that the existing "Governing Body" of a School shall for the purposes of the Act mean at Rugby the Trustees; and whereas it was provided by the fifth section of the said Act that the existing Governing Body of each of the Schools to which the Act applies might at any time before the first day of May, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-nine, or within such further time as might be determined by Her Majesty in Council, as thereafter mentioned, make a Statute or Statutes for determining and establishing the constitution of the Governing Body of each of such Schools in such manner as might be deemed expedient. And whereas it was by the same section further provided that from and after the said first day of May, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-nine, or such further time as aforesaid, all powers of making Statutes vested by the said section in the Governing Body of a School should pass to the special Commissioners thereafter mentioned:

And whereas the time within which the Trustees of Rugby School were empowered by the said Act to make such a Statute or Statutes as aforesaid has now elapsed, and no such Statute has been made by the said Trustees:

And whereas all powers of making such a Statute or Statutes vested in the Governing Body of Rugby School by the fifth section of the said Act, have passed to and are now vested in the Special Commissioners appointed for the purposes of the said Act:

Now we, the said Commissioners, in pursuance of the said Act, do by this Statute enact as follows, that is to say:—

Members of Governing Body.

1. The Governing Body of Rugby School shall consist of the following members, namely:—

One member to be elected by the Hebdomadal Council of the University of Oxford.

One member to be elected by the Council of the Senate of the University of Cambridge.

One member to be elected by the Senate of the University of London.

One member to be elected by the President and Council of the Royal Society.

One member to be nominated by the Lord Chancellor for the time being.

One member to be elected by the Head and Assistant Masters of the School for the time being.

Six members to be elected in the first instance by the Trustees of Rugby School, and in subsequent cases to be elected in manner hereinafter mentioned.

The said members may be elected or nominated as aforesaid, at any time within three months after the approval of this Statute by Her Majesty in Council.

Qualification of Members.

2. Any person not being the head master or one of the assistant masters in the school may be elected or nominated a member of the Governing Body who is duly qualified in the judgment of the person or persons by whom he is elected or nominated to take part in the government of the School as a place of liberal education.

Provision for filling up Vacancies in Governing Body.

3. Every vacancy occurring among members of the Governing Body shall be filled up within three months after the date of its occurrence in manner following, that is to say:—

Any vacancy occurring among the members to be elected in the first instance by the Trustees of Rugby School shall from time to time be filled up by a member to be elected by the Governing Body for the time being; but, subject to the foregoing provision, all vacancies occurring among the members of the Governing Body shall be from time to time filled up by the appointment of a member by the person, or body of persons, who under this Statute had the power of appointing the member in respect of whom the vacancy occurs.

Power of Her Majesty in Council to fill up Vacancies.

4. If any of the said members be not appointed within the time limited by this Statute for their election or nomination, or if any such vacancy as aforesaid be not filled up within three months after the date of its occurrence, Her Majesty may by Order in Council, make such appointment or fill up such vacancy by the nomination of any qualified person whom She may think fit, subject to this proviso, that the making of such appointment, or the filling up of such vacancy by Her Majesty in Council, shall not confer upon Her Majesty any power of filling up any subsequent vacancy, unless the person or body of persons aforesaid empowered by this Statute to fill up such vacancy have failed to do so for the period of three months after its occurrence.

Mode of Summoning Meetings.

5. The first meeting of the Governing Body shall be summoned by the member elected by the Hebdomadal Council of the University of Oxford, and shall be held in London.

Subsequent meetings shall be summoned at such times and places (the places being in Rugby or London) as the Governing Body may determine.

Non-attendance of Members.

6. If any member be absent from every meeting of the Governing Body during the space of two years he shall, ipso facto, cease to be a member.

Quorum.

7. No business shall be transacted at any meeting of the Governing Body unless five members at least be present.

Chairman at Meetings.

8. At the first meeting of the Governing Body held by them after the approval of this Statute by Her Majesty in Council, and at the first meeting held by them in every subsequent year, the members of the Governing Body present at such meeting shall choose one of their body to act as Chairman of the Governing Body for the year then current, and shall also, if they think fit, choose another member to act as Deputy Chairman for the same period.

If the Chairman or Deputy Chairman die or cease to be a member of the Governing Body during his period of office, the members present at the next meeting held after the occurrence of such vacancy may choose some other member to fill the vacancy, and the member so chosen shall hold office so long as the person in whose place he is chosen would have held the same.

If at any meeting neither the Chairman nor Deputy Chairman of the Governing Body be present, the members present shall choose some one of their number to be Chairman at such meeting.

In case of any equality of votes at any meeting the Chairman shall have a second or casting vote.

Approved and Sealed by the Special Commissioners appointed for the purposes of the "Public Schools Act, 1868," this thirteenth day of October, one thousand eight hundred and seventy.

SHREWSBURY.

A STATUTE for determining and establishing the constitution of the new Governing Body of Shrewsbury Free Grammar School, made by the Special Commissioners appointed for the purposes of "The Public Schools Act, 1868."

WHEREAS by the Public Schools Act, 1868, it is enacted that the "Existing Governing Body" of a School shall, for the purposes of the Act mean, at Shrewsbury, the Trustees. And whereas it was provided by the fifth section of the said Act that the existing Governing Body of each of the Schools to which the Act applies might, at any time before the first day of May, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-nine, or within such further time as might be determined by Her Majesty in Council, as thereafter mentioned, make a Statute or Statutes for determining and establishing the constitution of the Governing Body of each of such Schools in such manner as might be deemed expedient. And whereas it was by the same section further provided that from and after the said first day of May, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-nine, or such further time as aforesaid, all powers of making Statutes vested by the said section in the Governing Body of a School should pass to the Special Commissioners thereafter mentioned.

And whereas by the said Act the period for which Her Majesty was empowered by Order in Council to extend the said time for making such a Statute or Statutes was limited for one month.

And whereas Her Majesty did, by Order in Council in pursuance of the said Act, extend for the period of one month the time within which the Trustees of Shrewsbury School might make such a Statute or Statutes as aforesaid, and such period has now elapsed without any such Statute as aforesaid being approved in pursuance of the said Act.

And whereas all powers for making such a Statute or Statutes vested in the Governing Body of Shrewsbury School, by the fifth section of the said Act, have passed to, and are now vested in, the Special Commissioners appointed for the purposes of the said Act.

Now we, the said Commissioners, in pursuance of the said Act, do by this Statute enact as follows, that is to say:—

Members of Governing Body.

1. The Governing Body of Shrewsbury Free Grammar School shall consist of the Master of St. John's College, Cambridge, for the time being, as an ex-officio Member, and of the following elected members, that is to say:—

One member to be elected by the Hebdomadal Council of the University of Oxford.

One member to be elected by the Council of the Senate of the University of Cambridge.

One member to be elected by the President and Council of the Royal Society.

One member to be nominated by the Lord Chief Justice of England for the time being.

One member to be nominated by the Lord Lieutenant of the county of Salop for the time being.

Two members to be elected by the Corporation of Shrewsbury.

One member to be elected by the Head Master, Second Master, and Assistant Masters of the School for the time being.

Not less than two nor more than four members to be elected by the Governing Body for the time being.

No. 23671.

B

The said elected members, other than the members to be elected by the Governing Body for the time being, may be elected or nominated as aforesaid, at any time within three months after the approval of this Statute by Her Majesty in Council, and the said members to be elected by the Governing Body for the time being may be elected at any time within five months after such approval.

First Election of Members to be elected by Governing Body.

2. The first election of members to be elected by the Governing Body for the time being shall take place at a meeting at which not less than five of the persons hereinbefore respectively referred to as ex-officio and elected members are present, and of which notice specifying the purpose of the meeting has been given by the Master of St. John's College; subsequent elections shall be held by the Governing Body for the time being.

Qualification of Members.

3. Any person, not being the Head Master, Second Master, or one of the Assistant Masters of the School, may be elected or nominated a member of the Governing Body, who is duly qualified in the judgment of the person or persons by whom he is elected or nominated to take part in the government of the School as a place of liberal education.

Mode of filling up Vacancies.

4. Subject to the provisions hereinbefore contained with respect to the election of members to be elected by the Governing Body for the time being, all vacancies occurring among the elected members shall be from time to time filled up by the appointment of a member by the person, or body of persons, who had the power under this Statute of appointing the member in respect of whom the vacancy occurs; provided that such appointment be made within three months of the date on which the vacancy occurred.

Power of Her Majesty in Council to fill up Vacancies.

5. If any elected member be not appointed within the time limited by this Statute in that behalf, or if any such vacancy as aforesaid be not filled up within three months after the date of its occurrence, Her Majesty may, by Order in Council, make such appointment or fill up such vacancy by the nomination of any qualified person whom She may think fit, subject to the following provisions, namely:—

(a.) No vacancy among the members to be elected by the Governing Body for the time being shall be so filled up until the number of such members is reduced below two.

(b.) The making of an appointment or filling up of any vacancy by Her Majesty in Council in pursuance of this enactment shall not confer upon Her Majesty any power of filling up any subsequent vacancy, unless the person or body of persons aforesaid empowered by this Statute to fill up such vacancy have failed to do so for the period of three months after its occurrence.

Mode of summoning Meetings.

6. The first meeting of the Governing Body shall be summoned by the Master of St. John's College, and shall be held in London.

Subsequent meetings shall be summoned at such times and places (the places being in Shrewsbury or London) as the Governing Body may determine.

Non-attendance of Members.

7. If any elected member be absent from every meeting of the Governing Body during the space of two years, he shall, ipso facto, cease to be a member.

Quorum.

8. No business shall be transacted at any meeting of the Governing Body unless five members at least be present.

Chairman at Meetings.

9. At the first meeting of the Governing Body held by them after the approval of this Statute by Her Majesty in Council, and at the first meeting held by them in every subsequent year, the members of the Governing Body present at such meeting shall choose one of their body to act as Chairman of the Governing Body for the year then current, and shall also, if they think fit, choose another member to act as Deputy Chairman for the same period.

If the Chairman or Deputy Chairman die or cease to be a member of the Governing Body during his period of office, the members present at the next meeting held after the occurrence of such vacancy may choose some other member to fill the vacancy, and the member so chosen shall hold office so long as the person in whose place he is chosen would have held the same.

If at any meeting neither the Chairman nor Deputy Chairman of the Governing Body be present, the members present shall choose some one of their number to be Chairman at such meeting.

In case of an equality of votes at any meeting, the Chairman of the meeting shall have a second or casting vote.

Approved and Sealed by the Special Commissioners appointed for the purposes of the "Public Schools Act, 1868," this thirteenth day of October, one thousand eight hundred and seventy.

CHARTERHOUSE.

A STATUTE for determining and establishing the constitution of the new Governing Body of Charterhouse School, made by the Special Commissioners appointed for the purposes of "The Public Schools Act, 1868."

WHEREAS by the Public Schools Act, 1868, it is enacted that the "Existing Governing Body" of a School shall for the purposes of the Act mean, at Charterhouse, the Governors; and whereas it was provided by the fifth section of the said Act that the existing Governing Body of each of the Schools to which the Act applies might, at any time before the first day of May, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-nine, or within such further time as might be determined by Her Majesty in Council, as thereafter mentioned, make a Statute or Statutes for determining and establishing the constitution of the Governing Body of each of such Schools in such manner as might be deemed expedient. And whereas it was by the same section further provided that from and after the said first day of May, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-nine, or such further time as aforesaid, all powers of making Statutes vested by the said section in the Governing Body of a School should pass to the Special Commissioners thereafter mentioned.

And whereas the time within which the Governors of Charterhouse were empowered by the said Act to make such a Statute or Statutes as aforesaid has now elapsed, and no such Statute as aforesaid has been made by the said Governors.

And whereas all powers of making such a Statute or Statutes vested in the Governing Body of Charterhouse School by the fifth section of the said Act have passed to and are now vested in the Special Commissioners appointed for the purposes of the said Act.

Now we, the said Commissioners, in pursuance of the said Act, do by this Statute enact as follows, that is to say:—

Members of Governing Body.

1. The Governing Body of Charterhouse School shall consist of the Archbishop of Canterbury as an ex-officio member, and of the following elected members; namely:—

One member to be elected by the Hebdomadal Council of the University of Oxford.

One member to be elected by the Council of the Senate of the University of Cambridge.

One member to be elected by the Senate of the University of London.

One member to be elected by the President and Council of the Royal Society.

One member to be nominated by the Lord Chancellor for the time being.

One member to be nominated by the Lord Chief Justice of England for the time being.

One member to be elected by the Head Master, the Second Master, and the Assistant Masters in the School for the time being.

Seven members to be elected in the first instance by the Governors of Sutton's Hospital, and in subsequent cases to be elected in manner hereafter mentioned.

The said members may be elected or nominated, as aforesaid, at any time within three months after the approval of this Statute by Her Majesty in Council.

Provision for filling up Vacancies in Governing Body.

2. Every vacancy occurring among the elected members of the Governing Body shall be filled up within three months after the date of its occurrence, in manner following, that is to say:—

Any vacancy occurring among the members to be elected in the first instance by the said Governors of Sutton's Hospital shall from time to time be filled up by a member to be elected by the Governing Body for the time being; but subject to the foregoing provision, every vacancy occurring among the elected members of the Governing Body shall be from time to time filled up by the appointment of a member by the person or body of persons above mentioned who by this Statute had the power of appointing the member in respect of whom the vacancy occurs.

Qualification of the Members.

3. Any person not being the Head Master, Second Master, nor one of the Assistant Masters in the School, may be elected or nominated member of the Governing Body, who is duly qualified in the judgment of the person or persons by whom he is elected or nominated to take part in the government of the School as a place of liberal education, provided that the first three members elected by the Governing Body for the time being, and any member elected in the place of any of the said first three members shall be chosen from among the Governors of Sutton's Hospital for the time being.

Power of Queen in Council to fill up Vacancies.

4. If any member be not appointed within the time by this Statute limited for his election or nomination, or if any such vacancy as aforesaid be not filled up within three months after the date of its occurrence, Her Majesty may, by Order in Council, make such appointment or fill up such vacancy by the nomination of any qualified member, subject to the following proviso, namely, that the making of such appointment or filling up of such vacancy shall not confer upon Her Majesty any power of filling up any subsequent vacancy, unless the person or body of persons aforesaid empowered by this Statute to fill up such vacancy have failed to do so within three months after the vacancy has occurred.

Power of the Master of Sutton's Hospital if elected a Member of the Governing Body.

If at any time the Master of Sutton's Hospital in Charterhouse be elected a member of the Governing Body he shall have, with respect to Charterhouse School, the same powers as any other member of the Governing Body and no other powers, any Statute or Charter to the contrary notwithstanding.

Mode of summoning First Meeting.

5. The first meeting of the Governing Body shall be summoned by the Archbishop of Canterbury, and shall be held in London.

Mode of summoning Subsequent Meetings.

Subsequent meetings shall be summoned at such times and places (the places being in the School or in London) as the Governing Body may determine.

Non-attendance of Members.

6. If any member be absent from every meeting of the Governing Body during the space of two years he shall, ipso facto, cease to be a member.

Quorum.

7. No business shall be transacted at any meeting of the Governing Body unless five members at least be present.

Chairman at Meetings.

At the first meeting of the Governing Body held after the approval of this Statute by Her Majesty in Council, and at the first meeting held by them in every subsequent year, the members of the Governing Body present at such meeting shall choose one of their body to act as Chairman of the Governing Body for the year then current, and shall also, if they think fit, choose another member to act as Deputy Chairman for the same period.

If the Chairman or Deputy Chairman die or cease to be a member of the Governing Body during his period of office, the members present at the next meeting held after the occurrence of such vacancy shall choose some other member to fill the vacancy, and the member so chosen shall hold office so long as the person in whose place he is chosen would have held the same.

If at any meeting neither the Chairman nor Deputy Chairman of the Governing Body be present, the members present shall choose some one of their number to be Chairman at such meeting.

In case of an equality of votes at any meeting, the Chairman of the meeting shall have a second or casting vote.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

(No. 105.)—NORWAY—WEST COAST.

Fixed Light near Ronglevär.

THE Norwegian Government has given notice, that on the 26th September next, a light will be established on the small islet Bratholm, near Ronglevär, on the west coast of Norway.

The light will be a fixed light, illuminating an arc from seaward between the bearings of East round by north and west to South; but in order to mark the southern channel entrance a red sector of light will be seen from seaward between the bearings of N. $\frac{3}{4}$ E. and N.N.E.

The light, which is of the sixth order and 53 feet above the sea, will be visible in clear weather from a distance of 8 to 10 miles, and will be lighted from the 15th July to the following 15th May.

The approximate position of the lighthouse is in lat. 60° 18' N., long. 4° 48' East of Greenwich.

ULVE SOUND.

Fixed Light at Hjertnesstrand.

Also, that on the above date a fixed white light will be established on the north point of Hjertnesstrand, on the eastern side of Ulve Sound.

The light, which is of the sixth order and 58 feet above the sea, will be visible in clear weather from a distance of 8 to 10 miles, and will be lighted from the 1st August to the following 15th May.

The approximate position of the lighthouse is in lat. 61° 59' N., long. 5° 10' East.

Fixed and Flashing Light on Wolf Trap Shoal.

THE United States Government has given notice, that on the 1st October, 1870, a light was exhibited from the screw-pile lighthouse, recently erected in 12 feet at low-water springs on Wolf Trap Shoal, Chesapeake Bay, and that the temporary light marking the shoal is discontinued.

From the lighthouse, the iron work of whose foundation is painted red and superstructure lead colour, at an elevation of 36 feet above high water, is exhibited a fixed white light, of the fourth order, varied by a bright flash every thirty seconds, and visible in clear weather from a distance of 11 miles.

During foggy or thick weather a fog bell will be sounded by machinery, at uniform intervals of ten seconds, from the eastern side of the lighthouse.

From the lighthouse, Stringray Point lighthouse bears N. by W. $\frac{3}{4}$ W. about 10 $\frac{1}{2}$ miles, and New Point Comfort lighthouse S.W. $\frac{1}{4}$ S.

DIRECTIONS.—Vessels drawing over 25 feet water should not approach the lighthouse on the eastern side nearer than half a mile. Vessels drawing not more than 18 feet water may approach the lighthouse on the north and south sides within 1 $\frac{1}{2}$ miles; and those drawing over 6 feet should not attempt to pass between the lighthouse and the main land.

In the Matter of "The Gas and Water Works Facilities Act, 1870."

Powers to construct Waterworks for supply of and to supply Burgess Hill and St. John's Common, Sussex, with Water, and to take Rates.

NOTICE is hereby given, that it is the intention of the Burgess Hill and St. John's Common Water Company Limited to apply to the Board of Trade for a Provisional Order in pursuance of "The Gas and Water Works Facilities Act, 1870."

1. For power to construct and maintain waterworks and works connected therewith, and to supply water in the districts of Burgess Hill and St. John's Common, and other places in the parishes of Ditchling, Keymer, and Clayton, in the county of Sussex, for power to acquire lands by agreement for the purposes of the Company, and to demand and take rates in respect of the water supplied.

2. It is intended to apply for power, in the Provisional Order, to sink a well and construct works and reservoir in the valley known as the "Coombe," in the parish of Ditchling, and to lay water mains and pipes, and to fix hydrants in the portion of the public road leading from the toll gate on the Ditchling-road, in the parish of Ditchling, to the aforesaid "Coombe."

To lay water mains and pipes, and to fix hydrants in the aforesaid road from the north boundary of Ditchling parish, thence by the public road leading by the Newland Farm House, Ockley Farm House, Broad-street Farm House, Burgess-hill, and Station-road, to the London-road, up to the boundary dividing Keymer and Clayton parishes at the last-named point, also branch mains, pipes, and hydrants, in the main road from Keymer-street to Ditchling, to the boundary of Keymer parish in the said road, and in the main road leading from Keymer to Hassock's Gate Station, to the west boundary of the premises known as the "Oaklands," in the occupation of W. Bridgen, Esq., the whole of which roads are in the parish of Keymer.

Also to lay water mains, pipes, and hydrants in the London-road, south of the west end of Station-road, to a distance of 450 yards, and on the north of the west end of Station-road, to a distance of about 500 yards, which two distances and road lie in the parish of Clayton, and form the northern boundary of Clayton parish in the London-road at the last-named distance; also in the road running west to a distance of about 110 yards south of Royal George Inn, and in length about 550 yards; also in the road running west from the London-road by the Royal George Inn to a distance of 550 yards from the said inn; also in the road running north and south between the last-named road and the road known as West-street; and also in the road known as West-street from the boundary of Clayton and Keymer parishes, which is about 45 yards at the east end from the London-road, and from thence to a distance of 450 yards westward under a portion of Fairfield-road, the whole of which distances and roads lie in the parish of Clayton.

And also to lay water mains and pipes, and fix hydrants in the following roads, which are wholly in the parish of Keymer.

In the London-road, from the north boundary of Clayton to a distance 250 yards north of the west end of Lye-lane and portion of Fairfield-road, also to the east end of Lye-lane to meet Cant's-lane, and thence to Burgess Hill.

Also in all roads lying and being bounded by Lye-lane on the north, Cant's-lane on the east, Station-road on the south, and the London-road on the west; also the road running north from Lye-lane to the houses known as "Gander's Cottages."

The names of the parishes in which the proposed works will be made are Ditchling, Keymer, and Clayton, all in the county of Sussex.

On or before the 30th day of November, 1870, a copy of this advertisement and a plan and section of the proposed works will be deposited for public inspection in the office of the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Sussex, situate at Lewes, in the said county, and also at the office of the Board of Trade.

Printed copies of the Draft Provisional Order, when deposited, with the Board of Trade, and of the Provisional Order, when made, will be obtainable at Clifton Cottage, St. John's-common, in the parish of Clayton, in the county of Sussex.

Dated this seventeenth day of October, 1870.
